1. Code Awareness
Code posting/information		Establish and articulate clear, written workplace standards. Formally convey those standards to Company factories as well as to licensees, contractors and suppliers. (POM)	No Code of Conduct was posted anywhere in this facility.					1/1/2004	Code of Conduct has been posted along with all legal postings on main factory bulletin board.
Worker/management awareness of Code		Ensure that all Company factories as well as contractors and suppliers inform their employees about the workplace standards orally and through the posting of standards in a prominent place (in local languages spoken by employees and managers) and undertake other efforts to educate employees about the standards on a regular basis. (POM)	As neither FLA nor PC Code of Conduct are posted anywhere in the factory, workers are not aware of Code Standards.					6/15/2004	A) Group meetings in appropriate languages to orally review FLA code to all affected employees. B) Ongoing communication through new employee orientation.	Ongoing communication in all new hire orientations.	A) Sign-in sheets for all oral presentations. B) At orientation, employees sign acknowledgment forms.
Confidential noncompliance reporting channel		Develop a secure communications channel, in a manner appropriate to the culture and situation, to enable Company employees and employees of contractors and suppliers to report to the Company on noncompliance with the workplace standards, with security that they shall not be punished or prejudiced for doing so. (POM)	There is not a confidential noncompliance reporting mechanism that allows workers to report complaints directly to the PC.					1/1/2004	A) Suggestion box placed in factory employee cafeteria. B) Purpose and location of Suggestion box will be covered in the above communication meetings.		FLA monitors to sign verification log inside suggestion box during routine inspections. All employee comments or suggestions will be kept in a central file.
2. Forced Labor
There will not be any use of forced labor, whether in the form of prison labor, indentured labor, bonded labor or otherwise.
Employment Records		Employers will maintain sufficient hiring and employment records to demonstrate and verify compliance with this Code provision.	Personnel records are not kept in an orderly consistent manner.						All documentation in the employee files is presented in chronological order with most recent information in front of file. All legally required documentation was and is present in the employee files.
3. Child Labor
No person will be employed at an age younger than 15 (or 14 where the law of the country of manufacture allows) or younger than the age for completing compulsory education in the country of manufacture where such age is higher than 15.
4. Harassment or Abuse
Every employee will be treated with respect and dignity. No employee will be subject to any physical, sexual, psychological or verbal harassment of abuse.
5. Nondiscrimination
No person will be subject to any discrimination in employment, including hiring, salary, benefits, advancement, discipline, termination or retirement, on the basis of gender, race, religion, age, disability, sexual orientation, nationality, political opinion, or social or ethnic origin.
6. Health and Safety
Employers will provide a safe and healthy working environment to prevent accidents and injury to health arising out of, linked with, or occurring in the course of work or as a result of the operation of employer facilities.
Safety Equipment		All safety and medical equipment (such as fire fighting equipment, first aid kits, etc.) shall be in place, maintained as prescribed and accessible to the employees.	There are no First Aid Kits in each production area. The factory has supplies in its centrally located First Aid Station.						First Aid supplies for all factory employees are available 24/7 in the First Aid room where federally required OSHA first aid log is maintained. We have a full-time occupational nurse on staff and first response team in the production area.
7. Freedom of Association and Collective Bargaining
Employers will recognize and respect the right of employees to freedom of association and collective bargaining.
8. Wages and Benefits
Employers recognize that wages are essential to meeting employees' basic needs. Employers will pay employees, as a base, at least the minimum wage required by local law or the prevailing industry wage, whichever is higher, and will provide legally mandated benefits.
9. Hours of Work
Except in extraordinary business circumstances, employees will (i) not be required to work more than the lesser of (a) 48 hours per week and 12 hours overtime or (b) the limits on regular and overtime hours allowed by the law of the country of manufacture or, where the laws of such country will not limit the hours of work, the regular work week in such country plus 12 hours overtime; and (ii) be entitled to at least one day off in every seven day period.
10. Overtime Compensation
In addition to their compensation for regular hours of work, employees will be compensated for overtime hours at such premium rate as is legally required in the country of manufacture or, in those countries where such laws will not exist, at a rate at least equal to their regular hourly compensation rate.
Miscellaneous
