3.1.2 No provision in this Agreement shall be interpreted to require the Union to process a grievance of an employee at any stage of the Grievance procedure if the Union considers the grievance to be without merit.

3.2 Definitions

3.2.1 "Employee" shall mean any person employed by the Albany Police Department covered by this Agreement.

3.2.2 “Grievance” shall mean any disputed matter pertaining to conditions of employment, including the meaning, application and interpretation of this Agreement.

3.2.3 “Immediate Supervisor” shall mean the officer of the next higher level of authority who normally supervises the employee’s work and approved his time record or evaluates his work performance.

3.3 Matters Relevant to Grievance Procedures

3.3.1 The time limits set forth in Article 3 and 4 are of the essence. They may, however, be extended by mutual agreement of the parties. The failure of the Union to proceed within the time limits set forth shall terminate the grievance at that step. The failure of the Employer to respond within the time limits set forth will entitle the Union to proceed to the next step of the grievance procedure.

3.3.2 Any step of the grievance procedure may be bypassed by mutual agreement, in writing.

3.3.3 In the case of a group, policy or organization type grievance, the grievance may be submitted directly to the Chief of Police, or to his designee.

3.3.4 A grievance must be originally presented in writing within fifteen (15) work days of its occurrence or within fifteen (15) work days of when the Union or the Employer should have had knowledge of its occurrence.

3.4 Union Stewards and Representatives

3.4.1 Employees selected by the Union to act as Union representative shall be known as “Stewards”. The names of employees selected as Stewards, and the names of other Union officers and representatives who may represent employees, shall be certified in writing to the Chief by the Local Union President, and shall be updated as changes occur.

3.4.2 At Steps 1 and 2 of the grievance procedure, Union Stewards and authorized Union officers shall have the right to investigate and process grievances for reasonable periods of time during their regular working hours without loss of pay. Unless otherwise impractical, the appropriate Union Steward shall investigate and process grievances at these steps. Employees seeking release time to process a grievance must receive permission from their Unit Commander. Permission shall be granted unless such leave shall cause serious interference with operations of the Unit. Should such occur, arrangements shall be made to relieve such Union representatives as soon as possible.

3.4.3 The Grievance Committee Chairman, the aggrieved employee, and necessary witnesses shall suffer no loss of time or pay, or be required to charge accrued leave credits as the result of time spent in attending grievance arbitrations during their regular hours.

3.5 Rights of the Parties

3.5.1 Either party may inspect and copy, upon written request, any written statements of witnesses or records which are relevant to the grievance and which are in the possession of the other party in advance of the date of such hearing and no later than five workdays from the request. The parties will acknowledge in writing receipt of these materials.

3.6 Grievance Procedure

3.6.1 Prior to initiating a formal written grievance pursuant to this Article, the employee or the Union is encouraged to resolve to resolve disputes subject to this Article informally by reviewing them with the appropriate immediate supervisor.

Step 1: The Union Steward, or other authorized representative of the Union, with or without the grievant, shall submit the grievance in writing on a form provided by the Union, setting forth the facts of the grievance and the relief sought to the appropriate Division or Unit Head. The Division or Unit Head shall investigate the grievance and may hold a meeting with the authorized representative of the Union, and shall, in any case, render his decision in writing within five (5) work days of the receipt of the written grievance from the Union, to the Union Steward or other authorized representative of the Union, whichever the case may be.

Step 2: If the grievance is not settled at Step 1 within the time limits set forth above, the grievance may be submitted within ten (10) work days of the date such decision is received by the Local Union President or his authorized representative to the Chief of Police, or his designee. A meeting shall be held between the Chief of Police, or his designee, and the Union Grievance Committee not later than five (5) work days after the date the grievance is submitted at this step. The Chief of Police, or his designee, shall transmit to the Union Grievance Committee Chairman his decision in writing on any grievance matter within five (5) work days after that such meeting was held.

