J. H. BARR RENOMINATED.

Named to Succeed Himself as One of the Alumni Trustees.

The nomination of John Henry Barr, M. M. E. '89, for re-election as one of the Alumni Trustees of the University, has been filed. He has been a member of the Board since 1905.

Mr. Barr was born in Terre Haute, Ind., on June 19, 1861, the son of John H. and Eliza (Tillotson) Barr. He studied at the University of Minnesota, where he graduated in 1883 with the degree of B. M. E., and where, in 1888, he also received the degree of M. S. In 1887 he entered Sibley College as a graduate student and in 1889 he received here the degree of M. M. E.

In 1883-4 Mr. Barr was assistant to the resident mechanical engineer of the Calumet & Hecla Mining Company, and he was then for a year with the Lake Superior Iron Works as mechanical engineer. He was afterward successively instructor, assistant professor and professor of mechanical engineering in the University of Minnesota. In 1891 he became a member of the Cornell faculty, being appointed assistant professor of mechanical engineering. He was made associate professor of machine design four years later and in 1898 was promoted to a full professor of machine design and he held this chair until 1903, when he resigned to become director and factory manager of the Smith Premier Typewriter Company in Syracuse. In 1909 he was appointed consulting engineer of the Union Typewriter Company. His home is still in Syracuse. He also acted in 1900 as mechanical engineer of the Anaconda Mining Company. He prepared the report on "Machine Tools" of the United States Commissioner-General to the Paris Exposition of 1889. During his later years at Cornell two universities tendered him the directorship of their colleges of engineering, both of which offers he declined.

He is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, a member of the Association for the Promotion of Engineering Education, and a member of the Society of Sigma Xi. He is the author of a text-book on "Kinematics of Machinery" which is used in several engineering colleges, and he has contributed largely to current engineering literature.

Mr. Barr is a member of the Psi Upsilon fraternity. He was married in Minneapolis in 1884 to Miss Kate L. Kennedy, and has one son, John H. Barr, jr., now a member of the freshman class in the College of Civil Engineering of Cornell.

Spring Day May 21

It is probable that Spring Day this year will take place on Saturday, May 21. In former years the event has been held on Friday, between 11 a. m. and 1 p. m., but the committee is planning to have the festival between 2 and 4 p. m., on Saturday afternoon because these hours will interfere less with university work. A large number of shows will be held, most of the colleges and several clubs having special attractions. A burlesque will be given in the Lyceum in the evening.

ALUMNI DINNERS.

Chicago.

The annual dinner of the Cornell University Association of Chicago was held at the University Club on March 5. The "College Room," in which the dinner took place, was decorated with Cornell flags and American Beauty roses. About two hundred attended. Mr. Hoy was the guest of the evening, and, aside from the speakers, J. Wynne's glee club was the feature of the gathering. The dinner was a little less formal than banquets generally are, and speeches, stunts, solos, songs by J. Wynne's glee club and songs by everybody were scattered through the evening. The dinner was begun with the singing of "Alma Mater."

C. T. Mordock '97, was toastmaster. C. H. Rammelkamp '96, president of Illinois College, spoke on "The University and the Small College," defining the field which the small college should occupy. F. N. Jewett '93 gave a short talk full of reminiscences and good stories. A telegram was sent to Professor Goldwin Smith expressing good wishes. E. T. Adams '94, of Milwaukee, suggested that the alumni erect and own a building on the campus which should be their headquarters and which should provide a meeting place for undergraduates instead of Zinck's and the Dutch Kitchen. He suggested that it be temperance but not prohibition. His idea seemed to be approved by those present. Willard Beahan '78, of Cleveland, gave a talk on what the trustees are doing, told of recent events in Ithaca and related anecdotes of earlier days. William H. French '73 made an address full of good stories and things to think about.

Mr. Hoy, who was the next speaker, had written, in accepting the association's invitation to be the guest of the evening, that he hoped the men would be as easy on him as he had been on them when they were in the University, and his reception was up to schedule, although he declared in his talk later that he still had the better of it. After poking a little fun at his audience and calming the fears that some of those present had always felt when facing him, Mr. Hoy gave a very pleasant talk on University athletics and other things the old students were most interested in—a talk which made them feel like undergraduates again.

W. F. E. Gurley '77 ended the speechmaking of the evening with a stirring talk. Scattered in among the speeches were numerous new and old songs by J. Wynne's glee club, solos by Erskine Wilder and stunts by Norman Mason and others which rivaled Junior Week productions.

