Transfers are permitted between the establishments of the Company in the area covered by this Agreement provided seniority classifications are followed on the store level. Fitness and ability will be the determining factor on such transfers.

The above shall not apply in cases of an emergency on a temporary transfer.

An employee shall have the right to refuse a transfer from one market to another market within the area covered by this Agreement if it would result in lesser weekly take home pay unless the transfer is necessary because of a work force reduction in his original market, and a refusal of transfer by an employee for this reason shall not be cause for discharge.

At least forty-eight (48) hours notice must be given to employees before they are transferred from one work shift to another or transferred to a different store except where the employee is transferred to fill a vacancy which arises so suddenly that the employer cannot give such forty-eight (48) hours notice. If a change is made without giving the forty-eight (48) hours notice when required, the employee shall be paid one and one-half (1½) times his regular classified hourly rate for all hours worked during the balance of the work week.

Effective March 2, 1970, employees who are scheduled to work in more than one store per week shall receive $5.00 per week above their classified weekly rate of pay, except for emergency assignments made to fill temporary vacancies.

ARTICLE XXIII

ARTICLE XXIV

The parties hereto agree to take such action as may be required to maintain the qualification of such plan in effect.
- E. A copy of the Trust Agreement and any amendments thereto shall be made a part hereto as if herein at length set forth.

ARTICLE XXVI

Section No. 1. Seniority employees shall be granted leave of absence for the following reasons:

- A. Pregnancy.
- B. Sickness.
- C. Death in an immediate family.

Section No. 2. An employee on a sick leave of absence for more than one (1) year may be separated from the payroll and considered a quit if mutually agreed upon by the Union and the Company, except in the case where such sickness leave of absence is as a result of an occupational injury or illness.

Section No. 3. Seniority rights shall not be broken when an employee is on a leave of absence. However, if an employee, while on leave of absence, accepts another job or goes into business for himself, he automatically terminates his employment and loses all rights with the Employer.

Section No. 4. A Personal leave of absence may be granted by the Employer for a period not to exceed four (4) consecutive weeks to an employee with six (6) months or more of continuous seniority. A leave of absence of longer than four (4) consecutive weeks may be granted to an employee with six (6) months or more of continuous seniority if agreed to between Union and the Employer.

Section No. 5. The Union shall be notified by the Employer in writing when any employee is granted a leave of absence, indicating the date the leave becomes effective and the date it ends as well as the reasons for such leave.

ARTICLE XXVIII

Before the Employer will install a machine of a type not now in a store covered by a Greater Kansas City Retail Meat Cutters Contract which expired October 3, 1965, the Employer will notify the Union in writing of its intention to do so, and then, if the Union informs the Employer in writing within 30 days thereafter that it believes the operator of the machine should be paid a rate higher than that stipulated in this contract, the Employer will negotiate with the Union in regard to the rate which should be paid for such operation, and if an agreement is not reached within 30 days thereafter, either party within 10 days after the 30 day period may request that the difference be settled under Article X. This clause shall not apply to new or improved models of machines of the type now in operation in a store covered by said expired contract, and it shall not be operative unless the Union acts in the manner and within the time specified herein.

ARTICLE XXIX

Period of Agreement

This Agreement shall remain in full force and effect from April 8, 1973, through April 7, 1974. The entire Agreement may be reopened for negotiation of changes, if desired on April 7, 1974, upon sixty (60) days notice in writing from either party to the other party. If no such notice is given, then the terms in effect on April 7, 1974, shall continue in full force and effect from month to month thereafter until sixty (60) days notice is served.
