Section 2. Shop Stewards may not be transferred from store or job assignment without written consent to the Union, except in cases of promotion. The Shop Stewards shall have superseniority on his seniority list for layoff in their store within classification. Further, the Shop Stewards shall not be threatened, coerced or intimidated for performing Union activities.

Section 3. Shop Stewards shall be entitled to a leave of one (1) day each calendar year with pay, for Shop Steward Training and Education. The Union must notify the Employer at least two (2) weeks in advance thereof. The Shop Steward must upon returning from the leave present the Store Manager with written evidence from the Union that the steward has used the leave for the purpose for which the leave was intended.

For purposes of the above, one (1) Shop Steward per Meat Department and one (1) Shop Steward per Grocery Department will be eligible for pay on said leave.

ARTICLE 10 ARBITRATION AND ADJUSTMENT

Section 1. Should a controversy, dispute or disagreement arise during the period of this Agreement concerning the interpretation of the provisions of this Agreement, except that liability for wage claims shall not be subject to arbitration unless involving a disputed interpretation of the provisions of the Agreement, there shall be no cessation or stoppage of work or lockout because of such controversy, dispute, or disagreement, but the difference shall be adjusted in the following manner.

Section 2. Upon receipt of notice from either party, the representative of the Employer and the representative of the Union shall, within three (3) days, commence discussion in an attempt to reach a settlement of the controversy.

Section 3. If the matter is not amicably settled under Section 2 above, then either party may, on giving five (5) days notice to the other party:

(1) Submit the matter to the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service for a list of fifteen (15) Arbitrators and the parties shall select therefrom one (1) arbitrator as follows: Each of the parties shall strike one (1) name from the list until a last name remains, each of the parties drawing lots to determine who shall be entitled to the first strike.

(2) The arbitrator shall not have the authority to decide questions involving the jurisdiction of any Local or of the International or which may, in any way, affect or change the Union Security clause, nor shall the arbitrator have the authority to effect a change in, modify, or amend any of the provisions of this Agreement or to make decisions or provisions covering wages or working conditions to be incorporated either in a new Agreement or any subsequent annual Agreement, except as hereinafter provided.

(3) In the event that one party should fail to make their selection of arbitrators within two (2) weeks after receipt of notification by the other party that their choices have been submitted, then the first choice of the selecting party shall be binding on the non-selecting party.

(4) In the further event, should one (1) party fail to participate in the scheduled arbitration proceeding, the other party may proceed unilaterally and the decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all parties.

Section 4. The provisions of no strike or lockout shall not be binding on either party if the other fails to abide by the decision of the arbitrator. The expenses of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by both the Employer and the Union.

Section 5. All complaints must be filed, in writing, within thirty (30) days after occurrence of the matter in dispute of disagreement, provided that any complaints in reference to dismissal must be filed, in writing, to the Employer within ten (10) days from the date of dismissal. Complaints not filed within the limits herein specified shall have no right of appeal by any party involved.

Section 6. During the consideration of such difference or misunderstanding, neither party shall use any coercive or retaliatory measures to compel the other party to accede to its demands.

Section 7. Since it is the desire of the parties to expedite the handling of all grievances, they therefore agree that the time limits prescribed must be followed, unless agreed to by the Union and the Employer. The party failing to move forward as required shall be deemed to have withdrawn the grievance. All notices required herein shall be in writing.

Section 8. An alleged violation of Title 7, of the 1964 Civil Rights Act, may be processed through the grievance procedure.

Section 9. Mediation and Arbitration. The mediation procedure will operate in the following fashion:

- a. After the final step of the grievance procedure, the parties will have the option of going to mediation, if mutually agreeable between the parties, rather than directly to arbitration. The mediator will be a highly skilled and respected arbitrator. He will first attempt to settle the grievance. In doing so, he will encourage the parties to focus not only on the contract, but also on the underlying problem. If a settlement is not achieved in those discussions, the mediator will give the parties an immediate oral opinion, based on their contract, as to how the grievance is likely to be decided if it goes to arbitration.
- b. If no settlement is possible, and the parties do not accept the mediator's advisory opinion, they are free to arbitrate. If they do, the grievance will be heard by a different arbitrator, and nothing said or done by the parties at mediation can be used against them at arbitration.
- c. The proceedings before the mediator are informal in nature. The facts are brought out in narrative fashion, the rules of evidence will not apply, and no record will be made. Participants can discuss anything relevant to them.
- d. The mediation proceedings will be short and to the point. The goal will be to dispose of up to three grievances per day.

ARTICLE 11 LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Subject to the following conditions, employees shall be granted leave of absence without pay which shall not interrupt their service records, providing such request is made by the employee, in writing, to the Employer's main office seven (7) days prior to commencing such leave.

