The Employer shall consult with the Union prior to effecting changes in any major policy affecting Employee relations.

ARTICLE 5 - UNION SECURITY

A. The Employer shall maintain a list of Union members in this bargaining unit who have payroll assignment forms on file with the Employer. This list will be made available to the Union by request and contain information listing the names of Union members, unit Employees, and total Union deductions made without cost to the Union on a form supplied by the Employer.

B. C. The Employer shall maintain and update the above listings and notify the Union of any changes.

D. Upon the issue of such check and transmission of same to the Union, all responsibility on the part of the Employer shall cease with respect to any amount so deducted. The Employer shall not be bound in any manner to see to the application of the proceeds of any such check, nor to investigate the authority of any designated officer of said Union to sign any request, to accept any such check, or to collect the same. The Union hereby undertakes to indemnify and hold blameless the Employer from any claim that may be made upon it for or on account of any such deduction from the wages of any Employee.

E. Scattergrams reflecting Employee distribution on the salary schedule as of July 15 of each year shall be provided to the Union by each jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION REPRESENTATION RIGHTS

A. The year for this purpose shall begin with the effective date of this Agreement. The Employees may be divided into groups of convenient size and one (1) meeting held for each group so that all Employees will have an opportunity to attend each of said four (4) meetings. The meetings shall last no longer than two (2) hours. The Union may use the Employer's conference rooms and similar building facilities for such meetings. The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the time and place of the meetings at least ten (10) days before they are held, provided, however, that the hours during which the meetings are held shall be mutually acceptable. Extension may be granted by the Employer for a period not to exceed twelve (12) months, for a total leave not to exceed two (2) years.

B. Any Employee elected or appointed to attend a Union convention or conference may be given a leave of absence without pay or vacation leave for the duration of the convention or conference including reasonable travel time.

C. Unless otherwise provided by law, no Employee on leave of absence without pay shall be entitled to accrue or accumulate vacation allowance, sick leave, or other rights and benefits for the term of his leave.

ARTICLE 8 - EMPLOYMENT SECURITY

A. All Employees who were in the bargaining unit at the time the original Agreement of March 21, 1973 was signed shall be considered to have employment security. Such Employees shall not be suspended, demoted or discharged without proper cause provided, however, that the foregoing is not intended to interfere with the right of the Employer to relieve Employees from duties because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons.

B. Employees appointed after the signing of the original Agreement, but before July 1, 1976, shall serve a probationary period of two (2) years of continuous service. These Employees may be terminated during the probationary period without a statement of reason by the Employer upon thirty (30) calendar days' notice. An Employee who satisfactorily completes his probationary period shall be given employment security.

C. Employees appointed after July 1, 1976 shall serve a probationary period of three (3) years of continuous service. These Employees may be terminated without a statement of reasons at any time during the probationary period by the Employer upon thirty (30) calendar days' notice or by non-renewal of their appointment. Employees so terminated have no reemployment rights as defined under Article 9, Employment Rights. An Employee who satisfactorily completes his probationary period shall be given employment security.

D. All Employees who have completed three (3) years of continuous creditable service shall have reemployment rights as defined under Article 9, Employment Rights.

E. Creditable service shall not include periods of leave without pay. Leaves without pay shall not constitute a break in service.

ARTICLE 9 - EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS

A. Employees who have reemployment rights and who are being or are relieved or terminated because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons may exercise the rights outlined below.

B. Employees who are discharged for proper cause which discharge is upheld or not contested or who resign their positions shall not be eligible to exercise any employment rights outlined in this Article.

C. Employees who have reemployment rights and (1) have an appointment with a specified ending date or (2) are notified of impending termination shall upon request be provided information on vacancies which occur during the 60 day period prior to the end of his appointment period. Such Employee must provide the University Personnel Office with a current resume. The Personnel Office, in consultation with the Employee, will make a determination as to the Employee's qualification for preferential selection under paragraph E below.

D. Employees relieved or terminated under paragraph A above will have priority for reappointment for a period of eighteen (18) months upon application for any specific vacancy for which they are qualified. If such person declines an offer for reemployment in a position for which he applies, he forfeits any further reemployment rights.

