Upon notice in writing from the Association to the Union that any such employer is being thereafter deprived of the privileges of this Agreement, copy of which is hereto annexed, as though such individual Agreement were signed by this collective Agreement and such employer losing its good standing in the Association shall be required to make the same deposit with the Union as is required of comparable signatories of individual agreements.

(d) Security

If an employer's financial ability is of a doubtful nature and is not meeting its financial obligations under the collective bargaining agreement which, in addition to wages, holiday and vacations payments, including welfare and pension payments, the Union shall have the right to request security for the payment of these obligations up to the sum of $500.00 for each employee of the Employer, which security shall be held by the Union.

Section 20
INDIVIDUAL WORKING AGREEMENTS

(a) No Employer shall enter into individual employment or working agreement with any window cleaner, nor shall any employee be required to give any security for any reason whatsoever.

(b) No employee in the employ of any of the contractors signatory to the Agreement shall solicit or contract for himself/herself any window cleaning work of a commercial nature ordinarily performed by a window cleaning contractor.

Section 21 OTHER AGREEMENTS PROHIBITED

It is agreed that the Association will not, during the life of the Agreement, either directly or indirectly, enter into any contract of whatsoever kind, nature or description, dealing with the hiring of Union help or labor with any association or corporation claiming to be a labor union in the window cleaning industry, and that this Contract shall supersede any and all existing contracts which either the Association or its members may have with any other association or corporation claiming to be a labor union in the window cleaning industry, and the union agrees that it will enter into no contract with any employer operating with offices in the five boroughs of New York City, Nassau, Suffolk, Westchester, Rockland and Putnam Counties in New York and Fairfield County in Connecticut, with terms more favorable to the employer than those herein contained. Provisions of this Section shall not apply to contracts which may be offered to open shops but all contracts shall provide for group insurance with at least equivalent coverage and cost as provided in Section 40 hereof.

The Union agrees that it will not sign an agreement with an employer who is not bona fide. For the purposes of this agreement, a bona fide employer shall be one who has purchased a business or part of a business from an established concern or one who has developed its own business over a span of one year.

Section 22 DIVISION OF WORK AND LAYOFFS

In the event that an Employer has insufficient work for all the window cleaners in its employ, then, and in that event, the work may be distributed equally among its employees insofar as is practical and with the knowledge and consent and approval of the union and employer, but if due to such a lack of work, it is agreed by and between the Union and the employer that it reduce the number of window cleaners in its employ, then, in such an event, the order of layoffs shall be by the rule of seniority, i.e., the last person hired shall be the first person to be laid-off, except that in cases of layoff no apprentice shall have seniority over a regular journeyman window cleaner. Laid-off employees who have one or more years of service, shall be entitled to a preference for a six month period, over all others in the event the employer shall require additional help any time during that period.

In the event that the employer and the Union are unable to agree to a reduction in the number of window cleaners occasioned by a lack of work, the matter may be submitted to arbitration.

The arbitrator may grant a reduction in force provided that the employer demonstrates by a preponderance of the evidence that there is a reduction in work equivalent to the reduction in force. The arbitration shall be held within seven days of the written request therefor and no reduction in force shall be implemented by the employer until or unless directed by the arbitrator.

If an employer does not have full time work for one person, his/her contract may be cancelled by the Union, provided it can be established that the employer thereafter obtained business during the reduced work period which the employer was not requested to service.

Section 23

RE-EMPLOYMENT AFTER ACCIDENT OR ILLNESS

(a) It is hereby agreed that employees who meet with accidents arising out of their employment as window cleaners or become ill, shall be re-employed by the Employer by whom the employee was employed at the time of such accident or illness, if, and when, such employee is in physical condition to resume work, and his/her ability to work shall be determined by the certificate of a duly licensed physician. The employee shall, in such circumstances, give the employer twenty-four hours notice of his/her intention to return to work. In the event that an employer challenges the validity or the content of the physician's certificate, the employee shall be returned to the job but will be required to submit within twenty-four hours to an examination by an impartial physician approved by the parties. The certificate of the impartial physician shall determine the issue of ability to resume work. The provisions of this paragraph shall survive the expiration of this contract.

(b) Seniority credit shall be given for time worked before and after, but not for the time that the employee is absent due to sickness or accident off the job. With respect to Worker's Compensation absences, there shall be no loss of seniority.

Section 24

DISABILITY BENEFITS LAW-UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE LAW

Section 25

SICKNESS BENEFITS

(a) Any regular full time employee having at least ONE (1) Year of Service (as defined in Section (e) below) shall receive in a calendar year from the Employer ten (10) paid sick days for a bona fide illness.

