brought by the EEOC or Ms. Rivelli in this litigation.

ATTACHMENT A

NOTICE

Denver Hotel Management Company ("DHMC") emphasizes the company's fundamental policy of providing equal employment opportunity in all of its operation and in all areas of employment practices, and to ensure that there shall be no discrimination against any employee or applicant for employment on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, national origin, age or disability. This policy extends to insurance benefits and all other terms, conditions and privileges of employment.

Pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, it is unlawful for an employer to discriminate based upon the gender of an employee or job applicant. Discriminating against an individual because of his or her status as a caregiver of children or other family members can constitute illegal gender discrimination. Further, it is unlawful for any employer to retaliate against an employee because he or she has opposed discriminatory employment practices or because he or she has filed a charge of discrimination with any municipal, state or federal equal employment opportunity agency, or because he or she has participated in an investigation of a charge of discrimination.

DHMC respects the right of its employees and applicants for employment to work in an environment free from discrimination. Accordingly, the company reaffirms its commitment to complying with the strictures of Title VII, in that it is our policy to prohibit all discrimination in terms of hiring, promotion, compensation, benefits, discharge or discipline because of race or color.

Any employee who believes that he/she has suffered discrimination on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, pregnancy, national origin, or disability, has the right to contact the EEOC directly at 1-800-669-4000. In compliance with federal law, no official at DHMC will retaliate against an employee who makes an internal complaint of discrimination or who contacts the EEOC or its state counterpart.
