ENTRANCE EXAMINATION PAPERS

ENGLISH A

1. Rewrite the following passage, making the proper division into sentences, punctuating, spelling all words correctly, and supplying appropriate words in place of the blanks:

One of the storys that —— me for a long time afterwerds was of a girl who was left in charge of a great —— in Cumberland on some —— fair-day when the other servants all went off to the gaieties the family were —— in London and a pedlar came by and asked to leave his large and —— pack in the kitchen sayin he would call for it again at night and the girl (a gamekeper's daughter) roaming about in —— of amusement chanced to —— upon a gun hanging up in the hall and took it down to look at the casing —— it went off through the open kitchen door hit the pack and a slow —— thred of blood came oozing out how miss pole enjoyed this part of the story dwelling on each——as if she loved it she rather hurried over the further account of the girl's bravry and I have but a confused idea that somehow she —— the robbers.

2. Write two compositions, each in two to four paragraphs, on topics selected from the following groups. Do not choose both topics from the same group.

Group I. a. Give in your own words an account of a spirited scene in As You Like It, Twelfth Night, or Julius Cæsar.

b. Explain how Shakespeare in The Merchant of Venice has woven several stories together.

Group II. a. Do you find any elements of the novel in The Pilgrim's Progress or in Franklin's Autobiography? Explain.

b. What features of eighteenth century England are made memorable by The Sir Roger de Coverley Papers?

Group III. a. Describe, as you have pictured him to yourself, a person figuring in a poem by Chaucer, Spenser, Pope, Goldsmith, or Burns.

b. Compare the vicar of Wakefield with the preacher in The Deserted Village.

c. Retell a story from a narrative poem by an American author.

Group IV. a. Scott's use of history in Ivanhoe.

b. Have you ever read a novel which you enjoyed more than any novel on the prescribed list? Explain why you liked it.

Group V. a. The principal teachings of Sesame and Lilies.

b. Irving's visit to Bracebridge Hall.

c. Mohammed as a hero.

d. An incident in the life of Joan of Arc.

e. A ride on the English mail coach.

f. An essay by Emerson (or by Lamb): its main idea.

ENTRANCE EXAMINATION PAPERS

ENGLISH B

1. Choose a or b.

a. Name some significant events in the first act of Macbeth, and show their significance in later acts.

b. Show in detail how Macbeth's early undertakings are successful, his later undertakings failures. Is any one of his undertakings a mingling of success and failure?

2. Choose a or b.

a. Burke mentions six causes of the American love of liberty. Explain what these have to do with Burke's argument as a whole. [Do not name the six causes.]

b. What groups of listeners does Webster successively address, and what is the substance of his words to each?

3. Choose a or b or c.

a. Name five famous members of Johnson's literary club and state why each was famous.

The sequel of to-day unsolders all
 The goodliest fellowship of famous knights
 Whereof this world holds record. Such a sleep
 They sleep—the men I loved. I think that we Shall never more, at any future time,
 Delight our souls with talk of knightly deeds,
 Walking about the gardens and the halls
 Of Camelot, as in the days that were.
 I perish by this people which I made,—
 Tho' Merlin sware that I should come again
 To rule once more—but let what will be, be,
 I am so deeply smitten thro' the helm
 That without help I cannot last till morn.

Who speaks these words? Under what circumstances? Explain the words in italics. Enumerate the events which follow this speech.

c. Name some poems by Burns and show how they illustrate what Carlyle says of Burns's poetry.

GREEK

A. XENOPHON

Translate into English:

(a) οὐ πολλῷ δὲ ὑστερὸν ἀπὸ τοῦ αὐτοῦ σημείου οἵ τ' ἔνδον συγελαμβάνοντο καὶ οἱ ἔξω κατεκόπησαν. μετὰ δὲ ταῦτα τῶν βαρβάρων τινὲς ἵππεων διὰ τοῦ πεδίου ἐλαύνοντες φτιινὶ ἐντυγχάνοιεν Ἐλληνις ἡ δούλῳ ἡ ἐλευθέρῳ πάντας ἔκτεινον. οἱ δὲ Ἐλληνες τὴν τε ἵππασίαν ἐθαύμαζον ἐκ τοῦ στρατοπέδου ὄρωτες καὶ διὰ τοῦ ἐποίουν ἡμφεγνόουν, πρὸς Νίκαρχος Ἀρχάς ἦκε φεύγων τετρωμένος εἰς τὴν γαστέρα καὶ τὰ ἔντερα ἐν ταῖς χερσὶν ἔχων, καὶ εἶπε πάντα τὰ γεγενημένα.

(b) "Ἄνδρες στρατιῶται, χαλεπά μὲν τὰ παρόντα, ὁπότε ἀνδρῶν στρατηγῶν τοιούτων στερόμεθα καὶ λοχαγῶν καὶ στρατιωτῶν, πρὸς δ' ἔτι καὶ οἱ ἀμφὶ Ἀριαῖον οἱ πρόσθιεν σύμμαχοι ὄντες προδεδώκαστιν ἡμᾶς· ὅμως δὲ δεῖ ἐκ τῶν παρόντων ἄνδρας ἀγαθοὺς τελέθειν καὶ μὴ ὑφίσθαι, ἀλλὰ πειρᾶσθαι:

B. GRAMMAR

In passage (a): Tell the construction of πολλῷ and ὅτινι. Explain the mood of ἐντυγχάνοιεν. Tell the peculiarity in the form ἡμφεγνόουν. Tell what πάντα τὰ γεγενημένα refers to.

In passage (b): Tell the construction of ἄνθερας, οἷα and ἔχθρούς. Point out the attributive and circumstantial participles. Tell to what ἄν belongs and explain fully.

C. COMPOSITION

1. Let us conquer those who have been drawn up before the King.
2. Cyrus feared that the King would come on the following day.
3. If you were willing to conquer some and save others, it would be well.
4. He will need arms and soldiers, if he attacks this city.
5. May you be worthy of all your possessions.

1. If translating this into Attic prose, how would you write (or what would you substitute for) τόν (l. 1), προσέειπε (l. 1), αἵ κε (l. 2), "Hρη" (l. 3), φιλέουσα (l. 4), ἔσται (l. 6), πειθεο (l. 9)?
2. What is the syntax of πρό (l. 3), of ἔριδος (l. 5), of πόδας (l. 10), of θυμῷ (l. 12), of ἔκλυνον (l. 13)?
3. Scan lines 14-17. If καὶ in l. 14 is to be scanned short, why not scan τοι short in l. 16?
4. Tell what you know about the Iliad—its author, subject, date, length, form, etc.

LATIN

A separate book should be used for each set of questions, i. e., one book for I, another for II, etc.

At the beginning of one of the books, state how long you have studied Latin and give the exact amount of each Latin author you have read.

Any part (I, II, III, IV, V) of the Latin Entrance Examinations may be taken separately. Credit in Latin Composition may be obtained by translating into satisfactory Latin the English sentences under "2" in Part IV.

I

FIRST YEAR LATIN

1. Decline vetus oppidum; dives; fortior; duo; requies; Athenae; nemo; lapis; vulnus; sedile; ipse; idem.
2. Give the comparative and superlative degree of prope; nequiter; diu; multus; facilis.
3. Write out the conjugation of possim in the subjunctive.
4. Give the principal parts of: fero, pareo, pario, paro, pereo.
5. Give a complete synopsis of the conjugation of: parco in the Second Person Singular (active); prehendo in the Second Person Plural (passive.)
6. Translate into Latin, marking all long vowels in what you write:
 - (a) Caesar thought that he ought to march immediately against the Veneti.
 - (b) Our leaders have persuaded us not to fight.
 - (c) We have seen what sort of weapons the Romans use.
 - (d) Do not remain in the country but return at once to Rome.
 - (e) After marching for ten days, they were greatly in need of food.
 - (f) The former city is much larger than the latter.
 - (g) I should have remained at home, if I had known that you would come to see me.
7. Translate:

Dum Caesar in Gallia in hibernis est, omnēs Belgae contrā populum Rōmānum coniūrabant obsidēsque inter sē dabant. Coniūrandī haec erant causae: primum nōlēbant nostrum exercitum ad sē addūci, deinde ab nōnnūllis Gallis sollicitabantur. Hī populi Romāni exercitum hiemāre atque inveterascere in Gallia nōlēbant. Nōnnūlli mōbilitatē et levitatē animi novis imperitis studēbant. Ab nōnnūllis etiam sollicitabantur, quod in Gallia a potentibus atque ab iis qui condūcere hominēs poterant vulgō rēgna occupābantur, qui minus facile eam rem imperiō nostrō cōsequi poterant.

II

LATIN GRAMMAR

- 1-5. Answer the first five questions under First Year Latin (Part I of the present paper).
6. Mention four different ways of expressing affirmative purpose in Latin. How is negative purpose expressed? When is quo used to introduce a purpose clause?
7. Define and illustrate the following grammatical terms: volitive;hortatory; optative; adversative cum-clause; Greek accusative.

8. How are past contrary-to-fact conditions expressed (a) in direct discourse, (b) in indirect discourse?

9. How do the following words differ from one another in use and meaning: (a) ille, is, iste, hic; (b) quisquam, aliquis; (c) the interrogatives qui and quis; (d) nullus, nemo.

10. Mention three different Latin conjunctions equivalent to the English "when", four equivalent to "since", three equivalent to "till", mentioning the mood- and tense-constructions of each.

III

SECOND YEAR LATIN

CAESAR

I. Translate:

Atque in ea re omnium nostrorum intentis animis alia ex parte oppidi Adiatunnus, qui summam imperi tenebat, cum sexcentis devotis, quos illi soldarios appellant, quorum haec est condicio, uti omnibus in vita commodis una cum his fruantur, quorum se amicitiae dediderint, si quid iis per vim accidat, aut eundem casum una ferant aut sibi mortem consiscant; neque adhuc hominum memoria repertus est quisquam, qui eo interfecto, cuius se amicitiae devovisset, mortem recusaret: cum his Adiatunnus eruptionem facere conatus clamore ab ea parte munitionis sublato, cum ad arma milites concurrissent vehementerque ibi pugnatum esset, repulsus in oppidum, tamen, uti eadem deditio condicione uteretur, ab Crasso impetravit.

B. G. III, 22.

Give the principal parts of intentis, fruantur, ferant, uteretur. Account for the case of animis, soldarios, commodis, amicitiae, sibi, memoria.

Account for the mood and tense of: fruantur, recusaret, uteretur.

2. In the following passage (not to be translated) transfer into direct discourse the words "Plerosque Belgas," etc. to the end:

Cum ab his quaereret, quae civitates, quantaeque in armis essent et quid in bello possent, sic reperiebat: plerosque Belgas esse ortos ab Germanis Rheenumque antiquitus traductos propter loci fertilitatem ibi consedisse Gallosque, qui ea loca incolerent, expulisse, solosque esse, qui patrum nostrorum memoria omni Gallia vexata Teutonos Cimbrosque intra fines suos ingredi prohibuerint; qua ex re fieri, uti carum rerum memoria magnam sibi auctoritatem magnosque spiritus in re militari sumerent.

IV

THIRD YEAR LATIN

CICERO

Mention the orations of Cicero that you have read.

