GORICHS CORPORATION, as

Defendants.

INTRODUCTION

The U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") has filed a Complaint captioned EEOC v. Missoula Mac, Inc. d/b/a McDonald's Restaurants, Case No. 3:11-cv-00267-bbc, alleging that Missoula Mac, Inc. ("MMI") discriminated against Plaintiff-Intervenors MyLinda Brown, Lori Dunse, and Samantha Gay and a class of other women (collectively "Claimants") by subjecting them to unlawful employment practices on the basis of sex (female) including sexual harassment, constructive discharge, and retaliation in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended. The EEOC then filed a First Amended Complaint adding Gorichs Corporation as a defendant for injunctive relief purposes.

In agreeing to the terms of this Consent Decree, the EEOC, MMI, and Plaintiff-Intervenors, acting by and through their counsel, engaged in arms' length negotiations and a significant exchange of information. The parties have obtained enough information to assess reliably the relative merits of the claims and defenses. Throughout this process, counsel knowledgeable in this area of the law represented the EEOC and MMI, respectively.

THEREFORE, upon the parties' consent and its own review, the Court APPROVES these terms:

I. JURISDICTION, FINDINGS, AND DEFINITIONS

A. Jurisdiction

1. This Court has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this action.
2. The Court shall retain jurisdiction over this action throughout the duration of this Decree for purposes of entering all orders, judgments, and decrees that may be necessary to implement the relief and enforcing compliance with the terms provided herein.

B. Findings

This Court finds, based on the pleadings, on the record as a whole, and upon the parties' agreement, that: (i) implementing this Decree will carry out the requirements of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, (ii) the terms of this Decree constitute a fair and equitable settlement of all issues raised in the EEOC's Complaint (Docket No. 1) and

First Amended Complaint (Docket No. 65), and (iii) this Decree is intended to and does resolve the Title VII claims contained in the Complaint and First Amended Complaint.

- E. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to preclude the EEOC from bringing suit to enforce this Decree in the event that any party hereto fails to perform the promises and representations contained herein.
- F. This Decree in no way affects the EEOC's right to bring, process, investigate or litigate other charges that may currently be pending before it or may later arise against MMI.

III. DECREE ENFORCEMENT

- A. If the EEOC has reason to believe that MMI has breached this Decree, it may bring a motion to enforce the Decree.
- B. Before so moving, the EEOC will notify MMI and its attorney of record, in writing, of the nature of the dispute and identify the provision(s) it believes MMI breached. Absent a showing by any party that the delay will cause irreparable harm, MMI shall have ten (10) business days from the date of notice (“Dispute Resolution Period”) to try to resolve or cure the breach. The Parties agree to cooperate with each other and use their best efforts to resolve any dispute referenced in the EEOC’s notice.

- C. After the Dispute Resolution Period expires, the EEOC may initiate an enforcement action in this Court, seeking all available relief or remedies.

- C. Within thirty (30) days of receiving the Distribution List, MMI shall forward, via certified mail, a check to each individual in the amount identified on the Distribution List. The monies to be paid to the Plaintiff-Intervenors and Claimants constitute non-wage compensation under Title VII and no tax withholdings shall be made. MMI shall make appropriate reports to the Internal Revenue Service and any other applicable tax authorities. MMI shall be solely responsible for any costs associated with the issuance and distribution of the settlement checks and all appropriate tax reporting forms to each of the Plaintiff-Intervenors and Claimants. - D. Within 3 business days of the issuance of each settlement check, MMI shall submit a copy of each check, related tax form(s) and related correspondence to the EEOC.

- B. MMI, through its officers, agents, management (including any and all employees with supervisory authority), and all those under MMI's control in active concert or participation with them, or any of them, shall not engage in, implement or permit

A. Plaintiff-Intervenor And Claimant-Specific Relief

1. Within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, MMI shall:
 - i. To the extent MMI must keep records of the charges of discrimination or the Plaintiff-Intervenors' or Claimants' involvement in this Action to effectuate this Decree, it shall maintain any such records separately from their personnel files;

- ii. Refrain from providing negative references and limit employment reference inquiries to verifying whether the identified Plaintiff-Intervenor or Claimant was employed by MMI and the time period(s) of such employment;
- iii. Change any and all personnel records reflecting a termination of any Plaintiff-Intervenor or Claimant to a voluntary resignation.

