INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC" or "Commission") and Defendant Clougherty Packing Company, d/b/a Farmer John, ("Farmer John ") hereby stipulate and agree to entry of this Consent Decree to resolve the Commission's Complaint (the "Complaint"), filed under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. ("Title VII"). This Consent Decree resolves all issues raised by the EEOC in the present lawsuit involving the Charging Party, Donnie Gaut, ("Charging Party") and the additional Claimants, including Chris Allen, Gilbert Dawson, Kenneth Dawson, Dawed Seid, Robin Griggs, and Samuel White, (the "other Claimants"). (The "Claimants" refers to both Charging Party and the other Claimants unless otherwise specified).

II.

PURPOSES AND SCOPE OF THE CONSENT DECREE

A. The parties to this Consent Decree ("Decree") are EEOC and Farmer John. The scope of this Decree includes Farmer John's operations at its Los Angeles, California facility. This Decree shall be binding on and enforceable against Farmer John and its officers, directors, agents, successors and assigns, and against the Commission for the effective period of the Decree as noted in section V.

B. The parties have entered into this Decree for the following purposes:

1. To provide relief agreed upon through settlement for the Claimants;
2. To ensure that Farmer John's employment practices to comply with federal law;
3. To avoid expensive and protracted costs incident to litigation; and,
4. To provide a final and binding settlement upon the parties as to all claims alleged by the Commission in the Complaint filed in this action.

III.

RELEASE OF CLAIMS

A. This Decree fully and completely resolves all issues, claims, and allegations made by the EEOC against Farmer John that are raised in the Complaint filed in this action in the United States District Court, Central District of California on September 28, 2004, captioned U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission v. Clougherty Packing Company d/b/a Farmer John and DOES 1 to 10, Inclusive, Case No. CV 04-8051 GAF (PLAx).

B. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to preclude either party from bringing suit to enforce this Decree in the event that any party hereto fails to perform the promises and representations contained herein.

C. Nothing in this Decree shall be construed to limit or reduce Farmer John's obligation to comply fully with Title VII or any other federal employment statute.

D. This Decree in no way affects the EEOC's right to bring, process, investigate, or litigate other charges that may be in existence or may later arise against Farmer John in accordance with standard EEOC procedures.

E. The existence of this Consent Decree or settlement of the claims in the Commission's Complaint, in general, may not be construed in any way as an admission of any liability on Farmer John's part.

IV.

JURISDICTION

A. The Court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter of this lawsuit pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 451, 1331, 1337, 1345, 1367 and 42 U.S.C. § 2000e-5(f). The Complaint asserts claims that, if proven, would authorize the Court to grant the equitable relief set forth in this Decree. The terms and provisions of this Decree are fair, reasonable, and just. This Decree conforms with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Title VII and is not in derogation of the rights or privileges of any

1 person. The entry of this Decree will further the objectives of Title VII and will be in
2 the best interests of Farmer John, the Commission, and those for whom the
3 Commission alleges relief is appropriate (the Claimants).

4 B. The Court shall retain jurisdiction of this action during the duration of the 5 Decree for the purposes of entering all orders, judgments and decrees that may be
6 necessary to implement the relief provided herein.

7 V.

8 EFFECTIVE DATE AND DURATION OF DECREE

9 A. The provisions and agreements contained herein are effective
10 immediately upon the date which this Decree is entered by the Court ("the Effective 11 Date").

12 B. The duration of this Consent Decree shall be four years from the date of 13 the Effective Date.

14 VI.

15 MODIFICATION AND SEVERABILITY

16 A. This Decree constitutes the parties' complete understanding with respect
17 to the matters contained herein. By the parties' mutual agreement, this Decree may be 18 amended or modified in the interests of justice and fairness in order to effectuate the 19 provisions of the Decree. No waiver, modification, or amendment of any provision
20 of this Decree will be effective unless made in writing and signed by an authorized
21 representative of each of the parties.

