ARTICLE I

GENERAL

SECTION 1.1—Scope of Contract. It is agreed that this Contract shall govern the hours, wages and other conditions of employment of Employer's meat department employees in Service Meat Markets only within the geographical jurisdiction of Local 546, and that the hours, wages and other conditions of employment of Employer's meat department employees in Self-Service Markets are covered by a separate Contract. It is further agreed that the Employer shall have the sole discretion of determining from time to time which system of merchandising, service or self-service, shall be utilized in each of the Employer's markets; provided that the Employer shall comply with the wages, hours and other contractual conditions of employment pertaining to the system of merchandising used in that market.

SECTION 1.2—Definitions:

(a) Apprentice: An apprentice is an employee who is in training to become a Journeyman Meat Cutter. Apprentices must be at least sixteen (16) years of age.

Apprentices may be employed at a ratio of not exceeding three (3) for each seven (7) Journeymen employed by the Employer within the jurisdiction of the Local. A quarterly report covering the number of Apprentices employed in relationship to the number of Journeymen shall be furnished the Union.

The Employer agrees to rotate all Apprentices in his markets so as to give them sufficient, well-rounded experience to qualify them as Journeymen at the end of the three (3) year apprenticeship period. Apprentices shall not work part time or as extra men on Saturdays or the day preceding holidays.

(b) Journeyman: After serving three years of apprenticeship (two and one-half 2½) years if the apprentice furnishes the Employer with a Certificate issued by the Washburne Trade School that he has satisfactorily completed the full meat training course of said school), an employee shall be classified as a Journeyman Meat Cutter and shall be paid the Journeyman rate of pay.

(c) Head Meat Cutter: The term "Head Meat Cutter" means a Journeyman meat cutter who is responsible for the efficient management of the market.

(d) Self-Service and Service: A self-service market is one in which fresh beef, veal, lamb, mutton or pork are available for sale on a pre-package self-service basis. It is agreed that any market which is operated on a partially service and partially self-service basis shall be classified as a self-service market if any fresh beef, veal, lamb, mutton or pork are made available for sale on a pre-package self-service basis, even though there is also a service counter offering custom cutting for those who prefer it. Such semi-self-service market shall be considered a self-service market subject to the terms and conditions and wage scale contained in the Self-Service Contract.

If no fresh beef, veal, lamb, mutton or pork are sold on a self-service basis, then the market is a Service market and shall be operated in accordance with this Service Contract. It is further expressly understood and agreed that if all fresh beef, veal, lamb, mutton and pork sold by a market are handled and sold on a service basis only, the fact that a market handles and sells, on a self-service basis, delicatessen and other meat products now excepted from the jurisdiction of the Union under this Service Contract shall not operate to classify such market as a self-service market; but such semi-self-service market shall nevertheless be considered a service market subject only to the wage scales, hours and other conditions provided in this Service Contract.

In the event of any dispute as to whether a meat market shall be classed as a service market subject to the terms and conditions of this Contract or a self-service market subject to the terms and conditions of the Self-Service Contract, the decision of the Union shall be binding unless and until said decision has been set aside by any arbitration proceedings had pursuant to the terms of this Contract; provided, however, that either party may require that such dispute be submitted to arbitration forthwith.

SECTION 1.3—Notices. All notices required under this Contract shall be deemed to be properly served if delivered in writing personally or sent by certified or registered mail to the offices of the Union at 130 N. Wells St., Chicago, Illinois 60606, or to the Employer at the address designated below, or to an employee at his home or residence address, or to any subsequent address which the Union, the employee, or the Employer may designate in writing for such purpose. Date of service of a notice served by mail shall be the date on which such notice is postmarked by a post office of the United States Post Office Department.

SECTION 1.4—Partial Invalidity. Nothing contained in this agreement is intended to violate any Law, Rule, or Regulation made pursuant thereto. If any part of this Agreement is construed by a court or board of competent jurisdiction to be in such violation, then that part shall be made null and void, the remainder of the Contract shall continue in full force and the parties will immediately begin negotiations to replace the void part with a valid provision.

SECTION 1.5—Authority of Signing Parties. The parties hereto certify that they are empowered and duly authorized to sign this Agreement.

SECTION 1.6—Successors and Assigns. This agreement shall be binding upon the Employer herein and its successors and assigns.

SECTION 1.7—Effective Date. Unless the context of a provision indicates otherwise, all provisions of the contract become effective upon the date of execution of the contract.

ARTICLE II

RECOGNITION AND JURISDICTION

SECTION 2.1—Recognition. The Employer recognizes and agrees that said Union is and shall be the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agency for and on behalf of all meat cutters and butcher workmen employed by said Employer on their premises; including those workers processing, packing, wrapping, pricing, and selling frozen fresh meats.