E. When filling vacancies, the following procedures shall apply:

1. Notices for filling of vacancies shall be given to the Union and publicized in campus and system-wide news bulletins at least fifteen (15) working days prior to the closing date for receipt of applications. If the Employer does not give notice to the Union or publicize in the bulletins for the specified number of days as provided in this Article, the Employee or former Employee with reemployment rights shall be entitled to submit late applications.

2. The announcements shall contain the following minimum information:

- b. Manner of making application.
- c. Closing date and place for applying.
- d. Minimum qualifications.
- e. Other information deemed necessary or desirable by the Employer.

3. Preference shall be given to Employees from within the bargaining unit who are being relieved or terminated because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons and have reemployment rights as outlined in Article 8, Employment Security, who meet the minimum qualifications of the position, for a vacancy in the same or lower pay range as the position from which he is being relieved or terminated.

4. If no applicant in the foregoing category (sub-paragraph 3) meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer shall then consider Employees from within the bargaining unit, who have been relieved or terminated because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons and have reemployment rights as outlined in Article 8, Employment Security, who meet the minimum qualifications as set forth in sub-paragraph 2 above, for a vacancy in the same or lower pay range as the position from which he was relieved or terminated.

5. If more than one applicant from the foregoing category in sub-paragraph 4 above meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the applicant judged by the Employer to be most suitable for filling the vacancy shall be appointed.

6. If no applicant in the foregoing category (sub-paragraph 4) meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer shall then consider other applications from within the bargaining unit.

7. If no applicant in the foregoing categories (sub-paragraphs 3, 4 and 6) meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer may then consider other applications from outside the bargaining unit.

8. If no applicant in sub-paragraphs 3, 4, 6 and 7 meets the minimum qualifications of the vacancy, the Employer may readvertise the vacancy consistent with paragraph E.

F. An Employee who is employed or reemployed in a new position, in accordance with this Article, shall be on probationary status for six (6) months, which may be extended an additional six (6) months by the Employer. A reemployed Employee shall not forfeit his original reemployment rights if separated during his probationary period, unless dismissed for cause.

G. The provisions in this Article are not intended to contravene or conflict with any provisions in any extramural contract or grant, nor is it intended to avoid the provision of Section 89-20, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

H. The Employer shall provide the Union after the end of each calendar quarter a list of former Employees who were terminated and have reemployment rights. The list shall contain the name, job classification and date of termination.

ARTICLE 10 - LAYOFFS

A. The term "layoff" as used in this Article shall mean a termination due to lack of funds or work, of an Employee whose salary is paid from the general revenues of the State of Hawaii or from funds deemed by the University to be assured for an indefinite period of time. It shall not apply to terminations at the end of an appointment period for personnel in temporary positions or those in positions paid from extramural funds.

B. Only Employees with employment security shall be entitled to the layoff procedure under this Article.

C. When there is an impending layoff, the Employer shall consult with the Union on its plans for the layoff and notify the affected Employee(s) in writing as soon as possible but not later than ninety (90) calendar days before the impending layoff is to take place.

D. The following procedures shall be followed to effectuate the layoff:

1. In the event an Employee must be laid off, seniority points based on months of creditable service in the APT system shall be used. One point shall be computed for each month of full-time equivalent service.

a. APT service at one-half time or more prior to March 21, 1973 is creditable.

b. Bargaining unit service subsequent to March 20, 1973 is creditable.

c. Only that service in a and b above which occurred during a period of continuous University service immediately prior to the layoff is creditable.

d. Periods of leaves without pay or non-bargaining unit service or non-APT service are not creditable.

2. In determining placement to a vacant position under paragraph 4 below, or a position from which Employee is to be displaced, under paragraph 6 below, the Employee must meet the minimum qualifications of the positions being considered.

3. The Employee must be a member of the bargaining unit.

4. The Employee shall be referred for placement in a vacant position on the basis of his designation of the geographic location(s) where he is willing to be placed and the minimum pay range that he will accept. Such designation shall be binding on the Employee. Referrals shall be to positions which are funded from the general revenues of the State of Hawaii or from funds deemed by the University to be assured for an indefinite period of time and full particulars of the position shall be disclosed to the Employee. Employees referred to vacant positions under this Article shall have priority over the filling of vacancies under Article 9, Employment Rights.

