

THE HONORABLE ROBERT S. LASNIK

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY
COMMISSION,

Plaintiff,

v.

THE HERSHEY COMPANY,

Defendant.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:17-cv-1092RSL

~~PROPOSED~~ CONSENT DECREE

I. INTRODUCTION

1. This action originated when Kristina Williams (“Ms. Williams”) filed a charge of discrimination dated October 8, 2015 with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (“EEOC” or “Commission”). Ms. Williams alleged that The Hershey Company (“Defendant” or “Hershey”) discriminated against her when it denied her a reasonable accommodation of her disability for her part-time Retail Sales Merchandiser (“RSM”) position in May 2015, did not allow her to return to work, and then discharged her on August 19, 2015.

2. On May 11, 2017, the EEOC issued a Letter of Determination with a finding of reasonable cause to believe that Defendant violated the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990,

1 as amended (ADA), when it did not accommodate Ms. Williams starting on May 19, 2015, and
2 when Defendant discharged her on August 19, 2015. Thereafter, EEOC attempted to conciliate
3 the charge. However, conciliation was unsuccessful.

4 3. The Commission filed its Complaint on July 19, 2017, in the United States
5 District Court for the Western District of Washington. The Complaint alleges that Defendant
6 discriminated against Ms. Williams, a qualified individual with a physical disability, when it: (a)
7 denied her a reasonable accommodation of her disability (herniated L4/L5 lumbar discs) by not
8 providing an adjustment of her break time or work modification for her part-time Retail Sales
9 Merchandiser position during the period May 20, 2015 to August 19, 2015 (“reasonable
10 accommodation”); and (b) terminated her from her part-time RSM job on August 19, 2015. The 11 EEOC sought monetary and non-monetary relief for Ms. Williams.

13 4. Defendant does not admit that it has violated any federal, state or local law, and 14 this Consent Decree shall not be deemed an admission or adjudication of liability. However, in 15 acknowledgement of the costs and risks associated with continued litigation faced by both sides,
16 the parties want to conclude fully and finally all claims arising out of the EEOC’s Complaint and 17 Ms. Williams’s charge of discrimination filed with EEOC. The EEOC and Hershey enter into 18 this Consent Decree to further the objectives of equal employment opportunity in the ADA.

21 II. SETTLEMENT SCOPE

22 5. This Consent Decree is the final and complete resolution of all allegations of 23 unlawful employment practices contained in Ms. Williams’s discrimination charge, in the
25

1 EEOC's administrative determination, and in the EEOC's Complaint filed herein, including all
2 claims by the EEOC and Hershey for attorney fees and costs.

3 6. No waiver, modification or amendment of any provision of this Consent Decree
4 shall be effective unless made in writing and approved by the Parties to this Decree, and any
5 substantive change, modification or amendment of any provision of this Consent Decree shall
6 also require approval by the Court.

9 III. MONETARY RELIEF

10 7. In settlement of this lawsuit, Hershey agrees to pay Ms. Williams the total amount
11 of $25,000.00 within ten (10) business days of the date of entry of this Consent Decree by 12 delivering the following to Ms. Williams's home address by certified mail with proof of 13 delivery:

14 a. A check in the amount of $4,205.00 which constitutes back pay for Ms.
15 Williams. The check shall be reduced by any applicable deductions for the employee's
16 portion of FICA and applicable federal and applicable state income tax withholdings
17 related to the payment of wages. Hershey shall pay the employer's portion of FICA.
18 Hershey shall include a statement of payments and deductions; and 19

20 b. A separate check in the amount of $20,795.00 as compensatory damages
21 payable to Ms. Williams. Hershey will issue Ms. Williams an IRS form 1099 for this 22 payment.
23
24
25

1 c. Hershey shall transmit a copy of any checks made payable to Ms. Williams,
2 together with an accounting of employee deductions and employer contributions made, to
3 the EEOC at the same time that payment is made to Ms. Williams as described above to:

5 U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission
6 Seattle Field Office
7 909 First Avenue, Ste. 400
8 Seattle, WA 98104

8 8. Hershey will not condition the receipt of monetary relief by requiring Ms.
9 Williams to: (a) maintain as confidential the facts and/or allegations underlying her charge, the
10 EEOC's Complaint and the terms of this Decree; (b) waive her statutory right to file a future
11 charge with any government agency; (c) agree to a non-disparagement and/or confidentiality
12 agreement; or (d) release any claims beyond the ADA claims at issue in this action and which 13 this Consent Decree resolves.

NOTICE TO EMPLOYEES

This notice has been e-mailed to you as part of a settlement approved by the federal district court for the Western District of Washington, Case No. 2:17-cv-1092 RSL, resolving a lawsuit brought by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) on behalf of a former employee against The Hershey Company (the "Lawsuit"), in which the EEOC asserted claims of disability discrimination under the Americans With Disabilities Act (ADA). The Hershey Company denies violating the ADA or any federal, state, or local law, and believes its actions were consistent with its obligations under the ADA. However, in acknowledgement of the costs and risks associated with continued litigation faced by both sides, the parties agreed to fully and finally settle all claims in the Lawsuit. The EEOC and Hershey agree to provide this Notice to further the objectives of equal employment opportunity in the ADA.

Federal law prohibit discrimination against any individual because of his or her disability. These protections extend to employees who request reasonable accommodation. The Hershey Company has anti-discrimination policies that tell employees how to make a reasonable accommodation request. The policies explain what factors The Hershey Company will consider in approving or denying a reasonable accommodation request, the information an employee must submit to support the request, and the time frame for approval or denial. With these policies, The Hershey Company is committed to a meaningful interactive process for all employees who request an ADA reasonable accommodation.

Federal law also prohibits retaliation against any individual by an employer because the individual complains of discrimination, cooperates with any company or Government Investigation of a charge of discrimination, participates as a witness or potential witness in any investigation or legal proceeding, or otherwise exercises his or her rights under the law.

For any complaints of disability discrimination, you should contact the Employee Relations department using the Concern Line at 1.800.362.8321.

Employees also have the right to bring complaints of disability discrimination to the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Seattle District Office at 909 1st Avenue, Suite 400, Seattle, WA 98104-1061, 206.220.6884, 1.800.669.4000.
