ALUMNI TOUR CAMPUS During Class Reunions

New feature of Class Reunions this year will be "Campus Caravans" Friday morning, June 13. Chartered busses will take alumni from Class headquarters in the dormitories and from Willard Straight Hall on conducted tours of the University, with qualified guides who live here to show and explain recent developments on the Campus. Construction of Olin Hall of Chemical Engineering and plans for future new buildings of the College of Engineering at the south end of the Campus will be a major point of interest, of course. Tours will also include Myron Taylor Hall, James Law Hall, the Plant Science Building and Warren Hall of the College of Agriculture, Martha Van Rensselaer Hall, the new Federal research laboratory, University barns, test plots and Arboretum, athletic fields, development of Cascadilla and Fall Creek gorges, and Balch Halls and the Johnny Parson Club, with a visit to the new University golf course through Cayuga Heights.

Barton Hall (formerly the Drill Hall) will be Reunion headquarters again this year, with all returning alumni registering there to have attendance counted toward the cups awarded annually by the Association of Class Secretaries for largest number and percentage of any Class present. Here also the University will serve luncheon both Friday and Saturday, with the Classes in Reunion costume parading with their bands.

Many Events Scheduled

For the first time in several years, the Varsity baseball team will play a League game during Reunions, against Dartmouth Friday afternoon on Hoy Field. Friday evening in Bailey Hall, the Musical Clubs present the popular operetta, "Co-ediquette," by Richard H. Lee '41, together with a program of Cornell songs and the last appearance of the talented Senior Quartet. At the same time and again Saturday night, the Dramatic Club presents in the Willard Straight Theater the college satire which was a Broadway hit, "The Male Animal," by Elliott Nugent and James Thurber.

Saturday morning, June 14, President Day will make his annual "report" to alumni at a meeting of all Cornellians in Bailey Hall. That afternoon, a rowing pageant of former crews being enlisted by Judge Henry J. Kimball '11 will take many of the Reunion crowd to the Inlet. Climax will be the Saturday night rally in Bailey Hall, the program in charge of the fifteen-year Host Class of '26.

Classes will have their own headquarters and will live together in the various dormitories, many arranging Class picnics and other special events, and all having their Class dinners Saturday night in every available eating place downtown and on the Hill.

All Cornellians are invited to return to the Campus, whether or not they are members of these Classes with scheduled Reunions: '71, '76, '81, '83, '84, '85, '86, '91, '96, '01, '02, '03, '04, '05, '06, '11, '16, '21, '22, '23, '24, '26, '31, '36, '39.

About ATHLETICS

WIN, LOSE AT BASEBALL

Playing in a misty rain and fog and with the temperature in the 30s, the baseball team lost its Spring Day game to Yale, 6-8, on Hoy Field. Final decision to play and removal of the tarpaulins covering the infield delayed the start an hour and a half.

The loss weakened Cornell's hold on first place in the Eastern Intercollegiate Baseball League. The team had beaten Pennsylvania, 11-1, on Hoy Field May 14, but the loss to Yale was the team's third in ten games and left four teams still in the running for the championship held by Cornell. The standing:

	W	L	PC
Cornell	7	3	.700
Dartmouth	4	2	.667
Princeton	5	3	.625
Yale	3	3	.500
Pennsylvania	3	5	.375
Harvard	3	5	.375
Columbia	3	7	.300

In the first of the week's two games, with Pennsylvania, Walter J. Sickles '41 held the visitors to seven hits in eight innings, with Leo Hamalian '42 pitching the last inning. Sickles lost a shutout when Pennsylvania scored in the seventh inning on two singles and a long outfield fly.

Cornell scored two runs in the first inning, with Robert C. Ochs '42 and Walter Scholl '41 hitting doubles; picked up another run in the fourth; scored three times on four hits, including a triple by Michael J. Ruddy '41 in the fifth; tallied twice more in the sixth on Pennsylvania errors and a wild pitch; and wound up the day's scoring with three runs in the seventh inning on singles by Frank F. Finneran '41, Walter J. Matuszczak '41, and Sickles and a three-base hit by Ronald E. Stillman '42.

The win over Pennsylvania evened the season's series between the two teams. Pennsylvania won the first game at Philadelphia, 5-4.

The Yale victory likewise evened accounts, for Cornell had won, 3-2, in their first meeting at New Haven. Cornell went into a 2-0 lead in the first inning on three hits and a Yale error, with Finneran driving in both runs with a single. Yale tied the score off Raymond Jenkins '42 in the third inning, combining two hits with two walks.

Yale won the game with a six-run attack in the fourth inning. Jenkins gave a single to the first man up and after he had thrown three balls to the next batter, was replaced by Philip Smith '42, another left-hander. Smith walked the batter, then gave up three hits and hit a batsman with a pitch before he retired in favor of Sickles. Sickles, with six runs already scored and with a runner on second, retired three men in order.

Sickles then held Yale to two hits the next five innings, but the damage was done. Cornell came back in its half of the fourth to score three runs on hits by Stillman and Ochs, a walk, and an error. In the fifth, Cornell scored one more run on singles by Alva E. Kelley '41 and Stillman. Thereafter Harrison, Yale pitcher, kept the game under control.

150-POUND CREWS RACE

Cornell's 150-pound crew lost to Yale by one-fifth of a second on Cayuga Inlet Sunday morning, May 18, in a race postponed from Saturday evening. Of eleven crews in Ithaca last week-end, these two were the only ones to see action, for rough water on Cayuga Lake postponed, then cancelled the varsity, junior varsity, and freshman races for Princeton, Yale, and Cornell. The Inlet is too narrow for three crews to race.

The regatta was scheduled for 6:15 p.m. Sat. ay. One hour later, Referee James Taylor of Syracuse, former University of Pennsylvania oarsman, announced the postponement to 9 a.m. Sunday. At that hour, the east shore in the vicinity of the finish line was again lined with cars and spectators, but a brisk wind from the northwest made the Lake still too rough to row. Just before 10 a.m., cancellation was announced, and the oarsmen came back by train from the shelter house at Estys to the boathouse on the Inlet.

There, more than an hour later, the lightweight varsities finished rigging strange shells and rowed the Henley distance of a mile and five-sixteenths. Yale was in the van all the way, although by the narrowest of margins, and finished from two to four feet ahead at the inter-college boathouse.

The Cornell boating: Bow, William T. Hagar '41; 2, Hugh E. Brown '43; 3, Robert H. Underwood '42; 4, George B. Banister '42; 5, Richard Slocum '42; 6, Millard L. Brown '41; 7, Robert H. Tallman '42; stroke, Thomas Nobis '43; coxswain, Henry N. Spohr '41.

