Contract: Warehouse

DATE OF EXECUTION

This Agreement made and entered into by and between the Jewel Food Stores Division of Jewel Companies, Inc., hereinafter referred to as the "Employer" and Chicago Truck Drivers, Helpers and Warehouse Workers Union (Independent), hereinafter referred to as the "Union" this 28th day of June, 1979.

ARTICLE I

RECOGNITION

Section 1.1 Recognition—The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining agency for all employees of the Employer engaged in warehousing operations by the Employer in its warehouses located at:

1955 West North Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois, including the main truck dock distribution area of the bakery as presently assigned and small goods warehouse located at:
3501 Mt. Prospect Rd., Franklin Park, Illinois and the Hillside Perishable Center located at 300 Craig Place, Hillside, Illinois excepting, however, all employees holding executive, supervisory or professional positions, office employees and employees on the general office payroll, employees in the bakery at Melrose Park, engineers and engineer helpers, drivers, mechanics, watch service personnel furnished by others, cafeteria employees, wood finishers, nailers, millmen and other skilled craftsmen, and employees covered by other bargaining agreements.

The Employer is defined as the various Employer Associations who are signatory to this Agreement; Employers who have given authorization to any of the Employer Associations to execute this Agreement on their behalf; Employers who have not given such authorization to any of the Employer Associations but sign this Agreement; as well as Employers who, either through any of the Employer Associations acting on the Employer's behalf or as an Employer acting independently of the Employer Associations, agree to comply with the wage increases and/or other economic increases which are negotiated by and between the Employer Associations and the Union. The Employees covered by this Agreement shall constitute one (1) bargaining unit, for the purpose of collective bargaining.

Section 1.2 Movement of Warehouses—The Employer agrees that it will not change the location of the above warehouses in an effort to obtain different wages and working conditions than those prevailing in this Agreement; provided however, that this shall in no way restrain the Employer from transferring and changing its warehouses provided that it continues the wages and working conditions in the relocated warehouse or warehouses. It is further expressly understood that this Section applies only to warehousing operations pertinent to the Jewel Food Stores Division of the Employer.

Section 1.3 Employees' Job Security—For the purpose of continuing to preserve work and earning opportunities of employees in the certified collective bargaining units represented by the Union, Jewel agrees that no work or services presently being performed by the employees in the certified collective bargaining units represented by the Union will be discontinued, subcontracted, transferred, leased, assigned, conveyed or farmed out in whole or in part to other carriers or persons during the life of the triennial Wage Agreement beginning April 1, 1979 and ending March 31, 1982, where such action will result in the layoff of any persons comprised within the groups for whom the Agreements now provide a guaranteed full month's equivalent of regular straight-time work or pay.

The Employer agrees that all full-time employees on the Permanent Seniority Rosters as of June 30, 1973 shall be guaranteed a full month's equivalent in regular straight-time work or pay in any month in which they work one (1) day or more. The aforementioned guarantee shall not apply to employees hired after June 30, 1973.

Section 1.4 Work Jurisdiction — For the term of the Agreement covering the period of April 1, 1979 through March 31, 1982, the Employer agrees that all stores being serviced by the facilities covered by this Agreement as of June 30, 1973, shall not be removed to another source of servicing. It is understood that this commitment is subject to historical prevailing practices, including but not limited to the normal closing and opening of stores. This includes stores which may be opened in addition or in replacement of these stores located in the general area now being serviced by the Melrose Park facilities covered by this Agreement as of June 30, 1973.