I. Translate (a) if you have read the oration; otherwise (b).

(a) An vero tam parvi animi videamus esse omnes, qui in re publica atque in his vitae periculis laboribusque versamur, ut, cum usque ad extremum spatiū nullum tranquillum, atque otiosum spiritum duxerimus, nobiscum simul moritura omnia arbitremur? An statuas et imagines, non animorum simulacra, sed corporum, studiose multi summi homines reliquerunt, consiliorum relinquere ac virtutum nostrarum effigiem nonne multo malle debemus, summis ingenii expressam et politam? Ego vero omnia, quae gerebam, jam tum in gerendo spargere me ac disseminare arbitrabar in orbis terrae memoriam sempiternam.

PRO ARCH., 12.

(b) His ego sanctissimis rei publicae vocibus et eorum hominum, qui hoc idem sentiunt, mentibus pauca respondebo: ego, si hoc optimum factu judicarem, patres conscripti, Catilinam morte multari, unius usuram horae gladiatori isti ad vivendum non dedissem; etenim si summi et clarissimi viri Saturnini et Gracchorum et Flacci et superiorum complurium sanguine non modo se non contaminarunt, sed etiam honestarunt, certe verendum mihi non erat ne quid hoc parricida civium interfecto invidiae mihi in posteritatem redundaret; quod si ea mihi maxime impenderet, tamen hoc animo semper fui, ut invidiam virtute partam gloriam, non invidiam putarem; quamquam nonnulli sunt in hoc ordine, qui aut ea quae imminent non videant, aut ea quae vident dissimulent.

CAT. I., 12.

2. Translate into Latin:

- (a) (1) I said that you would be safe, if you would follow my advice.
 - (2) Provided only he does not lead his soldiers from the province to Rome, he may be put in charge (praeficio) of the army.
 - (3) If he had remained at home, and you at Athens, two days longer, it would have pleased me much better.
 - (4) As he could not be persuaded to use reason, I finally ordered him not to say another word.
 - (5) Oh that you and I were together in some place where we could converse with one another in peace.
- (6) Although after three years Cæsar had subdued all the Gallic tribes which resisted Roman authority, yet the Germans were unwilling to remain in their own territory, and often crossed the Rhine into Gaul. In the consulship of Pompey and Crassus a large multitude of Usipetes and Teucteri had emigrated from home and come into the territory of the Belgæ. Thinking it would be dangerous, if he should allow these to remain, Caesar decided to bring war upon them.

V

FOURTH YEAR LATIN

VIRGIL

1. Translate:

Olli subridens hominum sator atque deorum
voltu, quo caelum tempestatesque serenat, oscula libavit natae, dehinc talia fatur:
'parce metu, Cytherea: manent immota tuorum fata tibi; cernes urbem et promissa Lavini contundet, moresque viris et moenia ponet, tertia dum Latio regnante viderit aestas ternaque transierint Rutulis hiberna subactis.

AEN. I, 254-256.

2. Explain the form and construction of olli and of metu; the construction of viris. Account for the tense of viderit. Who is Cytherea? Why terna instead of tria.
2. Decline: moenia, sidera, Aenean, ingens, hiberna. Give the principal parts of: parce, cernes, vertit, remordet, volvens.
3. Write out the last three lines, indicating the metrical feet, the principal cæsura and the length of each syllable.
4. Give some account of Virgil's life and literary activity.
5. Briefly outline the contents of the sixth book of the Aeneid.

Ein armer Knabe ging traurig durch die Straßen Wiens, denn seine Mutter war frank, und er konnte keinen Arzt finden, der ohne Zahlung eines Guldens die Kranke besuchen wollte. Da sah er einen vornehmen Herrn in einem Wagen vorbeifahren. Er trat heran und bat ihn um einen Gulden. Der Fremde fragte erstaunt, ob denn nicht eine kleinere Gabe genügen würde. Der Knabe erklärte ihm den Grund seiner Bitte, erhielt den Gulden und eilte zu einem Arzte, nachdem er zuvor dem Fremden seine Wohnung angegeben hatte. Der Fremde ging zur Kranke, die ihn für einen Arzt hielt, schrieb das Rezept und erklärte der Frau, in welche Apotheke sie es schicken müsse, und ging weg. 5 Kaum war er fort, so kam der rechte Doktor. Die Kranke wunderte sich und erklärte ihm, daß schon Einer da gewesen sei und ihr ein Rezept verschrieben habe. Der Doktor nahm es ihr aus der Hand; denn er wollte sehen, was für einen Trank oder welche Pillen sein Kollege verschrieben habe. Wie groß war sein Erstaunen, als er das Rezept las! „Ihr seid einem guten 10 Arzte in die Hände gefallen,“ rief er aus. „Er hat Euch fünf und zwanzig Goldstücke verschrieben, die Ihr Euch vom Schlosse holen lassen könnt! Euer Arzt heißt Kaiser Joseph; hier steht sein Name.“ Das war eine Freude! Vielleicht half diese der Kranke zur Gefundheit; vielleicht tat es auch die Medizin des Doktors. Genug, sie wurde gesund und segnete 15 ihr Leben lang den guten Kaiser Joseph, der sie von großer Armut kuriert hatte.

III

1. Give the principal parts and the third person singular present indicative of: ging (1), vorbeifahren (4), trat heran (4), bat (4), erhielt (7), angegeben (8), verschrieben (14), las (15), gefallen (16), rief aus (16), heiszt (18), kuriert (22).
2. Conjugate in the present and preterit, indicative and subjunctive modes: konnte (2), wollte (3), sah (3), hielt (9).

3. Give the third person singular of lesen in all tenses, indicative and subjunctive modes, passive voice; the second person singular of fallen in all tenses, indicative and subjunctive modes, active voice.
4. Form three German sentences illustrating three different uses of the subjunctive.
5. Name and explain order of: war (2), wollte (3), hatte (8), war (10), rief (16).

Not to be answered by candidates electing the oral test (cf. I). Answer only one of the following two questions:

1. Paraphrase in simple German prose the following poem, changing the text and using your own words as far as possible.

Siegfrieds Schwert

Jung Siegfried war ein stolzer Knab',
Ging von des Vaters Burg herab,

Wollt' rasten nicht in Vaters Haus,
Wollt' wandern in alle Welt hinaus.

Und als er ging im finstern Wald,
Kam er zu einer Schmiede bald. 5

Da sah er Eisen und Stahl genug;
Ein lustig Feuer Flammen schlug.

„O Meister, liebster Meister mein,
Lass du mich deinen Gefellen¹ sein!
Und lehr' du mich mit Fleiß und Ncht,²
Wie man die guten Schwerter macht!“ 10

Nach einer Wandlung von vielen Tagen stand sie gegen Abend auf einer freundlichen stillen Wiese; gegenüber lag eine kleine Hütte und Vieh weidete auf den nahen Hügeln, das mit seinen Glocken ein angenehmes Getöne durch die Ruhe des Abends machte; auf der andern Seite stand ein Wald, und Magelonens Seele wurde hier zum ersten Male nach langer Zeit ruhig und heiter; sie fasste daher den Wunsch, hier in dieser ruhigen Gegend zu wohnen. Sie ging auf die Hütte zu, aus der ihr ein alter Schäfer entgegen trat, der hier mit seiner Frau sich angesiedelt hatte und fern von der Welt und den Menschen fromme Lämmer groß zog und einen kleinen Acker baute. Sie redete ihn an und flehte als eine Unglückliche um Schutz und Hilfe.

Es ging auf den Abend zu. Da kam ein fremder Mann auf der Landstraße dahergefahren, der mußte große Eile haben, denn er hieb auf seine Pferde, daß sie mehr laufen mußten, als sie mochten. Und dem Wagen tat's auch nicht gut; denn der Weg war steinig und uneben. Als aber der Mann einen Wanderer einholte, der zu Fuß seines Weges ging, hielt er etwas an und fragte: „Guter Freund, kann ich wohl noch in die Stadt kommen, ehe es Nacht wird?“ Der Wandersmann sah die leuchgenden Pferde an und den Wagen und den Weg und sagte: „Ja, wenn du langsamer fährst. Ich will auch noch dahin.“ Da dachte der andere bei sich: „Das ist ein rechter Narr! Je schneller man fährt, desto eher kommt man doch an,“ und rannte mit seinem Wagen weiter dem Fußgänger voraus. Als aber dieser eine Stunde weiter gegangen und es ziemlich dunkel geworden war, sah er eine Kutsche am Wege liegen. Die Kutsche kam ihm bekannt vor, und den Mann, der daneben stand und auf seine armen Pferde und auf den schlechten Wagen schalt, erkannte er auch wieder. Spöttisch fragte er ihn, warum er seinem Rat nicht gefolgt sei. Er habe ihm ja gesagt, daß er nicht so schnell fahren dürfe. Es sei seine eigene Schuld, daß er nun die Stadt nicht mehr am selben Tage erreichen könne und daß seine Pferde über Nacht nichts zu fressen bekämen.

Translate into German:

A gentleman, who owned a beautiful garden, was walking one day in his park. As he was walking around, he saw his gardener (der Gärtner), who was sleeping in the shade (der Schatten) of a tree. The gardener had not expected his master, as the weather was very warm. When the gentleman saw his servant sleeping instead of working, he became very angry, scolded him and said he did not deserve (verdienem) that the sun shine upon him. But the gardener calmly replied: "I know it, sir, that is the reason why I am lying in the shade." The master laughed and went away.

VII

(Not to be answered by candidates electing the oral test).

Carefully read the following poem. Do not write out a translation, but answer the questions based on the text.

Im Zimmer drinnen ist's so schwül;¹
Der Kranke liegt auf dem heißen Pfuhl.²
Im Fieber hat er die Nacht verbracht!
Sein Herz ist müde, sein Auge verwacht.³
Er lauscht auf der Stunden rinnenden Sand;
Er hält die Uhr in der weißen Hand.
Er zählt die Schläge, die sie pickt,
Er forschtet, wie der Weiser⁴ rückt.⁵
Er fragt ihn, ob er noch leb' vielleicht,
Wenn der Weiser die schwarze Drei erreicht.
Die Wartfrau sitzt geduldig dabei,
Harrend, bis alles vorüber sei.—
Schon auf dem Herzen drückt ihn der Tod—
Und draußen dämmert das Morgenrot;
An die Fenster klettert der Frühlingstag,
Mädchen und Vögel werden wach.
Singende Bursche ziehn übers Feld
Hinein in die blühende, klingende Welt.—
Und immer stiller wird es drin;
Die Alte tritt zum Kranken hin.
Der hat die Hände gefaltet dicht;
Sie zieht ihm das Täken⁶ übers Gesicht.
Dann geht sie fort. Stumm wird's und leer.
Und drinnen wacht kein Auge mehr.

