Having dedicated by permission the Commercial Dictionary to the late Lord Ellenborough, the Law of Bankruptcy to Lord Ellenborough, and the Fiduciary Compendium to the late Chief Justice Selkirk, I am ambitious and beg to have the honor of adding the name of a Judge of equal knowledge and ability at the head of a Treatise on Commercial Law.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

[Date: March 18, 1820]

With this liberty, I beg to know if you will confer the honor of perusing a Treatise on Commercial Law.

[Signature]

[Name]