THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF FELINE PRACTITIONERS AWARD

This award of a recognition plaque and two years free membership in the American Association of Feline Practitioners is awarded to a fourth year student for special interest and accomplishment in feline medicine and surgery. Selection of the recipient is made by the faculty of the Small Animal Clinic.

Susan Kimmel

THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF VETERINARY RADIOLOGY PRIZE

This award of a certificate and one year subscription to the journal "Veterinary Radiology & Untrasound" is awarded to the fourth year student excelling in clinical radiology.

Robin O'Neal

THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF VETERINARY SURGEONS AWARD

This award is given to the fourth year student who has demonstrated outstanding motivation and interest in the art and science of veterinary surgery.

Large Animal - Karyn Moody

Small Animal - Stuart Bliss

THE PRIZE OF THE AUXILIARY OF THE AMERICAN VETERINARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION

This prize, restricted to one student, is presented to the member of the fourth-year class who is deemed to have best advanced the standing of the College of Veterinary Medicine on the campus by special contributions of an extracurricular nature.

Mara DiGrazia

This year we have two deserving students. Therefore, a special prize was created in recognition of the exemplary service of a second fourth year student.

Stephen Kochis

THE JAMES GORDON BENNETT PRIZE

In 1916, Mr. James Gordon Bennett, New York City, endowed this prize for the student who shows the greatest humaneness in handling animals, with special reference to the use of anesthesia. Mr. Bennett was the editor of the New York Herald (forerunner of the Herald Tribune) a century ago. A man of diverse abilities and interests, he is the person who dispatched Henry M. Stanley in 1870 to find Dr. David Livingstone in Africa. Nominations are made by the faculty of the Section of Anesthesiology in the Department of Clinical Sciences.

Michael Geraghty

THE ANNE BESSE PRIZE

Miss A. B. Jennings of New York City, endowed this prize in 1925 for the best work in large animal medicine. Nominations are made by the Medicine Section faculty of the Department of Clinical Sciences. This year faculty selected two students for this award.

Alyce Meyer

Tracey Trad

THE FRANK BLOOM PATHOLOGY AWARD

This prize was established in 1978 with an endowment by Dr. Frank Bloom. Dr. Bloom, a 1930 Cornell graduate, is a Charter Diplomate of the American College of Veterinary Pathologists as well as a Diplomate of the American College of Laboratory Animal Medicine. He has practiced in Flushing, New York, taught at Downstate Medical and has published extensively. The nomination for a fourth year student excelling in pathology was made by the Department of Pathology.

Karen Fessler

THE GARY BOLTON MEMORIAL CARDIOLOGY AWARD

Funds for the endowment of this award were donated by friends and colleagues of Dr. Gary R. Bolton in memory of his outstanding contributions to the field of small animal cardiology. Dr. Bolton was a member of the faculty and taught cardiology for a decade. He was also known and respected as a compassionate veterinarian who exhibited empathy for his patients and their owners. A fourth-year student who has demonstrated understanding and expertise in cardiology and empathy for patients compatible with the philosophy of Dr. Bolton has been nominated by the faculty of the Small Animal Clinic.

Darcy Brittain Adin

THE CHARLES GROSS BONDY PRIZE

Mr. Richard Bondy, New York City, endowed this prize as a memorial to his son, in 1929, for the best work in the courses in practical medicine and surgery of small animals. Nominations were made by the faculty of the Medicine and Surgery Sections of the Department of Clinical Sciences responsible for teaching in the Small Animal Clinic.

Christopher Adin

THE A. GORDON DANKS LARGE ANIMAL SURGERY AWARD

This award was initiated in 1978 by the faculty of the Department of Clinical Sciences to recognize the outstanding contributions of Professor Emeritus A. Gordon Danks, first Director of Student Administration and Admissions and Chairman of the former Department of Large Animal Medicine and Surgery. It is presented to a fourth year student demonstrating outstanding knowledge and talent in the diagnosis and treatment of surgical problems of large animals. Basic and applied knowledge, diagnostic abilities, general surgical skills, and patient care exhibited during the clinical rotations are considered in the presentation of this award. This year faculty selected two students for this award.