Translate the following passages:

a. Am andern Morgen war im Hause der Baronesse schon früh viel Unruhe. Im großen Saale, der unmittelbar in den Garten führte, war die ganze Familie mit Sonnenaufgang versammelt. Man zog Blumenkränze an den Wänden auf, ein geschmückter Tisch stand unter einer Türe, mit Kleidern, Büchern und manigfältigen Angedenken bedeckt, und man erwartete nun die älteste Tochter Dorothea, die täglich den Garten am frühesten Morgen zu besuchen pflegte, um sie mit diesen Geschenken und dieser Festlichkeit erfreulich zu überraschen. Es war ihr Geburtstag und Mutter und Töchter hatten alles anordnen können, ohne daß sie es bemerkte, weil sie sich niemals um den Kalender sonderlich bekümmerte. Jetzt kam sie den Garten herunter und sah schon aus der Ferne die versammelten Geschwister. Als sie erstaunt in den Saal trat und alle sie freundlich umringten, die verschiedenen Gaben darboten und Schwestern und Mutter sich so ungewöhnlich liebenvoll bezeugten, war sie tief gerührt und um so heftiger erschüttert, je weniger sie diese Feier der Liebe erwartet hatte. 10 15

Wie neu ist mir dies! rief sie aus: ach! wie wenig habe ich das um euch verdienen können! Liebt ihr mich denn wirklich so? Alle diese Geschenke, dieser Glanz, diese freundliche Aufmerksamkeit, wie kann ich es euch vergelten? Ich bin so überrascht, daß ihr alle so an mich Arme denken möchtet, daß ich euch noch gar nicht einmal danken kann. 20

b. Im Sommer war zu Goldenthal nie Schule gehalten worden, denn die größeren Kinder mußten den Eltern in Feld- und Hausgeschäften helfen. Aber Oswald nahm auch im Sommer die Kleinen zu sich und unterrichtete sie einige Stunden und gab ihnen bei sich zu spielen oder kleine Geschäfte in seinem Garten und Feld, wohin sie ihn begleiteten und Steinchen aus dem Acker trugen, Unkraut ausrupften und dergleichen. Als das die andern Kinder sahen, baten sie Oswald, sie nicht zu vergessen, und er nahm sie, wenn er fertig war, auch noch zu sich und setzte den Unterricht mit ihnen fort. An Sonn- und Feiertagen ging er mit ihnen sogar 30 spazieren in Feld und Wald, zeigte ihnen die giftigen Kräuter und erzählte gräuelhafte Geschichten davon; oder er erzählte ihnen vom Leben und der Haushaltung der Tiere, der zahmen und wilden; von den Quellen, Strömen und Meeren; von den Bergen und Höhlen; von den Ländern und Menschen auf Erden; von den Sternen, und wie weit sie von uns entfernt wären und wie groß. Das hatte er alles gesehen und in Büchern gelesen. 35

Carefully read the following poem. Do not write out a translation, but answer the questions based on the text.

1. Ich bin vom Berg der Hirtenknab',
 Seh' auf die Schlosser all herab;
 Die Sonne strahlt am ersten hier,
 Am längsten weilet sie bei mir;
 Ich bin der Knab' vom Berge.
2. Hier ist des Stromes Mutterhaus,
 Ich trink' ihn frisch vom Stein heraus;
 Er braust vom Fels in wildem Lauf,
 Ich fang' ihn mit den Armen auf;
 Ich bin der Knab' vom Berge.
3. Der Berg, der ist mein Eigentum,
 Da ziehn die Stürme ringsherum;
 Und heulen sie von Nord und Süd,
 So überschallt sie doch mein Lied:
 „Ich bin der Knab' vom Berge.“
4. Sind Blitz und Donner unter mir,
 So steh' ich hoch im Blauen hier;
 Ich kenne sie und rufe zu:
 „Laßt meines Vaters Haus in Ruh!“
 Ich bin der Knab' vom Berge.

1. Translate into English:

—Je vous ai dit ce que je pense, répondit l'oncle en se levant, et maintenant je n'en parlerai plus, puisque telle est votre volonté; mais cela ne m'empêchera pas d'honorer en vous une douce et noble créature, et d'être fier de vous avoir donné mes soins. Et le commandant m'a dit aussi quel était votre père et quels étaient vos frères: des gens simples, naïfs, partis tous ensemble pour défendre ce qu'ils croyaient être la justice. Quand tant de milliers d'hommes orgueilleux ne pensent qu'à leurs intérêts, et, je le dis à regret, quand ils se croient nobles en ne songeant qu'aux choses de la matière, on aime à voir que la vraie noblesse, celle qui vient du désintéressement et de l'héroïsme, se réfugie dans le peuple. Qu'ils soient Républicains ou non, qu'il importe! je pense, en âme et conscience, que les vrais nobles à la face de l'Éternel sont ceux qui remplissent leur devoir."

2. Translate into English:

Si le coup de pistolet fit tressaillir la reine mère et son fils, on peut bien croire que le blessé, dans sa triste insomnie, ne fut pas sans l'entendre. Il n'avait pas grand monde autour de lui. Beaucoup étaient au Louvre, chez le roi de Navarre, pour qui on craignait encore plus. Mais il avait, dans deux maisons voisines de son hôtel, deux postes de gardes du roi. Il se sentait gardé par la parole royale, par les promesses et les traités faits avec les princes étrangers, par tout ce qu'il y a de respecté parmi les hommes. Il venait de recevoir une visite aimable, la plus rassurante de toutes. La nouvelle mariée, Marguerite de Navarre, était venue le voir, et comme chercher la bénédiction du vieillard.

Il était facile à prévoir que la France serait forcée tôt ou tard d'envahir l'Italie. Appelée dix fois, vingt fois peut-être, elle avait fait la sourde oreille, laissant démêler cette affaire entre l'Aragonais et le Provençal qui, depuis deux cents ans, se disputaient le royaume de Naples. Mais le temps arrivait où l'Italie allait infailliblement devenir la proie d'une grande puissance. Deux paraissaient à l'horizon, l'Espagne et l'empire turc.

Celui-ci était un empire, mais bien plus encore un grand mouvement de populations musulmanes, qui chaque année, par un progrès fatal, gravitait vers l'ouest et venait heurter l'Italie. Au midi, il se révélait comme force maritime. Il venait de détruire Otrante, phénomène sinistre qui inaugura pour toutes les côtes les ravages des barbaresques, l'enlèvement périodique des populations. Au nord, il se montrait dans l'Istrie, le Frioul et autres États vénitiens, par son côté tartare, je veux dire par ces courses d'immense cavalerie irrégulière qui, répétées annuellement, rendaient le pays inhabitable, incultivable, désert, et préparaient ainsi la conquête définitive. Les sultans ottomans entraînaient le monde barbare par l'attrait de ces pillages, par l'idée religieuse et la haine de l'idolâtrie chrétienne, par le serment de prendre Rome. Leurs guerres, à cette époque, étaient effroyablement destructrices.

1. Translate into English:

La pitié pour la souffrance devait exister de tous les temps au fond du cœur: cependant une grande différence caractérise la morale des anciens, et la distingue de celle du christianisme; l'une est fondée sur la force, et l'autre sur la sympathie. L'esprit militaire, qui doit avoir présidé à l'origine des sociétés, se fait sentir encore jusque dans la philosophie stoïcienne; la puissance sur soi-même y est exercée, pour ainsi dire, avec une énergie guerrière. Le bonheur des autres n'est point l'objet de la morale des anciens; ce n'est pas les servir, c'est se rendre indépendant d'eux, qui est le but principal de tous les conseils des philosophes.

La religion chrétienne exige aussi l'abnégation de soimême, et l'exagération monacale pousse même cette vertu fort au delà de l'austérité philosophique des anciens; mais le principe de ce sacrifice dans la religion chrétienne, c'est le dévouement à son Dieu ou à ses semblables, et non, comme chez les stoiciens, l'orgueil et la dignité de son propre caractère. En étudiant le sens de l'Évangile, sans y joindre les fausses interprétations qui en ont été faites, on voit aisément que l'esprit général de ce livre, c'est la bienfaisance envers les malheureux. L'homme y est considéré comme devant recevoir une impression profonde par la douleur de l'homme.

Era, pues, muy de extrañar que á aquella hora, impropia además para dar un paseo, pues todavía hacía demasiado calor, saliese de la Ciudad, á pie, y seguido de un solo alguacil, el ilustre señor Corregidor de la misma,—á quien no podía confundirse con ninguna otra persona ni de día ni de noche, así por la enormidad de su sombrero de tres picos y por lo vistoso de su capa de grana, como por lo particularísimo de su grotesco donaire.

When Don Quijote saw all the wind mills in the large field before him he said to Sancho Panza: "Fortune is guiding us better than we could have hoped, for here are thirty or more immense giants, with whom I intend to fight and whose lives I am going to take. Their spoils will be the starting of our fortune. This is a good war too, and it is doing a great service to God in removing such evils from the earth". Although Sancho Panza claimed that the objects before them were not giants but wind mills, Don Quijote would not listen to him. Ordering Sancho to place himself to one side he prepared to enter into unequal combat. Commanding himself to his lady Dulcinea and begging her to aid him in this undertaking, he attacked the first mill which was before him. And as he gave one of the wings a blow with his lance the wind came up with such fury that it broke the lance in pieces and sent both horse and rider rolling on the ground. Sancho Panza hastened up at full speed to aid his master and when he arrived he found that Don Quijote was unable to move because of the kick which Rocinante had given him.

Los dos hermanos se profesaban vivo cariño. Nacidos en la clase más humilde, habían luchado solos en edad temprana por salir de la ignorancia y de la pobreza, viéndose á punto de sucumbir diferentes veces; mas tanto pudo en ellos el ímpulso de una voluntad heróica, que al fin llegaron jadeantes á la ansiada orilla, dejando atrás las turbias olas en que se agita en constante estado de naufragio el grosero vulgo.

Teodoro, que era el mayor, fué médico antes que Carlos ingeniero. Ayudó á éste con todas sus fuerzas mientras el joven lo necesitara, y cuando le vió en camino, tomó el que anhelaba su corazón aventurero, yéndose á América. Allá trabajó, juntamente con otros afamados médicos europeos, adquiriendo bien pronto dinero y fama. Hizo un viaje á España, tornó al Nuevo Mundo, vino más tarde para regresar al poco tiempo.

Era un hombre de facciones bastas, moreno, de fisonomía inteligente, labios gruesos, pelo negro y erizado, mirar centelleante, naturaleza incansable, constitución fuerte, si bien algo gastada por el clima americano. Su cara, grande y redonda, su frente huesuda, el fuego de sus ojos, sus gruesas manos, habían sido motivo para que dijeran de él: „es un león negro.” En efecto, parecía un león, y, como el rey de los animales, no dejaba de manifestar á cada momento la estimación en que á sí mismo se tenfa. Pero la vanidad de aquel hombre insignie era la más disculpable de todas las vanidades, pues consistía en sacar á relucir dos títulos de gloria, á saber: su pasión por la cirugía y la humildad de su origen. Hablaba por lo general incorrectamente, por ser incapaz de construir con gracia y elegancia las oraciones. Sus frases, rápidas y entrecortadas, se acomodaban á la emisión de su pensamiento, que era una especie de emisión eléctrica.

NOCHE DE ABRIL

Es ya tarde: bate el sueño
 Sobre la ciudad sus alas,
 En el silencio sus galas
 Muestra la noche gentil;
 Abren su seno las flores
 Al rocío transparente,
 Y se respira el ambiente
 Perfumado del abril.