Effective March 4, 1996, any employee entitled to sickness benefits shall be allowed four (4) single days of paid sick leave. The remaining six (6) days of paid sick leave may be paid either for illness of more than one (1) day's duration or may be counted as unused sick leave days.

The employee shall receive the above sick pay whether or not such illness is covered by the New York State Disability Benefits Law or the New York State Worker's Compensation Act, however, there shall be no pyramiding or duplication of Disability Benefits and/or Workmen's Compensation Benefits with sick pay.

(b) An employee absent from duty due to illness only on a scheduled workday immediately before and/or only on the scheduled workday immediately after a holiday shall not be eligible for sick pay for said absent workday or workdays.

(c) Employees who have continued employment to the end of the calendar year and have not used all sickness benefits shall be paid in the succeeding January for all unused sick leave.

(f) Employees who complete one (1) year of service after January 1, shall receive a pro-rata share of sickness benefits for the balance of the calendar year.

(g) If the employee informs the Employer he is requesting worker's compensation benefits then no sick leave shall be paid to such employee unless he specifically requests, in writing, payment of such leave. If an employee informs the Employer he is requesting disability benefits, then only five days sick leave shall be paid to such employee (if he has that amount unused) unless he specifically requests, in writing, payments of additional available sick leave.

(h) Any employee required to attend his Workers' Compensation hearing shall be paid for his regularly scheduled hours during such attendance, with a maximum of one day per accident.

Section 26 MEDICAL VISIT

(a) Every regular full time employee who has been employed for one year or more shall be entitled, upon one (1) week's notice to the Employer, to take one (1) day off in each calendar year at straight-time pay for a medical visit. Said employee shall receive a second day off with pay for a medical visit if proof from a doctor is furnished that such a second visit was required. To receive payment for such day or days the employee shall provide a signed statement from his/her physician.

(b) Should an employee be required to visit a physician on more than two (2) occasions, such employee may use his/her sick days for that purpose.

Section 27

Section 28

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1. All employees employed by the Employer for four (4) years or more shall be granted a leave of absence for a period of four (4) months a year, including vacation time, at intervals of three (3) years, without loss of employment, seniority and/or vacation accruals. If a holiday should occur during the above mentioned vacation, the employee shall receive a normal day's pay for said holiday, but the period of leave of absence shall be reduced by one day for each holiday occurring during said vacation period.

2. Notice shall be given to the Employer of the employee's request for a leave of absence in the following manner:

3. The maximum number of employees entitled to a leave of absence in a given year shall not exceed forty (40%) percent of the total number of employees in the employer's shop and shall be granted in accordance with shop seniority.

If a particular shop is manned by one employee, said employee will be entitled to the leave of absence.

If a particular shop is manned by two employees, only one employee may receive the leave of absence at a time.

4. (a) The employee shall receive service credits for the full period of the leave of absence for pension, vacation, seniority and all other time purposes under the Agreement.

(b) There shall be no contributions made by the Employer to the Pension Fund for the period of a leave of absence with respect to employees taking such leaves. However, if such leaves of absence or any part thereof, the Employer shall make contributions to the Pension Fund for such replacements during the period of such replacements.

5. The Employer shall cover the employee on the leave of absence with health benefits, provided that the employee requests same and reimburses the Employer in advance the cost of health benefits for the full period of the absence.

6. Employees on leave of absence as provided for herein shall not be entitled to claim New York State Unemployment Insurance for the period of said leave.

7. It is further agreed by the Employer that any member of the Union who shall be elected or appointed to any office or position within the local Union which requires absence from the service of the company for any period of time, shall receive leaves of absence for said periods until the expiration of the term of office or position or responsibility. The employee's seniority shall not be affected by such leaves of absence.

Section 29 DAMAGE OR BREAKAGE

It is further agreed that the employees shall not be held liable for any damage or breakage occasioned by them in the course of their employment or for the damage or loss of equipment unless negligence in cases of damage or loss of equipment is established.

Section 30 NON-UNION WORK

Should the employer request the Union to remove the pickets and permit its members to clean premises on which the work up to that time had been performed under non-union conditions, on the grounds that the work is to be performed by it under union conditions, and should the Union thereafter ascertain that the employer was not a bona fide contractor employed for that purpose, the matter shall be subject to review by the Grievance Committee herein provided for and should said Grievance Committee or Contract Arbitrator provided for under the plan for the determination of disputes, find the employer not to have held a bona fide contract or agreement for the cleaning of said premises, it shall pay liquidated damages of $100.00.

Section 31 VACATIONS

The vacation period shall be at any time during the calendar year on the consent of the employer and on notice to the Union. In no event may an employee receive more than one vacation period or its equivalent in any calendar year, regardless of the number of