B. Posting And Publication

1. Within ten (10) business days of the Effective Date, MMI shall post Exhibit A (attached hereto), and, for the term of this Decree, cause it to remain posted, at all MMI restaurants in a clearly visible place where employee notices are typically posted.
2. Within twenty-one (21) business days of the Effective Date, President John Orr will publish a statement (to be distributed with paychecks) to all of MMI's employees that MMI will not tolerate sexual harassment and retaliation in the workplace.

C. Creation Of Ombudsperson Position

1. MMI will create an Ombudsperson position responsible for monitoring, soliciting, and resolving complaints relating to the working conditions at MMI's restaurants, specifically complaints of sexual harassment, retaliation, or other discrimination. The Ombudsperson will be responsible for conveying all complaints or concerns to MMI's Vice President Mike Mangin and President John Orr on a monthly basis for the term of this Decree. MMI may, in its discretion, assign additional duties to the Ombudsperson.

2. The Ombudsperson must have training in applicable federal and state antidiscrimination laws, with preference given to candidates who have experience investigating sexual harassment claims in the restaurant industry. MMI will provide a copy of this Consent Decree to the Ombudsperson immediately upon hire. The Ombudsperson, or a delegate of the Ombudsperson, must be able to speak English and Spanish. The Ombudsperson hired pursuant to this Section will initially be Kim Bredeson, MMI's Human Resources Director.

Employees shall be provided notice at least fifteen (15) business days in advance of the Ombudsperson visits and, if the visits coincide with a scheduled work shift, shall be allowed paid time to meet with the Ombudsperson. Employees not scheduled to work during the Ombudsperson's visit shall be permitted to come to the restaurant to meet with the Ombudsperson. Meetings between the Ombudsperson and employees shall be treated as confidential to the extent possible to protect the privacy of the employee and to the extent possible shall be held in a private office. Meetings between the Ombudsperson and employees shall not be supervised or monitored by any member of management.

4. The Ombudsperson's restaurant visits required under this section of the Decree are intended to establish a minimum number of visits. Nothing in this Decree is intended to prevent MMI from requiring the Ombudsperson to visit its restaurants more often.

D. Dedicated Harassment And Retaliation Hotline/E-Mail

1. Within forty (40) business days of the Effective Date, MMI shall establish a sexual harassment/retaliation Hotline telephone number and e-mail address ("the Hotline"). The Hotline shall be dedicated and publicized to MMI's employees solely as a means of reporting sexual harassment or retaliation and shall be maintained in addition to any hotlines existing as of the Effective Date. The Hotline's telephone component shall be toll-free and operational twenty-four (24) hours a day, seven (7) days a week, and its e-mail component shall be maintained on a server accessible to MMI's Human Resources personnel and all e-mails transmitted via this component shall be preserved in such a format as to enable their immediate, complete and native format production for the duration of this Decree. A record of all telephone calls, their subject matter and any relevant information shall be maintained by MMI Human Resources personnel. MMI shall keep the EEOC informed of the identity of the designated member of its Human Resources personnel responsible for such record keeping at all times throughout the duration of this Decree.
2. Every MMI restaurant shall publish the Hotline number and e-mail address on every employee's pay stub, in the employee handbook, in its sexual harassment and retaliation policies, and in a clearly visible place where employee notices are typically posted. Any notice listing the Hotline number and e-mail address shall be immediately preceded by the phrase: "REPORT SEXUAL HARASSMENT OR RETALIATION."

3. MMI shall further notify all management and hourly employees that any reports to the Hotline will be treated confidentially and complaints may be made anonymously and that they will not be subject to retaliation for using the Hotline.

An EEOC representative may attend any such program.