TRACK TEAM FIFTH

Winning two first places, the track team finished fifth in the annual Heptagonal Games in Palmer Stadium, Princeton, May 17, with 29 points.

Pennsylvania won the championship for the first time in the seven years the games have been held, with 58 points. Other totals: Princeton 42½, Harvard 39, Yale 33, Cornell 29, Dartmouth 25½, Columbia 13.

John L. Ayer '41, the Heptagonal Games Association's cross country champion, won the two-mile run by thirty yards over Bull of Dartmouth, with Nathaniel E. White '41 third. Ayer's time was 9:41.1.

The other title went to the mile relay team of Alexander E. Walker, Jr. '41, Kenneth I. Zeigler '42, Arthur C. Smith '43, and Captain Robert C. Randall '41. This quartet defeated Princeton in a close finish in 3:20.5.

Smith and Zeigler also contributed points on their own. Smith placed a close second to Belyea of Pennsylvania in the 880-yard run, won in 1:54.3, with Zeigler fourth.

In the field events, Frederick W. West '41 finished second to Beetem of Pennsyl-

Winning the broad jump at 6 feet 3½ inches, Blount of Dartmouth tied the meet record set last year by himself and Lester E. Murdock '40 of Cornell.

No sprinters, hurdlers, high jumpers, broad jumpers, or pole vaulters were entered. The squad of sixteen was the smallest Cornell has entered in a meet in years, Coach John F. Moakley said.

LOSE AT LACROSSE

The lacrosse team lost to Penn State, 7-12, on Alumni Field May 16: its fifth successive defeat this season.

Penn State built up a 5-2 lead in the first period, held Cornell even, 3-3, in the second period despite the loss of its regular goalie through an injury, and outscored the home team by 2 points in the second half.

Gordon H. Hines '42, Captain Richard L. Campbell '41, and Robert B. Snyder '42 each scored 2 goals. Robert O. Dame '42 scored the other.

SYRACUSE WINS GOLF

Playing a team match on its new home course for the first time, the golf team lost to Syracuse, 3½-5½, May 14.

Winners in singles matches for Cornell were Thomas W. Milligan '43, Clifford

A. Stanton, Jr. '43, and Captain John C. Sterling '41. The half-point was scored when Irving R. Mitchell '43 halved his singles match with Naylor. Darkness prevented a decision. Syracuse won all three best-ball matches and two singles contests.

TENNIS TEAM TAKES TWO

Dropping only four sets, the tennis team won twice last week, defeating Colgate, 8-1, at Hamilton May 14 and Columbia, 9-0, on the Cascadilla Courts Sunday, May 18. The Columbia match was postponed from Saturday by rain.

Colgate's score came in a doubles match. Three of the singles matches in the Colgate engagement went into extra sets, as did one Columbia singles contest. Cornell returned to its former singles lineup of Captain Kennedy Randall '41, William E. Gifford '41, Louis C. Boocher, Jr. '41, Howard S. Dye '41, John E. Slater, Jr. '43, and John T. Riday '41.

BURGESS HEADS BASKETBALL

Frank K. Burgess '42 of Aurora, Ill., reserve guard the last two seasons, has been elected basketball captain for 1941-42. Announcement of the election was made by Coach Blair Gullion at the annual dinner for the squad.

Burgess succeeds Captain Kenneth N. Jolly '41 of Ithaca, who was elected captain after Wellington L. Ramsey '41 became ineligible.

FRESHMEN BUSY

Freshman teams won three of five dual contests last week and placed second in a Spring Day track meet with Colgate and Syracuse.

Competition started May 13 with an 8-1 victory over Colgate in golf on the University course and a 4-5 loss to Colgate in tennis on the Cascadilla Courts.

The baseball team lost to Ithaca College, 1-5, on Lower Alumni Field May 14, then defeated Cortland Normal School, 16-1, at Cortland May 16. The team has been strengthened by several players from the football squad, now finished with spring training. In the games last week, Charles P. Weiss of Putnam, Conn., and Louis J. Daukas of Nashua, N. H., hit home runs.

The lacrosse team defeated Penn State, 6-2, on Lower Alumni Field May 17.

Colgate won the track meet on Schoellkopf Field May 17 with 54½ points. Cornell scored 47½ and Syracuse 33. Winners for Cornell were John F. Kandl of New York City in the mile run, John L. Haughwout of Montclair, N. J., in the pole vault, Daniel J. Ricker, Jr. of Cape May, N. J., in the high jump, and Howard W. Blose of Dayton, Ohio, in the discus throw. Recently elected co-captains of the Freshman track team are Haughwout and Alastair Nixon of Westfield, hurdler and sprinter.

LETTERS

Subject to the usual restrictions of space and good taste, we shall print letters from subscribers on any side of any subject of interest to Cornellians. The ALUMNI NEWS often may not agree with the sentiments expressed, and disclaims any responsibility beyond that of fostering interest in the University.

ORCHIDS TO '16

TO THE EDITOR:

It may be pertinent at this time, when various Reunion chairmen are fervently praying that their herculean efforts may be rewarded, to mention a comment or two that might justify them.

Bigger and better Reunions breed bigger and better Cornellians. Bigger and better Cornellians make for a greater Cornell.

As one who played a very remote part in the record-breaking Twenty-five-year Reunion of the Class of 1913 (since surpassed by 1915), my interest in following similar efforts has brought me in somewhat intimate touch with the work of 1916.

If any Class were ever deserving of great success due to the efforts of its general and sub-committees, it is 1916. They seem to have cleaned out every corner for new ideas. The avidity with which the several committees have consistently pursued their various assignments needs but a record turnout for this Class to justify these efforts. Anything less might not only reflect on the Class as a whole, but the self-sacrificed time given by a group of loyal men could be readily discredited.

The Class of 1913 had its way of running a successful Twenty-five-year Reunion; 1916 has bettered some of those methods. And so it should be for every Class that meets its most important Reunion, the twenty-fifth, because it is a Reunion of mature men, each of whom, mentally or financially, should be able to make Cornell greater by his presence.

ENGINEERS ELECT

Annual meeting and dinner of the Cornell Society of Engineers, May 8, overflowed the dining rooms of the Cornell Club of New York and was accommodated in the grand ballroom of the Barclay Hotel. Professor Dexter S. Kimball, Engineering, Emeritus, now executive on machine tool priorities of the OPM, discussed "Defense Problems." Maxwell M. Upson '99, chairman of the Trustee committee on University development, told of "Progress and Problems at Cornell," and showed pictures of work on Olin Hall of Chemical Engineering and other projected buildings for the College. Dean S. C. Hollister, Engineering, was called upon and spoke briefly.

