IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF ARIZONA

Equal Employment Opportunity Commission

Plaintiff,

vs.

Rayna Enterprises, Inc. d/b/a Arriba
Mexican Grill, an Arizona corporation

Defendant.

CIV 04-2056 PHX MHM

CONSENT DECREE

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC" or "Commission") filed this action against Rayna Enterprises ("Rayna" or "Defendant") on October 4, 2004, in this Court, to enforce Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, 42 U.S.C. §2000e et seq. (Title VII) and the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. §1981a. In the Complaint, the Commission alleged that Rayna discriminated against and harassed Marylillian Aragon and a class of similarly situated women on the basis of sex, female, constructively discharged the class of women, and retaliated against Ms. Aragon after she complained about the discrimination, in violation of Title VII.

Rayna denies all allegations raised in the complaint, nor does anything in this decree constitute an admission of liability on the part of Rayna.

The Parties do not object to the jurisdiction of the Court over this action and waive their rights to a hearing and the entry of findings of fact and conclusions of law. The parties agree that this Consent Decree is fair, reasonable, and equitable

1 and does not violate the law or public policy.

2 In the interest of resolving this matter, and as a result of having engaged in
3 comprehensive settlement negotiations, the Commission and Rayna have agreed
4 that this action should be finally resolved by entry of this Consent Decree.

5 It is ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

6 1. This Decree resolves all claims arising out of the issues between the 7 Commission and Defendant Rayna in this lawsuit, including without limitation, back
8 pay, compensatory and punitive damages, injunctive relief, costs, and attorney fees.

9 2. Defendant and its officers, agents, employees, successors, and assigns
10 both at the time that this Decree becomes effective and for the duration of this 11 Decree agree to comply with Federal law and agree not to : (a) discriminate against 12 any employee on the basis of sex, (b) harass any employee based on sex; (c)
13 retaliate against any employee because he or she: (i) opposes or opposed 14 discriminatory practices made unlawful by Title VII; (ii) files or filed a charge of 15 discrimination or assists, assisted, participates, or participated in the filing of a 16 charge of discrimination; or (iii) assists, assisted, participates or participated in an 17 investigation or proceeding brought under the federal or state laws prohibiting 18 discrimination or retaliation; and (d) alter the terms and conditions of any employee's
19 employment because of sex to the extent required by Federal law.

20 MONETARY RELIEF

21 3. Rayna Enterprises shall pay, by check or money order, the total amount 22 of $ 65,000 within seven (7) days from the date of the entry of this Decree, to be 23 distributed to Maryillian Aragon, Immy Arnal, Laura Hulcher and Michelle Deal as 24 articulated in Attachment A. Rayna will not condition the receipt of individual relief 25 on Mss. Aragon's, Arnal's, Hulcher's or Deal's agreements to (a) maintain as 26 confidential the terms of this Decree, or (b) waive their statutory rights to file a 27 charge with any federal or state anti-discrimination agency. Rayna will issue
28 applicable United States Internal Revenue Service Forms to Mss. Aragon, Arnal, Hulcher and Deal for all such payments on or before January 31, 2006.

1 subjected to this misconduct; and (5) that managers will be evaluated on their 2 enforcement of Rayna's anti-discrimination policies. Training will also include an 3 explanation of Rayna's policies regarding sex-based discrimination, harassment and 4 retaliation; the importance of maintaining an environment free from harassment; and 5 the discipline that may be taken against any employee found to have harassed or 6 retaliated against other employees and the managers or supervisors who are found
7 to have allowed the harassment or retaliation to occur.

8 a. Defendant will arrange and be financially responsible for a 9 consultant/lecturer(s), who will provide consultation and a training session for all of 10 its employees in Arizona. The training session(s) shall be provided by the 11 consultant/lecturer(s). Defendant shall obtain the EEOC's approval of the consultant 12 by providing the name and resume of the consultant at least sixty days prior to the 13 first training session. Defendant may videotape the session for those employees 14 who cannot attend the live session.

