NOTICE

EEOC enforces Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII), which prohibits employment discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex (including sexual harassment), or national origin; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; the Equal Pay Act; sections of the Civil Rights Act of 1991; and Title I of the Americans With Disabilities Act, which prohibits discrimination against people with disabilities. Hollywood 20 supports these Federal laws in all respects.

Three former employees of ours filed charges with EEOC complaining that they had been sexually harassed by their managers and a co-worker. We have denied those claims. EEOC filed a lawsuit against us based on the charges.

The lawsuit has now been concluded. We do not now or ever wanted any employee to feel they have been harassed. We have trained our managers about their responsibilities not to harass employees, to report all complaints about harassment, to respond quickly, effectively, and fairly whenever harassment is found to have occurred, and not to retaliate against employees who complain. We have a harassment policy, and all of you have seen it and signed it. We will not tolerate harassment of anyone in the workplace. It is your responsibility to help us make sure no harassment occurs, and, if it does, that it is reported.

Deepak Keshani, Chief Manager
Ajay Theaters LLC d/b/a Hollywood 20 Cinema