C. Reeve Vanneman '03 was elected president of the Society, succeeding

John P. Syme '26. George N. Brown '08 is executive vice-president, with Paul O. Reyneau '13 re-elected secretary-treasurer and David Harmon '31 the new recording secretary.

OLDEST CORNELLIAN DIES

Death of Madison M. Garver '76, May 11, leaves as the oldest living Cornellian, Royal Taft '71 of Scranton, Pa., who is pictured below.

Professor Garver died at The Evergreens, near State College, Pa., where he made his home with his son, David B. Garver. He was born November 12, 1848, in Scotland, Pa., and after serving in the Civil War, entered the Science Course in 1872, receiving the BS in 1876. He taught for two years at Mercersburg College, then returned as instructor in Chemistry from 1879-82, and later worked in the electrical industry. He invented an improved voltmeter and is credited with a part in developing the first trolley car and the Westinghouse airbrake. In 1893, he joined the physics department of Pennsylvania State College, retiring as emeritus professor of physics. He suffered a broken hip in 1937.

OLDEST LIVING CORNELLIAN

Royal Taft, only surviving member of the Class of '71, will be ninety-two years young next September 5. He lives in Scranton, Pa.; is an expert skater. Last February, when he represented his Class at a meeting of the Association of Class Secretaries in New York City, he came a day early to enjoy the ice at Rockefeller Center. Earliest living graduate of the University is Dr. Brandt V. B. Dixon, president-emeritus of Newcomb College, who is ninety-one and the only survivor of the Class of '70.

NOW IN MY TIME!

By Romeyn Berry

Last week's sale of Aberdeen Angus beef cattle (the black kind; the red ones with white faces are Herefords) brought to Ithaca 427 buyers and breeders from the Atlantic States and New England. The sale grossed $19,233. The prize bull brought $1700. He was purchased by an undergraduate, Herbert F. Schiffer '41, owner of Herhill Farm, Westchester, Pa. The top-priced cow was knocked down to another undergraduate, Roger Bradley '41 of King's Ferry.

Whatever else Professor Robert B. Hinman of the Animal Husbandry Department may have accomplished in his noteworthy work with beef cattle, one is forced to admit that he has improved the breed of students hereabouts immeasurably. In my time, any student of Animal Husbandry would have been put to it to finance a five-cent trolley ride!

Last year, William G. Mennen '08 of New Jersey, donor of Mennen Hall, was the successful bidder for the prize Aberdeen Angus. Mr. Mennen attended the 1941 sale, too, but this year failed to place inside the money. His undergraduate competitors showed too much speed on the flat. Marcel K. Sessler '13 came on from New Hampshire. He's getting itchy about beef cattle, but restrained his impulse to buy this time. Myron Fuerst '30 of Pine Plains played a proud (though vicarious) role in the proceedings. He is the owner of the bull which sired both of this year's prize winners.

On the night of the sale, your reporter dined with a Harvard man who had come on from Connecticut to attend it and to pick up a few priceless words of advice from Professor Hinman. In the course of the day he had acquired a deep and respectful admiration for Cornell University, having seen nothing of it whatever, apart from the Aberdeen Angus department. He remarked particularly the garments worn by the beef-cattle crowd, the smartest line of good-looking outdoor clothes he'd ever seen displayed in one group, he said.

Whenever we have a visitor who desires to comprehend the peculiar essence of Cornell, and has no more than an hour to devote to the inquiry, we take him hurriedly, and in turn, to see the lovely, illuminated manuscripts and missals in the Andrew D. White Library, the lights and shadows of Sage Chapel, and to the University's Bull Barn: the Past, the Future (in the sense of all eternity), and the hot, heaving, pulsating Present. There you have it all symbolized in one concentrated packet; all three interrelated, each worthy of a lifetime of earnest study. There shall be no academic snobbery in this place; no arbitrary caste system which fixes this branch of learning up or down in the scale of dignity and respectability.

Some day we hope to have a visitor who can spare two hours. With such a leisurely soul, we'd add to the tour the Museum of Casts, the collection of Greek gems, and the Aberdeen Angus sale. For we believe it to be the peculiar genius of Cornell that it can impart to its children a sense of the significance of art, of beauty, and of the Greek culture in the life of humanity, without disparaging in the slightest degree the part played—and to be played—by porterhouse steak in the development of America.

NINE AT NYA CENTER

Nine alumni of the Colleges of Agriculture and Home Economics are members of the staff of the National Youth Administration Work Experience Center at Hartwick Seminary in Otsego County near Cooperstown. Herman E. Hegyi '39 is resident director of the Center, and Harry D. Bauder '14 is production manager and educational coordinator. Smith G. Beilby '14 is instructor in farm management; Georgiana Marks '30 is instructor in home economics; John A. Cannon '39 is supervisor of dairy husbandry and dairy industry; Donald B. Simons '39 supervises instruction in poultry husbandry; Robert N. Blazey '40 is instructor in farm shop; Julia L. Swenningsen '40 is supervisor of home economics; and Robert Ossont, Sp '43, is supervisor of farm machinery.

Operated under the Federal Security Agency, this Work Experience Center gives resident courses from six months to a year in agriculture and home economics for youths of the State who are unemployed, out of school, and unable to afford other education.

OLIN HALL FOUNDATIONS RISE

Within the huge excavation on Sage Green, concrete is being poured on schedule ready for the steel framing of the new Chemical Engineering building. The L-shaped hole extends nearly 250 feet along Campus Road, twenty feet deep to solid rock at the east end, and nearly 300 feet along Central Avenue.

COLLEGE GETS $600,000

Dean William S. Ladd of the Medical College in New York has announced a grant of $600,000 from the Rockefeller Foundation to endow the Department of Public Health and Preventive Medicine. The endowment will enable the College to expand and strengthen the teaching, research, and health service of the Department directed by Dr. Wilson G. Smillie.

Besides teaching public health both to students in the College and to personnel of the New York City Health Department, the College operates a well-baby clinic and tuberculosis, syphilis, and dental clinics and, in cooperation with the city, the Kips Bay-Yorkville Health Center which serves a neighborhood of 200,000 population. Research includes a nutritional study among 5,000 students of Seward Park High School, population studies, and an investigation of the influence of social factors on illness.

For the last five years, the Department of Public Health and Preventive Medicine has received annual grants of $28,000 from the Rockefeller Foundation. The fund of $600,000 in effect capitalizes this annual grant.

TAYLOR '94 TO SPEAK

Myron C. Taylor '94 will give the Commencement address at the Law School, May 29 in the moot court room of Myron Taylor Hall. University Trustee and with Mrs. Taylor the donor of the Law School building, he received the LLB in 1894. Last year, he was President Roosevelt's special envoy to Rome. As usual, Commencement of the Law School is earlier than that of the University, to give graduates time to prepare for the State Bar examinations.

