

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

CIVIL ACTION NO. 00-2368

(Lifland, J.)

v.

THE CITY OF NEWARK, NEW JERSEY,

Defendant.

*CONSENT DECREE*

This action was brought by the United States against the City of Newark, New Jersey (hereinafter referred to as "defendant" or "City") to enforce the provisions of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e, et seq. ("Title VII"), following receipt by the Department of Justice from the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission of charges filed by Anthony Kerr and Kevin Rhodes, officers in the City's Police Department.

In its complaint, the United States alleges, inter alia, that the defendant has violated Title VII by (1) failing or refusing reasonably to accommodate the religious observance, practice and belief of Mr. Rhodes, Mr. Kerr and similarly-situated present or former Muslim police officers of wearing a beard; (2) threatening Mr. Rhodes, Mr. Kerr and similarly-situated police officers with termination because of their religious observance, practice and belief of wearing a beard; (3) transferring Mr. Rhodes and similarly-situated police officers to undesirable assignments because of their religious observance, practice and belief of wearing a beard; (4) denying Mr. Kerr and similarly-situated police officers opportunities to work special overtime events because of their religious observance, practice and belief of wearing a beard; and (5) failing or refusing to take appropriate action to remedy the effects of the discrimination against them. In its Answer, the City denies these allegations.

The parties, desiring that this action be settled by appropriate consent decree and without the burden of protracted litigation, agree to the jurisdiction of this Court over the parties, and the subject matter of this action. Subject to the Court's approval of this Consent Decree, the parties waive a hearing and findings of fact and conclusions of law on all issues, and further agree to the entry of this Decree as final and binding between themselves as to the issues raised in the United States' complaint filed in this case and the matters resolved in this Decree, pertaining to Mr. Rhodes, Mr. Kerr, Mr. Abdul-Aziz, Mr. Mustafa, Mr. Jones, Mr. Simmons, Mr. Muhammad, Mr. Parkman, Mr. Williams and the estate of Mr. Morrison .

This Decree, being entered with the consent of the parties, shall in no way constitute an adjudication or finding on the merits of the case, nor be construed as an admission by the defendant or a finding of any wrongdoing or violation of any applicable federal or state law or regulation.

As used in this Decree, the term "date of entry of this Decree" is defined as the date on which the Court grants final approval to and enters this Consent Decree as a final order of the Court.