22 B. If one or more provisions of the Decree are rendered unlawful or 23 unenforceable, the parties shall make good faith efforts to agree upon appropriate
24 amendments to this Decree in order to effectuate the purposes of the Decree. In any 25 event, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect unless the purposes
26 of the Decree cannot, despite the parties' best efforts, be achieved.

VII.

COMPLIANCE AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

A. The parties expressly agree that if the Commission has a reason to believe that Farmer John has failed to comply with any provision of this Consent Decree, the Commission may file a motion before this Court to enforce the Decree. Prior to initiating such action, the Commission will notify Farmer John and its legal counsel of record, in writing, of the nature of the dispute. This notice shall specify the particular provision(s) that the Commission believes has/have potentially been breached. Absent a showing by either party that the delay will cause irreparable harm, Farmer John shall have thirty (30) days to attempt to resolve or cure the breach in a manner satisfactory to both parties.

B. The parties agree to cooperate with each other and use their best efforts to resolve any dispute referenced in the EEOC notice.

C. After thirty days have passed with no resolution or agreement to extend the time further, the Commission may petition this Court for resolution of the dispute, seeking all available relief, including an extension of the term of the Decree for such period of time as Farmer John is shown to be in breach of the Decree and the Commission's costs incurred in securing compliance with the Decree.

VIII.

MONETARY RELIEF

Farmer John, in settlement of this dispute, shall pay to the Charging Party and the Claimants the following amounts as provided herein.

A. Farmer John shall pay a total of $ 110,000.00 as alleged damages to the Claimants. Within ten business days after the Effective Date, Farmer John shall mail to the Commission at the address listed above, via certified mail, checks payable to the Claimants and to be apportioned in the following manner:

5.	Dawed Seid	$10,000
6.	Robin Griggs	$10,000
7.	Samuel White	$10,000

As the parties agree that the $110,000.00 total payment represents compensatory damages under Title VII, Farmer John is not required to make any employer contributions, except that it must issue 1099 forms or the equivalent as required by law for the payment made to each Claimant. These Form 1099s will also be distributed to the Commission upon issuance.

C. A copy of the checks and accompanying transmittal papers shall be contemporaneously forwarded to the EEOC. The EEOC shall provide Farmer John with valid addresses for each Claimant to allow Farmer John to transmit the checks and Form 1099s accurately. NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYEES

This Notice is being posted pursuant to a Consent Decree voluntarily entered into by Clougherty Packing Company, d/b/a Farmer John, ("Farmer John") and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") and approved by the United States District Court for the Central District of California..

The EEOC has alleged that Farmer John failed to hire African-American applicants because of their race in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 ("Title VII"). Farmer John denies the allegations.

To resolve the lawsuit in lieu of expending further resources, the parties have entered into a Consent Decree which requires, among other things, that Farmer John:

- 1) provide periodic reports to the EEOC regarding hiring; and
- 2) provide training to its managerial employees regarding discrimination law.

The EEOC enforces the federal laws against discrimination in employment on the basis of disability, race, color, religion, national origin, sex, pregnancy, and age. If you believe you have been discriminated against, you may contact the EEOC at 255 E. Temple Street, 4th Floor, Los Angeles, CA; (213) 894-1000; or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing (DFEH) at (213) 439-6799. The EEOC charges no fees and has employees who speak languages other than English.

No action may be taken against you by any management official of Farmer John for: (1) opposing practices made unlawful by federal law, (2) filing a charge or assisting or participating in the filing of a charge of discrimination, or (3) assisting or participating in an investigation brought under Title VII. Should any such retaliatory actions be taken against you, you may contact the EEOC or the DFEH at the address listed above.

THIS IS AN OFFICIAL NOTICE AND MUST NOT BE DEFACED BY ANYONE

This Notice must remain posted for two (2) years from the date below and must not be altered, defaced, or covered by any other material.