Section 1.5 Opening New Warehouses—When a new warehouse, or warehouses, is opened to perform any or part of the warehousing operations described in Article I, now being performed by employees covered by this Agreement in the area included in the Counties of Lake, McHenry, Boone, DeKalb, Kane, DuPage, Cook, Kendall and Will in the State of Illinois, and in the Counties of Lake and Porter in the State of Indiana and in the County of Kenosha in the State of Wisconsin, or within a radius of one hundred (100) miles from 1955 West North Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois, whichever is greater, the Employer shall offer to all employees covered by this Agreement the opportunity to transfer to regular positions in the new warehouse, in the order of their seniority, with first preference to employees in the warehouse or warehouses which will be affected in whole or in part by the opening of the new warehouse or warehouses. The transferred employees shall for a period of thirty (30) days following the transfer have an unqualified right to return to their old warehouse or warehouses if it is still in existence and carry with them their old seniority at that warehouse or warehouses. Employees who avail themselves of the transfer privilege because they are on layoff from their original warehouse may exercise their seniority rights if work becomes available at the original warehouse during the one year layoff period allowed them at their original warehouse. This provision shall not apply to an existing, operating warehouse that may be acquired by the Employer after the date of execution of this Agreement.

Section 1.6 Seniority—Acquisition of New Businesses—In the event the Employer acquires new business ventures which become a part of the Employer's operations covered by this collective bargaining agreement the seniority of the employees absorbed and of all employees affected by such acquisition covered by this Agreement shall be determined by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union and any other collective bargaining agent involved, and the action taken by the parties shall be final and binding on all the employees affected.

ARTICLE II

GENERAL

Section 2.1 Definitions—Whenever used in this Agreement the following terms shall have the following definitions:

- (a) A regular full-time employee is an employee who has been employed to work on a regular full-time basis and has satisfactorily met the employment standards of the Employer.
- (b) Student vacation replacements shall be bona fide students attending an accredited school or college and may work only during their regular vacation periods. Students may be assigned to any work covered by this Agreement. Students shall be offered overtime and extra day work only after such work has first been offered to all regular employees in the group or shift to which they are assigned or in the case of extra day work to the facility to which they are assigned. This does not preclude student workers from being scheduled when the entire work force is scheduled. Student vacation replacements and temporary employees shall not acquire seniority rights.

Section 2.2 Notices—All notices required under this Agreement shall be deemed to be properly served if delivered in writing personally or sent by certified or registered mail to the offices of the Union at 809 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois, 60607, or to the Employer at 1955 West North Avenue, Melrose Park, Illinois, 60160, or to an employee at his home address or to any subsequent address which the Union, the employee or the Employer may designate in writing for such purpose. Date of service of a notice served by mail shall be the date on which such notice is postmarked by a post office of the United States Post Office Department. All notices with reference to this Agreement shall be identified by the words, "Warehouse Agreement."

Section 2.3 Savings Clause; Separability—Nothing contained in this Agreement is intended to violate any Federal law, rule or regulation made pursuant thereto. If any part of this Agreement is construed by a court or board of competent jurisdiction to be in such violation, then that part shall be null and void, but the remainder of the Agreement shall continue in full force.

Section 2.4 Effective Date—Unless the context of the Agreement indicates otherwise, all provisions of the Agreement become effective on the execution date or on the date of the beginning of the term hereof, whichever is later.

ARTICLE III

UNION-MANAGEMENT RELATIONS

Section 3.1 Union Security—All present employees who are members of the Union on the date of the execution of this Agreement, or the effective date of this Agreement, whichever is later, shall remain members of the Union in good standing as a condition of employment. All present employees who are not members of the Union and all employees who are hired hereafter shall become and remain members of the Union in good standing as a condition of employment on and after the thirty-first (31st) day following the beginning of their employment, or on and after the thirty-first (31st) day following the date of the execution of this Agreement, or the effective date, whichever occurs later. The Employer agrees to notify the Union in writing of the name and residence address of each new employee hired by the Employer within seven (7) calendar days after the completion of each calendar week.

Section 3.2 Union Cooperation—The Union recognizes the responsibility assumed by it as the exclusive bargaining agent of the employees in the bargaining unit. It, therefore, pledges the full cooperation of its membership to promote the economic success of the Employer in order that the maximum opportunity for continuous employment, good wages and good working conditions may continue; and agrees that the employees covered by this Agreement shall diligently work for the best interests of the Employer in every way just and lawful, giving honest and diligent service to the Employer and to each other.