Step 3: If the grievance is not settled at Step 2, the Union may, within fifteen (15) work days of receipt of the decision of the Police Chief, or his designee, refer grievance to arbitration.

3.7 Arbitration Procedure

3.7.1 Should the Union desire that an unresolved grievance be submitted to arbitration, the notice of the demand for arbitration, together with the copy of the grievance, shall be sent by the Union by registered or certified mail to the Corporation Counsel of the City of Albany and to the Public Employment Relations Board, who shall select the arbitration according to the provisions of 3.7.2.

3.7.2 Each member of the arbitration panel shall be assigned a number in rotation. 3.7.4 No arbitrator functioning under this step shall have the power to amend, modify or delete any provision of this Agreement. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding of both parties.

3.7.5 The expenses and fees of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties. Arbitrators selected for the permanent panel shall agree to a seventy-two (72) hour cancellation or adjournment notice without charge.

3.7.6 Appendix "A" to this contract constitutes the permanent arbitration panel. There shall be a review of Appendix "A" for any additions or deletions as requested by either party.

4.1 Exercise of Rights

4.1.1 No permanent employee shall be disciplined or otherwise removed except in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

4.1.2 An employee against whom a disciplinary action or measure is pending may elect to follow Sections 75 and 76 of the Civil Service Law or the procedure set forth hereunder. The employee's selection of one shall preclude the use of the other.

4.1.3 The parties to this Agreement recognize that a certain amount of discipline is necessary for the efficiency of the operation of the Department. It is therefore agreed that the following disciplinary measures may be imposed on the employee for misconduct or incompetence:

- Oral Reprimand/Warning
- Written Reprimand/Warning
- Loss of Leave Credits
- Suspension Without Pay
- Demotion
- Discharge

4.1.4 The Commanding Officer may impose summary discipline for the violation of the following rules and regulations:

- a. Absent Over Leave
- b. Absent Without Leave
- c. Grooming Code
- d. Uniform or Dress Code
- e. Any and All Offenses by Agreement of the Parties in Writing

The procedure for Commanding Officer discipline shall be:

- For the first incident, the discipline shall be an oral reprimand;
- For the second incident, occurrence within a reasonable period but not to exceed ninety (90) days, the discipline shall be a written reprimand.
- For a third incident, occurrence within a reasonable period but not to exceed ninety (90) days, the discipline shall be a suspension or loss of leave credits of up to three (3) work days.

4.1.5 The procedure of 4.1.4 is optional, but shall be encouraged to correct deficiencies in an employee's work habits. If formal written charges are filed pursuant to this Article, the formal disciplinary procedure set forth in this Article shall be followed. The Union will be given a copy of any actions taken under this Section.

4.1.6 Any discipline administered pursuant to the procedure set forth in 4.1.4 shall be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure. An employee shall be entitled to Union representation during all stages of the disciplinary process.

4.1.7 Whenever the Employer seeks imposition of discipline beyond the Commanding Officer level, the employee shall be served with a written notice of specific charges being brought against him and the proposed penalty. The notice of discipline shall contain a detailed description of the charges, including dates, times and places. A copy of the charges shall be sent to the Union at the same time it is sent to the employees.

4.1.8 No disciplinary action or measure beyond Step 2 of 4.1.4 shall imposed upon an employee prior to the exhaustion of the appeal procedure set forth herein. An employee may, however, be suspended without pay pending the outcome of such proceedings only if the Employer determines that there is probable cause to believe that the employee's continued presence on the job represents an actual danger to persons or property, or would severely interfere with operations. Suspensions without pay may not exceed thirty (30) calendar days. An employee shall not be entitled to pay, however, during any period in which the Union or the employee is not ready to proceed, or the hearing is adjourned at the request of the Union or the employee, or the Union or the employee obtain a stay of arbitration. If the employee is suspended without pay, the determination shall be reviewable by an arbitrator. Before any suspension begins, the disciplined employee, upon request, will be allowed to discuss the matter with his Union Steward or other authorized representative of the Union before he may be required to leave the premises or his duty assignment. The Employer will make an area available for this purpose. Disciplinary charges shall be served within ten (10) work days of any official verbal notification.

