

CORNELL UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

REPORT OF THE ACTING LIBRARIAN

1945-1946

To the President of the University:

SIR: I have the honor to submit the report of the Acting Librarian of the University Library for the year ended June 30, 1946.

This is an interim report. Dr. Kinkeldey after sixteen years as librarian retired as of June 30, this year. After January 1, however, he was absent on leave. Dr. Stephen A. McCarthy, appointed Director of the Cornell University Library, will take office September 1. The Associate Librarian was appointed Acting Librarian to serve for these eight months.

This situation illustrates one of the difficulties in which the library finds itself. There are never more than two officers of the library qualified to take responsibility on the general administrative level. From January to September this year there has been only one.

STAFF

Miss Mary L. Dorr, Cataloguer; Mrs. Catherine D. Dassance, Readers Assistant; and Miss Jeanne Banford, Periodicals Assistant, resigned. The following appointments were made: Mr. Arthur C. Kulp, Mr. Carlyle R. Stickler, Mr. Robert B. Taylor, Miss Elizabeth G. Timmerman, Miss Jane C. Rhode, Readers Assistants; Mrs. Rosamond B. Robinson, Catalogue Typist; Mrs. Dorothy P. Adams, Periodicals Assistant.

ACCESSIONS

The total amount expended for books, periodicals, and binding according to Miss Ingersoll, Supervisor of Accessions, was $36,596 as against $27,244 in the preceding year. The total number of volumes added to the University Library was 15,111 of which 12,076 were for the general library. Of the additions to the general library 6,074 volumes were purchased and 6,002 were gifts and exchanges.

*The discrepancy between this and last year's total is due to the discovery of a figure counted twice in an earlier report.

Important additions made in 1945-1946 are: Velloso. Flora Fluminensis, text and 11 volumes of plates; Aubry. Cent motets du 13e siècle; Mestres de l'escolania de Montserrat, 5 volumes; Rokseth. Polyphonies du 13e siècle; Radiciotti. Rossini, 13 volumes; Journal fuer Ornithologie, 36 volumes; Sociedad Argentina de biologia, Revista, 19 volumes; Linnean Society of London, Proceedings 114-140; Dansk ornithologisk forenings tidsskrift, 24 volumes.

Some books are beginning to come in from Europe. From China still more have been received, and others published during the war and accumulated for our account are on the way.

The new titles of periodicals added during the year numbered 82. Among them were: Atomic Power (N. Y.), Dramatics (Cincinnati), Etudes Classiques (Brussels), Film and Radio Guide (Newark, N. J.), Journal of Gerontology (Springfield, Ill.), Journal of Polymer Science (N. Y.), Music and Letters (London), Science, Illustrated (N. Y.), Surveying and Mapping (Washington), United Nations News (Washington), United Nations Security Council. Journal, etc. (N. Y.), World Report (Washington), World Today (London), and the newspaper, Washington Post.

Current foreign periodicals are reported to be arriving now with fair regularity. Many gaps in the files are being supplied by reprinted copies where the Alien Property Custodian has vested the copyrights.

A large number of American newspapers, both long runs and single issues, from various states, have been turned over to the University Library from the Collection of Regional History. Some of the sets acquired in this way and by purchase are: Auburn Daily Advertiser, 116 volumes, from 1846 to 1931; Aurora of the Valley (Newbury, Vt.), 9 volumes, from 1850 to 1859; Candor Courier, 796 unbound numbers, from 1903 to 1937; Cincinnati, Ohio Journal and Western Luminary, 2 volumes, from 1833 to 1836; Connecticut Courant, 140 unbound numbers, from 1787 to 1794; Hampshire Gazette (Northampton, Mass.), 104 unbound numbers, from 1821 to 1825; Herkimer County (N. Y.) News, 29 volumes bound in 20, from 1873 to 1900; Lamoille Newsdealer (Hyde Park, Vt.), 5 bound volumes, from 1860 to 1869; New York Spectator, 773 unbound numbers, from 1820 to 1863; Owego Gazette, 204 unbound numbers, from 1931 to 1937; Owego Times, 313 unbound numbers, from 1929 to 1936; Salem, Mass. Literary and Commercial Observer, one bound volume, 1825 to 1827.

READERS DIVISION

The Associate Librarian, in charge of the Reading Room and of Inter-library Loans, reports:

The extraordinary demands on the library's system of circulation that became immediately evident at the beginning of the autumn term in November strained to the breaking point the facilities of the delivery desk. A system which provided only one desk with two stations for the issue of all books, whether from the reserve or from the stacks, had served the needs of readers for more than fifty years without actually breaking down. Its deficiencies were always evident, and with the greatly increased load they became intolerable. In this crisis the university took speedy action. Funds were provided for alterations and for added personnel. The Department of Buildings and Grounds acted with dispatch and in the Christmas vacation built a new desk and book-presses of a design and finish in accord with the rest of the reading room. For the complicated processes of setting up the new reserve, the division was so fortunate as to find available two former library employees, Mr. Arthur Kulp and Mr. Carlyle Stickler. Their work on the now segregated reserve has disclosed statistical and other information that will be of use to both library and faculty. The desk was opened on January 14. The statistics of use that follow disclose the increased demand, though not fully, for at the old desk during November and December the crowds were so great that full statistics were not kept.