Section 3.3 Management—Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, the management of the business, including the right to plan, direct and control warehousing operations and warehousing hours, and the direction of the working forces, including the right to hire, assign work to employees and employees to work, promote and transfer, the right to suspend or discharge for good and sufficient cause, as hereinafter provided are vested exclusively in the Employer.

Section 3.4 Union Dues—The Employer agrees to deduct the Union's periodic dues and initiation fees from the pay of each employee who individually authorizes said deductions in writing and to remit the amounts so deducted to the Union. Said deduction authorization shall be in such form as to conform with Section 302(c) of the Labor Management Relations Act of 1947.

All Union members must maintain their membership in good standing in the Union by payment of their initiation fees and periodic dues uniformly required as a condition of acquiring or retaining such membership. If any employee's membership in good standing lapses, the Union agrees to notify the Employer in writing and to give the Union member not less than two (2) weeks' time in which to re-establish his membership in good standing before the Employer will be called upon to release him. Disputes with respect to the good standing of members shall be resolved in accordance with the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

Section 3.5 Union Officials and Stewards—The Union shall have the right to designate a steward for each warehouse. The Union shall keep the Employer informed in writing as to the names of the stewards currently authorized to represent the Union.

The authorized Union business representatives shall be admitted to the Employer's warehouses during reasonable business hours for the purposes of adjusting disputes, investigating working conditions and ascertaining whether or not this Agreement is being observed. Such activity shall be conducted in such a manner as not to interfere with the orderly operation of the Employer's business, it being further agreed that lengthy discussions between employees and representatives of the Union, including the steward, or among themselves, concerning disputes shall not take place during working hours.

Section 3.6 Discipline—During an employee's trial period, an employee may be released from employment for any reason at the sole discretion of the Employer. After an employee has completed the trial period and has acquired seniority, such employee shall not be suspended or discharged without just cause.

ARTICLE IV

The constant start time shall apply solely to group shifts scheduled as part of the basic workweek. The work schedules for regularly assigned employees shall be posted. Work schedules may be changed from time to time provided that reasonable advance notice of such changes is given the employee affected thereby. Section 4.5 Work Guarantees—The first ninety percent (90%) by seniority of the Employer's regular full-time employees on the active payroll shall be guaranteed not less than forty (40) hours of work or the full equivalent in pay for such workweek except this guarantee shall be for thirty-two (32) hours of work or the full equivalent in pay in a holiday workweek. This guarantee shall be for twenty-four (24) hours of work or the full equivalent in pay in the event that there is a double holiday in a holiday workweek. A warehouse employee shall forfeit his weekly guarantee in that week that he takes off a regularly scheduled workday Monday through Friday, on his own initiative or is laid off or discharged for cause. This weekly guarantee shall not be binding upon the Employer in the event of a work stoppage due to causes outside of the Employer's control such as strikes, fire or other casualty causing such destruction as to cause a complete stoppage of Employer's operations, war or other national emergency causing complete stoppage of operations and governmental regulations.

ARTICLE VI HOLIDAYS

Section 6.1 National Holidays—All full-time employees who qualify shall receive eight (8) hours' pay at straight-time including night shift premium when applicable (referred to as "holiday pay" in this Agreement) for the following holidays (or the days legally observed in lieu thereof) not worked:

A full-time employee who was laid off because of lack of work or proven illness and is not returned to work within the aforementioned 30 day period shall not be entitled to said extra pay upon his return.

VACATIONS AND ABSENCE LEAVES

Section 7.1 Length of Vacation—Each employee covered by this Agreement who qualifies shall be entitled to a vacation with pay in accordance with the following schedule :

Number of Successive Years of Qualifying Employment	Number of Weeks' Vacation With Pay
1 year	1 week
2 through 8 years	2 weeks
9 through 14 years	3 weeks
15 through 19 years	4 weeks
20 or more years	5 weeks

As used herein, the term "successive" means employment uninterrupted by separation from service. The term "year of qualifying employment" means an anniversary year of employment in the first and last years of employment and a calendar year of employment in all other years in which the employee meets the requirements for a vacation with respect to that anniversary or calendar year of employment, whichever is applicable.

