INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (hereinafter the “Commission” or “EEOC”) has filed a Complaint captioned EEOC v. The Work Connection, alleging that Defendant The Work Connection (“The Work Connection”), a temporary employment agency, discriminated against the Charging Parties because of their religion, Islam, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. It also alleges that The Work Connection discriminated against a class of Muslim applicants to The Work Connection’s operations in Cold Spring, Minnesota and Arcadia, Wisconsin by failing to provide reasonable accommodation for their sincerely held religious beliefs in assignment of these individuals to its client, Gold’n Plump Poultry, Inc., adopting and/or subscribing to placement criteria that barred persons from obtaining reasonable accommodations from its client, Gold’n Plump, and refusing to place employees at Gold’n Plump unless the employee agreed to sign a form acknowledging that he or she agreed to handle pork pursuant to Gold’n Plump’s direction that all persons placed by The Work Connection at its facilities must be able to handle products containing pork.

Charging Parties, some of whom were separately represented by counsel in independently filed litigation, Aware Daud, et al. v. Gold’n Plump, Inc. and The Work Connection, Inc., Court

File No. 06-5013 (DSD/JJG), (the Plaintiff's litigation) have negotiated terms of a separate Consent Decree, which is being submitted for Court approval concurrently with this settlement agreement.

In reaching this Consent Decree, the EEOC and The Work Connection, acting by and through their counsel, engaged in a significant exchange of information, both during the investigation of the charges by the EEOC and during the process of negotiating this resolution. The parties have obtained sufficient information to assess reliably the relative merits of the claims and defenses.

All parties have participated in the drafting of this Consent Decree. The EEOC and The Work Connection were represented by counsel knowledgeable in this area of the law.

The EEOC and The Work Connection mutually agreed to submit to mediation in an effort to resolve this matter. Under the supervision of the Mediator, the negotiations were conducted at arms' length and without collusion. All parties were represented by counsel during these proceedings. The mediation discussions culminated in this Decree.

THEREFORE, upon the consent of the parties, and upon review by the Court of these terms, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the following terms are given approval, subject to a notice to the claimants and a hearing upon the fairness of this proposed Consent Decree as set forth herein:
