

grave, a Trumbull's pencil shall again revise them, and make them live fresh in the memory of a gratefull posterity, till universal nature sleeps. I wish you would send your Oration I am sorry you have lost flesh by it. by the accounts I have had of it, but not from Emerson it did you much honor Pray write to me often. if but a page or so. Fear you will hardly be able to read this I have been very careful about it - but excuse you brother who loves you to all eternity -

Charles Adams

P.S. As to the letter to Fisher God only knows how it came enclosed. I never wrote a word to him in my life Pray explain that matter. I would also hint to you that you are very unintelligible in some parts of your last letter.
