POLICIES, PROCEDURES and PEOPLE

• New Baby Congratulations

Congratulations to Nancy and Bill Long on the birth of their son, Matthew Joseph, on Tuesday, December 1. Matthew weighed in at 6 lbs., 8 oz. Nancy is an Accounts Assistant in Food Science and Technology.

EMPLOYEE MEETING TO BE HELD

The "annual" employee meeting will be held Tuesday, December 15, at 11:00 am in the Jordan Hall Auditorium. Dr. Hunter has some items of general interest to discuss, but he would welcome questions or suggestions for the agenda. Please submit agenda items to Personnel, Jordan Hall, as far in advance of the meeting as possible. Questions regarding the memo recently received by all employees about the salary programs should be submitted early so that answers can be obtained from the appropriate sources.

Mark your calendars and plan to attend this meeting.

CENET TRAINING TO BE HELD DECEMBER 10

A training session for the new CENET system will be held in Geneva on Thursday, December 10, from 10:00 am-Noon in the Food Science conference room. This training session is intended for all interested CENET users. Sessions will cover a variety of topics including:

- Technical specifics on connecting to the new CENET system
- Reorganisation of the CENET menu
- Enhancements to electronic mail, bulletin boards, and libraries
- How to use the Almanac Information server
- Accessing internet information resources like PENpages
- Searching the Mann Library databases

In addition to CENET training, a session will be held from 1:00-3:00 pm to introduce the recently revised PROMAS system.

For planning purposes, please call Nona Poyer at 5-8127 to register for the sessions. Note that necessary information to use the new CENET system was sent to established users on November 11.