Milwaukee. (Contributed.)

The annual banquet of the Cornell University Alumni Association of Milwaukee was held at the University Club on Monday, March 7. Billy Bliss '93, president of the Association, presided as toastmaster and, after a well served dinner the courses of which were interspersed with numerous swipes and Cornell songs, introduced Davy Hoy, the guest of honor and the principal speaker of the evening. Davy, after relating a few funny stories (much to our surprise) told of the happenings at the University and especially of the increased activity of the general student body in athletics. He recalled the statistics given out at the junior smoker relative to the high standing of the men who participate in athletics and also spoke of the high standing of the alumni in the world of business. In this connection he quoted from a statement made by the president of one of the eastern railroads to the effect that the best men whom he received as employees were Cornell men.

E. T. Adams '94, spoke of the Cornell men in the engineering profession and Jimmy DeVoy '89 related some experiences of railroad-ing. Jimmy also told of one football game held on the campus in the eighties when he was sent into the game to take care of a husky Williams man who had been playing havoc with the Cornell line. From the forceful manner in which the account was related and from the verification of Davy, who recalled Jimmy DeVoy by this event, there was no doubt in anyone's mind that Jimmy fixed his man.

Dick Bishop '09, related Louis Fuertes's tiger story and Heinie Schoellkopf made an oration. Joe Culver '02, came down from the woods with his big bass voice and showed what they used to do in the singing line. Dr. A. T. Holbrook, a Harvard alumnus, made a valued addition to the list of speakers. The banquet was in charge of a committee composed of Fred M. Prescott '84, chairman; Eddie Beals '03 and Henry Schoellkopf '02.

Those present were: E. T. Adams '94, A. W. Berresford '93, E. D. Beals '03, G. Blankenhorn '07, W. L. Bliss '93, A. H. Candee '06, C. K. Carpenter '07, G. F. DeWein '97, J. F. DeVoy '89, J. C. Davis '00, J. C. Culver '02, D. P. Eells '07, E. T. Foote '06, H. L. Hibbard '99, Willis Collins '95, F. M. Prescott '82, C. F. Perry '04, W. H. Powell '90, H. Schoellkopf '02, L. L. Tatum '97, F. L. Sivyer '03, W. H. Schuchardt '95, L. M. Whitwell '00, R. B. Williamson '93, R. A. Uihlein '05, E. C. Welborn '03, C. C. Thomas '95, Dudley Montgomery '06, B. E. Fernow '06, Dud Walder '09, J. J. Ralph '09, Emil Adler '09, R. V. Krause '09, John Dodge '04, R. E. Bishop '09, R. E. Friend '09, Fred Sly '07, R. L. Alexander '00, H. J. Essen '89, Don Alexander, J. C. Wilson '06.

In addition to the above regular members the association had as its guests about ten alumni from the other colleges represented in Milwaukee.

Seattle.

The annual banquet of the Cornell Association of Seattle was held at the Arctic Club on February 26. Fifty Cornellians were present, representing about one-half of the number in Seattle. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: Mark Odell '97, president; A. S. Downey '96, vice-president, and Dr. A. S. Tenney '05, secretary and treasurer. A new board of governors was also appointed consisting of H. W. Treat '88 and J. A. Haight '79. After the banquet a telegram was sent to President Schurman by the association expressing their entire confidence in his policies toward the University. President Schurman replied with a letter of thanks.

Brooklyn.

The Cornell Association of Brooklyn held its regular monthly dinner on Friday evening, March 18, at the University Club of Brooklyn, 109 Lafayette avenue. At the close of the informal meal, the members, headed by President William A. Mosserop '88, adjourned to the Cornell University Club of New York to hear a lecture by Franklin Matthews '83, on the trip of the battleship fleet around the world. Mr. Matthews is a former president of the Brooklyn Association. The occasion was taken to introduce the Brooklynites to the new club house on Park avenue.

The final dinner and alumni meeting of the year in Brooklyn will be held on April 15 at the usual meeting place.

Elmira.