SECTION 2.2—Processing and Sale. The parties agree that all fish, poultry, rabbits, meats and its kindred products, fresh or frozen, except:

- (d) sliced packaged Canadian bacon;

PENSION

SECTION 8.1—Pension Fund. The Union and the Employers agree to the establishment of a Pension Fund and, pursuant thereto, have agreed to enter into an Agreement and Declaration of Trust creating the "Midwest Meat Cutter Unions and Retail Employers Joint Pension Fund"; said Fund is hereinafter referred to as the "Pension Fund." The Trust Agreement shall provide for the administration of the Pension Fund by an equal number of Trustees representing the Employer and the Union respectively.

SECTION 8.2—Eligible Employee Defined. As used herein, an "eligible employee" is an employee (1) who is covered by this Contract, (2) who is employed to work full-time on a regular basis and (3) who has completed his probationary period.

SECTION 8.3—Employers Contributions. The Employer shall pay to the Pension Fund the sum of $26.00 per month per eligible employee; which sum shall be used by the trustees for the provisions of pension benefits to the employees of the employer and for the payment of such reasonable cost, charges, and expenses as are necessarily incurred in the management and administration of the Trust Fund.

Such contributions shall commence for the month of October, 1965, with respect to each eligible employee.

For an eligible employee whose probationary period ends after October 1, 1965, contributions shall commence with the first day of the month following completion of the probationary period.

The first contribution for eligible employees which shall be due for the month of October, 1965, shall be paid by November 10, 1965. Subsequent contributions shall be remitted by the Employer by the 10th day of each succeeding month for eligible employees.

It is agreed that all contributions made by the Employer pursuant to this article are made subject to the condition subsequent that in the event the Pension Fund shall fail to qualify under said Internal Revenue Code by January 1, 1967, then upon such failure such contributions, less the Employer's pro rata share of such reasonable expenses as the Trustees may necessarily incur in creating and endeavoring to qualify the Pension Fund under said Internal Revenue Code, shall be returned to the Employer, and this Article VIII shall thereupon become null and void.

SECTION 8.6—Employers Pension Plan. Unless the Employer and the Union have agreed otherwise, any pension, retirement or profit sharing plan which the Employer has heretofore established for the purpose of providing pension and retirement benefits to employees covered by this Contract shall terminate automatically with respect to such employees effective on September 30, 1965, except for liabilities accrued up to the effective date of such termination.

ARTICLE X

SENIORITY

SECTION 10.1—Seniority Defined. Seniority means the rights defined herein secured by employees by length of continuous full-time employment with the Employer, that is, full-time employment uninterrupted by termination of service.

Seniority starts from the last date when the employee starts work as a full-time employee, provided, however, that new employees shall not acquire any seniority rights until they have completed the probationary period of thirty (30) days after which their seniority shall date back to the date the employee started to work. When two or more employees start work the same day, the date of birth shall determine their relative seniority.

An employee's seniority shall be terminated if he: (1) quits; (2) retires; (3) is discharged; (4) fails to report after a layoff within seven (7) calendar days after the Employer sends to the last address known to the Employer a written notification to return to work (with a copy to the Union); (5) fails to return to work upon expiration of an authorized leave of absence; (6) refuses, as an alternative to being laid off, to accept work in his classification in another store within the seniority area; (7) refuses, after having been laid off, to accept work in his job classification in any store in the seniority area; or (8) has been laid off by the Employer for a period of one year; provided that at the end of the sixth month and at the end of each month thereafter, the laid off employee, in order to retain his recall rights, must notify, in writing, the Employer of his desire to be retained on recall status.

The "in-service" date of an employee who progresses from Apprentice to Journeyman, or who is demoted from Head Meat Cutter to Journeyman shall not be affected by such change in classification.

SECTION 10.2—Layoffs and Recalls After Layoffs. Where the employee's qualifications to perform the work available are equal, including in the case of Head Meat Cutters the ability to organize and direct the work of others, seniority shall control the order of layoffs and recalls after layoffs of full-time employees within the seniority area within the following job classifications:

Head Meat Cutters

Journeymen

Apprentices

Wrappers

(where covered by Union contract)

The term "seniority area" means the area covered by the operating division, district or administrative or geographic unit used by the Employer, as said Employer's unit may be organized from time to time, and falling within the cities and counties in which the Employer has recognized the Union Locals. The Employer shall notify the Union in writing of the areas comprising its seniority areas as modified from time to time.

SECTION 10.3—Promotion to Supervision. If an employee is promoted from a job within the bargaining unit to a supervisory position with the Employer and is returned to the collective bargaining unit within one year, he shall commence work with the seniority rank he had at the time of his promotion.