The demand for arbitration filed by the Union shall list two separate proposed dates for the arbitration hearing during a period from fourteen (14) calendar days to and including thirty-five (35) calendar days from the date of filing its demand. Within seven (7) calendar days from the receipt of the demand, the City shall select one of the proposed dates.

The Public Employment Relations Board, the contractual arbitration agency, shall select, in rotating order from the mutually selected panel of arbitrators, the arbitrator whose place on the panel entitles him or her to hear the case. If he or she is not available on such date, PERB, with reasonable dispatch, shall canvass the remaining members of the panel in their regular rotation until one of the arbitrators is available on the date selected for the hearing.

4.2 Appeals Procedure

4.2.1 An employee against whom disciplinary charges are brought shall have the right to appeal such action. Upon receipt of such notification, an employee shall have eight (8) calendar days to file with the Chief of Police a written response to the charges, a copy of which shall be sent to the Union. The employee, in his response, may deny the charges, may admit the charges and accept the penalty proposed, or admit the charges but reject the penalty proposed. Should the employee deny the charges, or admit the charges but reject the penalty proposed, he shall also include in his response whether he desires to utilize Sections 75 and 76 of the Civil Service Law or the procedures set forth in this Article, and whether he desires to be represented by the Union or his own attorney.

4.2.2 Except as provided in 4.1.4 of this Article, it is understood that any penalty proposed may not be implemented until the employee:

- a) fails to file a response within eight (8) calendar days of the service of notification of discipline, or

- b) having filed a disciplinary grievance response, fails to file a timely appeal to arbitration, or request for a Civil Service hearing, whichever the case may be, or
- c) having appealed to arbitration, until and to the extent that it is upheld by a disciplinary arbitrator.

4.2.3 In any case where an employee, in his response to the charges, disagrees with the penalty proposed or denies the charges brought against him, the Chief of Police, or his designee, shall meet with the Union Grievance Committee within ten (10) work days of receipt of the employee's response in an effort to resolve the matter. Any settlement shall be reduced to writing. Under no circumstances may an employee be required to execute a settlement without being afforded a reasonable opportunity to have a representative of the Union or his own attorney present. A copy of any settlement shall be provided to the Union.

4.2.4 If the matter is not resolved at the meeting with the Chief of Police or his designee, then the employee, within ten (10) work days of the date the meeting is held, may file for arbitration as provided for under Article 3.7 of this Agreement, or request a Civil Service hearing, whichever the case may be.

4.2.5 Disciplinary arbitrators shall confine themselves to determinations of whether an employee is guilty or innocent of the charges being brought against him, and whether the proposed penalty is arbitrary or capricious. Such arbitrator shall neither add to, subtract from, nor modify any provisions of this Agreement. The disciplinary arbitrator's decision with respect to guilt or innocence, penalty, or probable cause for suspension pursuant to 4.1.3 of this Article, shall be final and binding upon the parties. If the arbitrator, upon review, finds probable cause for the suspension, he may consider such suspension in determining whether the proposed penalty is arbitrary.

4.2.6 In a disciplinary arbitration, the burden of proving the employee's guilt by preponderance of evidence shall be that of the Employer.

4.2.7 Upon request of either party, the disciplinary arbitrator shall schedule a pre-hearing conference reasonable in advance of the arbitration date.

4.3 Rights of the Parties

4.3.1 Either party may inspect and copy, upon written request or recorded oral statements of witnesses or records which are relevant to the disciplinary charges and which are in the possession of the other party, in advance of the date of such proceeding and no later than 5 workdays from the request. The parties will acknowledge in writing receipt of these materials.

4.3.2 The Grievance Committee Chairman, the Local Union President, or his designee, that aggrieved employee, and necessary employee witness, shall not suffer any loss of time or pay, or be required to charge accrued leave credits as the result of time spent in any disciplinary hearing or arbitration proceeding during their regular working hours.

