My Dr Sir:-

Yours of 10 to hand and I must say my previous letter was brief. I feel however we could not carry the Load as there is no demand for Old Rails here at any price, and we might just as well get out of the way. On the perchance you desired as promptly as possible & did so. With anything we can make available, shall be but too glad to make Bottom Prices.

Very Truly Yours,
O. W. Potter, Pr.
