On July 1, 1977 the Auburn Police Local 195, Council 82, AFSCME, AFL-CIO (Local 195) filed a Motion with us for reconsideration of the decision and order we issued in this case on June 2, 1977. In that decision and order we determined that Local 195 had violated its duty to negotiate in good faith by improperly insisting upon the submission to arbitration of demands relating to "Discipline and Discharge", a matter covered by §75 of the Civil Service Law. The basis for this determination was our conclusion that "The statutory provisions relating to removal and other disciplinary proceedings are preemptive of the subject matter and are not open to collective negotiation."

Local 195's Notice of Motion states that our decision "is based upon an error of law and misapprehension as to material and relevant facts which would be determinative of the outcome of this proceeding." In support of the Motion, Local 195 submits an affidavit which is actually a memorandum of law.

When the original case was submitted to us, we were concerned about the complexity of the legal issue involved. Finding that the parties' memoranda of law were not sufficiently helpful, we requested supplemental briefs and invited them to present oral argument. Having been unsuccessful in persuading us in its original memorandum of law, supplemental brief and oral argument, Local 195 now seeks an opportunity to reargue its position. We deny this motion.

In Matter of Binghamton Firefighters, 9 PERB §3078, we said:

"Reconsideration of a quasi-judicial determination by an administrative agency is an unusual procedure (see New York Jurisprudence, Vol. 1, Administrative Law, §§155, 156 and 157). None of these circumstances that would permit such reconsideration are present in the instant case." What was said in that case is applicable here.

ACCORDINGLY, the Motion for Reconsideration is denied.