The Cornell men of Elmira held a smoker at the City Club last Wednesday evening. President Schurman made an address, saying in part:

"Now that we have the addition to the chemistry building, the most earnest building need is a new shop for Sibley College. And probably the greatest need of the University as a whole is houses for the students to live in, and commons for the students to eat in. Among our immediate needs is money to endow research work. We could well use the income from $1,000,000 in that field, and it would do much to raise Cornell to the same standard as the European universities." He appealed to the alumni, when they find themselves able, to contribute, or to persuade their friends to contribute, toward endowments for research, the humanities, dormitories, and similar needs which the state could not be expected to help support. "There is room for all the support that can possibly be given," he said, "and all kinds."

Professor C. F. Hirshfeld told stories and the Glee Club quartet, composed of E. E. Goodwillie, D. S. Gray, P. H. Elwood, jr., and W. E. Hawke, sang several songs. Those in charge of the event were George McCann '86, Frank E. Gannett '98, George W. Wyckoff '01, Isaac Allison '03, George G. Reynolds '98, Charles B. Swartwood '97, Robert T. Turner '08 and Charles R. Sanderson '95.

Northwestern Association.

The annual banquet of the Northwestern Cornell Association was held in St. Paul, Minn., on March 8. About thirty were present from St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Fargo and other places in Minnesota and North Dakota. Mr. Hoy attended the banquet as the University's representative. The toast list was as follows:

"Listen to the Tales of Old Cornell," Oscar L. Taylor '81, St. Paul; "The Twentieth Century Cornellian," E. N. Ferdon '03, Minneapolis; "The Cornellian of the Western Educational World," Dean H. T. Eddy '70, University of Minnesota; "Cran(e)tal Cerebration," Professor G. D. Stephenson, Minneapolis; "How I Ran My Ward in True Cornellian Spirit," Alderman J. C. Otis '01; "Trust Me to Bust 'Em," David F. Hoy; "How We Do It in Minnesota," Registrar E. B. Pierce, University of Minnesota.

The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, F. M. Catlin '82, St. Paul; vice-president, William G. Purcell '03, Minneapolis; secretary, Dr. Charles F. Flocken '01, Minneapolis.

On Cable Chess Team.

Louis Tolins, of Brooklyn, a special student in the college of agriculture, has been selected as a member of the American team to take part in the intercollegiate cable chess match against Oxford and Cambridge. The match will be played on April 2, the American team meeting at Princeton. Other members of the team are Norman T. Whitaker and W. H. Hughes, of Pennsylvania, J. R. Chandler of Yale and L. W. Stephens of Princeton. A sixth member is yet to be chosen. Tolins is a member of the Brooklyn Chess Club and has an established reputation as a player.

The 'varsity soccer team defeated the Auburn Theological Seminary team on the Playground last Saturday by a score of 3 to 0.

BEACHAM REELECTED

Member of the Football Advisory Committee for Three Years.

Captain Joseph W. Beacham '97 has been re-elected a member of the Advisory Football Committee of the Cornell Alumni Football Association for a term of three years, beginning February 1, 1910. The election was conducted by ballot, the voters being the former 'varsity football players who compose the association. The other members of the Advisory Committee are Thomas F. Fennell '96, and Henry Schoellkopf '02, whose terms expire in 1911, and Clinton R. Wyckoff '96 and Edward R. Alexander '01, who were elected for terms ending in 1912. Captain Beacham has been head coach of the West Point team during the past two seasons. He is now with his regiment, the 9th Infantry, U. S. A., at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Intercollege Carnival of Sports.

The third annual intercollege carnival of sports was held on Saturday and was won by the men of the College of Arts and Sciences. The prize was two barrels of apples. There was a large crowd of spectators in the gallery of the Armory and around the walls, and the various events were run off to an accompaniment of yells and cheers.

First on the program was the rope climb, which was won by J. M. Falconi, a future bridge builder hailing from Ecuador. He rang the bell on the rafter in the fast time of 6 4-5 seconds. The three-legged race, in which two men are tied together, was won by Noland Blass and A. K. Bates, of the Arts College. The veterinary college came to the front in the backward race. The wheelbarrow race followed, in which teams of two competed, one man on his hands and the other "wheeling" him by his feet. At the end of the course they change positions and race back to the starting point. This contest was won by Sibley amid a tremendous uproar. Then comes the elephant race. The contestants line up before the starter with faces as drawn and nervous as if they were in the intercollegiate meet. "Guh!" One man jumps on another's back and the racers go bobbing down the course. The vets win again. In the sack race the contestants are invested in large bags up to their armpits. Blass's superior hopping gave Arts another victory. Nobody was surprised when Agriculture won the potato race. The rooster fight was the spectacular event. Contestants arrange themselves as in the elephant race, one on another's back, and endeavor to upset similar pairs. The crowd supplies the appropriate rooster language. The contest narrowed down till only two teams, veterinary and arts, were left standing, and finally the vets were overturned. There was a relay race between teams representing the various companies of the cadet corps, each man in uniform and carrying a rifle. The prize in this race was exemption from one drill period for the victorious company, and this was reward enough to make everybody do his best. Company F won. The intercollege relay race was won by Arts. The points scored in the carnival follow: Arts 21, Civil Engineering 16, Sibley 16, Veterinary 15, Agriculture 11, Law 7, Architecture 2.