Section 7.2 Vacation Qualifications—To qualify for his first vacation, each employee must work not less than 1250 straight-time hours in his first year of employment.

Once an employee qualifies for his first vacation, he will qualify for each succeeding vacation (except the vacation applicable to his last year of employment) if (1) he is in service on January 1 of the calendar year in which the vacation is to be taken; and (2) he works not less than 1250 straight-time hours during the preceding calendar year.

To qualify for his last vacation, each employee must work not less than 1250 straight-time hours in his last year of employment.

After a full-time employee has qualified for his first vacation, but not more often than once in each three (3) years thereafter, such employee shall qualify for a vacation even though he worked less than 1250 straight-time hours provided his failure to work was due to his personal illness or injury.

Hours off which are paid for under the holiday and vacation provisions of this Agreement shall be counted as hours worked for the purpose of meeting the 1250 straight-time hours' worked requirement.

The failure of a full-time employee to meet the hours worked requirement to qualify for a vacation in the next year shall affect only the year in which such vacation should have been taken, and such year of employment shall nevertheless be counted as a year of service for the purpose of determining the length of any subsequent vacations to which he may become entitled.

Section 7.3 Vacation Administration—

(1) Calendar-Year Basis

Notwithstanding the qualifications which must be met with respect to each year of employment, but subject to refund or adjustment of vacation pay in the event such qualifications are not met, each full-time employee covered by this Agreement shall take each vacation on a calendar-year basis, that is, between January 1 and December 31, in accordance with the following schedule:

Calendar Year In Which Service Anniversary Falls	Number of Weeks' Vacation With Pay
1st anniversary	1
2nd through 8th anniversaries	2
9th through 14th anniversaries	3
15th through 19th anniversaries	4
20th and subsequent anniversaries	5

(2) Vacation Pay—

Employees covered by this Agreement shall receive fifty (50) hours straight-time pay including night shift premium when applicable for each week of vacation entitlement at the employee's rate of pay at the time the vacation is taken.

(3) Vacation Schedules

All vacations shall be subject to the necessary scheduling of replacements by the Employer which may limit the number of employees who may be on vacation at any one time.

Preference in the choice of earned vacation dates shall be given on the basis of seniority with first choice going to the employee with the greatest length of continuous service in his group and so on.

(4) Vacation Weeks

All vacations shall be for calendar weeks.* Vacations of three weeks or more may be split by mutual agreement between the employee and the Employer but not into any period of less than one week. Vacations of less than three weeks' duration may not be split except in unusual cases and then only where the individual's application is approved by the Employer as consistent with efficient operation.

(5) Holidays Within Vacations

Whenever a holiday recognized under this Agreement falls within a full-time employee's vacation period, the employee shall receive an extra day's pay or subsequent day of vacation as agreed upon by the Employer and the employee.

(6) One Vacation Per Calendar Year

No employee shall be entitled to more than one vacation in any calendar year of employment and no vacation may be accumulated from one calendar year to another.

(7) Adjustment of Pay in the Event of Layoff or Separation From Service

The grant of vacations on a calendar-year basis is subject to the condition that should any employee leave service prior to having completed his qualifying hours in his last anniversary year of employment he shall refund to the Employer any vacation pay advanced but unearned. Any employee who is laid off, quits or is discharged and who has put in his qualifying 1250 straight-time hours since his last anniversary date shall receive the vacation pay due him, if any, within two (2) weeks of the date of layoff, quitting or discharge.

(8) Return From Vacation—Seniority Rights

An employee returning from vacation shall not be eligible for work on the Sunday immediately following completion of the vacation week unless he notifies the person he normally reports to between the hours of 12 noon Friday and 12 noon of the Saturday immediately preceding the Sunday of the week in which he returns that he is available for such Sunday work unless the Sunday work is part of his normal regular schedule.