Karen Fessler

Robert Scott

THE DONALD D. DELAHANTY MEMORIAL PRIZE

This prize was established as a special memorial to Dr. Donald Delahanty, a member of the Department of Large Animal Medicine, Obstetrics and Surgery from 1952 to 1975. The prize is given to a fourth-year student showing an interest in equine practice and a high level of proficiency in the field. The candidate is nominated by the faculty of the Department of Clinical Sciences concerned with the equine patient. This year faculty selected two students for this award.

Luke Fallon

Kerry Kablack

THE HUGH DUKES PRIZE IN EXPERIMENTAL PHYSIOLOGY

This prize was established by former students and friends of Dr. H. Hugh Dukes, who was a pioneer in the education of students in physiology and who served the University and College for 28 years as Professor and Chairman of the Department of Physiology. With a view to encouraging veterinary graduates to undertake research and teaching in physiology, the prize is awarded upon the judgment of the veterinary physiology teaching faculty to a veterinary student who has done excellent work in physiology laboratory courses and shows potential for teaching and contributing new knowledge to physiology. Nominations may be made by any faculty member in the College of Veterinary Medicine.

Ashley Reynolds

THE ETTINGER INCENTIVE AWARD

Dr. Stephen Ettinger, Class of 1964, established this award to provide encouragement to all veterinary medical students at Cornell. The award, consisting of his "Textbook of Veterinary Internal Medicine" is given to a second-year student who has made the greatest improvement in cumulative GPA between the first and second year.

Isaac Mayo

THE MYRON G. FINCHER PRIZE

This award was initiated in 1980 through an endowment from Dr. Neil W. Pieper, '32, given in honor of Professor Emeritus Myron G. Fincher, '20. It is in recognition of the many contributions to the College by Dr. Fincher. Always a gentleman, he firmly demanded the best from his students and played a leading role in the instruction of large animal medicine and obstetrics for 45 years. It is presented to a fourth year student demonstrating the best work in courses dealing with large animal obstetrics and reproductive diseases. Both academic and practical performance are considered. Nominations are made by the Section of Theriogenology in consultation with other clinical faculty.

Teresa Fischer

THE GENTLE DOCTOR AWARD

The Gentle Doctor Award was originally made possible by Dr. William Hornbuckle's contribution of prize money from the Norden Distinguished Teacher Award received by him in 1979. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Kirk established a permanent endowment fund for the continuation of this award. The recipient of the award is a fourth-year student who, in the opinion of the faculty of the Department of Clinical Services, exemplifies enthusiasm, motivation and dedication to the delivery of excellent veterinary patient care. This year faculty selected two students for this award.

Sarah Ford
Liesl Breickner

THE GRANT SHERMAN HOPKINS PRIZE

The endowment for this prize was given by Ms. Ann Ottaway Hopkins in 1955 in memory of her husband who had served the University and College for forty-five years as Professor of Veterinary Anatomy. It is awarded upon the recommendation of the faculty in the Department of Anatomy on the basis of interest, ability, perseverance, and performance in the work in that department. This year faculty selected two students for this award.

Karyn Moody
Stuart Bliss

THE P. PHILIP LEVINE PRIZE IN AVIAN MEDICINE

This prize was established from donations made by friends and colleagues of Dr. P. Philip Levine in memory of his many contributions to the field of avian medicine, both nationally and internationally. Dr. Levine was a long-time member of the Cornell faculty and was the first chairman of the Department of Avian Diseases. Much of his life was dedicated to the training of young people and to encouraging them to aspire to excellence. In the spirit of encouraging excellence, this prize is awarded to the third-year veterinary student attaining the highest grade in the course on avian medicine. This year two students achieved the same grade.

Eric Linnetz
Karen Schreiber

THE MERCK MANUAL AWARDS

Merck and Company, Inc., offers copies of the Merck Veterinary Manual, embossed with the names of the recipients, to members of the fourth-year class who will graduate highest in their class. The recipients in the Class of 1966 are:

THE PFIZER ANIMAL HEALTH VETERINARY AWARD

This award was established by the Pfizer Animal Health company to foster veterinary medical education, by recognizing the outstanding third year student who, through his/her ability, dedication and character, attains a high level of academic achievement and productivity.