The Sibley Banquet.

More than four hundred persons attended the annual Sibley College banquet in the Armory on Saturday evening. Dean Smith was toastmaster. Mr. Henry G. Reist, of the General Electric Company, made a short speech in which he emphasized the importance to the graduating engineer of affiliating himself with the national technical organizations. He said that it was well not only to be a member but also to read the papers of the society and to take part in the local meetings of the sections. Professor Kimball spoke on engineering education methods, saying that even authorities disagreed as to how engineering science and practice should be taught. He said that we did not pretend that our methods could not be improved, but we were trying to advance. H. W. Fisher '88, chief engineer of the Standard Underground Cable Company, spoke of the graduate's relation to his surroundings. Professor Jenks talked on the advantage of association with persons of different vocation and different viewpoint from one's own.

OBITUARY.

H. D. HALBERT '85.

Henry Daniel Halbert, C. E., '85, died in San Diego, Cal., on February 26. He entered Cornell in 1883 from Vanceburg, Ky., having previously studied at Antioch and Bethany Colleges. After his graduation he was employed as a civil engineer by the St. Paul & Duluth and other western railroads. In recent years he had practiced his profession in Seattle.

E. R. HACK '08.

Earl Reside Hack, a graduate of Sibley College of the class of 1908, was killed on Sunday evening, March 13, by coming into contact with a live electric wire in the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad yard at Brunswick, Md. Hack was 24 years old. He entered Cornell in 1904 from the Baltimore City College. In his senior year at the University he was president of the Maryland Club. After graduation he entered the employment of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad. He was soon promoted and had charge of the company's electrical, steam and compressed air plant at Brunswick. It is said that he proved in every way efficient, capable and ready for every emergency. He became a general favorite, winning friends by his pleasing personality and ability. All the officers of the road who knew him thought highly of him, and he was marked for promotion, to take place within a few weeks. On the night he was killed Hack had gone up a yard pole to adjust an arc lamp. It is supposed that he came into contact with a high tension wire and that death was instant. His parents, two brothers and a sister survive him.

The Maryland Club adopted the following resolutions:

"We, the members of the Maryland Club, desire to express our deep sympathy at the sudden and untimely death of one of our former most worthy and prominent members, Earl Reside Hack '08, who, during his sojourn with us, won the respect and love of all. We wish to extend to his family our sincerest sympathy in their sad bereavement. Resolved, as a token of respect to his memory, these resolutions be published in the University papers and a copy be sent to his family."

ISIDOR HOROWITZ '12.

Isidor Horowitz, of New York, a member of the sophomore class in the College of Agriculture, died at the Cornell Infirmary on March 11 of chronic heart disease.

Death of Mrs W. T. Hewett.

Katherine Mary Locke Hewett, the wife of Professor Waterman T. Hewett of the department of German, died at her home on Cornell Heights early Sunday morning, after an illness of several weeks. Funeral services were held in Sage Chapel on Monday afternoon.

Enlarging the D. K. E. House.

Work has begun on a large addition to the home of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity at the southeast corner of South and West avenues. The plans were drawn by Messrs. Gibb & Waltz, architects, of Ithaca. The house is to be extended eastward its full height to a distance of 44 feet, the width of the addition to be 36 feet. Most of the basement and first floor will be given up to a new lodge room which will be two stories in height. Other space will be devoted to a new vegetable cellar, a store room, an office, coal bins and an extension of the butler's pantry. At the level of the first floor a driveway will run right through the new structure from South avenue to a courtyard on the south side of the house. On the second floor will be six studies, an alumni room with bathroom adjoining and a lavatory containing a shower bath. Six bedrooms, a linen closet and another and larger lavatory, this one containing two shower baths, will take up the third story. Both lavatories will be finished in white marble and will have sanitary floors. The addition will be carried out in the same stone as was used in the main building, and will give the entire house an imposing frontage on South avenue.