Section 7.4 Jury Service—When any full-time employee who is covered by this Agreement is summoned for jury service, he shall be excused from work for the days in which he reports for jury service and/or serves. He shall receive for each such day on which he so reports and/or serves and on which he otherwise would have worked the difference between his regular pay including night shift premium when applicable for that day and the payment he receives for jury service, if any; provided however, that no payment shall be made under the provisions of this Section to any employee summoned for jury service unless he shall have advised the Employer of the receipt by him of such jury summons not less than seven (7) days before the first day on which he is required to serve on the jury. Before any payment shall be made to any employee hereunder, the employee shall present to the Employer proof of his summons for service and of the time served and the amount of pay received therefor, if he shall have served as juror. When an employee is released for a day or part of a day during any period of jury service, he shall report for work. An employee receiving payment for time lost under this Section all not receive payment under any other provision of this Agreement for said lost time. The maximum payment for jury duty shall not exceed ten (10) days.

Section 7.5 Funeral Leave—The Employer agrees to pay regular full-time employees for necessary absence on account of death in the immediate family up to and including a maximum of three (3) scheduled workdays at straight time, including night shift premium when applicable, provided the employee attends the funeral. The term "immediate family" shall mean spouse, parent, child, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, or any relative residing with the employee or with whom the employee is residing. Benefits under this Section shall not be available to employees for death in the immediate family arising while they are absent from work due to layoff, leave of absence, disability, or other reasons. Employees receiving payment for time lost under this Section shall not receive payments under any other provision of this Agreement for said lost time.

Section 7.6 General Leaves of Absence—An employee who desires a personal leave of absence shall apply for such leave in writing. In his application he shall state the length of leave desired, the time when he would like to take it, and the reason for requesting the leave. Each request for leave of absence shall be processed in accordance with Employer policy and may be granted, limited or denied. During the period of a granted leave of absence, the employee shall not engage in any gainful employment and doing so shall constitute just cause for discharge.

Employees covered by the Chicago Truck Drivers, Helpers and Warehouse Workers Union (Independent) Health and Welfare and Pension Funds shall provide for continued coverage by such funds by continuing payments to such funds during such leaves of absence. The personal leave of absence shall be for a maximum of six (6) months.

Section 7.7 Military Leave—Vacation—For the year in which a person returns from a military leave of absence, he shall be eligible for a vacation based on the date he returns to Employer's service according to the following schedule:

If he returns before June 1—Full vacation allowance.

If he returns between June 1 and October 1—Half vacation allowance.

If he returns after October 1—No vacation allowance.

An employee who enters military service and returns within the same calendar year shall not receive more vacation pay than he would have received had he not entered the military service.

ARTICLE VIII

SENIORITY

Section 8.1 Seniority Defined—Seniority means the rights secured by full-time employees by length of continuous employment service as provided herein.

An employee's seniority shall start from the most recent date when an employee starts work as a full-time employee, except that no employee shall acquire any seniority rights until he completes a trial period of employment as provided in Section 8.2, after which his seniority shall date back to the beginning of the trial period.

Student vacation replacements and temporary employees shall not acquire seniority rights.

When two or more employees are hired the same day, their relative seniority shall be determined by lot.

Section 8.2 Trial Period—The trial period for all employees shall be sixty (60) working days within a period of one hundred eighty (180) consecutive calendar days commencing with the first day worked as a full time employee. An employee may be discharged for any reason during the sixty (60) day trial period.

Section 8.3 Seniority Lists—The Employer shall post in each warehouse covered by this Agreement a list of all full-time employees who had acquired seniority as of the preceding December 31. Employees shall be listed on each list in the order of seniority with that employee with the greatest seniority listed first and the in-service date of each employee listed opposite his name. The in-service date posted opposite each employee's name shall be presumed to be correct unless an employee objects to the Employer and the Union within thirty (30) days of the date of posting. In the event of such objection, the employee or employees involved and representatives of the Employer and Union shall meet to determine the correct in-service date. Once determined said in-service date shall no longer be subject to objection.

