EXHIBIT "B"

Sexual Harassment

OCS Security will not tolerate Sexual Harassment of any kind. Sexual Harassment is defined as a continued pattern of unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, or physical contact of a sexual nature any of the following conditions:

1. When submission to the conduct involves a condition of the individual's employment, either stated or suggested.
2. The individual's submission or refusal is used, or might be used, as the basis of an employment decision that affects the individual.
3. The conduct unreasonably interferes with the individual's job performance, or creates a work environment that is hostile, intimidating or offensive.

The President is responsible for managing all complaints of sexual harassment and for ensuring that all complaints are investigated fully and fairly, regardless of the manner in which they are made, or the individuals involved.

Employees are encouraged to take complaints of sexual harassment to their immediate supervisor, the Director or Human Resources at 212-398-3527 or the President at 212-277-9601. A female company representative will be made available, should the complaining employee indicate such a preference.

A management investigator designated by the President will thoroughly and fairly investigate every complaint, without bias or premature judgment. Such an investigation will include interviews with the employee involved, the subject of the complaint, and coworkers and former employees who may have knowledge of the situation. The investigator will conduct a thorough review of the files and other tangible evidence, and should be given all necessary access privileges for this purpose. The investigator will make every reasonable attempt to rationally and objectionably resolve any questions of credibility between the complaining and the accused employee.

The President will review every case, including the investigator's findings and recommendations. The President will ensure that the complaint has been fully and impartially investigated. If the evidence supports the allegation of harassment, the President will implement appropriate disciplinary action against the offending employee.

If you are aware of or become aware of any conduct that may constitute sexual harassment, you are obligated to report it to the Director of Human Resources or the President.

EXHIBIT "C"

It is the policy of OCS Security to ensure the treatment of all employees and applicants for employment without unlawful discrimination as to race, color, creed, national origin, sex, disability, age marital status, sexual orientation, citizenship status, or veteran status. This will be used in all employment decisions, including, but not limited to, recruitment, hiring, job, assignment, compensation, benefits, training, promotion, demotion, layoff, termination, working conditions, and all other terms and conditions of employment.

In keeping with this standard, we ask that each of you be a partner in the effort by supporting, in word and in action, the principles of our EEO commitment. If you are or become aware of any conduct or activity that may violate the letter or spirit of this policy, you are obligated to report it to the Director of Human Resources or the President.
