

If a house was ready furnished. Mr Clark acquiesced, and determined to go to the Mediterranean, as from active service alone could he expect promotion he accordingly sailed for that station, but by the Providence of God he was detained, Susan has related the circumstances to you. Disappointed in his views, he returned to Boston, having obtained an appointment to the cravy yard in Charleston -

Your infirm state of health made Susan very desirous of visiting you, and Mr Clark wished to accompany her - your opinion with regard to the impropriety of it, has decided them -

I am rejoiced to hear that your health, is better. My love to Mr and Mrs Johnson from your affectionate Mother.

Abigail Adams -