15 b. During the live training session(s), Defendant's President will 16 speak to the employees about the discipline that can be taken against supervisors, 17 managers and employees who commit acts of discrimination, harassment or 18 retaliation or allow discrimination, harassment or retaliation to occur in the 19 workplace; the importance of maintaining an environment free of discrimination; and 20 Defendant's anti-discrimination policies.

21 c. The seminar training session shall be at least three (3) hours in 22 length, including thirty (30) minutes for questions and answers. All of Defendant's
23 employees, including managers, shall register for and attend the seminar session.
24 Employees who are unable to attend the session may watch a videotape of it.

25 d. Employees shall sign a registry when they attend the training or 26 watch the videotape. Defendant shall keep, for the duration of the Decree, this 27 written record of all employees who attend the training or watch it on video.

28 e. The first seminar training session shall be held within four months of the Consent Decree being entered.

1 f. Rayna will also provide a one-hour training session, to Rayna's
2 managers and supervisors within six (6) months of the execution of this Agreement
3 which shall discuss sex-based discrimination, harassment and retaliation. Rayna will 4 notify the Commission when this training session has been completed. Defendant
5 shall obtain the EEOC's approval of the consultant by providing the name and 6 resume of the expert at least sixty days prior to the first training session.

7 8. Within thirty days of the entry of this Decree, Defendant will review and 8 revise its written policies concerning discrimination and retaliation to conform with 9 the law. Defendant's written policies must include, at a minimum:

- 10 a. A clear and strong commitment to a workplace free of sex-based 11 discrimination, harassment and retaliation;
- 12 b. A clear and strong message of encouragement to persons who 13 believe they have been discriminated against to come forward;
- 14 c. A description of the consequences, up to and including 15 termination, that will be imposed upon violators of the policy;
- 16 d. An assurance of non-retaliation for persons who believe they 17 have been discriminated against and for witnesses;
- 18 e. That discrimination on the basis of sex by anyone, including 19 management officials, supervisors, vendors, suppliers, third
20 parties and customers, is prohibited and will not be tolerated;
- 21 f. The identification of specific alternative individuals, including 22 managers with their telephone numbers, to whom employees
23 who have been subjected to sex-based discrimination,
24 harassment or retaliation can report the discrimination and who 25 have the authority to investigate allegations of discrimination in 26 a neutral and confidential manner;
- 27 g. A written statement that an employee may report the harassment 28 to a designated person outside of his or her chain of management should the employee prefer to do so;

- h. Assurances that Defendant will investigate allegations of sex-based discrimination, harassment and retaliation promptly, fairly, reasonably, effectively and as confidentially as possible under the circumstances, by appropriate investigators and that appropriate corrective action and appropriate follow-up will be taken by Defendant to make victims whole and to eradicate the discrimination; and
- i. Information regarding the employee's right to file a charge of discrimination with the EEOC, including contact telephone numbers, TDY/TDD and addresses for the EEOC.

9 These policies shall be posted in a prominent location, frequented by employees, at each of Defendant's restaurants in Arizona. These policies shall also be distributed to each current employee within thirty days of the entry of the Decree, and distributed to all new employees when hired.

10 Defendant shall promptly and appropriately investigate all complaints of sex-based discrimination, harassment or retaliation. The investigation must include a finding of whether discrimination occurred; a credibility assessment; interviews of all potential victims and witnesses identified; and concurrent notes of the investigation. Defendant shall take immediate appropriate corrective action to make discrimination victims whole, to discipline violators, and to eradicate the discrimination. Defendant shall follow up with complainants at appropriate intervals to ensure that the harassment, discrimination or retaliation does not reoccur.

APOLOGY

11 Within fourteen (14) days of the entry of the Decree, Defendant's President shall prepare and mail a letter of apology to Mss. Aragon, Arnal, Hulcher and Deal, as attached as Attachment B.

NOTICE

12 Defendant will post the Notice attached as Attachment C at each of Defendant's restaurants in Arizona. The Notice will be posted in an appropriate

1 place frequented by employees, for the duration of this Decree. The Notice, which
2 shall be posted in both English and Spanish, shall be the same type, size, and style
3 as Attachment C.

