Dear Gary:

Thank you for another stimulating meeting in Colorado Springs. Tom and I are grateful that Shepard's is continuing its corporate sponsorship of the LII, and we look forward to working with Shepard's along the lines we discussed on Tuesday. We'll respond very promptly as soon as we receive your more specific proposal.

My expenses for the trip out came to $765.56 - broken down as follows: $379.00 (airfare), $238.66 (Marriott), $7.90 (meals), $54 (airport transportation NYC), and $86 (taxi in Colorado Springs). That amount should be directly reimbursed to me. (Tom will also submit his directly.)

The check for $5,000 reflecting Shepard's sponsorship of the LII for 1996, made payable to Cornell University, should be sent to:
