THE LAST The Traveler greets you for the first time since October 1933, after almost a five-year odyssey from Ithaca. First he lingered with the Lotus-eaters "to dream and dream — to hear each other's whispered speech", until he almost lost remembrance of time and mission. Next he watched with anxious eyes the dreaded whirlpool of Vague-ybdis only to run afoul the snaky heads of Statis-cylla. As next he sailed amidst the flowery-kirtled Naiades, the loosened wax let in the silvery strains of Inertia-ypos. Then came Dawn the Rosy Fingered, released his prisoned soul, and sped him to his journey's end.

This Traveler is edited and financed by the Alumni Chapter. It will be published hereafter, probably annually and as before, by the Active Chapter with the support of the Alumni Chapter. It will be supplemented at regular intervals, as before, by newsletters, the next of which will appear early in October.

From necessity rather than from choice this edition is apparently a statistical edition of The Traveler. None of the items could have been omitted. All have been pared to essential facts. Five pages are devoted to the revised Constitution of the Corporation. Another five pages are given to thumbnail sketches of 41 members who have come into Acacia since 1933. In keeping with previous policy, these writeups are published in order that you may know more about your new Brothers than just their names. Writeups for men who were initiated this past school year have been omitted. Marriages, Births, and Deaths such as are known are given on page fourteen. A chapter roll of our 348 Actives and Alumni, together with their last known addresses, is given on pages fifteen to twenty. Every effort has been made to bring this list up to date.

RETROSPECT

The last Traveler was published while the Active Chapter was still living in the gloomy shaft perched on the hillside at "614". The amendments lifting the "dual tie" had just been passed and made a law of the National Fraternity.

In September 1934, the Active Chapter moved into its new permanent home at 318 Highland Avenue on Cayuga Heights. This new property was acquired by the Corporation for $24,000. At the time of the purchase, a $4,000 cash payment was made, leaving a first mortgage of $20,000 upon which no payments were required for the first two years. Payments of $500 on the mortgage have been made each of the past two school years, reducing present mortgage to $19,000. For the first two years the interest on the mortgage was 3%; since then it has been 5%.

During the last year at "614" the Actives were 12 in number. Since moving to their new home on the heights they have increased to an average of 30 or more (see page eight). The gloom of "614" and the absorption of grads in their advanced work has given way to the airy expanse of a big home full of boys.

YOUR OPPORTUNITY

Each graduation means the loss of members for the coming year, who must be replaced by incoming men. Any fellow recommended by two Masons is eligible to Acacia. Rent, house fees, and board average $60 per month. Ascertain what "Acacia timber" from your community is planning to enter Cornell this fall, and send a penny postcard to Rufus J. Vail, 6 Homer Avenue., Cortland, N. Y. Do it at once.

The active Chapter is at present required to pay a yearly rental of $2,000, half of which is interest and the mortgage. Practically nothing is left for upkeep and furnishings. Further mortgage liquidations is vital. This must depend upon initiation fees and payments on the building fund pledges. How does your pledge stand?

A news-letter (devoid of statistics) is promised for early October. Its size and success will depend upon the response of our 348 members. What's your contribution?

Come. There lies the port; the vessel puffs her sail. Push off.

❖ Corporation Revises Constitution

The following Revised Constitution and By-Laws governing the Cornell Chapter of Acacia, Inc. (the Corporation) were adopted at the Annual Meeting held May 11, 1935.

The change in age of undergraduates due to the removal of the Masonic membership requirement made it necessary for the Corporation to adhere to the Membership Corporation Laws of the State by removing blanket membership of the Active Chapter members in the Corporation. It is necessary of course, that all members of the Corporation be twenty-one years of age.

The Articles of Incorporation were changed as required and also to permit the holding of real estate, by the Corporation, in Tompkins County instead of only in the City of Ithaca.

It was also apparent that many changes would have to be made in the existing Constitution and By-Laws. A committee, composed of W. W. Cotner, L. N. Simmons, and H. C. Reed, was appointed to make such changes as were found to be necessary. Their work eventually led to a complete revision, which was presented and adopted and is now spread before you.

Under the Old Constitution and By-Laws, the officers for 1934-35 were: R. R. Birch, Pres.; L. N. Simmons, Vice-Pres.; and G. F. Heuser, Secy-Treas.

With the adoption of the Revised Constitution and By-Laws, on May 11, 1935, the following Directors were elected: R. R. Birch and G. F. Heuser, for three-year terms; F. B. Morris and H. C. Reed, for two-year terms; and W. W. Cotner and the Venerable Dean of the Active Chapter, for one-year terms. Earl Sunderville, Chapter Advisor, became ex-officio a Director. The V.D.'s place was first filled by A. M. Connelly; and subsequently by A. E. Jordan, J. R. Graham, and R. L. Rider the present V.D. Brother Morris declined re-election and was succeeded by Leland Spencer. The other Directors have been re-elected at the expiration of their terms.

For 1935-36 and 1936-37, the officers of the Board were: W. W. Cotner, Chairman; F. B. Morris, Vice-Chairman; and G. F. Heuser, Secretary. The officers of the Corporation were: A. F. Boyles, Pres.; E. W. Hughes, Vice-Pres.; and G. F. Heuser, Secy-Treas.