En Nápoles, en las noches
 De primaveras serenas,
 Vierte por todas sus venas
 Naturaleza su amor;
 Y es el silencio armonía,
 Bálsamo el aire, las flores
 Ninfas, las sombras colores,
 Y los claros resplandor.

Y todo vago, indeciso,
 Dulcemente se confunde,
 Y melancólica infunde
 Tan suave al corazón,
 Que en la atmósfera mecido
 De sus sueños se recrea,
 Gira y corre distraído
 De ilusión en ilusión

No va el silfo más ligero
 En un rayo de la luna;
 Ya acaricia lisonjero
 Con sus besos una flor;
 Ya en la límpida laguna
 Forma un riel de topacio,
 Ya perdido en el espacio
 Se disipa cual vapor.

I used to dream of that tranquil life of the poet, which glows with a soft light from generation to generation. I used to dream that the city that saw my birth would one day swell with pride at my name, adding it to the brilliant list of her illustrious sons, and, when death should put an end to my existence, that they would lay me down to dream the golden dream of immortality on the banks of the Bétis, whose praises I should have sung in splendid odes, and in that very spot where I used to go so often to hear the sweet murmur of its waves. A white stone with a cross and my name should be my only monument.

The poplars, swaying night and day above my grave, should seem to utter prayers for my soul in the rustling of their green and silver leaves. In them the birds should come and nest, that they might sing at dawn a joyous hymn to the resurrection of the spirit to regions more serene. The willow, covering the spot with floating shadows, should lend to its own vague sadness, as it bent and shed about its soft, wan leaves, as if to protect and to caress my mortal spoils. The river, too, which in flood tide might almost come and kiss the border of the slab o'ergrown with reeds, should lull my sleep with pleasant music.

In my opinion, these attempts to separate philosophy from the other sciences are also open to serious and well-founded objections. Philosophy is the science of knowledge, they say. Such a science, however, has another and an older name: logic, or the theory of knowledge. Why should it exchange this name for another, and that, too, for one already having a different and wider signification? For, according to the common usage of language, logic, or the theory of knowledge is one philosophical discipline out of many. And the same objection may be raised against the two other views. We are accustomed to designate investigations of mental life in its historical aspects as mental science in opposition to the natural sciences. Similarly, the investigation of goods and values is commonly called ethics, or forms a part of this science. Ethics, however, and the other mental sciences, do not constitute the whole of philosophy. They are, according to the common usage of language, parts of philosophy.

El tercero le componen dos buhardillones independientes entre sí. En el de mi derecha vive, digo mal, vivía hace pocos días, un matrimonio joven aún, con algunos hijos de corta edad. El marido era bizco, de escasa talla, cetrino, de ruda y alborotada cabellera; gastaba ordinariamente una elástica verde remendada y unos pantalones pardos, rígidos, indomables ya por los remiendos y la mugre. Llamábanle de mote el Tuerto. La noche era espléndida, y al levantar Asís la cabeza para contemplar el centelleo de los astros, se le ocurrió, por decir alguna cosa, compararlos á las joyas que solía admirar en los bailes.

Aquellas cuatro estrellitas seguidas parecen el imperdible de la marquesa de Riachuelo. . . cuatro brillantazos que le dejan á uno bizco. Esa constelación. . . allí, hombre, allí! hace el mismo efecto que la joya que le trajo de París su marido á la Torres-Nobles. . . Hasta tiene en medio una estrellita amarillenta, que será el brillante brasileño del centro. Aquel lucero tan bonito, que está solo. . .

Es Venus. . . Tiene algo de emblemático eso de que Venus sea tan guapa.

Usted está siempre confundiendo lo humano y lo divino. . .

LOS SOLLOZOS

Si á mis sollozos les pregunto adónde
La dura causa está de su aflicción,
De un i ay! que ya pasó, la voz responde:
"De mi antiguo dolor recuerdos son."
Y alguna vez, cual otras infelice,
Que sollozo postrado en la inacción!
De otro i ay! que aun no llegó, la voz me dice:
"De mi dolor presentimientos son."
¡ Ruda inquietud de la existencia impía!
¿Dónde calma ha de hallar el corazón,
Si hasta sollozos que la inercia cría,
Presentimientos ó memorias son?

EL MAYOR CASTIGO

Cuando de Virgilio en pos
Fué el Dante al infierno á dar,
Su conciencia, hija de Dios,
Dejó á la puerta al entrar.

Después que á salir volvió,
 Su conciencia el Dante hallando,
 Con ella otra vez cargó,
 Mas dijo así suspirando:
 Del infierno en lo profundo,
 No ví tan atroz sentencia
 Como es la de ir por el mundo Cargado con la conciencia.

Ieri sera mentre il maestro ci dava notizie del povero Robetti, che dovrà camminare un pezzo con le stampelle, entrò il Direttore con un nuovo iscritto, un ragazzo di viso molto bruno, coi capelli neri, con gli occhi grandi e neri, con le sopracciglia folte e raggiunte sulla fronte; tutto vestito di scuro, con una cintura di marocchino nero intorno alla vita. Il Direttore, dopo aver parlato nell'orecchio al maestro, se ne uscì, lasciandogli accanto il ragazzo, che guardava noi con quegli occhioni neri, come spaurito. Allora il maestro gli prese una mano, e disse alla classe:—Voi dovete essere contenti. Oggi entra nella scuola un piccolo italiano nato a Reggio di Calabria, a più di cinquecento miglia di qua. Vogliate bene al vostro fratello venuto di lontano. Egli è nato in una terra gloriosa, che diede all'Italia degli uomini illustri, e le dà dei forti lavoratori e dei bravi soldati; in una delle più belle terre della nostra patria, dove son grandi foreste e grandi montagne, abitate da un popolo pieno d'ingegno e di coraggio. Vogliategli bene, in maniera che non s'accorga di esser lontano dalla città dove è nato; fategli vedere che un ragazzo italiano, in qualunque scuola italiana metta il piede, ci trova dei fratelli.—Detto questo s'alzò e segnò sulla carta murale d'Italia il punto dov'è Reggio di Calabria. Poi chiamò forte:—Ernesto Derossi!—quello che ha sempre il primo premio. Derossi s'alzò.—Vieni qua,—disse il maestro. Derossi uscì dal banco e s'andò a mettere accanto al tavolino, in faccia al calabrese.—Come primo della scuola,—gli disse il maestro,—dà l'abbraccio del benvenuto, in nome di tutta la classe, al nuovo compagno; l'abbraccio dei figliuoli del Piemonte al figliuolo della Calabria.—Derossi abbracciò il calabrese, dicendo con la sua voce chiara:—Benvenuto!—e questi baciò lui sulle due guancie, con impeto. Tutti batterono le mani.—Silenzio!—gridò il maestro,—non si batton le mani in istrada! —Ma si vedeva ch' era contento. Anche il calabresse era contento. Il maestro gli assegnò il posto e lo accompagnò al banco.

Voi ch' ascoltate in rime sparse il suono
 Di quei sospiri ond'io nudriva il core
 In sul mio primo giovenile errore,
 Quand' era in parte altr' uom da quel ch'i'sono;
 Del vario stile, in ch'io piango e ragiono
 Fra le vane speranze e'l van dolore;
 Ove sia chi per prova intenda amore,
 Spero trovar pietà, non che perdono.
 Ma ben veggi 'or, si come al popol tutto
 Favola fui gran tempo: onde sovente
 Di me medesmo meco mi vergogno;
 El del mio vaneggiar vergogna è'l frutto,
 E'l pentirsi, e'l conoscer chiaramente, che quanto piace al mondo è breve sogno.

 In sen dell' 'ape il fiore
 Dolce liquor si fa.

I. Primo d'aprile! Tre soli mesi ancora. Questa è stata una delle più belle mattinate dell' anno. Io ero contento, nella scuola, perchè Coretti m' aveva detto d' andar dopo domani a veder arrivare il Re, insieme con suo padre che lo conosce; e perchè mia madre m' avea promesso di condurmi lo stesso giorno a visitar l' Asilo infantile di Corso Valdocco. Anche ero contento perchè il "muratorino" sta meglio, e perchè ieri sera, passando, il maestro disse a mio padre:—Va bene, va bene.—E poi era una bella mattinata di primavera. Dalle finestre della scuola si vedeva il cielo azzurro, gli alberi del giardino tutti coperti di germogli, e le finestre delle case spalancate, colle cassette e i vasi già verdeggianti. Il maestro non rideva, perchè non ride mai, ma era di buon umore, tanto che non gli appariva quasi più quella ruga diritta in mezzo alla fronte; e spiegava un problema sulla lavagna, celiando. E si vedeva che provava piacere a respirar l' aria del giardino che veniva per le finestre aperte, piena d' un buon odor fresco di terra e di foglie, che faceva pensare alle passeggiate in compagnia. Mentre egli spiegava, si sentiva in una strada vicina un fabbro ferraio che batteva sull'incudine e nella casa di faccia una donna che cantava per abdormentare il bambino: lontano, nella caserma della Cernaia, sonavano le trombe. Tutti parevano contenti, persino Stardi. A un certo momento il fabbro si mise a picchiar più forte, la donna a cantar più alto. Il maestro s' interruppe e prestò l'orecchio. Poi disse lentamente, guardando per la finestra:—Il cielo che sorride, una madre che canta, un galantuomo che lavora, dei ragazzi che studiano ecco ... delle cose belle. —Quando uscimmo dalla classe, vedemmo che anche tutti gli altri erano allegri; tutti camminavano in fila pestando i piedi forte e canticchiando, come alla vigilia d'una vacanza di quattro giorni; le maestre scherzavano; quella della penna rossa saltellava dietro i suoi bimbi come una scolaretta; i parenti dei ragazzi discorrevano fra loro ridendo, e la madre di Crossi, l' erbaiola, ci aveva nelle ceste tanti mazzi di violette, che empivano di profumo tutto il camerone. Io non sentii mai tanta contentezza come questa mattina a veder mia madre che mi aspettava nella strada. E glielo dissi andandole incontro:—Sono contento: cos' è mai che mi fa così contento questa mattina?—E mia madre mi rispose sorridendo che era la bella stagione e la buona coscienza.

A SE STESSO

Or poserai per sempre,
 Stanco mio cor. Però l' inganno estremo,
 Ch' eterno io mi credei. Però. Ben sento,
 In noi di cari inganni,
 Non che la speme, il desiderio è spento.
 Posa per sempre. Assai
 Palpitasti. Non val cosa nessuna
 I moti tuoi, né di sospiri è degna
 La terra. Amaro e noia
 La vita, altro mai nulla; e fango è il mondo.
 T'acqua omái. Dispera
 L' ultima volta. Al gener nostro il fato
 Non donò che il morire. Omái disprezza
 Te, la natura, il brutto
 Poter che, ascoso, a comun danno impera,
 È l' infinita vanità del tutto.

ANCIENT HISTORY

Preparation (answer all).

