CASCADILLA SCHOOL

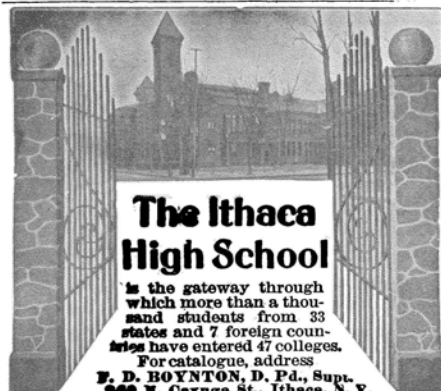

ITHACA, N. Y.

THE LOCATION of this institution commends itself to everyone familiar with the general healthfulness of the Central Lake Region of the Empire State. Added to this there is the educational atmosphere and stimulating influence of the great University under whose shadow Cascadilla lies. Here are two prerequisites of a good school, healthful location, intellectual environment. The proximity of Cornell University makes it natural that fully 80 per cent. of its graduates enter that institution.

Boys are prepared for all departments of Cornell in accordance with Cornell standards. The instruction is individual in its character, and each boy's course at the school is planned with reference to his particular needs.

As a separate house is provided for the members of each class, pupils are grouped in the residences according to their age and advancement in their studies.

FACULTY CHANGES.

W. H. Glasson to Take Professor Jenks's Place for a Year.

William Henry Glasson '96, of the faculty of Trinity College, Durham, N. C., has been appointed acting professor of economics and politics in this University for the year 1910-11. He will take the place of Professor J. W. Jenks during the absence of Professor Jenks, who will spend the year abroad. Mr. Glasson has been professor of political economy and social science in Trinity College since 1902. He is joint editor with Edwin Mims, Ph. D., '00, of the South Atlantic Quarterly, published at Durham.

The foregoing appointment and the following others were made at a meeting of the Executive Committee on May 17:

J. Bauer, assistant professor of economics (promoted).

Frederick M. Smith, Leslie N. Broughton and Frederick Peek, instructors in English.

R. Saby, instructor in economics.

E. H. Hollands, instructor in philosophy.

M. M. Goldberg, instructor in physics (promoted).

Fred MacAllister, instructor in botany.

H. W. Mayes and M. H. Givens, instructors in physiology and biochemistry (promoted).

John R. Knipping, assistant in mediæval history.

Ashbel S. Roberts, assistant in American history.

H. Lubin, assistant in economics.

W. G. Mallory, H. D. Ayres, C. C. Bidwell, J. W. Hornbeak, H. L. Howes and O. E. Buckley, assistants in physics.

H. P. Brown, Bascom B. Higgins and Emil G. Arzberger, assistants in botany.

H. M. Jennings and W. A. Verwiebe, assistants in the gymnasium.

J. A. Badertscher and P. E. Smith, assistants in histology and embryology.

W. E. Humphrey, assistant in architecture.

R. R. Birch, W. E. Fritz, and C. I. Corbin, student assistants in the veterinary college.

W. N. Barnard, secretary of Sibley college.

Dr. A. L. Andrews Going to Hawaii.

Dr. Arthur Lynn Andrews '93, an instructor in the department of English, has accepted an appointment as professor of English in the College of Hawaii, of which John W. Gilmore '98, is president. Dr. Andrews will leave Ithaca for Honolulu late next summer, and will take up his new duties in the fall. He took his Ph. D. at Cornell in 1902 and has been an instructor in English since 1901, with the exception of the year 1907-08, when he was secretary to the President.

A New Cornell Women's Club.

The "Cornell Women's Club of Cleveland" was organized on May 16 last. Membership is not limited to graduates, and Cornell women of neighboring towns are eligible. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. Charles R. Miller; vice-president, Miss Frances Seaton; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Willard Beahan. The club is affiliated with the Federation of Cornell Women's Clubs.

Bandhu Buys the Tanner House.

The Bandhu, a local fraternity, has purchased the home of Professor J. H. Tanner of the department of mathematics. The house is situated on Cornell Heights, within the street railway "loop," and has a fine outlook over the lake and valley. Professor Tanner has not announced his plans with regard to a home after next fall, when the society will take possession.

Sibley won the intercollege track meet last Friday. Civil Engineering, Arts, Agriculture, Law, Architecture and the Veterinary College finished in that order.

THE ENGLISH READINGS.