Section 8.4 Termination of Seniority—An employee's seniority and his employment shall be terminated if he (1) quits; (2) retires; (3) is discharged; (4) fails to report after a layoff within fourteen (14) calendar days after the Employer sends to the last address known to the Employer a written notification to work unless said failure to return to work is due to the proven illness or injury of the employee; (5) refuses, as an alternative to being laid off to accept work in his classification at another warehouse covered by this Agreement; (6) refuses, after having been laid off, to accept work in his classification at another warehouse covered by this Agreement; or (7) if a full-time employee has been laid off by the Employer for a period of two hundred (200) or more consecutive calendar days.

An employee shall be considered as quitting: (a) who so notifies the Employer either orally or in writing; or (b) who fails to report for work within fourteen (14) calendar days after being recalled from layoff status unless such failure to report for work is due to proven illness or injury; or (c) who fails to return from a leave of absence on the first workday following its expiration unless such failure to report for work is due to proven illness or injury; or (d) who is absent from work without approval for four (4) consecutive calendar days in a scheduled work-week; or (e) who while on leave of absence accepts other employment or goes into business for himself.

Section 8.5 Promotion to Supervisor—If an employee is promoted from a job within the bargaining unit to a supervisory position with the Employer he shall continue to accumulate seniority while working in the supervisory position for a period of one year; and if transferred to the collective bargaining unit within said one year period, he shall commence work with the seniority rank he had at the time of his promotion plus the seniority accumulated while he was working in the supervisory position.

Section 8.6 Seniority of Employees on Leaves of Absence—The seniority rights of an employee who, either by voluntary action or draft, entered the Armed Forces of the United States shall continue as though he had not been absent, and he shall have the right to be reinstated to his employment as provided by law and regulation thereunder.

The seniority of an employee on an extended leave of absence, which is hereby defined as any leave of absence other than military leave of absence in excess of ninety (90) days, shall be protected to the expiration of said leave of absence but not in excess of one year, but shall not accumulate during any period of absence in excess of one year.

Section 8.7 Seniority for Layoffs and Recalls After Layoffs—Provided the employee is qualified, seniority shall control the order of layoffs and recalls after layoffs of full-time employees on a bargaining unit-wide basis.

Section 8.8 Seniority for Promotions and Transfers—Each employee shall have the right to bid on a job regardless of shift and if he, or she, were to change from days to nights, or vice versa, they would be given all their seniority on a bargaining unit-wide basis in the following seven operational groupings, each of which groupings is hereinafter referred to as department:

(1) Building C, including both day and night perishable, freezer and salvage operations.

(2) Building A, day and night groceries.

(3) Janitors.

(4) Bakery distribution handlers, both day and night.

(5) Fixture shop.

(6) Watchmen.

(7) Small Goods Warehouse.

(8) Hillside Perishable Warehouse.

In the event job openings are not filled by bid within the related department, the job will be bid to the most senior employee from other departments.

All promotions and transfers shall be on a thirty (30) working day trial basis. If in the opinion of the Employer the employee's services in the position to which he was promoted or transferred were not satisfactory during such trial period, then such employee shall be returned to his former job at his former rate of pay.

Temporary vacancies of less than thirty (30) days need not be posted but to the extent possible shall be filled by seniority.

Section 8.9 Working Foremen — Bids — Selection — Duties — The Employer agrees to post for bid openings for working foremen. The Employer shall recognize seniority of the bidders in the selection process. All promotions to working foremen shall be on a sixty (60) working day trial basis. If in the opinion of the Employer the employee's services in the position to which he was promoted or transferred were not satisfactory during such trial period, then such employee shall be returned to his former job at his former rate of pay.

Working foremen shall aid in the direction of the working force including, but not limited to, assigning work, training personnel, maintaining records and performing such other functions as may be assigned. Working foremen may perform work as indicated, and otherwise perform any and all bargaining unit activities as the needs indicate.

