

STATION NEWS

Not for publication
without consent

A house organ for Station Employees

WEEK'S WEATHER

	Maximum	Minimum	Precipitation
June 5	67	55	.11 in. of rain
June 6	74	49	.75 in. of rain
June 7	78	55	Fair
June 8	76	46	Fair
June 9	85	58	Fair
June 10	84	66	Touch of rain
June 11	80	52	.11 in. of rain

Vol. 76 No. 18

June 13, 1962

Geneva, N. Y.

TO SPEAK AT ANNUAL HEALTH CONFERENCE

Dr. Splittstoesser and Dr. Massey will speak to the recent developments in food processing sessions of the Sanitation Section of the New York State Public Health Association at the Annual Health Conference in Syracuse on June 13. Dr. Massey will speak on "Ionizing Radiations". Dr. Splittstoesser will speak on "Significance of Micro-organisms in Frozen Foods".

STAFF PROMOTIONS

Effective July 1st two staff members become full professors. W. F. Crosier goes from Associate Professor to Professor of Seed Investigations and K. H. Steinkraus goes from Associate Professor to Professor of Bacteriology. Robert L. LaBelle goes from Assistant Professor to Associate Professor of Chemistry. Congratulations.

PROFESSORS ON THE MOVE

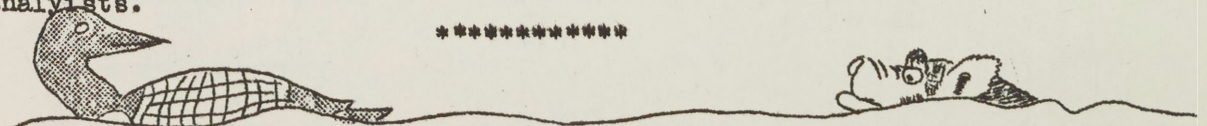

Dr. Vittum attended a NE Technical Committee meeting in New York City on Monday.....

Dr. Hand, Dr. Shallenberger, and Dr. Moyer are in Miami attending the National Meeting of the Institute of Food Technologists.....

On June 14 Dom Splittstoesser will fly to Miami to meet with the Food Protection Committee to discuss Micro-organisms in Foods.

SPENDS MONDAY IN SEED LAB

Dr. S. J. Lederer, chemist from Hawthorne, New Jersey, spent Monday in the Seed Lab. He reviewed Dr. Crosier's Methods for detecting mercuries on seeds and also reviewed the writing of a proposed rule to be used by official seed analysts.

HERE FOR SUMMER

Mr. Smith, a Biology teacher from Pennsylvania, will be here this summer under the National Science Foundation Research Participation Program. He will be working with Dr. Crosier on Seed Borne Organisms.

COLLEGE STUDENTS HERE FOR THE SUMMER

A number of college students have returned to work at the Station for the summer. Barry Klein and Larry Marchion are back with Plant Introductions. Larry Long, John McClellan, Mary Sullivan, David Devoll, Lee Kelsey, John Salisbury, and Jim McGuire are back with Vegetable Crops. Paul Flood, Marjorie Atkinson, Cynthia Curtis, David Robinson, Kenny Braun, Capten Kearns, and Chuck Atkinson are with Entomology. In Food Science Anne Glass and David Farwell have returned. Charles Notar is back to work with Dr. Natti on the Bean Project.

Hans Zweerink, A graduate student at Cornell from the Netherlands, will be working with Don Splittstoesser this summer. Dave Shaver, an under-graduate at Cornell, will also be working with Don this summer.

NEW PRESIDENT

Jane Vickery has been elected President of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Geneva.

GRADUATES

Bill Heit graduated from the University of Buffalo on Saturday. Bill received a Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy.....

John Gigliotti Jr. graduated on Saturday from Alfred Tech. as a construction Major. He will start at the University of Buffalo in September on a three year course in civil engineering.

NEW BULLETIN OUT

Bulletin # 794 is available for distribution. This is the bulletin on Grape Varieties introduced by the New York State Agriculture Experiment Station from 1928 to 1961.

LIBRARY NOTICE

Lost from the Library: 15th International Congress, Nice, 1958. Proceedings. Please return to Library or notify librarian of its whereabouts.

TO OUT OF UP FOR

If you have been searching for a sentence which ends in five prepositions, consider a situation where Junior yells downstairs to ask his father to bring up a children's book to read to him. Papa comes up with the wrong book, and Junior wails: "Aw, whaddya bring that thing I don't wanna be read to out of up for?"

Dr. Vitman attended a NE Technical Committee meeting in New York City on Monday.....

Dr. Hand, Dr. Challenberger, and Dr. Noyer are in Miami attending the National Meeting of the Institute of Food Technologists.....

On June 14 Don Splittstoesser will fly to Miami to meet with the Food Protection Committee to discuss Micro-organisms in Foods.

Dr. S. J. Leberer, chemist from Hawthorne, New Jersey, spent Monday in the Seed Lab. He reviewed Dr. Crosier's methods for detecting mercurials on seeds and also reviewed the writing of a proposed rule to be used by official seed analysts.