Rowing Schedule.

Following is the Cornell rowing schedule for this season:

May 30—Varsity and freshman eights row the corresponding Harvard crews on Charles River, Boston; junior varsity rows the Penn junior varsity on Cayuga Lake.

June 25—Intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie.

MARYLAND CORNELLIAN SMOKER

For the purpose of organizing a Cornell alumni association in Maryland, the Maryland Club of Cornell will hold an informal smoker in Baltimore during the Easter vacation. The smoker will take place at the Hotel Rennert at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening, March 30. The club is inviting all Cornell graduates from Maryland to be present.

There are now more than one hundred Cornell graduates from that state, and the number has been increasing rapidly during the last few years. Many of them have felt that they ought to be organized, and that an alumni association, with headquarters perhaps in Baltimore, would help to advance Cornell interests there. A number of those who have expressed themselves as in favor of the plan are to be at the smoker and speak on the subject. A large attendance is expected.

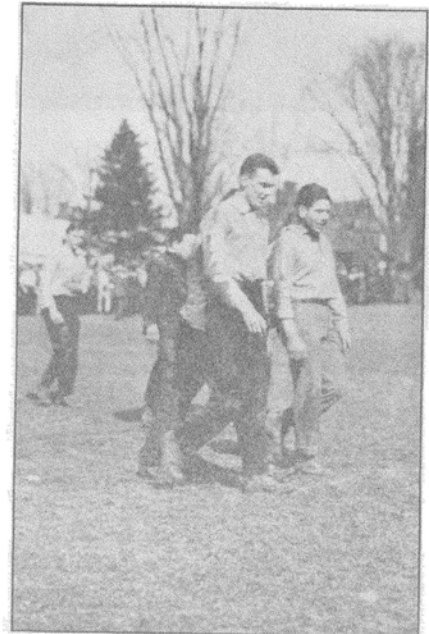

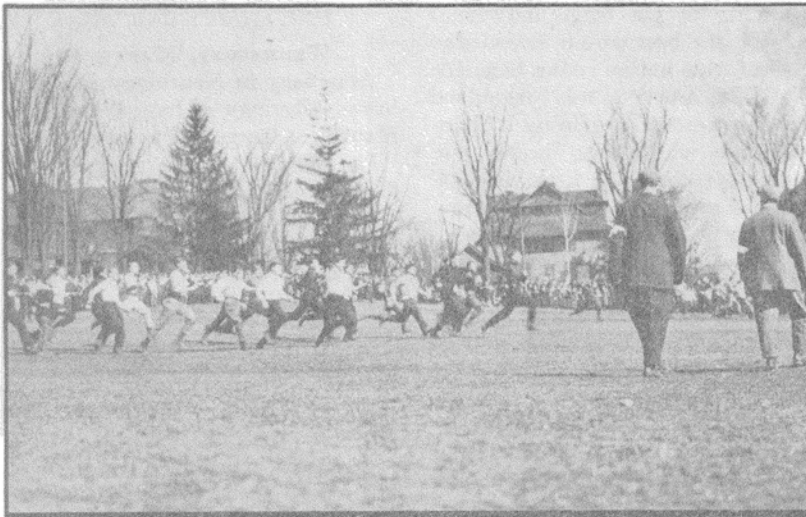

The Maryland Club of Cornell is composed of undergraduates and has about forty members. Altogether there are eighty-three students from Maryland in the University. As the number of graduates and former students living in that state is about 165, there is no lack of material for an association.

SOCIETY OF CIVIL ENGINEERS.

The regular Spring Smoker of the Cornell Society of Civil Engineers will be held at Kalil's Restaurant, 16 Park Place, New York, on April 22, at 7 p. m. J. W. Beardsley '91, former Director of Public Works of the Philippine Islands, will address the Society on "Engineering Abroad." A dinner will be served. All Cornell men are cordially invited to attend.

Civil Engineering Banquet.

John A. Knighton '91, of New York, was the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the College of Civil Engineering, held at the Ithaca hotel last Friday evening. He spoke on the qualities which the young engineer needs for success in his profession, emphasizing enthusiasm, common sense, the ability to express himself, and hard work. Dean Haskell spoke, and Captain E. L. Phillips '91 told some of his experiences in the Philippines. H. A. Kiep '10 was toastmaster.

