

The Cornell Bulletin

V. GLAHAM

ED-IN-CHIEF

R. WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

A. HESS.

E. REIGART

A. QUINNAN

M. ALBERTSON.

B. SPOTLANDER

E. HIEBER

VOL II NO XXII

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Nov. 9, 1916

Three cheers for the new PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES. As this goes to press, we're not sure who got it, but we're glad he did just the same. Long life and a successful administration to him.

SPO RTS AND PASTIMES.

The Sports and Pastimes Club rules are in the Sage gym now, and any one may get a copy by going to Miss Canfield's office or applying to the class managers.

UNDER CLASSMEN TAKE NO TICE.

Miss Canfield requests that every one please date gym credit cards for the Saturday of the week for which the credits are claimed. This makes it much easier when checking up.

TENNIS.

The number of days allowed for playing off the second round of the tournament was decided last night after the Bulletin went to press, so see your class manager and make sure how long you have to play your match.

1920 - MANAGERS

B.B., H. Huie
Hockey, Strong
Tennis, D. Hieber

Y. W. C. A.

Mildred Keets has charge of collecting the old newspapers in Risley. If the girls will leave them in the kitchenettes at the ends of the halls they will be collected every day.

The Sage girls are requested to leave them in Elizabeth Reigart's room.

The Y. W. C. A. cabinet will give party to the Fresh next Tuesday evening. Sara Abbott is in charge, so every one is sure to have a mighty fine time.

REVIEW.

All the subscribers to the Review who did not receive current copies, may get them by leaving their names in the Sage Review office.

SOCIETY NEWS.

Don't forget the Army Skip, Friday night. Come in couples. Ladies wear pseudo evening gowns. For further information on costumes apply to Juniors.

An Ag Assembly will be held in Roberts Hall on Thursday evening at eight o'clock.