Commencement of the Medical College will be June 11, at the College in New York City.

ΦBK ELECTIONS

Three children of Professor Lynn A. Emerson, Industrial Education, and Mrs. Emerson are among the thirty-eight students elected to Phi Beta Kappa this spring for exceptional scholarship. All three are Seniors in Arts and Sciences, and all attended Scarsdale High School and Antioch College, transferring to Cornell three years ago when their father became a member of the Faculty.

Cornell chapter of Phi Beta Kappa elected twenty-one from the Class of '41, fifteen of the Class of '42, Mrs. Anna Dale Kek, PhD '40, who is now registrar of Indiana University, and Carl G. Gustavson, Grad, of Vinton, Ia. New undergraduate members are:

Emerson, Ithaca; Beatrice R. Johnson, Binghamton; Bruce F. Johnston, Long Beach, Calif.; Charlotte E. Katzman, Newport, R. I.; Martha H. Lawson, Dundee; Royal T. Mather, Ithaca; Bruce C. Netschert, Trenton, N. J.; Nancy V. Rider, Brooklyn; Morris Rothenberg, Buffalo; Samuel M. Schatz, Hartford, Conn.; Martin E. Smith, Ravenna; George M. Weimann, Budapest, Hungary; Mortina B. Wilbur, New Rochelle.

ENGINEERS NEEDED

US Civil Service Commission is appealing especially to alumni of the College of Engineering to assist the National defense program by applying for jobs with the Army Air Corps, Navy Department, National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics, and the Civil Aeronautics Authority. Open continuous examinations in all fields of engineering for recent college graduates are announced, application forms obtainable at any first- or second-class postoffice.

"Production, development, and testing of aircraft and airplane engines are becoming of increasing importance in the National defense program," says a recent communication to the College of Engineering. "Four Government agencies are now seeking qualified engineers who can do critical investigation and research on development of faster, safer, and more powerful airplanes. Aeronautical training is especially in demand, although much of the work now being done also requires the services of qualified civil, mechanical, and electrical engineers."

SISTERS AND BROTHER WIN PHI BETA KAPPA

Three children of Professor Lynn A. Emerson, Industrial Education, honored for scholarship. Pictured on the steps of their home at 102 Triphammer Road are Margaret Louise, Mary Elizabeth, and Robert C. Emerson. All are Seniors in Arts and Sciences, Robert also a first-year student in the Law School. Fenner

REUNIONS PROMISE WELL

With Reunions in Ithaca three weeks off, estimates of most of the Class secretaries indicate that about as many alumni will be here June 13-15 as in normal times. In spite of—or perhaps because of—the troubled world situation and its attendant uncertainties, several Classes report more acceptances than comparable Classes last year at the same time. It appears, for example, that the twenty-five-year Class of '16 and the fifteen-year Class of '26 will surpass last year's respective attendance figures of 281 and 157. This may also be true of earlier Classes. On the other hand, some younger alumni who would normally be in Ithaca for their Class Reunions are this year in the armed services and will not be here.

For two years, the Class of '16 has been organizing to make its Twenty-five-year Reunion a record-breaker. Class Secretary Weyland Pfeiffer and Maurice W. Howe, Reunion chairman, have active committees at work all over the country. Last year and this year, Class Directories have been published and every man of the Class has been kept informed of Reunion plans. Last week, Pfeiffer had already received assurance from more than 200 Classmates that they would be in Ithaca.

With conducted bus tours of the Campus Friday morning and a baseball game with Dartmouth that may decide the League championship Friday afternoon, it is expected that many alumni will come earlier than usual this year. Many a Cornellian will welcome the opportunity to spend these June days on the Campus with Classmates and friends.

REPRESENTS UNIVERSITY

Dr. Hawley O. Taylor '09 was the official delegate of Cornell University at the inauguration of President Victor R. Edman of Wheaton College, Wheaton, Ill., May 9. Dr. Taylor is a member of the Wheaton College physics department.

INDIANA RE-ELECTS OFFICERS

Professor Charles L. Durham '99 was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Cornell Club of Indiana, April 16 at the Columbia Club, Indianapolis. Thirty alumni attended, and report enjoying his talk and motion pictures of the Campus. Officers and advisory board were all re-elected for next year. They are John F. Modrall '34, president; Wilson Mothershead '28, treasurer; and John S. Kittle, Jr. '38, secretary; with William H. Morrison '01, Nicholas H. Noyes '06, August C. Bohlen '09, Otto N. Frenzel, Jr. '21, and Harry V. Wade '26 members of the advisory board.

SPRING DAY HAPPY

Spring Day hilarity, out-of-doors, was somewhat dampened Saturday by a cold rain which reduced attendance at the Carnival, delayed the start of the baseball game and when the wind came up to clear the skies caused cancellation of the Carnegie Cup Regatta on the Lake.

But thirty-nine fraternities held gala houseparties, the Navy Ball was enjoyed by a capacity crowd, and the Gay Nineties "peerade" came up the Hill Saturday morning in the rain.

Three performances of the Dramatic Club's "Music Hall Show" Friday and Saturday nights were well attended and apparently enjoyed by players and audiences. Fourteen vaudeville acts were headlined with two pantomimes, "In the Subway" and "Window Dressing," by Vernon W. Shapiro '41 and a country-church choir dressed in costumes of the "Gay Nineties" singing a cantata, "Don't Leave the Farm." Finale was the entire company singing "Home Sweet Home" in jazz time. Professor H. Darks Albright, PhD '36, and Richard Moody, Grad, directed the show, with Maurice H. Dell '42 its musical director.

Dance floor of Barton Hall was enclosed for the Navy Ball with white drapes on which red, blue, and black crepe paper outlined street scenes and huge figures of the "Gay Nineties." Jimmy Dorsey's and Charlie Spivak's bands in their stands at the east end appeared as though hung in ornate picture frames, with an eighteen-foot buxom beauty between them, and at either side, street lamps blinked at a huge daschund at a hydrant near a saloon and at street cleaners, a Keystone cop, and Floradora girls. Decorations were the work of Winthrop D. Allen '41 of Birmingham, Mich., and Jules Gregory '42 of New York City, executed under direction of John C. Breiby '43 of Morsemere, N. J.

HE CAUTIONS CORNELL

A member of the Class of '02 who is at another university writes to Dr. Frederick E. Emmons of his Class Alumni Fund committee:

"Your eloquence in your communication of March 27 has drawn blood from a stony heart and a stonier pocketbook to the extent of the enclosed contribution to the Cornell Alumni Fund. I hope that the University will not spend it extravagantly for a lot of new buildings, but will use it to employ three or four more high-grade professors."