4 REPORTING BY DEFENDANT AND ACCESS BY EEOC

5 13 In addition to the reporting specified throughout the Decree above,
6 Defendant shall report in writing and in affidavit form to the Regional Attorney of 7 the Commission's Phoenix District Office at 3300 N. Central Ave., Suite 690,
8 Phoenix, Arizona 85012, beginning six months from the date of the entry of this
9 Decree, and thereafter every six months for the duration of the Decree
10 confirmation that: (i) the Notice required in paragraph 12 of this Decree was 11 posted and the location(s) where it was posted; (ii) the policies required in 12 paragraph 9 were distributed to each current and new employee and posted; and 13 (III) the apology required in paragraph 11 was sent to Mss. Aragon, Arnal, 14 Hulcher and Deal.

15 14. The parties shall bear their own attorneys' fees and costs incurred in 16 this action up to the date of entry of this Decree.

17 FORCE AND EFFECT

18 15. The duration of this Decree shall be thirty-six (36) months from its 19 entry. This Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action for the duration of the 20 Decree, during which the Commission may petition this Court for compliance with 21 this Decree. Should the Court determine that defendant has not complied with 22 this Decree, appropriate relief, including extension of this Decree for such period
23 as may be necessary to remedy its non-compliance, may be ordered. Absent 24 extension, this Decree shall expire by its own terms at the end of 36 months from the date of entry, without further action by the Parties.

25 16. The parties agree to the entry of this Decree subject to final approval
26 by the Court.

[Rayna Letterhead]

[address]:

As you are aware, a lawsuit was filed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission against Rayna Enterprises on September 30, 2004, alleging that it discriminated against a number of employees by subjecting them to sexual harassment and retaliating against one employee when she complained.

Please accept my sincere apology on behalf of Rayna Enterprises and its management team for any failure in our efforts to maintain a workplace free of sexual harassment and retaliation. We are committed to creating and maintaining an environment where no employee must endure harassment based on his or her sex, or suffer retaliation for bringing grievances to our attention. Please be assured that we are investigating our policies and procedures with regard to sexual harassment and retaliation and will correct any and all deficiencies.

Sincerely,

Raymond Perry
President, Rayna Enterprises

ATTACHMENT C

NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYEES OF RAYNA ENTERPRISES

It is unlawful under federal law, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act and state law to discriminate against an employee on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment, in the recruitment, hiring, firing, compensation, assignment, or other terms, and conditions or privileges of employment. Sexual harassment includes unwelcome or offensive sexual advances or touching, requests for sexual favors, or other verbal or physical conduct directed at a person because of her/his sex. It is also unlawful to retaliate against any person because the person protested discriminatory practices or contacted the EEOC or the Arizona Civil Rights Division (ACRD).

Rayna shall not discriminate against any employee on the basis of sex, including sexual harassment, and shall not retaliate against any employee for complaining about sexual discrimination or harassment.

If you believe you have been discriminated against or sexually harassed Rayna encourages you to report any concerns of harassment, discrimination or retaliation to any management official.

You also have a right to seek assistance from:

- (1) EEOC
3300 North Central Ave., Suite 690
Phoenix, Arizona 85012
Telephone: (602) 640-5000
TTY: (602) 640-5072
Website (national): www.eeoc.gov; or

(2) Arizona Civil Rights Division (ACRD)
Attorney General's Office
1275 W. Washington
Phoenix, Arizona, 85007
(602) 255-5263.

You have the right to file a charge with the EEOC or ACRD if you believe you are being discriminated against, retaliated against or sexually harassed.

No Retaliation Clause. It is against the law for any action to be taken against you by any supervisory or management official of Rayna for: (1) opposing sexual harassment or other discriminatory practices made unlawful by federal or state law; (2) filing a charge or assisting or participating in the filing of a charge of discrimination; or (3) assisting or participating in an investigation or proceeding brought under Title VII. Should any such retaliatory actions be taken against you, you should immediately contact the EEOC or the ACRD at the addresses or telephone numbers listed above.