5. The Employee shall be entitled to three (3) offers for placement in a vacant position which is in accordance with the terms as specified in 4 above. If, however, he should decline to accept the first offer of employment, he shall have no rights under paragraph 6 below.

6. In the event there is no vacant position available in accordance with paragraph 4 above, an Employee shall have rights to positions held by members of the bargaining unit which are funded from the general revenues of the State of Hawaii or from funds deemed by the University to be assured for an indefinite period of time in the following order:

a. To a position in the same or a related class occupied by a probationary Employee at the same or lower pay range in descending order. If more than one probationary Employee at any level is subject to displacement, the one with the least seniority points shall be displaced.

b. To a position in the same or a related class occupied by an Employee with the least seniority points at the same or lower pay range in descending order.

7. When an Employee cannot be placed in another position or refuses to accept a position offered under D.5. of this Article he will be terminated subject to the conditions of Article 9, Employment Rights.

E. Waiver of Displacement Rights. The Employee affected by the layoff may waive his bumping rights, in writing, to the Employer, thereby limiting his placement to vacant positions.

F. An Employee who is placed in a position at a lower pay range under paragraph D above, shall maintain his existing classification and pay range and all rights and benefits which would have accrued in the position from which laid off.

ARTICLE 11 - APPOINTIVE POSITION

A. Whenever a former Employee who has "employment security" in accordance with Article 8 is terminated from office before the end of three (3) years for other than cause, he shall be placed into the APT position which he left at a salary equal to that which he would have received had he not assumed his appointed position. Upon such return to the APT position he shall be reinstated with the rights and benefits contained in this Agreement.

B. Within a period of three (3) years, the former Employee shall make his intentions known. After the three (3) year period, the former Employee forfeits his right to return to his APT position.

C. Pending declaration by the Employee within the three (3) year period of his intent as to whether or not to remain in the appointive position, the vacated APT position as well as any other affected APT positions may be filled only by an interim appointment, the provisions of Article 9, Paragraph E, notwithstanding.

D. The Employer may assign a former Employee, who had earned "employment security" who had served more than three (3) years in an appointive position to a vacant bargaining unit position for which he is qualified that is at the same pay grade or lower as the bargaining unit position he last held at a salary equal to that which he would have received had he not assumed his appointive position.

ARTICLE 12 - SAFETY AND HEALTH

A. Safety and Health Requirements. The Employer shall conform to and comply with applicable regulations requiring safe, healthy, and sanitary working conditions prescribed by the Department of Health, Department of Labor, or any other governmental body. 4. The Employee is required to give deposition or answer interrogatories on a matter arising in the course of employment and within the scope of his duties and responsibilities.

In addition, the Employee's required presence in any of the foregoing situations shall be considered work time.

E. When grievances are filed against Employees of this unit for actions taken by them in the course of their employment and within the scope of their supervisory and/or managerial duties and responsibilities, the Employer shall provide them with necessary staff support and representation. When such assistance is requested by the Employee and the Employer fails to furnish such assistance, the Employee will not be penalized for any improper action taken.

F. The Employer shall provide Employees with advice and assistance in the interpretation and administration of collective bargaining contracts or agreements covering their subordinates. Whenever Employees perform or carry out their assigned supervisory and/or managerial duties and responsibilities, based on such advice and assistance, the Employer agrees to provide full support to the Employees should conflict or grievances arise.

G. The Employee shall have the right to refuse for good cause to work overtime, to accept a temporary assignment, and to perform any work not representative of his class.

C. All derogatory material in an Employee's file shall be destroyed after two (2) years, unless the Employer makes a determination of the current relevancy of such material. If the Employee or the Union, upon consent of the Employee, disputes the relevancy of such material, the Employer shall attach his reasons for relevancy to such material in writing.

If the Employer determines that the material is relevant currently, it may remain in the file for another year and again reviewed in the same manner.