ON THE CAMPUS AND DOWN THE HILL

STUDENT COUNCIL elections brought to the presidency for next year Raymond Jenkins of Philadelphia, Pa., winner of the Varsity C in baseball and football. Vice-president is Donald S. Kent of Brooklyn; secretary, John G. Aldworth of Garden City. Kent and Aldworth were candidates of the "Trans-gorge" coalition which elected nine men, and Jenkins was endorsed by the "Theta Delt" group which captured seven places. Others elected to be Senior members of the new Council are Arthur E. Hausner of Mohawk, Joseph F. Davidson, Jr. of Bexley, Ohio, Will D. Templeton of Niagara Falls, Franklin P. Eggert of Westfield, and Harold E. Hazen of Williamsport, Pa. Junior members will be Richard L. Walter of Ithaca, Louis G. Helmick, Jr. of Fairmont, W. Va., William D. Stewart, Jr. of Edgewood, Pa., Robert J. Pape of Brooklyn, and Roy B. Unger of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. Class of '44 will be represented by Robert M. Ready of New York City, William A. Basse of Highland Park, Mich., and Robert W. Ballard of Trenton, N. J.

ELECTORS cast 1,603 votes in the Student Council elections, at ballot boxes placed in six locations around the Campus. One fraudulent vote was detected by members of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, which conducted the election. An amendment making the president of the Freshman Class ex-officio a member of the Council after his election in the fall was overwhelmingly accepted, 666-241.

"BIG RED," new coaching launch built by Fred Frazier, rigger at the boathouse, was christened by Mrs. Frazier May 16 in the presence of all the Cornell crews and those of Princeton and Yale. The new boat, twenty-five feet long by seven feet beam, is planked and decked entirely with mahogany and trimmed with red leather and chromium. She was designed

SPRING DAY SIDEBURNS WINNER

Brewster W. Terrell '42 won prizes of a Navy Ball ticket, a pair of Spring Day buttons, and a free shave at Willard Straight Hall for the lushest hirsute adornment. He is congratulated here by "Flapper Fanny" and "Dapper Danny," Spring Day patrons this year.

COVER PICTURE

Again this year, Alpha Tau Omega won the cup for the best float in the Spring Day parade. Its trolley car of the Gay Nineties, loaded with houseparty guests and their hosts, is shown on our cover as it came through the Andrew D. White Gate onto the Campus from Eddy Street. This and the other two Spring Day pictures on this page are by Jay B. Leviton '44.

by Fred H. Brainard of Trumansburg, with concave bottom to minimize the swell at top speed of twenty-three miles an hour. Her builder was formerly a carpenter with the University Department of Buildings and Grounds.

STATEMENT of the University's position in the controversy with the city of Ithaca over taxation of University property appeared in the Ithaca Journal May 13. It was made by Edward R. Eastman, chairman of the Board of Trustees' committee on relations with public authorities.

MANAGING EDITOR of the Sun, announced May 14, is Robert F. MacFarland '42 of Utica. Next day, the Sun announced that Morris J. Feil '42 of New York City had been elected column editor and the names of four Freshmen elected to the news board, following competitions: Guinevere G. Griest of Chicago, Ill., Walter P. McQuade of Port Washington, Clifford A. Stanton, Jr. of Utica, and George H. Getman of Ilion.

MRS. HELENA ABENDSCHEIN, for thirteen years chaperone of Sigma Delta Tau sorority, died May 3 from injuries resulting from a fall. Her granddaughter is Mrs. Walter H. Stainton (Helena Merri-man) '31, whose husband ('19) is assistant director of the University Theatre. Lois O. Gibbons, PhD '20, who was chaperone at Sigma Delta Tau from 1916-20, has returned to the house.

SAGE CHAPEL PREACHER May 25 is the Rev. Robert R. Wicks, dean of the Princeton University Chapel.

OUR ESTEEMED CONTRIBUTOR, Romeyn Berry '04, has also attained a considerable reputation as a speaker at farm meetings, both for what he says and his choice of subjects. Last week, addressing the annual meeting of the American Ayreshire Breeders' Association in Syracuse, his topic was "The Dairy Business as the Cow Sees It." Rym said he chose a subject on which no one could claim more knowledge than his.

FIRST PAGE of the Sun, Spring Day morning, announced in banner headlines that Student Council President Raymond Jenkins, "Number 1 politico on the Cornell Campus," had descended by parachute on the unsuspecting University of Pennsylvania campus at 1:30 a.m. Other student leaders interviewed were unable to explain the strange aberration, but Professor Karl M. Dallenbach, Psychology, was quoted as saying that probably Jenkins suffered from "obscentia oblongatamus medulatariscelariatis." The Sun also reliably reported that the Yale and Princeton navies had invaded Cayuga Lake Inlet; that the Yale baseball team, storming the Campus, would "go out on strikes or take a walk;" and that the realistic hydrant at the Navy Ball had burst and swept 87,246 dancers to their deaths: sabotage suspected.

SORORITY HOUSES and women's dormitories are said to have been lonely places last week-end for those who stayed in them. While most fraternities were having Spring Day dances Saturday night, the Radio Guild request program included the song, "Get Out of Town," asked to be played by a lonely group in Balch Halls and dedicated to "houseparty queens."

LECTURES this week include a debate between Norman Thomas and Professor Frederick M. Watkins, Government, May 22, on "America's Foreign Policy." It is sponsored by the Committee Against Intervention and the Committee to Defend America by Aiding the Allies.

MUMMY CLUB has elected seven Juniors: George T. Bogert of Chicago, Ill., Harold M. Jenkins, Jr. of Rochester, Raymond Jenkins of Philadelphia, Pa., Thomas R. Keene of Elkhart, Ind., John H. Locke, Jr. of Villanova, Pa., Edmund G. Miller of Pelham Manor, and Walter E. Storm, II of Wilmington, N. C.

In bandstands at the end of Barton Hall, the dance bands of Jimmy Dorsey and Charlie Spivak were "hung" in ornate frames of the Gay Nineties, playing until 3:30 Saturday morning. Between them is one of the figures of the period which surrounded the dance floor.

NECROLOGY

AUGUST HECKSCHER, University Trustee from 1931-39, April 26, 1941, in Mountain Lake, Fla., at the age of ninety-two. Born in Germany, he came to the United States in 1867, became prominent in steel manufacturing, zinc mining, real estate, and banking. Donor of the Heckscher Foundation of $4,000,000 for a community and health center for children in New York City, his philanthropy extended to camp and park development and slum clearance projects. In 1920, he established the Heckscher Research Foundation at the University with a gift of $500,000.