A Great Success in Sibley and the College of Agriculture.

With the approaching end of the term, the course of readings given by the English Department in Sibley College and the College of Agriculture is drawing to a close. The aim has been to inculcate an appreciation for the best in literature of every kind, and to bring to those who have the liking but not the opportunity a chance of listening to dramatic reading of works that are very seldom heard aloud.

The Sibley readings by Professor Martin W. Sampson are for Sibley men exclusively. The idea in restricting the audience to men has been to make the meetings less conventional. The students can come to the recitation room in which the readings are held in any dress they please. There is no shop work at that hour, and the men come in in their aprons, and smoke if they wish. The atmosphere is meant to be that of the club more than the class-room, and the audiences that have turned out show how much this attitude is appreciated. Professor Sampson has read specimens of almost every class of literature, from Shakespeare to W. W. Jacobs, from Plato to Bernard Shaw.

In the Agricultural readings given by Dr. Bailey, the audience has been of a more general nature and consequently the programs have been made somewhat more formal. Much attention has been paid to stories of country life, and the aim has always been to make the hour interesting as well as instructive.

Both of these courses will be continued next year, for the work they are doing is important. The department has recently received a communication from a Pacific coast college, showing great interest in the idea, and asking for programs that have been rendered during the past year.

LOUISIANA CORNELL CLUB.

Second Annual Banquet—Plan for a University Club of New Orleans.

The second annual banquet of the Cornell Club of Louisiana was held at the Old Hickory in New Orleans on May 7. Brandt V. B. Dixon '70, president of the Sophie Newcomb College and president of the club, was toastmaster. The other members present were: E. E. Prevost '72, L. J. E. J. Lorber '86, J. F. A. Lorber '88, A. L. Soulé '88, E. E. Soulé '88, R. J. Osborne '88, L. B. Keiffer '92, George H. Davis '92, L. Carroll Root '92, Frank Soulé '92, W. B. Gregory '94, W. A. Dixon '00, E. W. Carr, jr., '01, F. J. Schwab '03, S. L. Menge '06, H. C. Patterson, jr., '07, E. B. Goetter '07, E. D. Tichenor '08, C. B. Dickson '08, John H. Hoerner '09, and O. F. Briede, jr., '11.

Recollections of old college days and the singing of favorite songs were interspersed with the Cornell yell, led by Dickson '08.

The subject of the formation of an "out-of-town college club," as preparatory to the founding of a full-fledged university club of New Orleans, was warmly debated. A committee was appointed to investigate this subject with the other college clubs of the city and with other organizations composed principally of college men. This committee, consisting of Messrs. Gregory, Frank Soulé and Davis, will report about November 1.

An interesting historical symposium was read by Mr. Osborne, and addresses were made by Messrs. Davis, Gregory, A. L. Soulé, Keiffer and Brandt V. B. Dixon. Mr. Carr gave some clever recitations and impersonations.

A letter from President Schurman was read, giving an interesting account of current doings at the University and showing the progress Cornell is making. A rising vote of thanks was given to President Schurman for his letter.

Officers were elected for a year, as follows: President, Brandt V. B. Dixon; vice-president, W. B. Gregory; treasurer, Edward E. Soulé. These three, with Messrs. Keiffer and C. B. Dickson, will constitute the governing committee.

Spring Day.

Spring Day weather was fine, the crowd was large and ready to "loosen up," and all the shows on the Armory green did a big business between the hours of eleven and one last Saturday morning. It is reported that the gross receipts for the benefit of the Athletic Association were $2,600 and that the silver coin taken in was itself a good load for three strong men. The chairman of the Spring Day Committee was E. C. Heg, and under his direction eleven tents had been pitched on the campus and eleven shows provided. The architects had an art exhibition which included some good cartoons of prominent members of the faculty. Sibley students had a show called "Wotshoxu" which was shocking, but only in a mild electrical way; the C. E. slide did business at the old stand, and the Arts men produced a burlesque called "Chantecler, or Fowl Play." The law students conducted a police court, the Aëro club gave its patrons a ride to Halley's comet, and the freshmen had Messrs. Johnson and Jeffries for a two-round bout, many times repeated. The Undine club had Cook and Peary in a struggle for the pole, with an igloo, Eskimos, a polar bear and bushels of gumdrops. The Bench and Board gave "Tess of Itchaca," a play "reeking with delicacy." In the big parade up the hill before the show there were all sorts of outlandish costumes, Chantecler having the most striking get-up. The crowd swarmed into the enclosure as soon as the parade reached the campus, and for two hours seemed to part with its loose change very cheerfully.