The Recent Underclass Rush.

The pictures on this page illustrate the recent freshman-sophomore rush, held on the afternoon preceding the freshman banquet and sophomore smoker. This is known officially as an organized rush, to emphasize the fact that it was invented to do away with the old fashioned, haphazard underclass "scrap," which usually took place after dark.

In the first picture is shown the beginning of one of the rushes. A squad of twenty-five freshmen, starting at the pistol shot, is racing across the field in an effort to reach the other side without being captured by an equal number of sophomores. The two squads are just about to meet in the middle of the field. In the foreground are two of the upperclass marshals. The picture next below shows the scene a few seconds later. In the lowest picture are two sophomores who have a freshman thoroughly captured and are waiting for the pistol shot to end the rush. Another squad of freshmen is waiting in the background. The last picture shows some sophomores returning to their line after giving up their captives to be led to the decorating room in the basement of Barnes Hall. There were twenty rushes in all this year, five hundred freshmen having entered. Nobody need take part unless he wants to.

WOODFORD PATTERSON,

FREDERICK KUHN

Business Manager.

Entered as Second-Class Matter at Ithaca, N. Y.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 23, 1910.

ON ACCOUNT OF the Easter vacation, which begins on March 25 and ends on April 4, there will be no publication of the ALUMNI NEWS next week. Publication will be resumed on April 6.

UNDER THE RULES for the election of alumni members of the University Board of Trustees, nominations for these offices must be filed with the Treasurer of the University not later than the first day of April. The Alumni Trustees whose terms expire this year are: Dr. Robert T. Morris '80, of New York, and Mr. John H. Barr '89, of Syracuse, N. Y.

A NOTION SEEMS to have been obtained by some graduates that the Cornellian Council, in raising money among alumni for the University, is going to concern itself primarily with trying to get large individual gifts. To the best of our knowledge and belief, this notion is far from the truth. The Council was organized for the purpose of providing a channel through which any former student may give much or little, according to his means or his inclination. Its work will be to acquaint Cornellians generally with the needs of the University and to encourage as many as possible to contribute. Nobody expects that the average gift will be large, but everybody hopes that there will be so many givers that the aggregate yearly benefit to the University will be considerable. The experience of other institutions where this plan is in successful operation is encouraging.

The "Widow's" Lament.

According to the new calendar lately adopted by the University, the Easter recess, after this year, is cut down from ten days to five. The Widow parodies Milton in the following verses on the subject:

Yet once more, O my gripsack, and once more,

My boil-ed shirt and unaccustomed dip.

I gather you together for a trip

To lands where eight o'clocks do never bloom.

The studentry a beaming visage wears:

The future matters not; the present's heaven,—

But I,—ah me, I am obsessed with gloom,

For I recall me what the new,

Dingbusted calendar does to

This joyous recess in 1911,—

Weec, weep, O studes! weep large and luscious tears

For what will ne'er be recess more.

Alas! what boots it with uncessant care

To tend the homely, slighted, student's trade?

Were it not better done as others use

To live where one may call upon a maid

Each eve—where profs and things do ne'er abuse

One's time and peace and patience—yet no:

If one would cultcher have, or learning fair

Concerning drains and buzz-works, one must go

To yon small school-house on the noble hill:

That fills the bill.

Weep no more, woeful students, weep no more,

For your beloved recess is not lost,

Reft though it be of half its pristine span.

Consider: there'll be time to go

To Auburn, Scranton, Buffalo!

Why, then, be sore?

Five days off ought to suffice any man:

The faculty should know.

Cornell won the intercollegiate wrestling meet at Philadelphia on Saturday, defeating Princeton, Columbia and Pennsylvania. The scores respectively were 11, 7, 5 and 5. Yale withdrew from the association just before the meet, two of her men, Goebel and Sweeney, having been declared ineligible, the former because he had competed in three meets and the latter on the ground that he is a graduate student.

The preliminary round resulted as follows:

115-pound class—Johnson, Cornell, defeated McCarthy, Princeton (decision), 9:00; Brady, Columbia, threw Dickson, Pennsylvania, 5:38.

125-pound class—Ward, Princeton, defeated Glasby, Pennsylvania (decision), 9:00; Phillips, Cornell, defeated McCandless, Columbia (decision), 17:00.

135-pound class—Swartz, Columbia, defeated Hopkins, Cornell (decision); time, 9:00. Stewart, Pennsylvania, defeated H. Ormond, Princeton; time, 17:00.