4.3.3 No employee shall be coerced or intimidated, or suffer any reprisal, either directly or indirectly, including changes that may adversely affect his hours, wages or working conditions, as the result of his exercising the rights guaranteed by this Agreement.

4.3.4 Work shirt changes or reassignments shall not be considered a disciplinary measure but may be made by the Chief, or his designee, in the exercise of his sound discretion, pending the determination of serious disciplinary charges.

4.3.5 No employee shall be brought up on disciplinary charges for acts which occurred more than one (1) year prior to the serving of disciplinary charges upon him, except that the above limit shall not apply to acts which, if proved in a court of appropriate jurisdiction, would constitute of crime.

4.3.6 Time Out on Suspension

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections 10.1.1, 12.1.3, 13.1.2 and 17.1.3 of this Agreement, the bargaining unit members shall not accrue vacation credits or receive roll call pay, holiday pay, and uniform cleaning allowance for any period of time during which the bargaining unit member is out on suspension pending the outcome of criminal charges and/or internal departmental charges. In the event that the bargaining unit member should be subsequently be found not guilty of all pending criminal charges and departmental charges related to the suspension, then he or she shall be reimbursed for that portion of the vacation credits, roll call pay, holiday pay, and uniform cleaning allowance not paid during the suspension.

6.1.2 No letter of criticism, poor evaluation, or any other document which is derogatory in nature may be placed in an employee's official personnel file without the employee first having an opportunity to review such action. Should an employee, upon review of such action, disagree with all or part of any such letter, he shall have the right to place a response into his personnel file and seek removal of any or part of the document by filing a grievance, which may be processed to the third step of the grievance procedure.

6.1.3 When the Employer receives any letter of commendation or evaluation, it shall be placed in the official personnel file, and the employee involved shall receive a copy at the same time.

ARTICLE 7 – DEPARTMENTAL RULES, REGULATIONS AND PROCEDURES

7.1.1 The Employer agrees that all present work rules and regulations and the standard operating procedures of the Albany Police Department are subject to review by the joint Labor/Management Committee.

7.1.2 Such rules and regulations and standard operating procedures shall be reduced to writing and distributed to all employees.

Should there be any doubt as to the employee's obligation, he shall comply with the rules and grieve if he feels he has been wronged.

ARTICLE 8 – SENIORITY

8.1 Definition

8.1.1 Seniority shall be defined to mean an employee's continuous length of service in rank as a full time employee with the Albany Police Department since his last date of hire, and shall apply to all benefits provided by this Agreement; however, when an employee holds the title of Detective, only his length of service in title may be counted for the purpose of shift preference or duty assignment within the Detective Office. Should a tie occur among employees, it shall be broken by first considering the highest score on the Civil Service List from which the appointment was made. If a tie remains, it shall be broken by considering the employee's total length of service with the Albany Police Department. If a tie still remains, it shall be broken by Academy ranking. Notwithstanding these tie-breaking procedures, if a tie exists between a lateral transfer and an academy recruit who were hired by the City on the same day, the tie shall be broken by granting preference to the officer with the greater prior full-time service as police officer. The provisions for tie-breaking between a lateral transfer and a new hire and between two lateral transfers shall be effective only for hirings which occur after the execution of this contract.

8.1.2 An employee's seniority will continue to accrue during any period of absence brought about as a result of a service incurred disability or any other paid or unpaid approved leave of absence, except as may otherwise be limited elsewhere in this Agreement or by state or federal law.

8.2 Seniority List

8.2.1 Every six (6) months, the Employee agrees to furnish the Local Union an up-to-date seniority list showing the continuous service of each employee. The seniority list will show the name, job classification, employment status and date of hire of each employee.