The "Sun" Banquet.

One hundred guests attended the thirtieth anniversary banquet of the Cornell Daily Sun in the Ithaca Hotel on Saturday evening. Addresses were made by Professors Durham, Schmidt and Jenks. Mr. G. W. Hallowell, manager of the Harvard Crimson, spoke on the value of good business standards in college activities. Stanton Griffis '10, the retiring editor-in-chief of the Sun, was toastmaster, and James O. Winslow '11, his successor, spoke for the new board.

BASEBALL.

CORNELL 6, PENN 0.

Hard and timely hitting and the excellent pitching of Goodwillie enabled the Cornell nine to shut Pennsylvania out by a score of 6 to 0 on Franklin Field last Saturday. Goodwillie struck out nine batters and gave seven scattered hits. Cornell got eight hits off Schultz, Penn's best pitcher. Goodwillie himself started the scoring for Cornell with a liner in the second inning with a clean hit to center, across the plate. This was Penn's first defeat on her own grounds this season and the fourth defeat of the twenty-two games played.

The ground was muddy and soft, but the fielding was sharp on both sides.

Rutherford opened the second inning with a clean hit to center, and Williams was safe at first when Schultz threw low to Hayden. Thompson flied out to Thayer in center field and Howard was passed, filling the bases. Watson struck out, and it looked as if Cornell would be retired without any runs, but Goodwillie landed on the first ball pitched to him by Schultz, sending it over third base like a shot, and Rutherford and Williams crossed the plate.

Cornell did little base running from the third to the seventh inning, inclusive, but in the eighth two more runs were scored. Goodwillie, the first man up in the eighth, struck out. Owen hit toward first base and was safe because nobody covered the bag. Hayden, the first baseman, fielded the ball and threw to the base expecting Aldendifer to be there, and the ball rolled out to right field, while Owen ran around to third. Matchneer was hit by a pitched ball and took his base. On Magner's sacrifice fly to right, Owen scored. Rutherford lined the ball out to center field for three bases and Matchneer scored Cornell's fourth run.

In the ninth inning Thompson, the first man up, hit to center for one base, and Howard was safe at first on Smiley's error. Watson waited for four balls and the bases were full with nobody out. Goodwillie struck out. Owen flied out to left field and Thompson scored on the throw in. The ball got past Cozens, the catcher, and Howard crossed the plate with Cornell's sixth score.

Penn's best chances to score came in the first and last innings. In the former, after Thayer had struck out, Aldendifer and Wood hit safely and Smith's sacrifice advanced each runner a base. It was up to Hayden, but the best he could do was to send a slow grounder to short which proved an easy out at first.

Again in the ninth inning, Wood, the first man up, landed on one of Goodwillie's curves, sending the ball to the gymnasium, but the sphere was relayed back to the diamond almost as fast as it left and the Penn captain was put out at the plate. Smith singled and Hayden flied out to Magner. Schultz also singled and Penn's last opportunity to avoid a shut-out disappeared when Pierce struck out for the fourth time.

CORNELL 14, OBERLIN 2.

Last Thursday the crack of the bat sounded merrily on Percy Field. Cornell got fourteen hits off Gray and with the aid of Oberlin's errors scored fourteen runs. Gray is the quarterback who scored a touchdown against Cornell last fall and who was mainly responsible for Oberlin's basketball victory here last winter. As a pitcher against Cornell, hitting as the team was last week, he was not so successful. Carvajal pitched for Cornell. He gave only two hits up to the ninth inning, when a single, a three-bagger and a Cornell error brought in two runs. Oberlin had a man on third in the first and again in the second, but both died there. In the second Miller tried to score on a squeeze, but Robinson failed to hit the ball.

Rutherford opened Cornell's second inning with a hit to the clubhouse for one base. Williams was safe on the second baseman's error. Both runners advanced on a passed ball and scored on Dauenhauer's liner to center field. Another error at second made Howard a base runner, and Dauenhauer scored when Watson lined the ball to left field. Carvajal sacrificed. Owen hit a grounder down third base line to the far side of the cinder track and romped to third, scoring Howard and Watson. On Matchneer's out, third to first, Owen scored. Magner flied out to centerfield. Six runs.