145-pound class—Peake, Cornell, defeated Boyce, Columbia; time, 9:00. Patchell, Pennsylvania, defeated Wilson, Princeton (decision); time, 12:00.

158-pound class—Nichols, Cornell, defeated Ferrara, Columbia, 1:12; A. T. Ormond, Princeton, defeated Smith, Pennsylvania.

175-pound class—Garrett, Princeton, threw Strassberger, Columbia; time, 3:25. Graham, Pennsylvania, threw Collins, Cornell; time, 1:38.

Heavyweight class—Goff, Cornell, defeated Wells, Princeton; time, 12:00. Sanders, Columbia, threw Heilman, Pennsylvania; time 1:48.

The final round:

115-pound—A. T. Johnson '11, decision over Brady of Columbia. Time, 15 minutes.

125-pound—Ward of Princeton,

Cornell Fencers Quality.

In the intercollegiate fencing preliminaries held at West Point on Saturday, between Harvard, Yale, Cornell, and West Point, to decide which two teams shall enter the intercollegiate meet to be held in New York, the Army and the Cornellians qualified. West Point won 17 bouts, Cornell 15, Harvard 3, and Yale 1. The conditions were that every man should fence every man of every other team, but at the end of the second round it was evident that Yale and Harvard could not possibly qualify, so the final round was not fenced. Consequently Cornell and the Army did not meet, nor did Yale and Harvard.

At Annapolis the Naval Academy team and the Penn team qualified, the former winning thirteen bouts and the latter eight. Columbia failed to qualify and Princeton's team arrived too late to take part in the trials. The finals will be held in New York next Friday and Saturday.

On March 12 the Cornell fencing team was defeated by the West Point team, eight bouts to one. The Cornell fencers are Espindola, Allison and Roos.

Lacrosse.

Nothing less than the north division league championship is counted on this spring by the 'varsity lacrosse team. With the exception of Captain Thatcher and L. S. Henry, who graduated last June, every member of last year's team is on the squad again this year. Most of them have played two years, and Captain Walbridge has played three. Other veterans are C. L. Davitt '10, H. A. Kiep '10, Roy Taylor '10, R. Christenson '10, C. P. Cannon '10, A. G. Darling '11, R. E. Chapman '11, and F. A. Haist '11. These men play at defense and attack. At goal are F. A. Bond '12, W. D. Carlton '11 and A. P. Chandler '11.

The squad has been favored with early practice. An unusually large number of men has reported, with an abundance of good material. Coach Talbot Hunter, a former Toronto University star and a member last year of the strong Shamrock team in Chicago, called the men out soon after the hockey season was over, and cage practice was held as early as Junior Week. Since that time, whenever the weather permitted, practice has been held daily on Alumni Field.

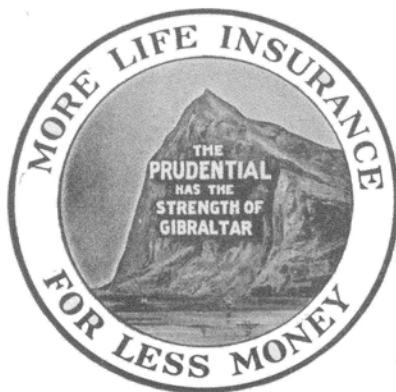

The defense and attack are especially strong; and the principal weakness of last year's make-up has been remedied.

Cornell's swimming team was defeated by Penn last Friday.

The California Debate.

The question to be discussed in the debate between Cornell and the University of Southern California at Los Angeles on April 5 is the same one that was used in the recent triangular debate with Pennsylvania and Columbia. Cornell submitted the topic to the Californians, who chose the affirmative side of the question.

At a joint meeting of the Cornell Club of Southern California and the representatives of the California debaters, it was agreed to guarantee the Eastern team all their traveling expenses, the alumni pledging one-third of the amount and the University Law School the remaining two-thirds. The Cornell Club is to act for and safeguard the interests of the visitors in the matter of the selection of judges.

The following plan was agreed upon: The executive committee of the alumni, and the secretary of the law school of the University of Southern California each prepares a list of five names and each of these groups selects one man. The two thus chosen are to agree on the third judge, who is also selected from ten men, five named by each side.

