This shall not prevent the Union officials from entering Stores to satisfy themselves that this Agreement is being observed.
8. It is further agreed that complaints and grievances shall be discussed with Officials of the Employer at the Store level. If said complaints and grievances cannot be settled at the Store level, same will be referred to the Business Agent and the Store Supervisor without any disruption in work.

LAY-OFFS AND PROMOTIONS SENIORITY

9. In lay-offs and rehiring or reduction from full-time to part-time and subsequent reinstatement to full-time, the Employer shall conform to the ordinary rules of seniority.
10. In promotions, demotions, and transfers from one type of work to another, or from one location to another, the Employer shall have the right to select qualified employees, but as between qualified employees, preference shall be given according to seniority.
11. Full time employees reduced to part time shall be given all available work in the seniority area short of overtime conditions, and no new full time employees shall be hired until such full time employees reduced to part time have been reinstated to full time. ✓/T
12. Seniority shall be calculated by continuous service with the Company from the last employment date. Employees laid off and subsequently rehired by the Employer within six (6) months from the lay-off date shall retain their former seniority regardless of any change in their places of employment.
13. Employees reduced from full time to part time shall not suffer loss of seniority as long as they remain on the payroll. If laid off completely, they shall retain their seniority for a period of six months thereafter.
14. Full time employees absent on account of ill health shall retain their seniority for a period of one (1) year from the date of their absence. Sickness leave of absence will commence the week following receipt by the employee of the final sick benefit payment as scheduled in the Paragraph entitled "Sick Leave."

15. Part time employees will be placed in full time jobs in accordance with seniority in the seniority area, however, qualifications of said employees to fill the job shall be equally considered.

DEFINITION OF FULL TIME EMPLOYEE

17. For the purpose of this Agreement, any employee who works forty (40) or more hours per week for six (6) or more consecutive weeks will be considered a full time employee.
18. Full time employees reduced to part time shall be paid on a pro rata basis of their full time weekly rate, or the part time rate according to their experience on an acumulative basis, whichever is the greater, and they shall acquire service for their full time rate on the basis of the actual hours worked except that in the resort area the Employer shall have the privilege of working any employee forty (40) hours per week during the period May 30th to September 30th as full time and then reducing them to part time with a part time part time rate according to seniority.
19. Seniority areas within the Scranton Unit effective during the term of this Agreement are set forth in the Schedule annexed hereto, made a part hereof, and marked Schedule "B".

Two (2) weeks notice must be given to the Employer in the above instances.
21. The maximum period of absence permitted will be one (1) year subject to renewal and extension for additional period of only one (1) year during each renewal. These additional one (1) year renewal periods may be extended only through the joint and mutual consent of both the Union and the Employer.

GRIEVANCES AND ARBITRATION

22. In the case of any complaint on the part of either the Employer or the Union or any individual employees, the matter shall be taken up in the first instance between the Employer and the Union's Grievance Committee, or any other authorized official of the Local, without delay.

Should these parties be unable to adjust the said grievances, the matter shall be referred to a Board of Arbitration, consisting of one member selected by the Employer, one member selected by the Union, and the third, who shall act as Chairman, selected by the two as chosen.

The Union and the Employer shall name their parties and notify the other party within two (2) days of the failure of the conference referred to above to adjust the difficulty.

It is agreed that the parties shall make every effort to choose the Impartial Arbitrator themselves. Only in the event they are unable to agree upon the Impartial Arbitrator within five (5) days, the American Arbitration Association shall be requested to appoint the third Arbitrator.

The majority of the Board of Arbitration must render a decision not later than thirty (30) days after the grievance has been submitted to them. This period may be extended beyond the thirty (30) days only through the joint and mutual consent of both the Union and the Employer.

The expense of the third and impartial arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties to this Agreement, and the decision of the Board shall be final and binding upon both parties.

23. All grievances must be brought to the attention of the parties hereto within two (2) weeks after the occurrence, except appeals from discharge which shall be brought to the attention of the parties hereto within one (1) week after the date of discharge.

TRIAL PERIOD AND APPROVAL

24. The first thirty (30) days employment service of an employee shall be considered a trial period. The Employer may dismiss or discharge any new employee for any reason whatsoever within the first thirty (30) days of his employment, and there shall be no right to appeal.

25. In case of discharge of an employee who has been in the service of the Company for more than thirty (30) days, such employee shall have the right to appeal to the Union within one (1) week after the date of discharge. Upon such appeal, the Employer and the Union shall jointly investigate the reasons for discharge and the justification thereof. If the Union and the Employer cannot agree as to the justification of such discharge, then the matter shall be arbitrated in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 22.

ENFORCEMENT OF STANDARDS

26. The Union agrees to do everything within its power to enforce its rules and regulations and through advice, instruction, and example, to maintain the highest standard of work.

STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

27. It is mutually agreed by the parties to this Agreement that there shall be no strike or stoppage of work by the employees or by the Union, nor shall there be any lockout by the Employer during the life of this Agreement, and that any differences or misunderstandings which may arise between the contracting parties shall be amicably adjusted by and between the parties themselves, and if the parties themselves cannot amicably adjust the differences, then the matter shall be referred to a Board of Arbitration, as provided in Paragraph 22.
28. Nothing herein contained, however, shall compel any employee to walk through a picket line set up as a part of a duly authorized and legally called strike against the Employer.

WORK WEEK

29. The work week shall consist of five (5) days to be worked within forty (40) hours. All work

In the case of an emergency causing the absence from work of a night shift employee, another full time employee may be worked two (2) nights or more on the night shift at the five dollar ($5.00) night premium rate. For any employee worked on the night shift for less than two (2) nights, overtime rates shall apply.

In addition to the five ($5.00) dollar per week premium, the man in charge of a night crew shall receive three ($3.00) dollars per week over and above his scale.