D. All derogatory material shall be destroyed after five (5) years.

E. The employment history record shall not be destroyed.

F. The Employer may maintain more than one personnel file; however, one of these files shall include, but not be limited to, an Employee's personnel transaction records, derogatory materials, commendatory materials and performance evaluations. ARTICLE 16 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Any complaint by an Employee or the Union concerning the application and interpretation of this Agreement shall be subject to the grievance procedure. Any information in the possession of the Employer needed by the grievant or the Union to investigate and process a grievance, shall be provided to them upon request within seven (7) working days. The grievance shall be presented to the appropriate supervisor within twenty (20) working days after the occurrence of the alleged violation, or if it concerns an alleged continuing violation, then it must be filed within twenty (20) working days after the alleged violation first became known or should have become known to the Employee involved, except that in the case of an alleged payroll computational error, such allegation shall be presented to the President or his designee in writing within twenty (20) working days after the alleged error is discovered by the Employee, or the grievance may not be considered.

B. An individual Employee may present a grievance to his immediate supervisor and have his grievance heard without intervention of the Union, provided the Union has been afforded an opportunity to be present at the conference(s) on the grievance. Any adjustment made shall not be inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement. By mutual consent of the Union and the Employer, any time limits within each step may be extended.

C. Informal Step. A grievance shall, whenever possible, be discussed informally between the Employee and his immediate supervisor within the twenty (20) working day limitation provided for in paragraph "A" above. The grievant may be assisted by his Union representative. If the immediate supervisor does not reply by seven (7) working days, the Employee or the Union may pursue the grievance to the next step.

D. Step 1. If the grievant is not satisfied with the result of the informal conference, he or the Union may submit a written statement of the grievance within seven (7) working days after receiving the answers to the informal complaint to (a) the Dean in the case of the University of Hawaii at Manoa (UHM) and Hilo College; (b) Provost in the case of the Community Colleges; or (c) such directors as may be designated by the Chancellors with respect to other administrative or program units (hereinafter "division head"); or if the immediate supervisor does not reply to the informal complaint within seven (7) working days, the Employee or the Union may submit a written statement of the grievance to the division head or his designee within fourteen (14) working days from the initial submission of the informal complaint; or if the grievance was not discussed informally between the Employee and his immediate supervisor, the Employee or the Union may submit a written statement of the grievance to the division head or his designee within the twenty (20) working day limitation provided for in paragraph "A" above.

A meeting shall be held between the grievant and a Union representative with the division head or his designee within seven (7) working days after the written grievance is received. Either side may present witnesses. The division head or his designee shall submit a written answer to the grievant or the Union within seven (7) working days after the meeting.

E. Step 2. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 1, the grievant or the Union may appeal the grievance in writing to the Chancellor, his successor in office or his designee (hereinafter "department head") within seven (7) working days after receiving the written answer. The department head or his designee need not consider any grievance in Step 2 which encompasses different alleged violations or charges than those presented in Step 1. A meeting to discuss the grievance shall be held within seven (7) working days after receipt of the appeal. The department head or his designee shall reply in writing to the grievant or the Union within seven (7) working days after the meeting.

F. If the Union has a class grievance involving Employees within a college, administrative or program unit, it may submit the grievance in writing to the division head or his designee. Time limits shall be the same as in individual grievances and the procedures for appeal from unsatisfactory answers shall be the same as in Step 1.

If the Union has a class grievance involving Employees from more than one college, administrative or program unit, it may submit the grievance in writing to the department head. Time limits shall be the same as in individual grievances and the procedures for appeal from unsatisfactory answers shall be the same as in Step 2.

G. Step 3. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step 2, the grievant or the Union may appeal the grievance in writing to the President or his designee (hereinafter "Employer") within seven (7) working days after receipt of the answer at Step 2. Within seven (7) working days after the receipt of the appeal, the Employer and the Union shall meet in an attempt to resolve the grievance. The Employer or his designee need not consider any grievance in Step 3 which encompasses a different alleged violation or charge than those presented in Step 2. The Employer or his designee shall reply in writing to the Union within seven (7) working days after the meeting.

H. Step 4. Arbitration. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 3 and the Union desires to proceed with arbitration, it shall serve written notice on the Employer or his representative of its desire to arbitrate within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Employer's decision at Step 3. Representatives of the parties shall attempt to select an Arbitrator immediately thereafter. If agreement on an Arbitrator is not reached within ten (10) working days after the notice for arbitration is submitted, either party may request the Hawaii Public Employment Relations Board to submit a list of five (5) Arbitrators. Selection of an Arbitrator shall be made by each party alternately deleting one (1) name at a time from the list. The first party to delete a name shall be determined by lot. The person whose name remains on the list shall be designated the Arbitrator. No grievance may be arbitrated unless it involves an alleged violation of a specific term or provisions of the Agreement. The Arbitrator shall not consider any alleged violations or charges other than those presented in Step 3.