1. Where have you studied this subject?
2. How long have you studied it?

3. What textbook or textbooks did you use?
 4. What other books about any portion of this period have you read?
- I. Oriental History (answer 1 or 2).
1. What do you know about Babylon, Nineveh, Memphis, Susa, and Sardis?
 2. Why did the Egyptians build pyramids? Why did the Phoenicians found colonies? What caused the disruption of the Hebrew kingdom?
- II. Greek History (answer two questions.)
1. What was the most important difference between the government of Athens in the fifth century B. C. and the government of an American city or state today? To what extent did the Athenians have the initiative, the referendum and the recall?
 2. What do you know about Leonidas, Herodotus, Xenophon, Epaminondas and Demosthenes? *
 3. What do you know about the boyhood of Alexander the Great? Why did he always defeat the Persians? Why did he found Alexandria? What were the principal kingdoms formed out of his empire after his death?
- III. Greek Ideas and Customs (answer two questions.)
1. If you have read the Iliad or the Odyssey, tell what were the human qualities which the authors and the hearers of these poems most admired.
 2. What do you know about Delphi and Olympia?
 3. What do you know about the education of boys and of girls at Sparta?
 4. What do you know about the Athenian drama?
- IV. Roman History (answer two questions.)
1. What were the functions of a consul, a prætor, a censor, a tribune and a proconsul?
 2. Explain briefly the establishment of Roman supremacy (a) in Italy, (b) in the Western Mediterranean, (c) in the Eastern Mediterranean.
 3. Show the differences between the political aims of Caius Gracchus, those of Julius Cæsar and those of Augustus.
- V. Roman History (answer two questions.)
1. When, how, and to what extent, did the Romans get control of Britain? Who was Boadicea? What is Watling Street? Name any modern English towns that existed in the days of the Roman dominion.
 2. What do you know about the great fire at Rome under Nero, about the eruption of Vesuvius in 79 A. D., about the Arch of Titus, and about Roman literature at the time of Trajan?
 3. What do you know about the characteristics and the policies of Hadrian?
- VI. The Later Roman Empire (answer 1 or 2.)
1. What were the principal achievements of Diocletian, of Constantine, and of Justinian?
 2. Explain the difference between the fate of the Roman Empire in the East and its fate in the West.

MEDIEVAL AND MODERN HISTORY

Group I (answer two questions).

1. To what modern states did the break-up of the empire of Charlemagne (Charles the Great) eventually give rise? To which did the imperial title again become attached? What other realms did its sovereigns win or claim?
2. What medieval states arose in the Spanish peninsula? Which won most territory there? Which in other Mediterranean lands? Which in America? Which in the East Indies?
3. What lands in what is now France were at any time in the Middle Ages held by any outside sovereign? What lands now outside France were at any time in the Middle Ages held by the King of France?

Group II (answer two questions).

1. In what countries did the Normans rule in 1100?
2. Name the dates and leaders of the first three crusades? What were the effects of the crusades on Western Europe?
3. Why were so many of the rulers of the German cities and states in favor of the Lutheran Reformation? What was the position in regard to religion of each of the electors of the Empire in 1555?

Group III (answer 1 or 2).

1. Show on the map the chief states of Christendom at the close of the Middle Ages. Which of these recognized the religious headship of the Pope?
2. Name and locate the five principal states in Germany in 1648. Name and locate their capitals.

Group IV (answer three questions).

1. What additions were made to French territory by Louis XIV?
2. Who were the Huguenots? What was the attitude of Henry IV toward them? How did Richelieu restrict their privileges? What action did Louis XIV take against them?
3. What part did the following play in the Thirty Years' War? Elector of Saxony; Elector of Brandenburg; Duke of Bavaria; King of Denmark; Wallenstein.
4. What wars were waged by Frederick the Great? Name the results of each.

Group V (answer 1 or 2).

1. Tell why the following persons were important: Mazzini, Marx, Thiers, Moltke, Metternich.
2. What was the North German Confederation? Who was its founder? What were the principal institutions of the Confederation? Give date of foundation.

AMERICAN HISTORY AND CIVICS

How many weeks, and for how many hours of recitation a week, have you studied American History and Civics? What textbooks did you use? What other standard works on American History do you know? Describe one of the latter in some detail. Are you seeking a unit or half unit of credit?

Write on two questions in the following group:

1. Name the leading French explorers in America, prior to 1750, telling the routes followed and the particular achievements of each explorer.
2. Name the leading persons connected with the settlement of what is now Massachusetts and tell what special service each rendered.
3. Mention the campaigns and their results in the French and Indian War. Relate this war to the history of European nations in the same period. In what other parts of the world was the struggle waged between England and France in this period?

Write on two questions in this group:

1. What was the reason for the opposition in certain parts of the United States to the acquisition of Louisiana? What nations possessed Louisiana between 1750 and 1803? Give the dates of acquisition and cession by each.
2. What important matters were made the subject of Federal legislation immediately following the Second War with Great Britain, and why? Did any of this legislation have results traceable in the present time? Explain.
3. Discuss the election of 1824, as to candidates, political issues, and results. What was the occasion of Jackson's charges against Clay in this connection?

Write on two questions in this group:

1. Why did the Congress overthrow the Johnson state governments of 1865 and substitute its own scheme of reconstruction in 1867?
2. What is the definition of citizenship as given in the Fourteenth Amendment? In the light of this, how must the case of Dred Scott (1857) have been decided?
3. On what charges was Andrew Johnson impeached? How is an impeachment conducted? What is necessary to a conviction?

ENGLISH HISTORY

Group I (answer 1 or 2).

1. When and where did the Anglo-Saxons land in England? Into what classes was the Anglo-Saxon population divided? What was their political organization? What was the wergeld? Compurgation and ordeal?
2. Outline the (a) Work of Alfred the Great, or (b) Work of William the Conqueror.

Group II (answer two questions).

1. Describe the quarrel between Henry II and Thomas Becket. What were the legal reforms of Henry II?
2. What are some important provisions of Magna Charta? When was it obtained and how?
3. What were the causes of the Hundred Years' War? What were the principal battles? Dates.

Group III (answer 1 or 2).

1. Locate on map: The Wash, Cambridge, Winchester, Canterbury, Lancashire.

2. Locate on map: Rouen, Rheims, Calais, Anjou, Loire River.

Group IV (answer two questions).

1. Discuss the following in the quarrel between Henry VIII and the Papacy:

- a. Question of headship of English Church; b. Question of Annates; c. Act of Appeals; d. Dissolution of the monasteries.

2. Describe the quarrel between Charles I and Parliament with reference to a. Forced loans; b. The Petition of Right; c. Tonnage and poundage; d. Star Chamber.

3. What was the Act of Settlement? The Union with Scotland? What possessions did England gain by the Treaty of Utrecht?

Group V (answer two questions).

1. What were the causes of the war between England and France in 1793?
What was the commercial policy of Napoleon in his wars with England?

2. Describe one event of importance connected with each of the following:
Walpole, Nelson, Cobden, Gladstone, Lord Kitchener.

3. Where is the Crimea? What is the principal city? What powers engaged in a war there and when?

ELEMENTARY ALGEBRA

1. (a) Find the prime factors of $x^3 - 6x^2 + 12x - 9$.
(b) Find the L. C. M. of $3x^3 + 3$, $6x^2 + 36x + 54$, and $x^3 + 2x^2 - 2x + 3$.

2. Simplify:

$$\frac{\frac{I}{x}}{1 - \frac{I}{x}} + x \left(1 + \frac{x^2}{1 - x^2} \right) + \frac{1 - \frac{I}{x+I}}{x} + x.$$

3. Prove that, for any number of equal ratios, the sum of all the antecedents is to the sum of all the consequents as any antecedent is to its consequent.

4. A stock dealer bought a number of horses at $150.00 each, and cows at $80.00 each, spending in all $840.00. Later he bought half as many horses and twice as many cows (at the same prices) for $780.00. How many cows and how many horses were there in his first purchase?

5. Solve, for x and y , the simultaneous equations:

$$\frac{3x+y}{a+b} + \frac{4x-y}{a+b} = 14 \quad \text{and} \quad x-2y=7b.$$

6. Show that $x = 9\sqrt{2} - 11$ is a solution of the equation

$$\frac{(\sqrt{2}+1)x}{5-9\sqrt{2}} = \frac{2\sqrt{2}-7}{x+6}.$$

7. The total number of men in two regiments is 1,924. When each regiment is drawn up in a solid square, the number of men on a side of the square is two more for one regiment than it is for the other. Find the number of men on a side of each square.

INTERMEDIATE ALGEBRA

Answer six questions:

1. Find the H. C. F. of x^4+x^3-2x-2 and $x^5+x^4+x^3-2x^2-2x-2$.
2. Simplify:

$$\frac{1}{1+\left(\frac{2x\sqrt{1-x^2}}{2x^2-1}\right)^2} \cdot \frac{(2x^2-1)\left(\sqrt{1-x^2} + \frac{x^2}{\sqrt{1-x^2}}\right) - 4x^2\sqrt{1-x^2}}{(2x^2-1)^2}$$

3. Two rectangles have the same area, viz., 480 sq. yds. The difference of their lengths is 10 yds., and the difference of their widths is 4 yds. Find the dimensions of each.

4. Solve the equation $9y^2+6xy-x^2=11x+12y-4$ for y in terms of x ; and thus find the values of x for which y is real.

5. Solve the simultaneous equations $x^2+y^2=3$ and $y^2=2x$, and interpret the result graphically.

6. Show that the fifth term of the geometric progression

$$\frac{1}{\sqrt{3}+\sqrt{2}}, \quad 5-2\sqrt{6}, \quad 9\sqrt{3}-11\sqrt{2}, \quad \dots \dots \dots$$ is equal to $(\sqrt{3}-\sqrt{2})^5$.

7. (a) Multiply $\sqrt{-4}-2$ by $5-3\sqrt{-1}$.

- (b) Divide $8-2i\sqrt{-2}$ by $5\sqrt{-2}-6$.

ADVANCED ALGEBRA

1. Given the equation $\frac{x^2-x+7}{x+1}=m$; find the values of m (i. e. of the fraction) for which x will be real.

2. Expand $\left(\sqrt{x}-\frac{1}{2x}\right)^{\infty}$ to four terms, and simplify the result. Also write down the 18th term of the expansion.

3. If the number of feet a body falls varies directly as the square of the number of seconds occupied in falling, and if it falls 16.1 feet during the first second, how far will it fall during the fourth second?

4. If $\alpha+i\beta$ is a root of a cubic equation having real coefficients, prove that $\alpha-i\beta$ also is a root of this equation.

5. By Horner's method find, correct to three figures, a real root of the equation $x^3+x+3=0$.

6. Expand the determinant
- $$\begin{vmatrix} 1 & 1 & 2 & -1 \\ 2 & 0 & 3 & 4 \\ 2 & -3 & 1 & 0 \\ -1 & 0 & 1 & -1 \end{vmatrix}$$ in terms of the elements of the second column, and thus find the value of this determinant.

7. On a town council there are 12 Democrats and 8 Republicans. How many different committees can be formed, each consisting of 3 Democrats and 2 Republicans?

PLANE GEOMETRY

1. The non-parallel sides of a trapezoid and the line joining the mid-points of the parallel sides, if prolonged, meet in a common point.
2. Construct a triangle having given two of its angles, and any one of its medians.
3. If the bisector of an exterior angle of a triangle meets the opposite side, it divides it externally in the ratio of the other two sides.
4. Given the area of a circle, 100 square inches; find the area of its inscribed square.
5. (a) Define a locus. (b) Find the locus of the middle points of the chords drawn through a given point on the circumference of a circle. (c) By means of (b), through one of the points of intersection of two circles draw a chord of one of these circles so that it shall be bisected by the other circle.
6. A square whose side is 5 inches, has its corners cut off in such a way as to form a regular octagon. Find the area and the perimeter of this octagon.
7. The diagonals joining the alternate vertices of a regular hexagon form a new regular hexagon whose area equals one-third that of the given hexagon.

