VOL II NO

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

June 9, 1917.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES

Today is the big athletic rally and by that we mean a rally, not only for those who have taken part in athletics during the year but for every girl in the University. This will be the first outdoor rally ever held at Cornell. Last year strangely enough it rained and the affair was held in Sage gym. but history could not possibly repeat itself again by having rainy weather again.

The schedule for the day's events are 2:45 crew races on Beebe.

Baseball finals at the Athletic Field.

Seniors vs. Freshmen

Juniors vs. Sophomores

Election of class representatives to the Council for next year by members of first teams.

Class and Graduate Stunts.

Outside girls bring their own lunch. In case of rain the baseball finals will be held in the baseball cage and the Athletic Rally and picnic in the armory.

The teams for interclass tennis doubles have been chosen as follows:

1917

1918

Jeanette Short

Marcia Grimes

Hilda Eulenstein

Sophie Harvith.

Treas. - B. Neely.

FRATERNITY NOTE

SENIOR - JUNIOR PICNIC.

1918 requests the honor of 1917's company at six o'clock Monday evening on the north shore of Beebe Lake. The fire will be built and the "wieners" ready at that time. Everybody in both classes come in old clothes and be prepared for a good time, before finals. Let's make the most of the opportunity. The weather this spring has not been very propitious for outdoor picnics, nevertheless we'll hope for fair weather Monday night.

NOTICE

Every one having any articles in the gymnasium lockers must remove them before June 15th. All freshmen must report at the gymnasium office between 8 and 10:00 a. m. before June 11th.