'94, '95 CE—DAVID M. ROSSER, January 12, 1941, in Kingston, Pa., where he was a civil engineer and contractor for many years. Born in South Wales, British Isles, he entered Civil Engineering in 1890 from Wyoming Seminary, and was assistant city engineer of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and city engineer of Cedar Falls, Ia., before returning to Pennsylvania. He was for a time vice-president and general manager of the Virginia Anthracite Coal & Railway Co.

'00 PhD—CHARLES EDWARD BREWER, May 1, 1941, in Raleigh, N. C., where he was president-emeritus, of Meredith College. He received the AB in 1885 and the AM in 1886 at Wake Forest College, N. C.; studied at Johns Hopkins University before entering the Graduate School in 1899. Until 1915 he was professor of chemistry at Wake Forest College, going to Meredith College in 1916 as president and professor of chemistry, and receiving emeritus rank in 1939. Past president, North Carolina Teachers Association; Sigma Xi.

'01—FRANCIS JOHN TYLER, March 6, 1941. Nephew of the late Moses Coit Tyler, he entered Arts in 1897 from Cascadilla School, remaining one year. He sang basso roles in operas with companies of Henry W. Savage, the Schuberts, and Comstock and Gest. Business and stage manager for William Wade Hinshaw of New York City and for the Society of American Singers in 1922, he was owner and producer of the Opera Comique in New York City, was with the Theatre Guild, since 1933 had been a paymaster for the US Treasury Department. Army song leader for the New York area during World War I, he participated in many "Welcome Home" parades and other patriotic celebrations. Glee Club, Freshman baseball, Military Order of the Loyal Legion; Psi Upsilon.

'02 LLB—VICTOR FRANCIS BOIRE, September 27, 1940. He entered Law in 1898 from Plattsburgh High School. Practicing law in Plattsburgh since graduation, he was appointed attorney in the State Department of Law in 1931. He was a former surrogate of Clinton County, city judge, and president of the Plattsburgh Chamber of Commerce.

'04 AB—CECIL JARVIS SWAN, March 23, 1941, in Detroit, Mich. From Elmira Free Academy he entered Arts in 1900; was with R. C. Dun & Co. in Elmira, the Norwall Manufacturing Co. of New York City, and American Radiator Co., in Chicago, Buffalo, and New York City until 1931 when he became sales manager of the Detroit (Mich.) Lubricator Co. During World War I, he was in the Field Artillery Officers Training Course at Camp Taylor, Louisville, Ky.

'04 AB—MRS. BRYANT WHITE (Elizabeth Cassidy), April 13, 1941, in Evanston, Ill., after a long illness. She received the BS in 1900 at the University of Kentucky; studied at Harvard before entering the Arts College in 1903. She taught in the Lynchburg (Va.) High School; had lived, since her marriage, in Chicago, Ill., Newark, N. J., and Wilmington, Del., before going to Evanston. Aftermath.

'06 AB—PERCY MURCHIE, April 12, 1941. He entered Arts in 1902 from Boys High School, New York City. He was with H. B. Murchie & Co. until 1918; since then, with W. E. Burnet & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange. Since 1929 he had lived in Bedford Hills.

'11 ME—MERRILL EDWARD CLARK, May 11, 1941, in Cincinnati, Ohio, of a heart attack. ## Concerning THE FACULTY

PRESIDENT EDMUND E. DAY presided at a conference of administrators of up-State colleges and universities on the preparation of secondary school teachers, May 15-17 at Colgate University. He is chairman of the committee on teacher education of the State Association of Colleges and Universities. Speakers at the conference included Professor Julian E. Butterworth, Director of the Graduate School of Education, Dean Mary E. McCormick '28 of William Smith College, Geneva, and Dr. Harold E. B. Speight, secretary of the committee on teacher education. May 18-21, President Day attended meetings of the Educational Policies Commission of the National Education Association and the American Association of School Administrators at Sky Top, Pa.

LETTER from Coach Carl G. Snively opposing entry of the United States into the war was read by Senator Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire May 11 at a rally on Boston Common sponsored by the American Mothers of Massachusetts. His speech was broadcast on a national radio network.

DEAN GILMORE D. CLARKE '13, Architecture, has been initiated into the Cornell chapter of Tau Beta Pi, national engineering honorary society.

PROFESSOR ARTHUR B. RECKNAGEL, Forest Management, is the author of "Forestry at the Crossroads," a discussion of the problem of privately-owned timberland, in the Spring issue of The American Scholar, published by Phi Beta Kappa.

JEAN McDERMOTT, daughter of the late Professor George R. McDermott, Naval Architecture, and sister of George R. McDermott '05, died May 6 in Ithaca.

ROBERT J. KANE '34, Assistant Director of Athletics, and Mrs. Kane adopted an eight-months-old son, Christopher, April 30.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING for May reports a recent address by Professor Dexter S. Kimball, Engineering, Emeritus, on national defense. Forecasting results of the present defense program, Dean Kimball said that in developing the greatest army, navy, and production capacity the world has ever known, the Nation is assuming serious responsibilities and obligations which will have to be faced with courage and high moral purpose. He questioned whether the nation's role would be that of defender, crusader, or oppressor. In the same magazine, Felix L. Yezley '31 of the organic chemicals department, rubber chemicals division of E. I. duPont de Nemours & Co. writes on "Creep on Neoprene in Shear," and Dr. David Dropkin '33, Westinghouse Research Associate in Engineering, writes on "Side Lights on History of Psychrometry."

PROFESSOR WILLIAM C. BALLARD '10, Electrical Engineering, addressed senior electrical engineers at Alfred University May 13 on "Frequency Modulation."

PROFESSOR KATHERINE W. HARRIS '22, Home Economics, attended installation of a chapter of Omicron Nu, national home economics honor society, at Syracuse University May 15.

MERRILL N. KNAPP '35, Extension Teaching, and Mrs. Knapp have a daughter born May 6.

PROFESSOR PAUL H. UNDERWOOD, Surveying, presented a paper on "The Strength of Figure in Triangulation" before the American Geophysical Union, meeting April 30-May 3 in Washington, D. C. The paper was a digest of a study by Ching-hai Li, MCE '38, in preparation for his Doctorate.

PROFESSOR EVERETT M. STRONG, Electrical Engineering, spoke May 9 on "Flicker Characteristics of Fluorescent Lamps" before a Northeastern regional conference of the Illuminating Engineering Society in Hartford, Conn. Professor Strong belongs to the Society's committees on education and on coordinating research.