SOLID GEOMETRY

1. From a point outside of a plane to construct a line perpendicular to the plane.
2. Find the entire area and the volume of a regular octahedron whose edge is 4 inches.
3. State and prove the theorem for the volume of a triangular pyramid.
4. If it takes 80 sq. in. of tin to make a pint cup of a given shape, how much tin will be required to make a similar cup that will hold a quart.
5. The sum of any two face angles of a trihedral angle is greater than the third face angle.
6. The volume of a frustum of a right circular cone is 296π cu. in. If the altitude is 6 in., and the radius of one base is 8 in., what is the radius of the other base?

The area of an equilateral spherical triangular is one-tenth of the entire area of the sphere. How many degrees in each of its angles?

PLANE TRIGONOMETRY

- I. (a) Given $\sin x = -\frac{2}{3}$; construct x (in the 3d quadrant) and find the value of $\tan x$.
- (b) Express $\sec x$ in terms of $\cot x$.
- (c) Simplify the expression $\tan^{-1} \sqrt{\frac{1-\cos x}{1+\cos x}}$.

2. (a) Define what is meant by the logarithm of a number.
 (b) Find the following: $\log_2(8)$; $\log_{\pi}(3)$; and $\log_{10}(5)$, (having given $\log_{10} 2 = 0.30103$).

(c) By means of logarithms find $\sqrt[3]{0.0758}$.

3. Show that $\frac{1-\cos 2x + \sin 2x}{1+\cos 2x + \sin 2x} = \tan x$.
 4. Find all the values of x between 0° and 360° which satisfy the equation $\tan^2 x + 4 \sin^2 x = 6$.

5. Assuming the "law of sines," derive the formula

$$\frac{a+b}{a-b} = \frac{\tan \frac{1}{2}(A+B)}{\tan \frac{1}{2}(A-B)}.$$

6. Given the triangle ABC , with $a = 425.86$, $b = 342.72$, and $c = 548.9$; find angle A .

7. From a point A the angle of elevation to the top of a hill is $28^\circ 30' 30''$; from a point on the same level, and 200.68 ft. farther away, but in a direct line with A and the foot of the hill, the angle of elevation is $15^\circ 40' 12''$; find the height of the hill.

SPHERICAL TRIGONOMETRY

1. (a) Draw a suitable figure and prove that, in a spherical triangle, right angled at C ,

$$\sin a = \sin c \sin A, \text{ and}$$ $$\sin b = \tan a \cot A.$$

- (b) Also write (without proof) three other formulas connecting parts of this triangle.

2. Given an isosceles spherical triangle ABC , with $a = b = 115^\circ 40' 30''$, and $C = 70^\circ 48'$, find A and C .

3. (a) If, in the spherical triangle ABC , the parts A , B , and c are given, write down all the formulas needed for finding the remaining parts and for checking their correctness.

- (b) State what, if any, are the limitations upon A , B , and c in order that with these parts, one triangle and only one is possible.

4. Given the spherical triangle ABC , with $a = 120^\circ 55' 35''$, $b = 57^\circ 4' 29''$, and $c = 106^\circ 10' 22''$; find A .

5. Derive the "law of cosines" for a spherical triangle.

6. The city of Quito is situated on the equator, and its longitude is $78^\circ 50'$ west of Greenwich; the latitude of Greenwich is $51^\circ 28'$ north. Find the distance from Greenwich to Quito (on the arc of a great circle), assuming the radius of the earth to be 4000 miles.

PHYSICS

1. What general law of physics is illustrated by the spring balance? How does a spring balance differ in principle from the chemical balance?
2. What must be given in order to compute the kinetic energy of a body? What is potential energy?
3. How is heat measured? Describe some experiment which you have performed in which you measured an amount of heat.
4. Explain briefly the formation of an image by a lens. Give a diagram showing clearly how the lens alters the path of the light.
5. Give a diagram showing the apparatus and connections needed to plate a metal with silver. Explain briefly.
6. In what particulars do the sounds used in music differ? How does change of length and of tension alter the tone of a string?

CHEMISTRY

Entrance credit in chemistry does not carry with it University credit in any course in chemistry in Cornell University. Applicants for University credit in Introductory Inorganic Chemistry, Course 1, who have received permission from Mr. Hoy, should take the examination for University credit also being held in this room.

Answer eight questions only.

(Atomic Weights: H = 1, C = 12, O = 16, Na = 23, S = 32, Cl = 35.5, Zn = 65).

1. Name the substances represented by the following formulas: AgNO_3 , CuCl_2 , PbS , NH_4OH , BaCl_2 , MgSO_4 , HClO_3 , FeSO_4 , Al_2O_3 , H_2O_2 .

Write the chemical formulas for the following substances: ferrous sulphide, silver chloride, sodium peroxide, barium nitrate, aluminum sulphate, cupric oxide, lead sulphate, ammonium nitrate, magnesium chloride, potassium chlorate.

2. Describe two methods for the preparation of hydrogen. What are the properties of hydrogen?

Selecting either one of the methods just described, calculate the quantity of materials necessary for the production of 100 liters of hydrogen measured at 21°C . and 750 mm.

(One liter of hydrogen under standard conditions weighs 0.0899 gram.)

3. Define acid, base, salt.

What volume of a solution of hydrochloric acid containing 36.5 grams of the acid per liter, would suffice for the exact neutralization of 10 cc. of a solution of sodium hydroxide containing 80 grams of the base per liter?

4. How may ammonia be prepared in the laboratory? Give equation.

What are the properties of ammonia? How is ammonia obtained in commerce? To what uses is it put?

5. Complete and balance each of the equations indicated below:

- (d) $\text{CaO} + \text{H}_2\text{O} =$
- (e) $\text{CaC}_2 + \text{H}_2\text{O} =$
- (f) $\text{CaCO}_3 + \text{CO}_2 + \text{H}_2\text{O} =$
- (g) $\text{Na} + \text{H}_2\text{O} =$
- (h) $\text{CH}_4 + \text{O}_2$ (ignited) =
- (i) NH_4NO_3 (heated) =
- (j) $\text{NO} + \text{O}_2 =$

6. Name the halogens. How may each of these elements be prepared in the free state? Write an equation in each case expressing the reaction involved. What are the properties of the halogens?

7. Give two methods for the preparation of carbon monoxide. Write equations. What are the properties of carbon monoxide?

What volume of pure oxygen gas would be required for the complete combustion of 10 liters of carbon monoxide? What volume of carbon dioxide would be formed?

8. Describe briefly the essential features of either the Lead Chamber Process, or the Contact Process for the manufacture of sulphuric acid. What are the properties of sulphuric acid?

9. State (a) the Periodic Law, (b) the Law of Definite Proportions, (c) the Law of Multiple Proportions, (d) the Law of the Conservation of Energy.

10. In what important respect does the chemical composition of pig iron differ from that of wrought iron and from that of steel? Describe briefly a commercial method for the manufacture (a) of pig iron, and (b) of steel.

BOTANY

Physiology

1. Describe transpiration in plants. Through what parts of the plant does it take place? What effect does it have on the circulation of water? What are the conditions which favor transpiration?

2. Describe two of the most important functions performed by roots.

3. Describe and illustrate a cell, naming the parts. Describe some of the work performed by cells.

4. What is geotropism? Describe it in reference to the growth of roots and stems.

General Morphology

5. Name and describe the parts of a complete flower. Describe pollination. How does fertilization (i. e. fecundation) take place?

6. Describe the different phases in the complete life history of a rust (e. g., Puccinia graminis).

7. Describe a moss or liverwort, the leafy stem part, and the capsule.

8. What are algae? Where do they occur? Describe one.

Special Morphology

9. Make a diagram of a longitudinal section of a perigynous, epigynous, and hypogynous flower, labeling all parts. Which of these types have a superior ovary?

10. Name at least three characters which are used to separate monocotyledons from dicotyledons. Wherein do grasses and sedges differ?
11. Define the terms diclinism, entomophilous, migration, pollination, and dissemination as applied to plants.
12. Name the three most important factors influencing plant distribution.

ZOOLOGY

1. Make a diagram of a protozoan which you have studied with the microscope. Compare the fundamental plan of body-structure with that of any of the higher animals (e. g. crayfish or frog).
2. Define: cilia, tentacle, pseudopodia, metamorphosis, vacuole, nucleus, larva, habitat.
3. Compare the method of prehension, digestion, and assimilation of food in ameba, hydra, frog, and rabbit.
4. Write a general description of the skeleton of man or any other mammal, and compare it in structure and position with that of a crayfish or an insect.
5. Explain how respiration takes place in an ameba, a fish, and a frog.
6. Outline the complete life-history of a frog. Illustrate with diagrams.
7. Name four distinct methods of locomotion found among animals, and give an example of each. Name the locomotor organs in each case and point out how each is fitted to the performance of its functions.

BIOLOGY

State briefly what biological subjects you have studied, with what proportion of recitation and laboratory work, and for what periods. Any laboratory books or other work done in such courses may be submitted as supplemental to the answers to be written to the following questions.

Answer any ten questions.

1. Give an account, with simple diagrams, of the life-history of a fern.
2. Give an account of the structure of a leaf, and explain its work.
3. Diagram a flower, naming the constituent parts and stating the ordinary functions of each.
4. Give an account of starch, its composition, its function in the plant, where formed, and under what conditions.
5. Give an account of the structure of the seed and of its method of germination.
6. Diagram the transformation stages of a mosquito or of a house-fly.
7. Illustrate by sectional diagrams the structure of an earthworm, fish or frog.
8. List ten common birds of your home neighborhood and state briefly their nesting and migration habits.

9. Diagram the eggs of a frog or a salamander and describe the principal external features in the development of the tadpole from them.
10. Diagram the external structure of a grasshopper or a crawfish.
11. Explain how the food is prepared for absorption and how it gets to the cells of the body.
12. Diagram the lungs, and the passage ways leading from them to the exterior.
13. How does the body get rid of the waste which results from the activities of the cells?
14. State how the body is benefitted by exercise.
15. What are the functions of the human skin and by what hygienic treatment may they be promoted?

PHYSICAL GEOGRAPHY

(Figures in brackets at end of questions indicate percent allowed for each).