Jean Ann Ferreri

THE COLONEL FLOYD C. SAGER EQUINE OBSTETRICS AND PEDIATRICS AWARD

This award, created on the occasion of Dr. Sager's 90th birthday in 1984 by another Cornellian who trained under Dr. Sager, recognizes a Cornell veterinarian whose name is synonymous with excellence in equine obstetrics and pediatrics. Following Dr. Sager's graduation in 1917, he served in the army Remount Service until after World War II. He then became the veterinarian for the world famous Claiborne Farm in Kentucky where he remained until his death in February, 1986. The fourth year student receiving this award, in the opinion of the faculty of the Department of Clinical Sciences, has displayed outstanding aptitude in equine obstetrics and pediatrics.

Kerry Kablack

THE E. L. STUBBS AWARD

This prize, contributed by the Mid-Atlantic States Association of Avian Veterinarians, is to be awarded to the fourth-year student who has demonstrated the most outstanding competence and motivation in various areas of avian medicine. Nominations are made by the faculty who have primary responsibility for instruction in avian diseases and clinical avian medicine, including the advisor of the Avian Clinic.

Darryl Praul

THE ANNA OLAFSON SUSSEZ PATHOLOGY AWARD

This award was endowed in 1974 by Peter and Harriette Olafson in memory of Dr. Olafson's sister. The award is given to a third year student who has done outstanding work in pathology. Recommendations are made by faculty actively engaged in teaching pathology.

Georgina Barone

THE JACOB TRAUM AWARD

Through an endowment established by friends of Jacob Traum, '05, Professor of Bacteriology Emeritus, University of California, and formerly Chief Scientist at the Federal Plum Island Animal Disease Laboratory, this prize is awarded to the fourth-year student who is judged by the Department of Microbiology, Immunology, and Parasitology as having exhibited superior interest and accomplishment in bacteriology, epizootiology, pathology, and virology, including an aptitude for and expressed interest in research on infectious diseases.

Suzanne Wolfson

THE UPJOHN CLINICAL AWARDS

The Upjohn Pharmaceutical Company offers a prize to the student considered to be the most proficient in the practice of large animal medicine and the student considered to be the most proficient in the practice of small animal medicine. Nominations for these awards are made by the faculty members of the respective departments.

Large Animal - Teresa Fischer

Small Animal - John Fondacaro

THE HORACE K. WHITE PRIZE

An endowment for this prize was originally given by Mr. Horace K. White (and later his sons of Syracuse, New York) for the student with the highest academic record during their veterinary training. This award, originally called the President's Prize, dates back to 1873 and is probably the longest-standing prize at Cornell. The original donor was a brother to Andrew Dickson White, the first president of the University.

Karen Fessler

THE WILD BIRD RESEARCH AND REHABILITATION AWARD

This award, from a University endowment by the same name, is given to a fourth year veterinary student who has demonstrated concern for the rehabilitation of wild birds or who has been involved in research related to wild bird treatment and rehabilitation. Nominations are made by the Jay Hyman Professor of Wildlife Medicine based upon recommendations of concerned faculty.

Elizabeth Daut

FACULTY AWARDS

THE PFIZER ANIMAL HEALTH AWARD FOR RESEARCH EXCELLENCE

This award is presented annually to a young investigator whose research achievements are likely to have a significant impact on our understanding of the biology or medical management of animals. Nominees must be permanent faculty or senior research associates of the College of Veterinary Medicine at Cornell and must have completed their formal training not more than eight years prior to being nominated. Most of the research shall have been conducted at Cornell within three years of the time of nomination.

Dr. Peter Daels

THE NORDEN DISTINGUISHED TEACHER AWARD

This award goes to a full-time member of the veterinary medical faculty who has demonstrated continued excellence in teaching. This year, fourth-year students elected the recipient of this prestigious award from candidates nominated by students in all four years of the D.V.M. program.