PROFESSOR HEINRICH RIES, Geology, Emeritus, presided at the executive committee meeting of the annual convention of the American Foundrymen's Association last week in New York City. Professor Ries is director of sand research for this Association, whose central laboratory for sand research is in the College of Engineering, and Professor A. C. Davis '13, Experimental Engineering, is a member of the executive committee and other committees. John R. Young, Sand Research Fellow, and Gerald W. Ehrhart '38, Experimental Engineering, presented a paper on "Some Properties of Foundry Sands at High Temperatures."

ERNEST S. FORD, Botany, and Mrs. Ford have a daughter born February 3. They live at 210 Delaware Avenue.

PROFESSOR J. RANDALL LIVERMORE '13, Plant Breeding, on leave this term, is working in the statistical laboratory of Iowa State University, Ames, Iowa.

Concerning THE ALUMNI

Personal items and newspaper clippings about all Cornellians are earnestly solicited.

'89—A gift of $100,000 from JOHN W. ANDERSON '89 established the Philip Spencer Memorial Trust Fund at the centennial celebration of the founding of Chi Psi Fraternity at Union College, May 1-4. Proceeds of the trust will be used to abolish mortgages on Chi Psi chapter houses. It is a memorial to Philip Spencer, a founder of the fraternity, who was executed at sea in 1842 while serving as a midshipman on the brig Somers. Spencer was accused of mutiny because he refused to explain messages in Greek found in his possession, thought to be a plot against the ship, but in reality concerning Chi Psi. Anderson, who gave the John Wendall Anderson Professorship to Cornell in 1940, was president of Chi Psi from 1923-30.

'91 BL—HENRY H. SANGER, president of the Manufacturers National Bank, Detroit, Mich., and a charter member of Sphinx Head, lives at 333 University Place, Grosse Pointe, Mich. He has one son and three daughters.

'97 BS—WALTER S. LENK, retired from active business and living in Brookfield Center, Conn., is a director of the Planning Association of Fairfield, Conn., assessor of the Town of Brookfield, and a member of Danbury Rotary, the American Chemical Society, and the Cornell Club of New York.

'97 PhB, '03 AM, '05 PhD—WILLARD E. HOTCHKISS, Maurice Falk Professor of Social Relations at Carnegie Institute of Technology, is director of a new division of humanistic and social studies, replacing the Institute's discontinued division of general studies.

'98—WYLIE BROWN is president of the Phelps Dodge Copper Products Corp., 40 Wall Street, New York City.

'01—ARCHIBALD B. MORRISON, Class Secretary, writes that additional registrations for the '01 Forty-year Reunion June 13-15 have been received from JOHNSON S. ALBRIGHT, BARBER B. CONABLE, JR., HARRY O. LOVEJOY, LAYTON S. LYON, JOHN MARCY, JR., WILLIAM METCALF, JR., EWELL NALLE, HAROLD B. PLUMB, FRANK K. PURCELL, OWEN W. ROBERTS, NELSON O. TIFFANY, CARL O. VOEGELIN, and ROBERT T. WOOD. Morrison's address is Congress Building, Miami, Fla.

time. His address is 109 Hawthorne Drive, Danville, Va.

Our prize for longest distance travelled to Reunion will probably go to JIM E. MAHON. If you are in trouble, see Jim at 807 Title Guarantee Building, Los Angeles, Cal.

1911 Women

*By Martha E. Dick, Class Secretary
3302 N. Seventeenth St., Philadelphia, Pa.*

MATTIE BODINE KELLER is coming the farthest distance to Reunion. She is travelling from Portland, Ore., to attend our Thirty-year gathering.

DR. GERALDINE E. WATSON (Mrs. Frederick C. Green) is an ear, nose, and throat specialist with offices at 745 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

CLASS OF 1913

By Class Correspondent

Among the '13ers in the services is CLAUDE E. TURNER who has been ordered to active duty in the Naval Reserve, with the rank of lieutenant commander, in the office of the Supervisor of Shipbuilding and is at the Bethlehem Steel shipbuilding plant in Quincy, Mass. He has been associated with the marine engineering field practically since he left Cornell.

RAYMOND W. SYMONDS, a major in the Officers' Reserve Corps, Coast Artillery, has been on active service for some months at Fort H. G. Wright, Fisher's Island.

CLASS OF 1915

*By Hugh C. Edmiston, Correspondent
Short Hills, N. J.*

JOSEPH H. COCHRAN, vice-president of H. K. Cochran Co., Little Rock, Ark., apparently a big hay and seed man in those parts, has four children, the youngest just a year old. From personal experience, if any Classmate gets within 100 miles of Little Rock he would do well to walk the rest of the way to enjoy the Cochran hospitality.

HENRY G. MARTIN is located at 30 Rockefeller Plaza, New York City.

Another headliner in our Class is CLARENCE E. OTTER, one of the city commissioners and mayor last year of Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

*By Weyland Pfeiffer, Class Secretary
111 Broadway, New York City*

REINALDO RAMIREZ of San Juan is assistant chief engineer of the American Railroad Co. of Porto Rico. He expected to be in the United States sometime in May.

W. A. (Bill) McCANDLESS, JR., who attended Colgate before transferring to Cornell, is an investment banker with Bond & Goodwin, Inc., 120 Exchange Street, Portland, Me. He married Anne True in 1928, is a member of the Portland Country Club, and lives at Waites Landing, Falmouth Foreside, Me.

DONALD B. DOAN who studied Agriculture at Cornell three years, is sales manager of the Socony Vacuum Oil Co. at 2506 May Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. His residence is RD 1, Oxford, Ohio. Don married LUCINDA B. CUYKENDALL '17 early in 1917, then enlisted in the regular Army, from which he retired in 1920 with the rank of captain. The Doans have two children, Donald, seventeen, and Barbara, thirteen.

ROBERT G. (Bob) MEYLER is president of the R. G. Meyler Corp. in Los Angeles, Cal., where he lives at 745 West Adams Boulevard. The Meylers have three children: Robert, Jr., twenty, James, twelve, and Helen, seventeen.

BAY HUNTER has a new horn on his car. Listen for it on the Hill during Reunion! It plays "Far above Cayuga's Waters."

"See You—in '42!"

*By Herbert R. Johnston, Class Secretary

HENRIK (Olie) ANTELL has taken a year's leave from his duties as transportation superintendent for The New York Times to serve Uncle Sam's Army at Camp Upton, L. I. Having a major's commission, he is one of the high ranking officers of the camp. Olie took time off to attend our dinner February 15 at the Cornell Club of New York.

ALAN P. TAPPAN is vice-president of the Tappan Stove Co., Mansfield, Ohio. He was recently elected chairman of the domestic gas range division of the Association of Gas Appliance & Equipment Manufacturers.

