To the Honorable the Judges of the Supreme Court of the State of New York:

In consequence of the death of Major James Fairlie, a vacancy has been made of one of your court. The undersigned, would most respectfully, recommend for that situation, William Seaman of this city, and one of the Attorneys of the Supreme Court. Mr. Seaman has long been a resident of the city and we do not hesitate to say his appointment would be acceptable to the public generally.

New York, 11th October 1736.