SECTION 10.4—Seniority of Employees on Leaves of Absence. The seniority rights of an employee who, either by voluntary action or draft, entered the Armed Forces of the United States shall continue as though he had not been absent, and he shall have the right to be reinstated to his employment as provided by law and regulation thereunder.

The seniority of an employee on an extended leave of absence, which is hereby defined as any leave of absence, other than military leave of absence in excess of ninety (90) days, shall be protected to the expiration of said leave of absence but not in excess of one year, but such seniority shall not accumulate during any period of absence in excess of one year.

ARTICLE XI

GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION

SECTION 11.1—No Strike; No Lockout. The Union and the Employer agree on the need for the continuance of their service to the public without interruption. Both recognize this objective as necessary to the security of the Employer and its people. Both therefore, specifically pledge themselves to help assure that security by using the procedures agreed upon between them for the adjustment of disputes and grievances in all cases where there is any difference of opinion concerning the rights of either under this contract or the interpretation or application of any provision of it. Therefore, subject to the exceptions stated herein, during the term of this agreement there shall be no strikes, work stoppage, diminution or suspension of work of any kind whatsoever on the part of the Union or its membership, nor shall there be any lockout on the part of the Employer. No officer or representative of the Union shall authorize, instigate, aid or condone any strike, work stoppage, diminution or suspension of work of any kind whatsoever prohibited by the provisions of this paragraph. No employee shall participate in any such prohibited activities.

The Union reserves the right to strike and/or picket the market or markets involved in the grievance in the event the Employer shall fail or refuse to comply with any decision of a Board of Arbitration issued pursuant to a proceeding under Section 11.3 of this Article within ten (10) days after notice thereof. The Employer reserves the right to declare a lockout should the Union fail or refuse to comply with any decision of a Board of Arbitration within ten (10) days after notice thereof.

The Union reserves the right to strike and/or picket any market of the Employer wherein the Employer continues, after receipt of a written grievance, to sell, outside of the market operating hours prescribed in Article V, meat products under the Union's jurisdiction not specifically authorized for sale outside of such market operating hours.

The Union further reserves the right to strike any Employer who is required by this contract to make contributions to the Health and Welfare Trust Fund or the Pension Trust Fund who remains delinquent in the payment of a contribution for a period of fourteen (14) calendar days after a written notice is sent to the Employer by the Union; provided, however, that the Union without recourse to arbitration may not strike for this reason if within said fourteen (14) day period the Employer corrects said delinquency or notifies the Union in writing that there is a bona fide dispute as to whether the payment is delinquent or as to the amount of the delinquency and also initiate arbitration with respect to said dispute in accordance with the provisions of this contract.

SECTION 11.2—Time Limit on Grievances. Grievances of any nature must be made within forty-five (45) calendar days after the cause giving rise to the grievance becomes evident; and wage claims shall not be valid and collectible for a period earlier than ninety (90) days prior to the date of filing the grievance or the date the grievance arose, whichever date is most recent.

SECTION 11.3—Grievances and Arbitration. Should any dispute or grievance arise between the Employer and the Union or between the Employer and its employees, concerning the application and/or construction of this Contract, the parties agree that such matter shall be adjusted, if possible, by negotiations. In the event the dispute or grievance cannot be resolved by negotiations within fifteen (15) days after the inception of the matter in dispute, then it shall be submitted immediately to a Board of Arbitration, consisting of three (3) persons, for final and binding decision. Either party may institute said arbitration proceedings by giving the other party notice thereof in writing, naming one person to act on his behalf on said Arbitration Board; and the other party shall, within five (5) days after receipt of such written notice, name one person to act on his behalf on said Arbitration Board. These two so selected shall designate the third member or referee of the Board. In the event these two so selected shall be unable, within fifteen (15) days, to agree upon the third member or referee, then the third member of the Board shall forthwith be designated under the rules and procedures of the Federal mediation and Conciliation Service. The Board shall hold hearings and render its decision in writing within thirty (30) days with respect to a dispute under Article I, Section 1.2(d) and within ninety (90) days with respect to any other dispute. The Board's decision shall be final and binding upon the grievant employee, the Union and the Employer. The decision of any two members of the Board shall be the decision of the Board. If the parties shall agree upon one person to act as Arbitrator, his decision shall be as binding as that of a Board of Arbitration. The compensation and expense, if any, of witnesses and the cost of other evidence shall be borne by the party on whose behalf witnesses are called or the evidence is introduced. Each party shall pay for the compensation and expenses of the Arbitrator appointed by it. The compensation and expenses of the third Arbitrator and all other costs incurred in conducting the arbitration proceedings shall be borne equally by the parties hereto.
