DEDICATION

The 1990 Addendum is dedicated to Elizabeth Baker Wells, Cornell 1928, who for many years was unofficial keeper of records concerning the Memorabilia around the University.

Mrs. Wells died July 1, 1990. We remember her many hours devoted to clipping news items, writing notes and calling numerous people to follow up on the preservation of special items. Mrs. Wells, we will miss you, as we continue the work you did from the inspiration you planted.

INTRODUCTION

This 1990 Addendum to Contributions to Cornell History, Portraits, Memorabilia, Plaques and Artists by Mrs. Elizabeth Baker Wells, Cornell 1928 is being distributed to those who have copies of the original Revised 1984 Edition. Over 350 new entries are included.

In the Revised 1984 Edition Mrs. Wells listed the Cornell Plantations and other Garden Areas in one section. For the 1990 Addendum we have separated the Cornell Plantations entries from those for Campus Beautification. Day Hall Campus Beautification Map information may be found in a new section headed Campus Beautification Plantings. Plaques for campus beautification plantings are found within the Plaques section of this addendum.

Cornell Plantations entries include new plaques and inscriptions along with revisions for items already listed, followed by a list of other items similar in content to those for the Campus Beautification Map.

We wish to thank the many University staff members who contributed to this 1990 Addendum. The process continues. Notice of corrections or new items to be included in a future addendum should be sent to this office.

- Christian, Vance A. Cornell 1961 Portrait, oil, by Robert N. Weller. Vance A. Christian Beverage Management Center, Statler Hall, 1989.
- Clark, John J., Jr. Cornell 1969 "The John J. Clark, Jr., Office of Alumni Affairs and Development honors a man whose untiring efforts as dean of the School of Hotel Administration from 1981 through 1989 were largely responsible for strengthening the School's leadership in hospitality education. We who were privileged to work with Dean Clark are grateful for his unwavering vision, his bold leadership, and his unflagging dedication as he guided the School through a successful capital campaign, a redesigned curriculum, new teaching facilities in Statler Hall, and the construction of the Statler Hotel and the J. Willard Marriott Education Center. In appreciation for his efforts, Dean Clark's colleagues and friends, and the Alumni Association, dedicate the John J. Clark, Jr., Office of Alumni Affairs and Development on November 13, 1989. Thank you, Jack Clark." artist, Max Erlacher. Room 149, Statler Hall, 1990.
- Comstock, Anna (1854-1930). Portrait, oil, copy of a portrait of her at William Smith College, Geneva, New York. Copy said to have been done by Mrs. Comstock. Artist not known. Library, Comstock Hall.
- Comstock, John Henry (1849-1931) and Anna Botsford (1854-1930). Mural photo, artist not identified. "John Henry and Anna Botsford Comstock were pioneers of science; since Cornell University's earliest days, they have inspired the highest achievement in the study of entomology. For more than half a century the Comstocks contributed to the growth and maturation of the University's Department of Entomology, engendering in students and colleagues alike a love of nature, a reverence for its mysteries, and a commitment to rigorous scientific inquiry. Skilled teachers, dedicated researchers, respected friends--they were, indeed, formative forces in the lives and careers of countless Cornellians." Comstock Hall Foyer.

CAMPUS BEAUTIFICATION INTRODUCTION

To ensure a current record of trees, plantings, benches and other campus beautification improvements outside of the area maintained by the Cornell Plantations it was determined to add the listings which follow. The list has been prepared using the items carried on the present Day Hall Campus Beautification Identification Map and gifts of more recent date. The date given as Year Planted is the actual year the items were installed on campus and may not be the same as the year of the gift.

Some planting areas are also listed in the "Plaques" section of this and the Revised 1984 Edition. The index of both editions should be consulted when looking for a particular person or group.