2. Human Resources Personnel

- i. MMI's Human Resources personnel and all persons substantially involved in conducting the investigation of sexual harassment and/or retaliation complaints at MMI's restaurants shall receive the training outlined in Section VI.E.1 plus an additional two (2) hours of training on how to investigate harassment and retaliation complaints effectively ("Investigation Training"). In addition to the general subject matter of investigating harassment and retaliation complaints, Investigation Training shall include: (1) investigating anonymous complaints, (2) identifying sexual harassment and retaliation situations unique to restaurant working environments, and (3) implementing effective corrective measures after an investigation. The Investigation Training shall be delivered by a trainer from an outside organization, approved by the EEOC, who has never been an MMI agent or employee, and who must have specialized training on how to conduct sexual harassment investigations in compliance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.
- ii. All MMI Human Resources employees shall complete this training at least once within twenty (20) business days of the Effective Date. All new Human Resources employees and all employees recently promoted to a position with MMI's Human Resources department shall receive this two-hour training within twenty (20) business days of hire or promotion. The two-hour Investigation Training shall be conducted at least once per year during the term of this Decree. No individual who has not received the Investigation Training under this section shall be allowed to play a substantial role in the investigation of sexual harassment and/or retaliation complaints under this Decree. MMI may require additional employees outside of its Human Resources department to participate in the Investigation Training.

3. Hourly Employees

- i. MMI's hourly employees (e.g. crew, cooks, maintenance, etc.) shall be provided the training described below within one-hundred and fifty (150) days of the Effective Date and on an annual basis thereafter for the duration of this Decree. The training shall be conducted by showing of a video presentation conducted by an outside trainer, approved by the EEOC. Such video shall be shown at a regularly scheduled meeting required to be attended by all hourly employees (while MMI brings in staff from a different store to operate the applicable restaurant). The area supervisor shall be present during the video presentation to assure that proper attention is given by hourly employees. New hourly employees hired after the Effective Date shall be trained by viewing the video at the time of hire and thereafter on an annual basis as described in this section with other hourly employees. The training for new hires can be provided online or by video, with the understanding that he/she will attend a live training the next time it is offered. All hourly employees shall be paid their regular hourly wage for attending any training required under this Decree.

- ii. All of MMI's hourly employees shall be trained on the subjects of equal employment opportunity rights and responsibilities, with an emphasis on sexual harassment, retaliation, and MMI's policies and procedures for reporting and handling complaints of harassment, discrimination, or retaliation. The training should focus aiding employees in: (1) identifying harassment and retaliation; (2) what to do if a manager or other supervisory employee is subjecting them to harassment or retaliation; (3) explaining MMI's expectations of holding managers accountable for maintaining a safe and harassment-free working environment; and (4) identifying external means, like the EEOC or state and local fair employment practices agencies, where they can complain about harassment, retaliation, or other discrimination.

4. Message to Employees

Before each training event, MMI shall play a video message from President John Orr, approved by the EEOC, emphasizing MMI's zero tolerance for sexual harassment and retaliation and stating that it is unacceptable to retaliate against any employee for complaining about sexual harassment, for assisting in the investigation of a complaint, or for otherwise assisting in the use of MMI's complaint procedures.

F. Performance Evaluations

1. MMI shall develop, implement, or revise its performance evaluation criteria for managers, assistant managers, supervisors, and human resources personnel to include measures for performance compliance with EEO laws and with MMI's anti-discrimination, anti-harassment, and anti-retaliation policies and procedures. This shall specifically include holding managers and supervisors accountable for failing to report and/or take appropriate action with respect to sexual harassment, retaliation, or other discrimination as required under MMI's policies and procedures, applicable state laws, or Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

G. Recordkeeping

1. 4. MMI shall make the aforementioned records available to a representative of the EEOC within fifteen (15) business days following a written request by the EEOC at any time during the term of this Decree. Such written request shall be directed to Human Resources Director Kim Bredeson and to Jeffrey W. Younger, counsel for MMI. Upon such notice, MMI shall allow representatives of the EEOC to review MMI's compliance with this Decree by inspecting and photocopying relevant documents and records, interviewing employees and management officials on its premises, and inspecting its premises.