The Cornell men will take a different route on the return trip from that going out. They will go via the Southern Pacific, passing through Denver and Salt Lake City, to San Francisco and from there along the coast to their destination. Coming back they will take the Santa Fe route, and probably stop over in Arizona and take a trip to the Grand Canyon of the Colorado.

During their stay in Los Angeles they will be entertained by the alumni, through whose united effort with the Southern California Law School the debate was arranged.

Met in Athens.

In a recent letter written in Athens by E. G. Wyckoff '86, to one of his friends Mr. Wyckoff says: "In a party that just spent two days in Athens were ten Cornellians, including R. H. and R. E. Treman, of Ithaca; E. L. Parker, of Buffalo; a Mr. McNairy, a Mr. McBride and five others, besides ten ladies (wives, mothers or sisters of Cornellians) making quite a Cornell 'bunch' to meet in this ancient burg."

Goldwin Smith Better.

The Toronto Sun of Wednesday, March 16, said: "A decided improvement has occurred in the condition of Goldwin Smith during the past week. He has been able to dictate one or two letters while lying in bed and the hope is that he will be able to again visit his library during the present week."

To Plau in Newark on April 2.

The date of the performance to be given by the Cornell Dramatic Club in Newark has been changed to Saturday evening, April 2, so as not to conflict with the performance of "The Misfit Man" by the Masque in New York city on April 1. The play, Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People," will be given in the New Auditorium. The Newark alumni are helping to make the event a success. It is under the auspices of the Barringer High School of Newark.

The football rules committee meets in New York this week.

Baseball

Nowadays the baseball squad is having outdoor practice pretty regularly in preparation for the southern trip. Nineteen men have been selected for the training table, which will be started after the Easter vacation. The nineteen are:

Pitchers—E. E. Goodwillie '10, Murray Howes '11, Octavio Carvajal '11, C. S. Abbott '12.

Catchers—Paul Williams '10, C. V. Lally '10, J. A. Wende '12.

Infielders—C. H. Watson '10, W. W. Matchneer '10, E. B. Magner '11, D. A. Howard '11, W. L. Donenhauer '11, R. T. Isett '12.

Outfielders—L. C. Judson '10, C. C. Owen '10, J. H. Rutherford '10, E. E. Thompson '11, Eugene Dugan '11, M. A. Gordon '12.

This is the southern schedule:

March 26, United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

March 28, Yale at Washington.

March 30 and 31, Georgetown at Washington.

April 1, Walbrook Athletic Club at Baltimore.

April 2, Washington team of the American League at Washington.

April 4, Seton Hall College at Baltimore.

It is said that President Taft is expected to attend the Yale-Cornell game on March 28.

President Schurman lectured before the New York Unitarian Club in New York city last Thursday evening on some of the country's social and political problems.

Change at Cascadilla School.

After a meeting of stockholders of the Cascadilla School last week the following announcement was made:

"The Cascadilla School, founded by Lucien A. Wait, has entered upon a new chapter in its history. Professor Wait, who has give a lifetime of devotion to the school, looking forward to a trip abroad and freedom from care, has transferred the control of the school and the responsibility for its welfare to a group of public spirited citizens, headed by Professor Charles V. Parsell."

Professor Parsell, who is a Cornellian of the class of '72, has been principal of the school since 1893.

Professors Henry S. Williams and Ralph S. Tarr are joint authors with E. M. Kindle of Folio No. 169 of the geological atlas of the United States, just issued by the Geological Survey. This folio covers the so-called Watkins-Catatonk district, an area of about 1,770 square miles. The maps and illustrations are accompanied by an extensive text on topography, including a chapter on the economic geology of the region.

An intercollege chess tourney has just been won by the College of Agriculture, which was victorious in nine out of twelve games. Arts was second with six, and Sibley and the civil engineers won 4½ each.

RECREATION BUILDING CASCADILLA SCHOOL ITHACA, N. Y.

THE LOCATION of this institution commends itself to everyone familiar with the general healthfulness of the Central Lake Region of the Empire State. Added to this there is the educational atmosphere and stimulating influence of the great University under whose shadow Cascadilla lies. Here are two prerequisites of a good school, healthful location, intellectual environment. The proximity of Cornell University makes it natural that fully 80 per cent. of its graduates enter that institution.

Boys are prepared for all departments of Cornell in accordance with Cornell standards. The instruction is individual in its character, and each boy's course at the school is planned with reference to his particular needs.

As a separate house is provided for the members of each class, pupils are grouped in the residences according to their age and advancement in their studies.