If the Employer disputes the arbitrability of any grievance, the Arbitrator shall first determine whether he has jurisdiction to act; and if he finds that he has no such power, the grievance shall be referred back to the parties without decision or recommendation on its merits.

The Arbitrator shall render his award in writing, no later than thirty (30) calendar days after the conclusion of the hearings or if oral hearings are waived then thirty (30) calendar days from the date statements and proofs were submitted to the Arbitrator. The decision of the Arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the Union, its members, the Employees involved in the grievance, and the Employer. There shall be no appeal from the Arbitrator's decision by either party, if such decision is within the scope of the Arbitrator's authority as described below:

1. The Arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, disregard, alter, or modify any of the terms of this Agreement.
2. His power shall be limited to deciding whether the Employer has violated any of the terms of this Agreement.
3. In any case of suspension or discharge where the Arbitrator finds such suspension or discharge was improper, the Arbitrator may set aside, reduce or modify the action taken by the Employer. If the penalty is set aside, reduced or otherwise changed, the Arbitrator may award back pay to compensate the Employee, wholly or partially, for any wages lost because of the penalty.
4. The fees of the Arbitrator, the cost of transcription, and other necessary general costs, shall be shared equally by the Employer and the Union. Each party will pay the cost of presenting its own case and the cost of any transcript that it requests.

ARTICLE 17 - TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENT

- A. Employees may be assigned to fill a position at a higher pay range than their own on an "acting basis."
- B. When it is expedient to assign an individual to fill a higher pay range position than his own on an "acting" basis, e.g., an Administrative Officer III temporarily detailed to assume the duties of a vacant Administrative Officer IV position, a temporary salary adjustment in the form of a stipend will be awarded subject to the following conditions:

1. The duration of the assignment to a higher pay range position will exceed 30 days and the individual is not filling a "deputy" or "assistant" position before such assignment which inherently requires the assumption of the higher level position during the absence of the incumbent. The stipend will be effective the first day of such assignment.
2. The duration of the assignment is for an identifiable period. Upon completion of the temporary assignment, the stipend will be terminated.
3. In no case will the amount of the stipend be less than $100 per month nor exceed the amounts indicated below.

The monthly stipend amount shall not exceed the following:

for Employees in pay ranges 1 to 10	$150
for Employees in pay ranges above 10	$200

4. The stipend must be approved in advance by the President or his designee.

ARTICLE 18 - OVERTIME

- A. This Article does not apply to nine (9) month personnel.
- B. "Calendar year Employees" are the eleven-month personnel, who have a twelve-month professional obligation less the month of vacation allowance.

Subsequently an Employee may accumulate not more than fifteen (15) days of vacation leave per calendar year, even if his total accumulated days fall below forty-two (42) days. However, vacation leave in excess of fifteen (15) days per year may be accumulated for good cause when a request for such accumulation is approved by the Employer provided such request shall be accompanied by a stipulation that the Employee shall take such excess vacation days at a specified time. If the Employee fails to take this vacation at the time stipulated, he shall forfeit the excess accumulation of vacation leave unless for good reason an extension of time is granted by the Employer.

2. Vacation leave shall be administered on a calendar year basis and recorded at the end of each calendar year.

3. Any Employee who is entitled to an annual vacation may accumulate for the succeeding year or years such unused portion of his vacation allowance as is permitted above, provided that the total accumulation shall not exceed ninety (90) working days at the end of the calendar year. If any recorded accumulation of vacation allowance at the end of any calendar year shall exceed ninety (90) working days, the Employee shall automatically forfeit the unused vacation allowance which is in excess of the allowable ninety (90) working days.

4. Nothing in this Article contained shall be construed to prohibit the taking or to require the forfeiture, of any vacation which is validly granted and the taking of which is commenced prior to the last working day of any calendar year, notwithstanding that the recording of the current accrued vacation allowance for such year on the last day thereof might result in an accumulation of more than ninety (90) working days including the working days of the vacation so granted and then being taken, but the period of such vacation shall be regarded for all purposes as if the same had been entirely taken prior to the last day of such calendar year.