8.3 Breaks in Continuous Service

8.3.1 For the purpose of seniority, an employee's continuous service record shall be broken by voluntary resignation, discharge for just cause and retirement. However, if an employee returns to work in any capacity in the bargaining unit within one (1) year, the break shall not constitute an interruption of continuous service for the purpose of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 9 – WORK FORCE CHANGES

9.1 Filling of Vacancies in Positions of Detective Sergeant, Detective Lieutenant and Other Non-Competitive Titles

9.1.1 Whenever a permanent opening or vacancy occurs in Detective Office for the position of Detective Sergeant or Detective Lieutenant, or as a result of the development of establishment of a new non-competitive job classification, whether such positions are higher paying or not, a notice of such opening or vacancy shall be posted on all Department bulletin boards. The notice shall state job title, number of openings, job description, rate of pay, minimum requirements necessary and desired qualifications. Such notifications shall be posted for a period of ten (10) work days. It is the responsibility of the Employer to notify employees on vacation or sick leave of said posting within five (5) work days.

9.1.2 An employee wishing to apply for the open position may submit an application in writing to the Chief no later than ten (10) work days after the job opening was first posted or, of circumstances so necessitate, within the shorter period provided for in 9.1.1. The application shall contain any information requested by the notice and any other information the applicant feels is relevant. Applications not received by the Chief by the expiration date of the posting period shall be disqualified.

9.1.3 The Employer shall fill such job openings from among those employees who have applied, who meet the standards of the job requirements. If there is more than one (1) employee who is equally qualified for the job, then such position shall be filled by selecting from among those equally qualified the employee with the greatest seniority. If not employee has bid, or the Employer determines that no bidder has the appropriate qualifications, the opening may be filled by the Chief in a manner he deems appropriate. The job vacated by a successful bidder shall be filled according to the provisions of this Article. Disputes over selection made by the Chief's selections shall be subject to the grievance procedure only on the question of whether the Chief's selections were arbitrary and capricious. Selections for job openings shall be made within ten (10) calendar days of the expiration of the bidding.

9.1.4 A notice listing those employees who have applied for the position and the employees selected for the position shall be posted by the Employer on all Department bulletin boards within two (2) work days of the selection by the Employer, and such posting shall be for a period of at least two (2) weeks. The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to transfer the successful bidder within thirty (30) calendar days of selection. If the transfer is not made within the thirty (30) calendar days, he or she will be notified in writing of the reasons therefore.

9.1.5 Any employee selected for a position in accordance with the procedure set forth above shall undergo a trial period of a minimum of thirty (30) calendar days, but in no case to exceed ninety (90) calendar days. If, after the time permitted, the Employer determines such employee cannot carry out the responsibilities of the position for which he was selected, or the employee voluntarily relinquishes such position, the said employee shall be restored to his former position and former assignment, if the assignment is still available. The open position will then be offered to the employee who was next on the list of those who had qualified during the original bidding period. A successful bidder who has satisfied the trial period or who is still in the trial period may not bid again until a minimum of twelve (12) months have passed from the date of his selection. This requirement may be waived at the discretion of the Chief.

9.1.6 It is agreed that the Union Labor/Management Committee shall meet with the Employer for the purpose of discussing the establishment of job requirements and specifications for any positions presently in existence or to be created. The notice shall state the rank, job description, number of openings, minimum job requirements, desired special qualifications and person to whom the application should be submitted. The notice shall be posted for ten (1) work days, during which time an employee may submit his application. An application not received within the posting period shall be disqualified. It is the responsibility of the Employer to notify employees on vacations or sick leave of said postings within five (5) work days.

9.2.3 Openings within Division 1, Division 2 and Traffic shall be filled on the basis of seniority, provided the applicant has the ability to do the job.

9.2.4 Openings within any specialized units shall be based on qualifications, experience, prior work performance, special training or skills, and reasonable educational requirements applicable to the job. Where two (2) or more applicants are equally qualified, seniority shall govern.

9.2.5 Disputes concerning the application of this Section shall be subject to the grievance procedure only on the question of whether the Employer's decision was arbitrary and capricious.