There was another bunch of hits in the seventh. With one out, Matchneer went to first on four balls. Magner and Rutherford singled, Williams hit through short-stop, Dauenhauer dropped a "Texas leaguer" in left field, Howard was safe on a muff at first and Watson rapped out a single to left. Four runners had crossed the plate when Carvajal struck out and Watson was forced out at second on Owen's grounder to that base.

The slaughter was continued in the ninth. With one out, Magner beat out a bunt. Rutherford and Williams each hit to center for two bases. Williams kept on to third, the third baseman lost the ball and Williams scored. Dauenhauer fouled out. Howard hit for three bases, but Watson was put out at first.

Abbott, one of the pitchers, although he did not play, contributed materially to the size of Cornell's score by his good judgment while coaching the runners off third base.

In the fourth inning a foul fly was caught by a second baseman. Matchneer captured a high one after a sprint back of first base.

Freshman Athletes Defeat Penn Rivals.

By a score of 59 to 58 the Cornell freshman track team defeated the Penn freshmen on Percy Field last Saturday. The result of the meet was in doubt until the last event, the pole vault, was concluded. Some of the performances were remarkably good. Penn won first place in the sprints, the hurdles, the quarter-mile, the high and broad jumps and the pole vault. Cornell's youngsters took first and second in the half-mile run; first, second and third in the mile; first and second in the two-mile, first and second in the shot put and first and third in the hammer throw, besides picking up some points in all the other events.

E. L. Mercer of Penn won first place in the low hurdles, the broad jump and the pole vault, scoring 15 of his team's points. J. E. Whinery of Cornell was second in the broad jump with a mark of 21 feet, only four inches behind Mercer. J. Thomas, jr., of Cornell, was second in the pole vault at 11 feet, and it was his three points that secured the victory for his team. Mercer's vault was $7\frac{3}{8}$ inches higher.

J. P. Jones of Cornell won the half-mile run in 1:59 1-5, better time than was made by Levering, the winner of that event in the recent Penn-Cornell 'varsity meet. W. H. Chapman of Cornell took second place by inches after a plucky struggle with Waters of Penn. Jones had the mile run won also, but he let his teammates, J. H. Brodt and W. B. Ball, finish first and second so that they might win their numerals. Jones had already won his. C. A. Major and L. Finch of Cornell led all the way in the two-mile.

J. D. Brown of Penn won both sprints in 10 1-5 and 22 1-5 seconds respectively, but Cornell men took all the other points.

H. G. Kanzler of Cornell won the shot put with a mark of 39 feet, 6 1/2 inches, and A. E. Bannister of Cornell threw the hammer 137 feet, 7 inches, taking first place. The winning mark in the high jump was 5 feet, 8 inches, made by R. O. Shrigley of Penn. Another Penn man was second and L. H. Gerow of Cornell was third with 5 feet, 5 inches.

Lacrosse.

In a hard fought game the 'varsity lacrosse team was defeated by Harvard at Cambridge last Friday by a score of 7 to 4. The game was won by endurance. At the end of the second half the score was a tie at 4 to 4, and an extra period of fifteen minutes was played in which Harvard shot three goals.

At Hoboken on Saturday the team defeated the Stevens Institute twelve by a score of 4 to 1. Cornell's defence was so strong that Stevens had few shots at goal.

The loss of the Harvard game is a severe disappointment to the team, as the championship virtually depended on that contest. In the extra period the hard checking of the heavy Harvard defence began to tell on the Cornell players, and some of them were not equal to keeping up the hard play, and Harvard made the most of the advantage. Walbridge scored three of Cornell's goals and Fries the fourth. Taylor played a brilliant game at center for Cornell.

Freshman Baseball.

After the track meet on Saturday the freshman nine won its seventh consecutive victory by defeating the Dartmouth freshmen. The final score was 6 to 0. Krogstad pitched effectively, giving the Dartmouth batters only four hits and striking out eight. Cornell got six hits at times when they counted, and played a fast and almost errorless fielding game. The team batted as follows: E. W. Butler, s.s.; L. D. Clute, 1 b.; W. Wellman, l.f.; J. H. O'Connell, r. f.; P. P. Keller, jr., c. f.; J. J. D. McCormick, c.; A. C. McHardy, 3b.; C. R. Fitzgerald, 2b.; R. B. Krogstad, p. The nine has been coached by A. F. Tydeman '10 and E. S. Crosby '10. The score:

The Cornell golf team was defeated by the Penn team on the Merion Cricket Club links last Thursday by a score of 8 to 5. On Friday the team defeated Lawrenceville at Princeton by a score of 11 to 1.