ARTICLE IX

HEALTH AND WELFARE

Section 9.1 Regular Full-Time Employees—Jewel Package Plan—The Employer shall provide, maintain and administer the Jewel Package Plan, subject to the terms and conditions stated therein as the same may be amended from time to time, cost free, except as to optional life insurance, for each regular full-time employee in the bargaining unit on the active seniority roster who enrolls in said Plan.

ARTICLE X

RETIREMENT AND PENSION

Section 10.1 Jewel Retirement Estates — Regular Full-Time Employees — For the duration of this Agreement, the Employer shall provide, maintain and administer its profit sharing retirement program in effect on the date of execution of this Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions stated therein as the same may be amended from time to time for each regular full-time employee in the collective bargaining unit.

ARTICLE XI

NO STRIKE; NO LOCKOUT

The Union and the Employer agree on the need for the continuance of their service to the public without interruption. Both recognize this objective as necessary to the security of the Company and its people and specifically pledge themselves to help assure that security by using the procedures agreed upon between them for the adjustment of disputes and grievances in all cases where there is any difference of opinion concerning the rights of either under this Agreement or the interpretation or application of any provision of it. Therefore, during the term of this Agreement there shall be no strikes, stoppage, diminution or suspension of work of any kind whatsoever on the part of the Union or its membership; nor shall there be any lockout on the part of the Employer.

ARTICLE XII

GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION

Section 12.1 Grievances—Should any dispute or grievance arise between the Employer and the Union or between the Employer and its employees concerning the application or interpretation of this Agreement, or involving a disciplinary penalty (including discharge) which is alleged to have been imposed without just cause, the parties agree that such matter shall be adjusted if possible by negotiation.

If a grievance cannot be resolved through negotiations between the Employer and the Union, then within thirty (30) calendar days, said grievance shall be submitted to a Joint Grievance Committee which shall consist of four Employer designated representatives and four Union designated representatives. This Joint Grievance Committee shall consider the grievance and shall render a resolution of said grievance by majority vote, which shall be final and binding on the employee, the Employer and the Union. If the Joint Grievance Committee is deadlocked on the matter of the resolution of the grievance, then either party may invoke the arbitration provisions as set forth in Section 12.2.

Any grievance involving a claim of improper discharge, suspension or other disciplinary action must be presented within fourteen (14) calendar days of such discharge, suspension or other disciplinary action. All other grievances must be made within thirty (30) calendar days after the cause giving rise to the grievance becomes evident. Any grievance that is not filed within these time limits shall be deemed to be conclusively abandoned or waived unless said time limit is abandoned or waived by mutual consent of the parties.

Section 12.2 Arbitration—The arbitration provisions of this Agreement may be invoked only by the Union or the Employer, either of which may within thirty (30) calendar days after failure to adjust the grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure serve upon the other party a written demand for arbitration stating the issue to be arbitrated.

The parties shall endeavor to select an impartial arbitrator. However, if the parties fail to agree upon an arbitrator who is willing and able to serve within fifteen (15) calendar days after service of the demand for arbitration, either party may, within seven (7) calendar days thereafter, request either the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service or the American Arbitration Association, whichever the party submitting the grievance may choose, to submit a list of not less than five disinterested persons who are qualified and willing to act as impartial arbitrators. Upon receipt of this list, an authorized representative of the Union and of the Employer shall flip a coin to determine who shall have first choice to strike a name. The party winning the toss shall then strike a name from the panel. Thereafter, the parties shall alternately strike one name until only one remains. The person whose name remains shall be the selected arbitrator.

The arbitrator shall commence hearings as quickly as possible after his selection and shall render his award in writing together with his written findings and conclusions as quickly as reasonably possible after the hearing. The award shall be final and binding upon the parties to this Agreement and upon the complaining employee or employees, if any.

The arbitrator shall have no power to determine arbitrability nor to add to, subtract from, modify, or amend any provision of this Agreement, nor to substitute his discretion for the discretion of the Union or the Employer, change existing wage rates, or arbitrate proposals for the amendment or renewal of this Agreement.

