= to have them exchanged in Albany, as other glasses might be substituted which would not be of the value of twenty five Cents - Whereas, these pebbles alone cost in London, Twenty Shillings Sterling. —

I have mentioned this fact, merely to guard you against the imposition sometimes practized by Jewellers.

I am desired by my Beloved Mrs Graham, to request of you, the favor of presenting in her Name, to Mrs Savage, this pair of Spectacles, as a small token of her love, Esteem, and friendship.

We Ardently Pray to God, in our daily prayers, is, that You, and your Amiable family, may long enjoy health and happiness in this world; And in the world to come life Everlasting.

My dearly Beloved Son Lieut. Graham and my beloved Daughter, and all of the house of Graham, send love, and greetings.

I am - Dear Sir

Your Ever faithful & Affectionate

John A. Graham.

Hon: J: Savage —