The 1911 Cornellian is now on sale.

The Savage Club Entertains.

The second annual performance of the Savage Club was presented before a crowded house at the Lyceum on Friday evening. The show was divided into two parts. The first, entitled "The Savages in Bohemia," had the real musical comedy flavor, with clever songs, catchy melody, and pretty "girls." As the program put it, it was a dish "cooked to a quick laugh and served while still giggling." Perhaps the biggest hit of the first part was the stunt of the Apache dancers, "Glen" Blake and "Don" Crane, in a fancy waltz. Next came the olio, which included a violin stunt solo by Frank Branin, and a quick sketch monologue by "Sport" Ward. The latter was the hit of the evening, for he kept the house in a continual titter of merriment.

Part two of the entertainment was a farce written by F. D. Burnet '11, and entitled, "What's in a Name."

Bowen Stroking the 'Varsity.

Early last week a change was made in the 'varsity crew, Distler being transferred to the second 'varsity and his place as stroke of the first combination being taken by Bowen. Whether this change would be permanent or not even Mr. Courtney himself did not seem to know. The crews have had fairly good weather for practice this month and have been on the lake almost every afternoon. Two-mile races have been held in preparation for the Memorial Day contests.

The New "Era" Board.

An editorial board for next year has been chosen by the Era, as follows: Editor-in-chief, Raymond H. Fuller '11, Rochester; business manager, William A. White '12, Chicago; associate editors, Stanley P. Lovell '12, Brockton, Mass., and James I. Clarke '12, Saratoga Springs; assistant business manager, A. Tom Knight '12, Waukegan, Ill.

Professor John S. Shearer, of the department of physics, who has been acting professor of physics at Columbia University during the past half-year, has resumed his work in Ithaca.

OBITUARY.

GEORGE F. DANFORTH '90.

The Rev. George Flavel Danforth, a graduate of Cornell University of the class of 1890, died in St. Luke's Hospital, Chicago, on May 3, after undergoing an operation. He was pastor of St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Park Ridge, a suburb of Chicago. He had been pastor of that church for two years. Previous to that time he was a Presbyterian minister. For several years he was librarian of the State University of Indiana, at Bloomington. A widow and two sons survive him.

New Barns Opened.

About 800 persons from both hill and town attended an old-fashioned barn-warming and dance given by the department of animal husbandry and the Round-Up Club last Tuesday night to celebrate the opening of the new barns. The guests were received by Professor Wing and H. N. Kutschbach, president of the agricultural association. Red and white electric lights illumined the big main barn, and "Happy Bill" Daniels's orchestra furnished music.

The new barns were begun last summer and were finished during December, but they were not opened till Tuesday night. It cost $23,000 to build them. The main barn is 40 by 120 feet, with two wings 36 by 110 feet.

University Orchestra at Wells.

The University Orchestra delivered the 420th concert of its existence before the students of Wells College last Saturday afternoon. Forty-five players and three soloists made the trip to Aurora in a specially chartered boat. After the concert the men were dined and then there was a dance. One of the solos was the playing of a Beethoven concerto by Miss Genevieve Allen, a Wells student.

Penn defeated Cornell at cricket on the grounds of the Germantown Cricket Club last Friday by a score of 192 to 61.

The first senior singing of the spring was held on the steps of Goldwin Smith Hall last night.

Entered as Second-Class Matter at Ithaca, N. Y.

Ithaca, N. Y., May 25, 1910.

IN FOUR WEEKS there will be reunions of the classes of '70, '75, '80, '85, '90, '95, 1900, 1905 and 1907. Any member of any of these classes can put the emphasis on the number of his class in the above list and apply the reminder to himself. Undoubtedly every one of these classes will have a good-sized representation in Ithaca on June 21 and 22, and members who do not return will miss a good time.

PERHAPS WE HAVE NOT called enough attention to the fact that the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie will take place this year on June 25—Saturday of Commencement Week. Alumni who come some distance to attend the reunion can go from Ithaca direct to Poughkeepsie after Commencement and see the races—all within a single week.

