

PROGRAM

A CONFERENCE

FOR THE CONTROL OF DISEASES

VETERINARIANS

JANUARY 12 AND 13, 1909

---

NEW YORK STATE

VETERINARY COLLEGE

AT CORNELL UNIVERSITY

ITHACA, N. Y.

PROGRAM

TUESDAY, JANUARY 12

10:00 A. M. A lecture on the nature and control of bovine tuberculosis,

DR. LEONARD PEARSON
or V. A. MOORE

Discussion.

2:00 P. M. Clinical notes on diseases of the kidneys, W. L. WILLIAMS

3:00 P. M. Demonstration of the anatomical relations involved in some of the more common surgical operations,

G. S. HOPKINS
and E. SUNDERVILLE

3:30 P. M. Clinic or surgical exercises.

8:00 P. M. Address of welcome,

PRESIDENT SCHURMAN

Illustrated lecture : Demonstration of the passage of digested food from the hen to the egg and from the egg to the developing chicken; also illustrations of the magic lantern microscope for teaching histology and embryology to classes,

S. H. GAGE, Professor Emeritus

Smoker and inspection of laboratories.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13

- 9:00 A. M. The diagnosis of rabies and methods for its control in New York
State, V. A. MOORE
Demonstration of methods,
W. H. BOYNTON
- 10:00 A. M. Influenza or shipping fever,
D. H. UDALL
- 11:00 A. M. Milk secretion and dairy hygiene, P. A. FISH
- 12:00 M. General discussion.
-
- 2:00 P. M. Physical diagnosis,
D. H. UDALL
- 3:00 P. M. Clinic or surgical exercises,
W. L. WILLIAMS

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13

9:00 A.M. The diagnosis of rabies and methods for its control in New York State
F. A. Moore

Characteristics of methods
W. H. Brown

10:00 A.M. Influence of shipping fever
H. H. Clark

11:00 A.M. Milk sanitation and dairy hygiene
H. A. Fisher

12:00 M. General discussion

1:00 P.M. Rabies of animals
H. H. Clark

2:00 P.M. Rabies of animals
W. J. Miller