Section 1. The Employer agrees that any member of the Union, employed by the Employer during the period of this contract, who is elected to permanent office in the Union or is assigned by the Union to any Union activity necessitating temporary leave of absence, shall be granted such leave and shall, at the end of this term in the first instance or at the end of his mission in the second instance, be guaranteed reemployment at the employee's former wage rate plus any increase or less any reduction that may become effective during the employee's absence, provided that the employee applies for reemployment forthwith upon leaving the Union.

Section 2. Leave of absence shall be granted up to one (1) year without pay when an employee with six (6) or more months of continuous service is unable to work because of a disability, and this leave shall become effective after the final sick benefit payment is made. The disability must be attested to by a registered physician. However, in the event such employee is unable to work at the expiration of the leave period, he shall be entitled to an additional leave of six (6) months if he submits satisfactory medical evidence that he will be able to return to his regular duties within the said additional period.

Section 3. The Company will comply with the applicable laws of the United States concerning the reemployment of persons leaving the military service of the United States. Because the schedule of progressive wage rates provided for by Exhibits A and B hereof depends upon actual experience on the job, a person reemployed pursuant to this Section shall, for purpose of Exhibits A and B, be credited only with months of actual payroll service. A person so reemployed shall be paid at the current rate for the appropriate job classification based upon the person's actual job experience. At the time an employee leaves for military service, the employee shall receive whatever vacation pay is due.

Section 4. An employee may be given a leave of absence not to exceed one (1) year for any reason acceptable to the Employer. This decision shall not be arbitrable.

ARTICLE 12 WORKING CONDITIONS

Section 1. No member of the Union shall suffer a reduction in benefits or wage rates solely by the signing of this Agreement.

Section 2. The Employer will furnish and launder such store linen as it desires worn by its employees, except that when the Employer supplies Dacron or similar type uniforms for employees, they may be laundered by the employee. Since this item of expense is intended to make the Employer's service more attractive to customers, employees shall be requested to present a neat, clean, business-like appearance while on duty in the stores.

Section 3. If a physical examination or health permit is required, only the expense of the examination or health permit shall be borne by the Employer.

Section 4. Section 5. The Employer agrees, in the event of a temporary transfer at the Employer's request, to reimburse the employee for increased transportation costs on the basis of eighteen cents (18¢) per mile, except, however, when an employee chooses public transportation, excluding taxicabs, the employee shall be reimbursed only for the actual cost of such increased transportation.

Section 6. Notices concerning Union business which have been approved by the Employer's main office may be posted in designated locations in the store.

Section 10. No employee may be held responsible for each register overages or shortages unless he is given the privilege of checking the change and daily receipts upon starting and completing the work shift.

ARTICLE 13 JURY DUTY

Section 2. An employee serving on jury shall not be required to work hours other than those during which the employee is normally scheduled and in no case shall be required to report for less than four (4) hours.

Section 3. The above provisions shall be limited to thirty (30) days of jury duty in any one (1) year, except for service on a Grand Jury.

Section 4. When a night crew employee is called to serve on jury duty he shall be excused from his schedule without loss of weekly earnings.

ARTICLE 14 FUNERAL LEAVE

Employees with six (6) months service shall, in the case of a death in the immediate family, namely parent, spouse, child, brother, sister or parent-in-law, grandparents of employees, requiring the employee's absence from regularly scheduled assignments, be granted a leave of absence up to three (3) days, beginning with the day of death. When an employee's normal time falls within the three (3) day period, the employee shall be reimbursed for that portion of the time normally scheduled for work but under no circumstances shall the application of this clause result in a change in the employee's basic weekly salary. Employees shall receive four (4) days off for spouse and children.

ARTICLE 15 CHECKOFF

Section 1. The Employer agrees to deduct dues and initiation fees uniformly required of members of the Union from the pay of each employee who has furnished the Employer with an authorization in writing authorizing such deduction. The Employer agrees to remit amounts so deducted within thirty (30) days after their collection to the Financial Secretary or designated officer of the Union.

Section 3. Unauthorized Strike. In the event of any unauthorized strike, slowdown or stoppage of work, boycott, picketing, or other interruption of work, the Union shall instruct its members to return to or resume work at once. Any employee participating in such unauthorized activity, and refusing to return to work when so instructed by the Union, shall be subject to discipline therefore, and it is expressly agreed that such conduct shall constitute just cause for discharge under this Agreement. Nothing contained herein, however, shall compel any employee to walk through a lawful picket line, provided the picket line has the sanction of its own International Union.

ARTICLE 22 DURATION OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall be effective from September 14, 1986 and shall remain in force until and including September 16, 1989, and from year to year thereafter, with the right of either party to reopen upon written notice, not less than sixty (60) days prior to September 16, 1989, or the 1st day of September of any subsequent year thereafter of a desire either to change or terminate this Agreement.