9.2.6 A successful applicant may not apply for another opening within one (1) year of his selection.

9.2.7 If no employee applies for an opening covered by 9.2.3, then the opening shall be filled provisionally or by inverse seniority.

9.2.8 If no employee applies for an opening covered by 9.2.4, or no employee who applies is qualified, then the Employer may fill the opening by training the employee who most closely meets the qualification or according to the applicable provisions of the Civil Service Law.

9.2.9 The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to transfer the successful bidder within thirty (30) calendar days of selection. If the transfer is not made within the thirty (30) calendar days, he or she will be notified in writing of the reasons therefore.

Answers to such request shall be made within two (2) work weeks.

9.4.2 The Employer may, for reasons other than filling temporary openings, temporarily reassign an employee from one unit to another, provided the reason for such temporary reassignment is for a valid police purpose and is given to the employee. Where such reassignment does not involve a change in the duties of the employee involved, and if not made for special or extenuating reasons, the Employer shall transfer the least senior employee on the corresponding work shift in the unit from which the transfer is to be made.

9.4.3 Transfers from any unit for the purpose of decreasing that unit's strength shall be made on the basis of inverse seniority.

9.4.4 Employees transferred or reassigned to other positions with the Albany Police Department shall receive the necessary training and equipment to properly perform the duties assigned to them.

9.4.5 Employees shall be given at least seven (7) calendar days notice of transfer, unless there are emergency reasons for the transfer

9.5 Out-of-Title Work

9.5.1 Whenever it becomes necessary for the Employer, because of a temporary vacancy in a higher title or rank, to temporarily fill such positions with an employee in a lower title or rank, the filling of such temporary vacancy shall be made initially from among those employees in the immediate unit the temporary vacancy occurred, and the assignment shall be made on the basis of seniority, provided the employee is able to perform the work required. Any employee assigned to fill such temporary opening shall be paid the higher rate of pay established for the position he is temporarily filling.

An employee shall be given at least thirty (30) calendar days' notice that he is to be laid off.

9.8.2 When such action takes place, it shall be accomplished by laying off temporary employees first, provisional second, permanent contingent third, probationary fourth, and then permanent employees, all in the inverse of seniority.

9.8.3 All employees who have been laid off shall be placed on a recall list.

13.1.5 An employee who is on authorized absence due to a job-related illness or injury when his picked vacation is due, shall be allowed to select his vacation at a later date or be compensated for the credits, at the option of the Employer. If said employee subsequently retires without having returned to duty, he or she shall be compensated for the vacation time earned but not taken, in addition to his or her bank. Vacations shall not be rescheduled for bereavement or family illness leave.

13.2 Choice of Vacations Period

13.2.1 An employee shall be permitted to split his vacation into no more than five (5) periods of no less than four (4) days each. An employee may commence his vacation on any work day. Vacation selections for the coming year shall be made and posted prior to December 1st of each year.

13.2.6 Effective January 1, 2003, each employee, at their option, shall be allowed to place a maximum of twelve (12) vacation days on the books. In case of death, the employee's estate will receive full payment for all the deceased employee's accumulated vacation credits. No employee shall accrue vacation credits during any period of disciplinary suspension upon charges which ultimately result in his discharge.

13.4.2 A leave of absence without pay, or a resignation followed by reinstatement with the Albany Police Department within one (1) year, shall not constitute an interruption of service for the purpose of 13.1 and 13.2 of this Article. Vacation credits shall, however, not be accumulated during any leave of absence without pay or between any resignation and reinstatement.

13.3.4 Subject to the restriction contained in Section 13.2.2 and 13.2.3 of this Article, the permanent transfer or reassignment of an employee will not affect the vacation periods.

The leave shall be used for urgent personal matters which cannot be attended to outside the employee's work schedule. The employee shall give at least forty-eight (48) hours notice, in writing, to his superior, except where an emergency situation makes the giving of notice impossible. Such leave may be denied solely on the basis that the employee's absence will seriously hamper or impede the work of the Unit.