5. Nothing in this Article contained shall be construed to prohibit the lawful payment of pay in lieu of vacation.

C. Taking Vacation Leave Granted.

1. When a vacation is requested on a form prescribed by the Employer, it shall be granted and taken at such time or times as the Employer may designate; provided, that it shall be as close to the requested period as conditions in the unit will permit, and so as to prevent any forfeiture of vacation allowance.

2. When a vacation is granted, it may include, in accordance with law and at the request of the Employee, all vacation allowance accrued up to the end of his last full month of service immediately preceding the commencement of the vacation.

3. No vacation leave of less than one (1) hour may be granted. However, payment in lieu of vacation is legally permissible, or when the Employee's service will not continue at the expiration of the vacation, such payment may include a prorated amount for any fraction of a working day of vacation allowance to which the Employee is entitled.

An Employee shall immediately communicate with the Employer and request such advance vacation and, if the same is granted, it shall be considered as taken with the express understanding that if such leave is not later earned during the term of employment, the unearned portion of the vacation pay so advanced will be repaid, on demand of the Employer, by the Employee or his executors and administrators out of his estate, if he is deceased, or deductions may be made for such unearned portion from any salary due the Employee, or from any monies in the annuity savings fund of the Employees' Retirement System of the Employer to the credit of the Employee.

G. Effect of Transfer to Position in Which Vacation Allowance Is Not Earnable. When an Employee is transferred from or otherwise relinquishes one position in which vacation allowance may be earned, and accepts employment in another position in the service of the Employer in which vacation allowance may not be earned, he may be deemed, for purposes of receiving pay in lieu of vacation, to have terminated his services. But in the event that he is not eligible under the circumstances to receive pay in lieu of vacation, the acceptance of such new employment shall not of itself have the effect of forfeiting any vacation allowance to which he is then entitled. Pay for lapsed vacation in excess of the maximum allowed may be granted only as permitted by law.

H. Pay for Vacation Allowance Upon Termination.

1. Whenever a termination of services takes place, the Employee is to be paid, in accordance with law, for his vacation allowance either in a lump sum or in the normal manner.

2. When payment in a lump sum is made, the sum payable for vacation allowance shall be equal to the amount of compensation to which the Employee would be entitled or which he would be allowed during the vacation period if he were permitted to take his vacation in the normal manner. A fraction of a day of vacation credit shall not serve to extend the period of an Employee's vacation, but the Employee shall be paid, for such fractional credit, an amount equivalent to the said fraction of a day's pay.

3. However, if the Employee is immediately rehired by the Employer and will continue to earn vacation allowance, such a payment shall not be made.

4. An Employee who, pursuant to the U. S. Universal Military Service and Training Act or other Federal statute, is called or ordered and reports either voluntarily or involuntarily for active military duty with a branch of the U. S. Armed Forces shall be deemed to have terminated his services for the purposes of this Article. The Employee's choice of lump sum payment for his vacation allowance will not of itself cause the forfeiture of his unused sick leave credits.

I. In the event that a vacation request is denied by the Employer, the Employee may request he be furnished the reasons for the denial in writing.

J. For academic year Employees, no vacation leave shall be granted in addition to the time during which he is permitted to be absent in any calendar year by reason of the terms of his annual professional obligation. Academic year Employees are not eligible to accrue and accumulate vacation leave.

K. Personnel whose salaries are paid from other than the general revenues of the State of Hawaii or from funds deemed by the University to be assured for an indefinite period of time have vacation leave comparable to other calendar year personnel. However, such an Employee may accumulate ten (10) days of vacation leave per calendar year until he accumulates a total of ninety (90) days. An Employee may accumulate more than ten (10) days of vacation leave per calendar year up to a maximum of ninety (90) days upon the recommendation of the principal investigator, who will certify that this action is in the best interest of his project and that funds are available to cover the accumulated vacation.

This paragraph shall be further amended as follows:

1. Effective January 1, 1982 the above ten (10) days of accumulation of vacation leave shall be increased to fifteen (15) days.

