STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

Our delegates, Dorothy Winner and Amy Luce, left Tuesday evening for the student Government Convention in Lincoln, Nebraska.

The proposed plans for the group of new dormitories for women will be on exhibition in White Hall on Monday. This is a Senior competition for the $100 prize offered by Miss Kate Gleason, a former Cornell woman. The winner will be announced Mon. As this is of great interest to Cornell women, it is urged that the girls take advantage of this opportunity to look over the plans.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Baseball teams will be chosen next week.

TENNIS COURTS.

The tennis courts at Prudence Risley, Sage and the Athletic field are for the use of the girls. Until further notice, it will be permissable to invite men to play on the courts up to four o'clock, unless there are girls waiting to play, but after four o'clock the courts are reserved absolutely for the girls. It is up to the girls themselves to see that this rule is observed.

The combinations for the gigs are posted on the Gym bulletin board. Those girls whose names are checked off, are eligible to go on the water. Every girl must look at the schedule immediately and see when her hours come and if not checked off provide a substitute. All girls should be weighed in Miss Canfield's office beforehand. The rule about allowing only black stockings in the boats will be strictly enforced. As any violation of this rule prevents the boat from going out will the girls arrange either to wear black stockings or have a pair to leave there.

Coxswains are required to have three hours credit each week, until assigned to boats they will go to the boat house for observation.