The arbitrator's fees and expenses, the cost of any hearing room and the cost of a shorthand reporter and of the original transcript shall be borne by the loser. All other cost and expense shall be borne by the party incurring them.

ARTICLE XIII

TERM

Section 13.1 Initial Term—Except as the context of a provision shall provide otherwise, this Agreement shall become effective at 12:01 A.M. April 1, 1979 and shall expire at 12:00 midnight, March 31, 1982.

Section 13.2 Renewal Term—If either party wishes to modify this Agreement at its expiration, it shall serve notice in writing of such request upon the other party not less than sixty (60) days prior to the expiration date. In the absence of the service of such notice, this Agreement shall automatically renew itself for a period of one year and from year to year thereafter.

Section A.2 Cost-of-Living Allowance

All employees excluding student vacation replacements subject to this Agreement shall be covered by the provisions of a cost-of-living allowance as set forth in this Section.

The amount of the cost-of-living allowance shall be determined and redetermined as provided below on the basis of the "Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, CPI-W (Revised Series), All Items (1967=100)", published by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, and referred to herein as the "Index".

Cost-of-living allowances shall be effective on October 1, 1979, April 1, 1980, October 1, 1980, April 1, 1981, and April 1, 1982, as set forth below:

Effective Date of Adjustments	Based Upon the difference between the Index of January 1979 and the Indices for the Months set forth below, giving full credit for all prior Cost-of-Living adjustments which are paid under this Agreement.
October 1, 1979	July, 1979 (published August, 1979)
April 1, 1980	January, 1980 (published February, 1980)
October 1, 1980	July, 1980 (published August, 1980)
April 1, 1981	January, 1981 (published February, 1981)
April 1, 1982	January, 1982 (published February, 1982)

For example, the April 1, 1981 adjustment will be calculated by the difference between January, 1979 Index and the January, 1981 Index, subtracting therefrom the amount of the cost-of-living adjustments paid on October 1, 1979, April 1, 1980 and October 1, 1980.

The October 1, 1981 cost-of-living adjustment will become effective April 1, 1982 when it will be paid prospectively along with the cost-of-living adjustment effective April 1, 1982 and will become part of the wage base effective April 1, 1982.

The Base Index figure shall be the figure for January, 1979 (published February, 1979) of 204.7. The cost-of-living increases shall be calculated as follows:

For every .3 point increase in the Index, there shall be a one cent (1¢) per hour increase in the wage rates as indicated in the table below.

Index Value	Allowance Per Hour
204.7 - 204.9	0
205.0 - 205.2	1¢
205.3 - 205.5	2¢
205.6 - 205.8	3¢
205.9 - 206.1	4¢
206.2 - 206.4	5¢
206.5 - 206.7	6¢
206.8 - 207.0	7¢
207.1 - 207.3	8¢
207.4 - 207.6	9¢
207.7 - 207.9	10¢

and so forth, with each additional .3 point increase in the Index there is a 1¢ per hour increase in the wage rates. Any cost-of-living allowance made hereunder shall be applied to the wage rates herein provided, and shall become a fixed part of the base rates for any classification and shall be included in computation of all fringes and guarantees.

A decline in the Index shall not result in a reduction of classification base rates. In the event the appropriate Index figure is not issued before the effective date of the cost-of-living adjustment, the cost-of-living adjustment that is required will be made at the beginning of the first pay period after receipt of the Index and will be made retroactive to the effective date.

In the event the Bureau of Labor Statistics should revise or correct an applicable Index figure, any adjustment that may be required in the cost-of-living allowance shall be effective at the beginning of the first pay period after receipt of the revised or corrected Index figure and no retroactive adjustments will be made.

In the event the Index shall be revised or discontinued, and in the event the Bureau of Labor Statistics, U. S. Department of Labor, does not issue information which would enable the Employer and the Union to know what the Index would have been had it not been revised or discontinued, then the Employer and the Union will meet, negotiate and agree upon an appropriate substitute for the Index. Upon failure of the parties to agree in such negotiations within sixty (60) days, either party may invoke Article XII of the current Collective Bargaining Agreement.
