

Musical Selections by David Usher: Program Notes

David Usher (Audio Selections).aif [playing time 15:18]

1. “Is there not one maiden breast” from Pirates of Penzance, 1974
2. “If you go in” from Iolanthe, 1973. The other singers are Fred Kahn and David Wyatt.
3. “Blue Blood” from Iolanthe, 1973
4. “When first my old old love” from Trial by Jury, 1975
5. “Oh Gentlemen Listen I Pray” from Trial by Jury, 1975

His singing to his class is exemplified by a selection [“All Go Together” with words and lyrics by Tom Lehrer] embedded within his oral history interview: “A Conversation with David Usher”, which is also available at this URL.

David Usher (video) “Is Life a Boon?” from Yeoman of the Guard.mov

6. “Is Life a Boon?” from Yeoman of the Guard, 1981 The video was produced by Jim Novak [playing time 02:21]

Credit: These audio recordings were made and provided by David Usher. Jim Novak produced and provided the video, “Is Life a Boon?”