Unused personal leave shall be added to the employee's vacation credits to be used in the next calendar year.

14.2.2 An employee shall receive one (1) additional personal leave day for each one-third (1/3) of a calendar year in which he has no absences due to non-job related illness or injury. Such additional personal leave days may be used as vacation credits in the following year or taken in the year they are earned. An employee who has not been absent due to non-job related illness or injury during the entire calendar year shall be entitled to three (3) additional vacation credits in the following year.

14.2.3 Leave credits earned under 14.2.1 and 14.2.2 may be added to the vacation bank, but shall not be subject to the 45 day cap. Effective January 1, 2003 leave credits earned under 14.2.1 and 14.2.2 may be added to the vacation bank, but shall not be subject to the 60 day cap.

14.3 Civil Service Examinations

15.1.4 Maternity Leave

An employee who occupies a regular full-time position, will be granted maternity leave upon request. Such employee will be allowed to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position as long as she is medically able.

The employee is requested, but not required, to report to the Department Head the existence of pregnancy not later than the end of the fourth month of pregnancy.

On request and after filing appropriate medical evidence that such employee is unable to perform the duties of their position due to pregnancy, the employee will be placed on modified temporary duty. If the employee is medically unable to perform modified temporary duty, the employee may use sick leave credits to remain on the payroll at full pay. When all accrued sick leave, vacation, and personal leave credits have been exhausted, the employee will be eligible to receive half-pay for up to ten (10) weeks without charge to future accrued leave credits. After the period of half-pay has run out, the employee will be granted a leave of absence, without pay if necessary.

15.2 Reporting Time

15.2.1 An employee who, because of either job-related illness or injury, will not be able to report for his assigned work shift, shall personally report or have reported for him by another responsible person, if unable to do so, such inability to report for work to the ranking officer who is in command of his shift at least one (1) hour before his scheduled starting time, except if impractical. The employee shall disclose the nature of the illness or injury and the anticipated length of absence.

Work days interrupted by regularly scheduled days off shall be considered consecutive. Failure of an employee to submit such proof as requested shall cause such employee's period of absence to be considered time off without pay.

15.3.2 When an employee has used more than six (6) paid sick leave days in a calendar year, composed of 1, 2, or 3 day segments which do not require a confirmation by a certificate of a physician, the employee may be required to produce for any future payment of sick leave for the remainder of that calendar year a physician's certificate attesting to such inability to work, regardless of the length of the illness.

15.3.3 In the event that an illness or injury exceeds thirty (30) calendar days, or the Employer has good reason to believe that an employee is no longer physically able to continue in his regular duties, or doubles the validity of his absence, the Employer may require a full physical examination by a physician selected by the Employer and at the Employer's expense.

15.3.4 Should a disagreement arise between the Employer's physician and the employee's physician over the physical fitness of an employee to continue in his job duties, then a third physician mutually agreed upon and selected by the two (2) physicians shall make the final determination. The full cost of the third physician shall be borne by the Employer.

15.3.5 Where it has been found that a claim for sick leave is false or that the physician's certification of illness or injury is fraudulent, pay for the absence will not be made and the employee may be subject to disciplinary action.

15.3.6 For purposes of this Article, the term "physician" shall apply to any doctor of medicine, dentistry, chiropractic or osteopathy licensed to practice in New York State.

15.4 Service Related Injury and Illness

15.4.1 An employee who is injured in the performance of his duties or who is taken sick as the result of the performance of his duties so as to necessitate medical or other lawful remedial treatment shall be paid by the Employer the full amount of his regular salary or wages until his disability arising therefrom has ceased, and, in addition, the Employer shall be liable for all medical treatment and hospital care necessitated by reason of such injury or illness.

15.5 Modified Temporary Duty

15.5.1 Purpose

Because of the nature of police work, there are and apparently always will be Police Officers who are medically designated as incapable of performing their full duties as Patrol Officers, Detectives or Supervisors. This program is designed to both utilize to the maximum the manpower of the Albany Police Department, and to provide alternative work circumstances for those officers who, because of job-related or personal injury or illness, are found temporarily incapable of full duty.

