VOL II NO

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR May 29, 1917.

EDITORIAL.

The Pageant Committee has received the following letter --

"Will you find some means of conveying to the girls in the University how very much Miss Van Rensselaer and I appreciated the piece of work which they did in putting on such a really fine exhibition as the Pageant.

I want to say this to them, for I want them to realize that they have really done a splendid piece of work and so many times the share of the individual girls is small enough to obscure the bigness of the whole. We hope that this is but the beginning of many fine cooperative pieces of work which the girls in the University will do.

Flora Rose.

PAGEANT.

The Pageant Committee will have a picnic on Beebe Lake at 5:15 p. m. to-day. All out! No reports, no worry, just a splendid reunion! We are counting on every one of you.

There will be a meeting of the Pageant Committee on Tuesday at 5 p.m. Sage Drawing Room. Very important.

Don't forget the big auction to-night, to be held in Risley Recreation Room. All come and join the fun.

SENIORS.

The Senior Banquet will be held at Glenwood June 2nd. Transportation is to be made by both boat and automobile, so all may go. Price will not be over two dollars and less if there is a large crowd. After the dinner the hall will be open for dancing.

Wednesday is the last day to sign up as the dinner order must be sent in on that day, so if you haven't signed your name do so at once.

Watch the Bulletin for details.

CONSUMER'S LEAGUE.

Elections for the officers of Consumer's League will be held today in Sage, Risley and Home Economics from 12:45 - 2. List of nominations will be posted at each place. All girls who have joined the League vote for next year's officers.

NOTICE.

A meeting of Freshmen Competitors of the Women's Review will be held today at 2 o'clock in the office on 4th floor of Dom. Econ.

PUBLICATIONS.