GIFTS

The library finds encouragement year after year in the numbers of those who give it their support. There have been this year 616 donors. Most numerous among them are our own faculty members—66 of them this year. Of their gifts the largest is that of Vice President Sabine, 769 books and 309 pamphlets in the fields of philosophy and political theory. Of these some were old, rare, and important 17th and 18th century titles that were new to us. Many others went to our shelves as new titles, as additional copies, or to replace lost or wornout copies. As last year we have again to thank Professor Stainton for his foresight and enterprise in preserving and presenting to the library many copies of American soldiers' newspapers as well as a remarkable group of items of German propaganda in occupied countries.

The influence of the Cornell University Library Associates is growing and reaching more and more of our alumni who are interested in books. Mr. I. E. Chadwick

'05, has given us five books, all but one of them of the 16th and 17th centuries, one very rare, one an edition of Erasmus that our library which is strong in the works of that author, has hitherto lacked. The gifts from the Associates themselves are: Papin, La Manière d'amolir les os; Ellis, Historical Account of Coffee; Horn Papers, three volumes; Iles, Major Elijah. Sketches of Early Life and Times in Kentucky, Missouri, and Illinois, 1883; The Irish Citizen, 1-5, New York, 1867-72; Cincinnati Journal and Western Luminary, 1833-37, two volumes. Besides these, we have to note and acknowledge the appearance of the first number of their publication "The Bulletin" issued in the service of the library and its best interests. Edited by Professor Lange, its initial article by Professor Adelman is the best possible statement of the present position of this library and of its needs. The library news and the news of the Collection of Regional History and of the Architectural Library is most useful and illuminating. The special articles are interesting and worthy of the enterprise.

We are indebted as we have been for years past to Dr. Liberty Hyde Bailey of whose scholarly Gentes Herbarum we have received this year Volume 5, fasc. 9 and 10 and Volume 7, fasc. 1; and to Dr. G. D. Harris for his Bulletins of American Paleontology, the current number 116.

The royalties on President Day's book Statistical Analysis continue to be added to the library's book funds.

Professor and Mrs. Harold L. Reed established in 1944 with a gift of $1000, of which the income has now come to us, a fund in memory of their son, 1st Lt. Kenneth O. Reed, who was killed in action, the fund to be used preferably for books in economics.

From our alumni and others closely connected with the university many gifts are to be recorded.

Mr. Victor Emanuel '19 has provided 67 books to be added to the Wordsworth Collection; forty letters, four of them by Wordsworth, the rest dealing with Wordsworth and Coleridge; an original holograph manuscript signed by Wordsworth of his poem The Sage and the Dove.

From Mrs. Louise F. Peirce we have received her customary cash donation. Dr. Henry P. de Forest, '84, 66 books and pamphlets chiefly additions to his already considerable gifts on dactyloscopy. From Mrs. S. H. Gage, '18, 91 books, including those needed to complete our collection of editions of the late Professor Simon H. Gage's book The Microscope.

Mrs. Orrin Leslie Elliott, who was Miss Ellen Coit Brown, '82 has enriched our archives with a collection in print, manuscript, and personal letters, dealing fully with an incident in the early history of women at Cornell, and providing by the way much background and local color on the contemporary scene.

Mr. Robert V. Morse, '11 has given us his book V. D.'s Stories which is a piquant contribution to Cornell and Ithaca history. Mr. Carter R. Kingsley, '96 has kept up his annual contributions that go back for so many years with the gift of a most interesting 16th century book. Mrs. J. H. Tanner and Miss Augusta Williams gave us a collection of 275 books and 375 pamphlets. The pamphlets especially are of great interest and deal with the early history of Cornell, of Ithaca, and of New York State.

Mrs. William F. E. Gurley has continued the donations, which, begun years ago by her late husband and herself, have year after year enriched the library's collections. The 62 books that form her gift for this year, represent various fields, but most of them are collections of the work of etchers and engravers in published, unpublished, and extra-illustrated volumes, together with an appendix of her own making, listing and identifying artists.

By bequest of Charles R. Cameron, '98 we received a most unusual collection of 345 books, chiefly in linguistics, among which are largely represented various unusual languages of the Philippines and other Pacific islands.

From Mr. Charles D. Osborn of Auburn, we have received 84 volumes of the Auburn Daily Advertiser, 1846-1929, and 8 volumes of the Auburn Journal, 1846 to 1913.

Sixty-nine very useful books in various fields have come to us by the gift of the Army Service Library in Utica.

The university with a view to encourage the development of Indic Studies in the College of Arts and Sciences is giving its support to the formation of a collection on India in the library. The considerable collection on China founded here by the late Charles William Wason, '76 and generously endowed by him, already provides for the Far East. The India collection will be a natural extension of the field and the two may very well be complementary. Already interested donors have come forward and we have to record the following gifts: Miss Josephine MacLeod, $1075 and some books; Mrs. G. J. Watumul for the Watumul Foundation, $250; Mrs. Edna Purcell, $50; and Mrs. Mabel M. Hammond, $25.

E. R. B. WILLIS,
Acting Librarian.