HARRISON (Hobby) HOBLITZELLE, president of the General Steel Castings Corp., reported recently that unfilled orders were at a record. His corporation has taken an active part in the development of cast armor, new to this continent, to the point where it is finding an important place in defense work, particularly in the construction of tanks.

1921 — 20-YEAR COME BACK

*By Allan H. Treman, Class Secretary

JIM (J. C.) MCGAHAN is in the wholesale flower business at 764 West Bay Street, Jacksonville, Fla., with the Floral Supply Co., reputedly the largest shipper of cut winter gladioli in the United States.

Three weeks and we will be holding forth at our Fifth Reunion. Last week I mentioned the race between our Reunion committee and Uncle Sam. This week I must report that Uncle Sam is out in front, so I am issuing another plea to all '36ers to exert just a little more effort in these last three weeks and give this big coming event of our Class a shot in the arm. Remember, our next big Reunion will be in 1946 and five years can pack a lot of punch. If every '36er that reads this plea will phone, wire, write a letter or a card to his roommate or, better still, to his best school pals, and make a date in Ithaca at Reunion time, our attendance will take the jump we want to see. We are calling on you, PERFECT '36!

Belated word tells us that BOB Groat married Margaret W. Bond last July 6, on Nantucket Island. They are living at 105 Rugby Road, Syracuse.

STEVE LOUNSBERRY, Jr., designing and experimental engineer, is living at 329 Main St., Owego.

WENDELL WHEELER married Helen D. Hopper in Pleasantville. Wendell is with General Foods, and they make their home at 35 Prospect Street, New York City.

JACK GILLESPIE is with the 251st Coast Artillery in Honolulu, Hawaii. Prior to induction, Jack was employed as a

CAMP OTTER

For Boys 7 to 18 Years

Where Cornellians Send Their Sons

In this year of uncertainty in our national life, it is most important that YOUR SON should round out his educational experience away from the inevitably disturbed and trying atmosphere of adult communities.

IDEAL LOCATION

Twenty-four miles away from the nearest railway, three miles from nearest town and auto highway, and with no blustering radios, CAMP OTTER with its own private lake offers an ideal setting for YOUR BOY to develop and enjoy a thrilling summer's outing.

A Cornell Institution

Both in background and personnel, Camp Otter is closely connected with Cornell and many of the campers eventually enter Cornell.

Cornellians from classes 1878 to 1931 have sent their sons to OTTER and already many of these former campers have enrolled their sons for this season.

Forget the War!!! CLASS OF 1939 Two-Year Reunion

Men

By Tom Boak, Class Secretary
Box 96, Massena, New York

To start off this column again after a lapse occasioned by a trip home to have my tonsils removed, I'll start with an engagement—my own—to Inez R. Allen of Gloversville. The wedding will take place this summer.

Other items along the same line include the engagement of Jean Dickerson of Wilmington, Del., to JOHN BRENTLINGER of our Class who now is with the powder division of the Dupont Co. in Memphis, Tenn.; and that of JEAN RODGER, 1940 Cornell Theta, to RUSTY CONDON who is now at Fort Dix serving his hitch with Uncle Sam.

A little now about Reunion. The cards have been coming in, and indicate a good attendance. The Army will hold some of us back, but there is still quite a bunch of us with high draft numbers! I will send out another letter this week giving all particulars. If you are planning to drive to Reunion, may I urge you to please ferret out any Classmate or other Cornellians in your vicinity and convince them that they can't afford not to come.

CLASS OF 1940

Women

By Carol B. Clark, Class Secretary

Two more engagements to report this week: TONI SAXE will be married this summer to JOHN S. STEWART '38. Toni has been teaching at South Berlin High School, and John is a special agent with the FBI.

KAY BALL is to marry SAM (H. SANFORD) SMILEY '41. Kay is now head dietitian at Cazenovia Junior College.

NAOMI NEUREUTER writes that she is a food supervisor and assistant to the manager of The Town Club in Buffalo. She lives at 355 High Street, Buffalo.

DR. MARGARET O'BRIEN COMBS and Husband CLARENCE '39, both veterinarians, opened an animal hospital in Shrewsbury, N. J., last December.

KITTY KINSMAN is in the office of the Elmira Foundry Co., Inc. in Elmira. She lives at home, 3 Strathmont Park, Elmira.

ANNETTE SHAPIRO ELSTEIN (Mrs. Leo H.) writes that she will complete her second year of law school this June, and will spend the summer in Hattiesburg, Miss., with Dr. Elstein who is a lieutenant in the Medical Corps, stationed at Camp Shelby.

EDDIE ISAACS is working for her Master's degree at Columbia and living at 241 Central Park West, New York City.

GRACE JOAN HITE is taking secretarial work at Katherine Gibbs School, and hopes to have a secretarial position in July. She writes that her present address is 457 West 143d Street, but that after July 1 it will be 610 West End Avenue, New York City.

OTTO GLASSER writes to say that he is no longer with the General Electric Co., but in the Aircraft Warning Co. at Fort Buchanan, Porto Rico. He nonchalantly adds that he is unmarried, has no children and no prospects. Be careful of that heat, Otto!!

ORLANDO BOWEN has been transferred from Kansas City to Vandalia, Ohio, where he is in the food service unit of Transcontinental & Western Air, Inc.

GLEN EDICK reports that all is well with him in Owego where he is working for GLF Farm Supplies. He lives there at 63 Liberty Street.

SANDY LINDSAY is now stationed in Boston with the Navy aboard the USS Gwinn.

A late report comes in that CHUCK TURTON married June Cozad August 17. Soon after, he left for Columbo in the Canal Zone, where he accepted a position with the Federal Government.

Word comes that things are going very well with GEORGE MALBY. He is personnel clerk for the Aluminum Co. of Canada. He lives at 1519 Bishop Street, Montreal.

WALTER L. MILLARD is managing a farm near Ithaca. Address: RD 5, Ithaca. He writes that HOWARD ARMSTRONG married Marilyn A. Sherman of Saratoga Springs March 22, and that the Armstrongs live at 76 Adolph Street in Akron, Ohio, where Howard is with the B. F. Goodrich Co.

JOHN R. SNOW is a physics instructor at the Newark College of Engineering, and lives in Newark at 59 East Park Street.

GEORGE CRAWFORD is in the plant engineering department of the Federal Shipbuilding & Drydock Co., and gets his mail at 168 Linden Avenue, Verona, N. J.

By now, all should have received my recent letters on the generous offer that the ALUMNI NEWS is making to early subscribers. It is my sincere hope that you will all take advantage of this. There is hardly any doubt that the Class of 1940 is the most active among the alumni, and I know you are all anxious that we maintain that position. The News affords us an excellent opportunity to constantly keep in touch with each other, so let's set a record that no Class will be able to equal: a 100 per cent subscription.
