

The 2008 Cornell Real Estate Conference

Stephen J. Furnary, Chairman & CEO of ING Clarion, delivers the keynote address during the 26th annual Cornell Real Estate conference in fall 2008.

The 26th annual Cornell Real Estate Conference was held September 25-26, 2008 in Ithaca, NY. The conference features a real estate employer showcase, jobs reports, real estate industry insights from leading names in the business, and connections.

The 26th annual conference was held on September 26-27, 2008 in Ithaca, New York featuring key note speaker Stephen J. Furnary, Chairman & CEO of ING Clarion

The opportunity for real estate employment professionals to share with conference attendees and oneanother is a hallmark of the Cornell Real Estate Conference. L-R David Smith (VP Human Resources for Ivanhoe Cambridge), David Jacobstein (Senior Advisor, Real Estate at Deloitte LLP), Mary Fricke (Manager Talent Sourcing & Staffing at GE Real Estate), and Dan Stravinski (SVP - Human Resources at the Berkshire Group) share their approaches to hiring for real estate positions during the 2008 fall conference.

Cornell University President David Skorton shares a thought with conference attendees.

Cornell Real Estate Advisory Board members meet prior to each fall's Conference to provide guidance to the Cornell Program in Real Estate.

Conference Highlights

Alumni and Cornell Real Estate Council members reconnect.

The Cornell Real Estate conference provides current students the opportunity to talk with senior industry leaders in an informal setting.

Real Estate Council members and faculty together hear from panelists.

Andrea Foertsch, coordinator of the 2008 Conference, welcomes attendees.