1. Define and distinguish as to origin, structure, and topography between (a) alluvial fan, (b) flood plain, (c) natural levee, (d) delta. [10]
2. If the relative humidity of the air is 80% and the temperature rises 10° F. while the absolute humidity remains the same, how will the relative humidity be changed? Will perspiration be more or less apparent after the rise in temperature? [5]
3. What ocean current affects the climate of the coast of Labrador? How? What is the origin of the many deepwater bays on the coast of Maine? Why has New Jersey a shore line which is in general sandy and low? [10]
4. How do the slopes of Mt. Shasta and Mauna Loa differ in steepness? How do you account for the slope and size of Mauna Loa? [5]
5. What is residual soil? Why is it thin on steep mountain slopes? Why is a glacial soil in general considered more "lasting" for agricultural purposes than a residual soil? [10]
6. Diagram the positions of the sun, moon, and earth when a Spring Tide is caused. When a Neap Tide results. [5]
7. What may be said as to the effect of transportation possibilities in determining the site and promoting the growth of large cities? Cite examples in the United States. [10]

LABORATORY QUESTIONS

8. Describe a contour map. How are contour lines spaced on a steep slope? Draw one contour map about four inches square, showing all the following features: (a) a volcanic cone in the northeast corner, (b) a mountain ridge across the north edge, and (c) a plain sloping to the south from the bases of (a) and (b) cut in the middle by a deep stream valley in which the water flows from north to south. [15]
9. Give state and part of state in which your preparatory school is located. Describe some physiographic form near there as observed and reported on by you in field excursion work. Of what use or detriment is it to mankind? [15]
10. Diagram the winds about the central Low of a cyclonic storm in the Prevailing Westerlies. How do the winds change in direction as the Low of a

Cyclonic storm passes to the north of an observer? Where does rain or snow occur with relation to the center of the "Low?" Why is this so? [10]

11. What laboratory guide or manual did you use? How many Exercises were completed? Give the title and a short synopsis of three different types of them. [5]

AGRICULTURE

For one-half unit credit, answer the first six questions.

For one unit credit, answer each of the ten questions.

1. Explain the phenomenon of air drainage in its relation to frost.
2. Name and discuss five effects of tile drainage.
3. Name and give symptoms of a bacterial disease of plants. Give a method for its control.
4. (a) Describe as fully as you can how whole milk is tested by the Babcock method. Give reasons for the several manipulations.
 (b) Give the different steps, with the reasons for each, in the process of churning, from the time the milk is taken from the vat until the butter is packed.
5. State the chemical changes that occur when limestone is heated to make lime, and when lime is slaked with water.
6. Name the three operations of graftage which you consider most important for the fruit grower to know. Give in detail the directions for making one of these kinds of grafts.
7. Describe the method of making Bordeaux. What is the use of Bordeaux in agriculture?
8. Two foods, (a) and (b), have the following digestible composition per 100 pounds:

| | Water | Ash | Fiber | Nitrogen-free-extract | Protein | Fat |
|-----|-------|-----|-------|-----------------------|---------|-----|
| (a) | 15.3 | 6.4 | 11.7 | 26.3 | 7.4 | 1.9 |
| (b) | 10.9 | 1.5 | 1.2 | 63.9 | 8.3 | 4.7 |

 What will be the nutritive ratio of a mixture of equal weights of the two? How much dry matter will 100 pounds of the mixture contain?
9. Give six reasons for practicing rotation of crops.
10. Describe a method of testing the germinating quality of seeds.

DRAWING

Two examinations are given, one in freehand drawing and one in mechanical drawing. Applicants may take either, or by special arrangement may take both. The examination will be given and judged on the assumption that those taking it have had approximately 150 actual hours of instruction and practice for each $\frac{1}{2}$ credit point desired. One (1) point is the maximum credit allowed in the subject. Candidates taking the examinations must present samples of their work, and a teacher's statement showing time and proficiency.

Freehand Drawing

For this examination the applicant is required to make a pencil sketch of an object or group of objects. The objects used may be geometrical blocks with straight and curved lines and curved surfaces, simple pieces of pottery, furniture, or models with simple lines and surfaces. The purpose of the examination is to test the ability of the applicant to draw accurately and sympathetically just what he sees. Shading may or may not be required.

Mechanical Drawing

Questions may call for instrumental drawing of geometric constructions, orthographic and isometric projection, oblique section and intersection of solids, surface developments, etc., and working drawings of machine details, as bolts, nuts, pulleys, gears, various simple castings, etc. Data for the problems in any given examination will be furnished in the form of sketches or photographs with dimensions marked or stated.

MANUAL TRAINING

Examinations will be offered in woodworking, forging, foundry work, and machine work. To satisfy the entrance requirement the applicant must have performed not less than 300 hours of actual work in the subjects in which the examination is taken. Candidates must present a teacher's statement of the time actually spent in the work and of the proficiency attained therein.

SCHOLARSHIP EXAMINATION PAPERS ENGLISH

Answer the first three questions and two of the others.

1. Write a composition, four or five pages in length, on one of the following topics: Why I have Chosen the — Course, My Preparatory Study of Sciences, How a President is Elected, Why a Boy Should Study Music, My Favorite Reading, Johnson's Early Years in London, Work and Play on a Farm.

2. Explain as many as you can of the following phrases: "Open sesame," "the curse of Babel", "the dissidence of dissent", "Vanity Fair", "a mess of pottage", "kill the fatted calf", "Armageddon", "the Pierian spring", "Round-head", "to have one's innings".

3. Give the syntax of the italicized words below:

Europe, within the same period, has been agitated by a mighty revolution, which, while it has been felt in the individual condition and happiness of almost every man, has shaken to the centre her political fabric, and dashed against one another thrones, which had stood tranquil for ages.—Webster.

4. Choose a or b.

a. How in his discussion of Burns does Carlyle make use of the life of Byron and what lesson does he draw from it?

b. Characterize with reference to subject matter, style, interest, and importance Johnson's Lives of the Poets.

5. Quote a significant passage from a poem studied in the high-school course and explain the significance of the passage in the poem as a whole.

6. Choose a or b.

a. Show in detail how in form and structure, in subject matter and mood, L'Allegro and Il Penseroso are companion poems. (You may if you wish quote significant lines).

b. What is an allegory? Is there any allegory in the Idylls of the King? (Develop your answer in two or three paragraphs).

7. Choose a or b.

a. Give the substance of the conversation between Macduff and Malcolm at their first meeting in England. What is the dramatic purpose of this conversation?

b. Discuss Macbeth and Comus as dramatic types: (1) naturalness of plot, (2) characters, (3) moral teaching.

B. GRAMMAR

In passage (a): What rule of accent applies to δεινοῦ, ἔτοιμός, μενεῖν? Inflect ὅρος and αἰξῖ.

In passage (b): Give the principal parts of ἥρεθη and ἀναξόμενοι. Tell the type of each condition.

C. COMPOSITION

And after this Xenophon arose and said, "O fellow soldiers, it is evident that our march (πορεία) must be made on foot; for there are no boats. But it is necessary to proceed at once; for we have no supplies. We therefore", said he, "will offer sacrifice". After this the generals offered sacrifice and there was present a soothsayer from Arcadia ('Αρχάς). But the sacrifices were not favorable. In consequence they rested all day.

a Als der Tag graute, stand ich auf und öffnete, fast ohne daß ich es wußte, die Tür unsrer kleinen Hütte. Ich stand auf dem freien Felde, bald darauf war ich in einem Walde, in den der Tag fast noch gar nicht hineinschien. Ich lief immerfort, ohne mich umzusehn, ich fühlte keine Müdigkeit, denn ich glaubte immer, mein Vater würde mich noch wieder einholen, und durch meine Flucht noch grausamer gegen mich werden.

Als ich aus dem Walde wieder heraustrat, stand die Sonne schon ziemlich hoch, ich sah jetzt etwas Dunkles vor mir liegen, auf dem ein dichter Nebel lag.

Bald mußte ich über Hügel klettern, bald durch einen zwischen Felsen gewundenen Weg gehn, und ich erriet nun, daß ich mich wohl in dem benachbarten Gebirge befinden müsse, und ich sing an, mich in der Einsamkeit zu fürchten. Denn ich hatte in der Ebene noch keine Berge gesehn, und das bloße Wort Gebirge, wenn ich davon hatte reden hören, hatte meinem kindischen Ohre äußerst furchterlich geflungen. Ich hatte nicht das Herz zurückzugehn, sondern eben meine Angst trieb mich vorwärts; oft sah ich mich erschrocken um, wenn der Wind über mir weg durch die Bäume fuhr, oder ein ferner Holzschlag weit durch den stillen Morgen hintönte. Als mir Röhler und Bergleute endlich begegneten und ich eine fremde Aussprache hörte, wäre ich vor Entsetzen fast in Ohnmacht gesunken.

b Nicht weit von der Hauptstadt lebte auf einem abgelegenen Landgute ein alter Mann, der sich ausschließlich mit der Erziehung seines einzigen Sohnes beschäftigte und nebenher den Landleuten in wichtigen Krankheiten Rat erteilte. Der junge Mensch war ernst und ergab sich einzig der Wissenschaft der Natur, in welcher ihn sein Vater von Kindheit auf unterrichtete. Aus fernen Gegenenden war der Alte vor mehreren Jahren in dies friedliche und blühende Land gezogen und begnügte sich, den wohltätigen Frieden, den der König um sich verbreitete, in der Stille zu genießen. Er benutzte sie, die Kräfte der Natur zu erforschen und diese hinreichenden Kenntnisse seinem Sohne mitzuteilen, der viel Sinn dafür verriet und dessen tiefem Gemüt die Natur bereitwillig ihre Geheimnisse anvertraute. Die Gestalt des jungen Menschen schien gewöhnlich und unbedeutend, wenn man nicht einen höheren Sinn für die geheimere Bildung seines edlen Gesichts und die ungewöhnliche Klarheit seiner Augen mitbrachte. Je länger man ihn ansah, desto anziehender ward er, und man konnte sich kaum wieder von ihm trennen, wenn man seine sanfte, eindringende Stimme und seine anmutige Gabe zu sprechen hörte. Eines Tages hatte die Prinzessin, deren Lustgärten an den Wald stießen, der das Landgut des Alten in einem kleinen Tale verbarg, sich allein zu Pferde in den Wald begeben, um desto ungestörter ihren Phantasien nachhängen und einige schöne Gesänge sich wiederholen zu können. Die Frische des hohen Waldes lockte sie immer tiefer in seine Schatten, und so kam sie endlich an das Landgut, wo der Alte mit seinem Sohne lebte.

Ihr wißt es, Prinzen, wie ich Euch von jeher
Mit mütterlicher Zärtlichkeit geliebt.
Ihr seid mein Stolz, mein Glück und meine Hoffnung.
Euch will ich groß sehn in der Menschen Augen,
Die ersten Helden einer großen Zeit.
Kann ich's nun dulden, soll das Herz nicht bluten,
Wenn ich verachtet an des Vaters Hof,
Als Knaben die behandelt sehe, die
Mit ihrer Taten sternenhellem Ruhm
Das Herz Europas schon erfüllen könnten? —
Er fürchtet Euer Mut und Euer Stolz.
Er will, der Harte, nicht einmal die Söhne
Zu Nebenbuhlern seines Ruhms. Das Volk
Liebt Euch, Euch lieben die Barone. Ihr seid

Gefährlich, wenn die Gegenwart erfährt,
 Welch eine Kraft in diesen Herzen schlummert.
 Darum erstickt er jeden Reim in Euch,
 Dass er allmählich nicht zum Baume wachse,
 Der seinen Königsthron beschatten kann.
 Er finnt auf neue Künste, Euch noch mehr
 In des Gehorsams Fesseln einzudrängen;
 Ein jedes freie Wort wird ihm Verbrechen,
 Und jeder Heldentraum nährt den Verdacht.
 Wie oft hat er es Euch nicht zugesagt,
 Wenn Ihr mit rascher Bitte ihn bestürmtet:
 Er sollt' ein Feld Euch öffnen, Eure Kraft,
 Wie sie dem Königsohn geziemt, zu prüfen.

a. One of the most agreeable experiences that one can have is to take a trip through France in an automobile. The roads are excellent almost everywhere, and all that is necessary for travellers can be procured in the country hotels. It is true that sometimes you go so fast that you gain only a very insufficient idea of the country through which you pass. It is possible, however, to make a stay of several days in a city like Tours, and to visit one after another the old castles which are to be found in the neighborhood. The construction of some of these castles goes back to the Middle Ages, while others of them date from the reign of Francis I. Before visiting a country so full of memories of the past, one ought to inform oneself as much as possible concerning the history of France.

b. Pierre Corneille was born at Rouen in Normandy at the beginning of the seventeenth century. All his life he was a good example of the qualities of his race and education. After having studied law, he came to Paris where he made the acquaintance of the all-powerful Cardinal Richelieu, who, at that time, was ruling France under the name of Louis XIII. He wrote several plays which are counted among the masterpieces of French dramatic literature.