WE HAVE BEEN GLAD to publish several announcements regarding class reunions. Any real bulletin of information regarding any Cornell alumni matter will find a place in this paper, for that is what the paper is for. We have, however, been compelled to leave out, with regret, several pseudo-announcements which were witty and amusing, but which we felt did not deserve the large amount of space they would have taken up.

OUR BASEBALL TEAM meets Harvard at Cambridge on Saturday, June 4; Penn at Philadelphia on Wednesday, June 15 and Yale at New Haven on Saturday, June 18. The Cornellians who attend those games will see a good Cornell nine. If they will get together and let the players know there are Cornellians present they will encourage a team that deserves encouragement. The players have worked hard, and their success at Philadelphia last Saturday was well earned.

Positions in the Navy.

An examination will be held in Washington on June 27 to fill four vacancies in the Paymaster's department of the Navy. These positions are desirable, offering opportunity for steady promotion in an attractive occupation and a sure reward for merit. Paymaster George P. Dyer '95 has written to President Schurman calling attention to the coming examination and offering to give information to any Cornell man who may wish to try it. The applicant must pass a physical test and will be examined in English, mathematics including plane and solid geometry, physics and chemistry, history of England and the United States, French or German, bookkeeping and general information.

The interclass championship in debating has been won by the sophomores, who defeated the juniors on Tuesday evening in an argument on direct primaries. A cup presented by Mr. Jacob Rothschild, of Ithaca, in 1904, will be held by the class of 1912 as a trophy of this victory. The sophomore debaters were M. W. Bundy, L. E. Neff and R. B. Ostrander.

CREW SMOKER AT BOSTON.

A Crew Smoker will be given by the Cornell Club of New England on Monday evening, May 30 (Memorial Day) at the New American House, Hanover street, Boston, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The smoker will follow the Harvard-Cornell regatta to be held on the Charles River on Monday afternoon. All Cornell men who can attend are invited to do so. The committee in charge consists of Frank C. Cosby, chairman, Arthur P. Bryant, Barrett Smith, Richard O. Walter and George K. Woodworth.

Athletic Events of the Next Week.

Many important Cornell athletic events are scheduled for "Navy Week," next Saturday and Monday being the principal days. Some of the most important will take place outside of Ithaca. Next Friday and Saturday the intercollegiate track meet will be held on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, and the Cornell team ought to gather more than a few points even if it does not win the championship. On Monday, May 30, the 'varsity and freshman eights will row against the Harvard crews on the Charles River at Boston. Defeat was our portion the last time we rowed there, in 1908, but last year, at Ithaca, Cornell won. The races rowed on the Charles in 1905 and 1906 and on Cayuga in 1907 also resulted in Cornell victories. This is the first time that a Cornell freshman crew has been sent to Cambridge.

On Saturday, May 28, there will be a baseball game with Michigan on Percy Field. The freshman nine will meet Cook Academy and there will be a 'varsity lacrosse game with Hobart.

On Monday afternoon, May 30, the 'varsity nine will meet Penn on Percy Field in the second of the three games scheduled for this season. Then there will be a race of college eights for the intercollegiate rowing championship of the University, followed by a two-mile race between the junior 'varsity eights of Penn and Cornell. The races will take place on the east side of Cayuga Lake and an observation train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad will follow the crews.

New "Rushing" Rules Proposed.

Frequent meetings are being held by the fraternity delegates who are drawing up new rules to govern the "rushing" of freshmen. C. H. Cull, of Phi Sigma Kappa, has been elected chairman, and H. B. Bole, of Alpha Delta Phi, secretary for next year. Following are the new rules which it is proposed to adopt:

"No rushing shall be done and no rushing dates shall be made previous to 7 p. m. of the day following the last day of freshman registration. Dates may be made that evening in the freshmen's rooms and at no other place.

"After that evening dates may be made at any time and place.

"Should several fraternities desire dates with the same man, the freshman shall first be given a chance to choose the fraternity or fraternities with whom he especially desires dates. After this has been done, the other fraternities shall decide the order of precedence by lot.

"There shall be no meeting of trains.

"Rushing shall commence the day after the making of dates.

"A list of freshmen with their addresses shall be posted in Morrill Hall immediately after the close of freshman registration, or, if it seems preferable to the rushing committee, a list shall be given to each fraternity subscribing to this rushing system."