15.5.2 What is Modified Temporary Duty?

Modified Temporary Duty can be any job within the Department that may be performed by an Officer who is designated as not being fit for full duty but can perform the functions of the available position in a controlled environment.

15.5.3 How Will Modified Temporary Duty be Managed?

When any of those Officers, Detectives or Supervisors are cleared by their physician and the Department physician to perform modified duty, the officer will automatically be reassigned to Headquarters as a candidate for modified duty assignment. Any personnel reassigned for modified duty will be utilized where and when needed throughout the Department in functions compatible with their condition and based on Departmental need on a temporary basis. All assignments under the program will be made in agreement with the Albany Police Officers Union. The Department is not obligated to provide a Modified Temporary Duty assignment to any employee if one is not available.

The actual process of matching officers with positions will be done by Headquarters, acting with Division and Unit Commanders, and in concert with the Departmental physician and an officer's private physician. The criteria considered in filling positions will be needs of the Department and the physician designated capabilities of officers. Commanders are urged to insure that areas being staffed by officers medically designated as less than full duty are also covered by full duty personnel where appropriate or necessary. In some instances, especially where officers are dealing with the public, such as the court or desk duty, a combination of full and modified duty officers would be appropriate staffing. Officer safety will, at all times, be a primary factor in the staffing decisions.

15.5.4 What Positions Can be Considered Modified Temporary Duty?

While it is not entirely possible to list all possible work a modified duty officer might be expected to perform; some thoughts on the subject have been stated below as examples: inside jobs that are presently assigned by supervisors on a rotating daily basis will be considered as suitable for an officer on modified duty who by medical designation may perform other than full duty. Jobs to be considered are desk duty in the Divisions, Traffic, and Detective Office. Officers assigned to court, Central Booking, and any others that may temporarily be filled by medically designated personnel, will also be considered. This initiative will not be used to displace Officers or Supervisors who have achieved positions through bid procedures. Example: Central Booking is a bid position. Officers who are medically designated may work in the Central Booking to fill occasional shift vacancies due to days off, vacation or other times of manpower shortage. With the exception of watching a prisoner one-on-one, no officer medically designated as not capable of full duty will be expected or allowed to work alone in Central Booking.

Further, there must be at least one officer on each tour of duty in the Booking Room who is a full duty officer. No officer assigned through bid to Central Booking will be assigned to any other duties to make room for a medically designated officer. In the event that there is a full compliment of assigned personnel working in the Booking Room, a medically designated officer may still be assigned, but will be so as an extra, not as a replacement.

15.5.5 Who is Eligible for Modified Temporary Duty?

Officers or Supervisors who are found to be medically incapable of full duty due to the non job-related illness or injuries are eligible for Modified Temporary Duty. The Employer may place employees who become partially disabled on a temporary basis as the result of a non-service connected illness or injury on work which they are able to perform, subject to the medical approval of the City Medical Officer and the employee's physician.

Officers or Supervisors who are designated as not being capable of performing their full duty because of a service-related illness or injury are also eligible for this program based on 207-c.

Officers assigned under this initiative will be subject to medical reevaluation every thirty (30) days or sooner at the discretion of the Division of Unit Commander.

In areas that are generally staffed by Detective personnel, no Detective allowance will be paid to medically designated officers unless officers unless they presently hold a Detective rating.

When an officer is determined fir for full duty by the Department physician and the physician involved, he/she will be rendered to their regular duties.

15.5.6 Off-Duty Employment

No police employee of the Albany Police Department shall engage in off duty employment while on job-related sick leave or personal sick leave in excess of three (3) consecutive work days or temporary modified duty unless certified to do so by a medical doctor. A modified duty/sick leave form must be submitted to your Commanding Officer. Any police employee violating the above order may be subject to disciplinary action.