Il y va de ma charge, il y va de ma vie:
Ainsi tantôt pour lui je m'expose au trépas,
Et tantôt je le perds pour ne me perdre pas.

P. CORNEILLE: Polyeucte.

- b. Le bourgeois est un être de formation récente, inconnu à l'antiquité, produit des grandes monarchies bien administrées, et, parmi toutes les espèces d'hommes que la société façonne, la moins capable d'exciter quelque intérêt. Car il est exclu de toutes les idées et de toutes les passions qui sont grandes, en France du moins où il a fleuri mieux qu'ailleurs. Le gouvernement l'a déchargé des affaires politiques, et le clergé des affaires religieuses. La ville capitale a pris pour elle la pensée, et les gens de cour l'élégance. L'administration, par sa régularité, lui épargne les aiguillons du danger et du besoin. Il vivote ainsi, rapetissé et tranquille. A côté de lui un cordonnier d'Athènes qui jugeait, votait, allait à la guerre, et pour tous meubles avait un lit et deux cruches de terre, était un noble. Ses pareils d'Allemagne trouvent aujourd' hui une issue dans la religion, la science ou la musique. Un petit rentier de la Calabre, en habit râpé, va danser, et sent les beaux-arts. Les opulentes bourgeoisies de Flandre avaient la poésie du bien-être et de l'abondance.

H. TAINÉ: La Fontaine.

- c. Give five principal parts of all the irregular verbs in the last two passages.

FIRST MATHEMATICAL PAPER

Give all the chief steps of your work and reasoning, clearly arranged and not crowded. Abridge and simplify the work when you can, explaining if necessary. Get your results in their simplest forms. In geometry give carefully constructed figures, and accompany all solutions with complete demonstrations. All clear abbreviations are allowed. The questions may be answered in any order.

1. Simplify $\frac{10-7\sqrt{2}}{2+\sqrt{2}}$.

2. Solve the following simultaneous equations for x and y :

$$\begin{cases} \sqrt{x} + \sqrt{y} = 3 \\ 2x + 3y = 11 \end{cases}$$

3. A fruit dealer spends a certain sum of money for apples at a certain price, and an equal sum of money for others at a different price. He sells them all at a price half-way between the two buying prices. Does he lose or gain by the transaction?

4. The weights of similar bodies of the same material vary as the cubes of corresponding dimensions. If a solid sphere of 3 in. radius weighs 54 lbs., how much will a hollow sphere of the same material weigh if the outside radius is 5 in., and the material is 1 in. thick?

5. Prove that the areas of two similar polygons are to each other as the squares of any two homologous sides.

6. Let AD be the altitude of a triangle ABC from the vertex A to the base BC . If $AB = 13$, $AC = 15$, and $BC = 14$, find the lengths of the segments BD and DC .

7. Prove that if the radius of a circle is divided in mean and extreme ratio, the larger segment will be the side of the regular inscribed decagon.

8. Prove that the area of the square inscribed in a semi-circle is two-fifths that of the square inscribed in the circle.

SECOND MATHEMATICAL PAPER

1. In how many ways can 9 books be arranged on a shelf so that two particular books shall not come together?

2. Find all the roots of $6x^4 - x^3 - 16x^2 + 4x + 3 = 0$.

3. Find the value of $\left\{ \left(\frac{1-\sqrt{-1}}{\sqrt{2}} \right)^2 \right\}^{91}$.

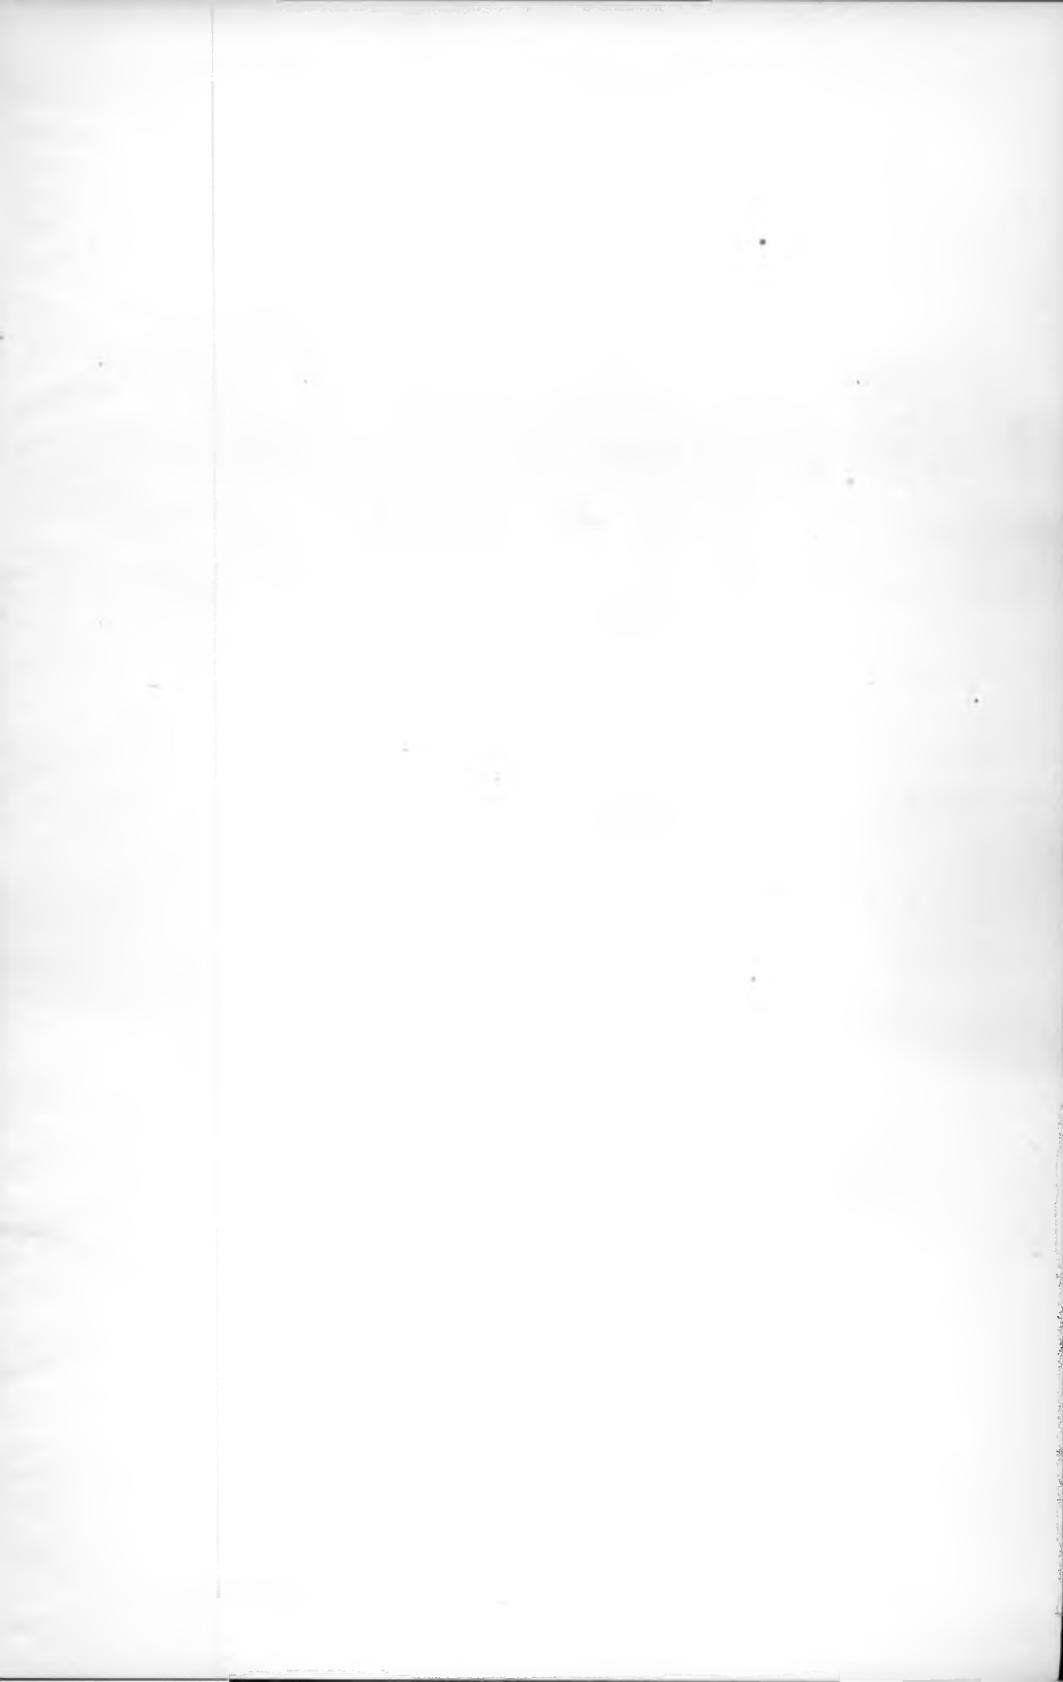

4. Prove that the volume of a cube inscribed in a sphere equals $2\sqrt{2}$ times the volume of a cube inscribed in half the sphere.

5. Calculate the radius r of a sphere inscribed in a right circular cone of altitude h and base radius a .

6. Prove $\sin^{-1}\left(\frac{4}{5}\right) + \sin^{-1}\left(\frac{5}{13}\right) + \sin^{-1}\left(\frac{16}{65}\right) = \frac{\pi}{2}$.

7. Prove $\cos 20^\circ + \cos 100^\circ + \cos 140^\circ = 0$.

8. Find, and prove correct, the locus of points which are at the same time equidistant from two given planes and from two given points.

OFFICIAL PUBLICATIONS OF CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Issued at Ithaca, N. Y., monthly from July to November inclusive, and semi-monthly from December to June inclusive.

[Entered as second-class matter, August 31, 1910, at the post office at Ithaca, N. Y., under the Act of July 16, 1894.]

These publications include

Catalogue Number (containing lists of officers and students), price 25 cents,