ARTICLE 31 - TRAVEL ALLOWANCE

A. When Employees are required to travel on official business to other islands within the State of Hawaii, they shall be provided with a travel allowance of $45 per 24-hour day.

In the case of official travel time involving a fraction of a day, the allowable claim shall be in terms of quarter-day periods, with the quarter-day periods measured from midnight. This shall also be applicable for one-day trips; that is, leaving and returning the same day.

B. When Employees are required to travel on official business to areas outside the State of Hawaii, they shall be provided a travel allowance of $65 per 24-hour day.

In the case of official travel time involving a fraction of a day, the allowable claim shall be in terms of quarter-day periods, with the quarter-day periods measured from midnight.

C. The parties further agree that any jurisdiction which is currently providing its Employees a lower travel allowance than that provided above, shall, as of the effective date of this Agreement, conform to the new travel allowance; however, a jurisdiction which is providing its Employees a higher travel allowance than that provided above shall continue to do so for the duration of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 32 - MISCELLANEOUS

A. Copies of Contract. The Employer agrees to furnish a copy of the Agreement to all new Employees of the bargaining unit.

B. The Employer's liability shall be limited to fifty dollars ($50) for watches.

C. The Employer shall provide the Union upon request, not more than twice each year, lists showing the names of all Employees, their classification titles, their department, and the most recent dates of continuous hire in the jurisdiction.

ARTICLE 33 - SAVING CLAUSE

Should any part of this Agreement be rendered or declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction or by the Hawaii Public Employment Relations Board, such invalidation of such part or portion of this Agreement shall not invalidate the remaining portions thereof and they shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 34 - SALARIES

A. Subject to the approval of the respective legislative bodies, effective July 1, 1981, the salary schedules in effect on June 30, 1981, shall be amended to reflect an across-the-board salary adjustment of eight percent (8%) or one hundred dollars ($100) per month, whichever is greater. The salary schedules as modified herein shall be designated as Exhibit A-1, Unit 8 Salary Schedule for 11-month Personnel, and Unit 8 Salary Schedule for 9-month Personnel, and the salary of every bargaining unit Employee shall be determined as follows:

2. Any Employee whose salary on June 30, 1981, falls between two steps of the salary schedules in effect on June 30, 1981 shall receive an across-the-board salary adjustment of eight percent (8%) or one hundred dollars ($100) per month, whichever is greater.

3. Any Employee whose salary on June 30, 1981 exceeds the maximum step of the Employee's salary range shall receive an across-the-board salary adjustment of eight percent (8%) or one hundred dollars ($100) per month, whichever is greater.

Such amended schedules shall be designated as Exhibit A-2, Unit 8 Salary Schedule for 11-month Personnel, and Unit 8 Salary Schedule for 9-month Personnel, and the salary of every bargaining unit Employee shall be determined as follows:

 2. Conditions of the labor market;
 3. The appropriate cost of living index;
 4. The minimum standard of living which is compatible with decency and health; and
5. The amount of compensation which is offered by employers competing for labor sought by the government with due consideration being given to compensation offered or paid of a non-monetary character and with proper concern over apparent economic trends.

ARTICLE 35 - ENTIRETY, MODIFICATION AND CONFLICT

A. The Employer and the Union agree that the terms and provisions herein contained constitute the entire Agreement between the parties and supersede all previous communications, representations or agreements, either verbal or written between the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter herein.

B. The Employer and the Union agree that all negotiable items have been discussed during the negotiations leading to this Agreement and, therefore, agree that negotiations will not be reopened on any item during the life of this Agreement except as provided in Article 36, Duration, or by mutual consent.

C. If there is any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and any rules and regulations, Board of Regents Policies or other personnel regulations applicable to Employees, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

ARTICLE 36 - DURATION

This Agreement shall become effective as of July 1, 1981 and shall remain in effect to and including June 30, 1983. It shall be renewed thereafter with respect to the subject matter covered, in accordance with statutes unless either party gives written notice to the other party of its desire to amend, modify or terminate the Agreement, and such written notice is given between July 1 and August 30 of 1982. The notice shall include in writing the specific proposals of the notifying party. When any such notice is given, negotiations for a new Agreement shall commence on or about September 1 following the giving of the notice.
