Sir:-

Your favor of the 23^d inst. at hand, and contents noted, also a Railroad distance circular, as mentioned therein.

This is being properly filled up and diagram made, which will be forwarded you within a few days.

The proposition contained in your paper in regard to postal service on our line of Railway from Saint Joseph to Atchison, is accepted. The mail car will be run, and mail carried at once, upon our being advised that you have issued the necessary orders therefor.

Very respectfully,

R. S. Stevens
