CORNELL'S ADULT UNIVERSITY

Cornell's Adult University (CAU) offers weeklong noncredit courses on campus for adults and families during the summer. During the fall, winter, and spring, it offers weekend seminars, weeklong domestic programs, and international study tours. Developed and led by distinguished members of the Cornell faculty, all programs are inspired by the belief that learning never ends and that one of the roles of a great university is to provide a bridge between traditional formal education and informal, noncredit study. For information, write Cornell's Adult University, 626 Thurston Avenue, Ithaca, NY 14850-2490; call 607 255-6260; e-mail cauinfo@cornell.edu; fax 607 254-4482; or visit www.cau.cornell.edu.

CONTINUING EDUCATION INFORMATION SERVICE

This service provides free information, counseling, and referral to adults who have been out of school for several years and want to resume their education. It also provides information about short courses, workshops, professional updates, and executive programs offered by the university to people inside and outside Cornell. For information, write to Continuing Education, B20 Day Hall, Ithaca, NY 14853-2801; call 607 255-4987; e-mail cusce@cornell.edu; or fax 607 255-9697.

CORNELL IN WASHINGTON PROGRAM

Cornell in Washington offers undergraduates the opportunity to combine the strengths of Cornell with all of the best parts of living and learning in Washington, D.C. Students take courses in the fall, spring, or summer for credit, work as externs, and complete substantial research projects, all the while enjoying the rich opportunities available in the nation's capital. For information, write to Cornell in Washington, M101 McGraw Hall, Ithaca, NY 14853-4601; call 607 255-4090; e-mail cwash@cornell.edu; or visit www.civ.cornell.edu.

DISTANCE LEARNING

Need a flexible schedule? Have a full-time job? Planning to travel during winter break or during the summer? Don't let any of these stop you from taking a class, earning credits, or learning something new. Wherever you are, whatever your schedule, Cornell distance learning courses are just a keyboard away.

Distance learning courses may include a web-based component, videotapes, and/or CD-ROMs. Students interact with the instructor and other students by phone or e-mail. Most assignments and examinations are completed within a scheduled time frame, just as in on-campus courses, but students have the option of getting a head start on readings and lectures. For information, visit www.sce.cornell.edu/dl/.

For faculty members interested in developing credit or noncredit distance learning courses, the school offers a broad range of services, including determining technological needs, resolving copyright issues, creating a marketing plan, and fulfilling administrative duties related to the course. Services are tailored to individual needs and ongoing support is available. Visit www.sce.cornell.edu/dl/ to see what's possible.

CyberTower: Cornell at No Cost

Cornell's online CyberTower program is a great way to meet Cornell faculty and explore fascinating topics ranging from mastodons and wine appreciation to today's headline news, all at no cost.

CyberTower features three online program series, with new offerings added every month:

- Study Rooms contain video-streamed lectures, links to specially selected web sites, reading lists, and discussion boards with Cornell faculty and fellow CyberTower users.
- Forums are informal video-streamed conversations with leading faculty members. Discussion boards enable you to trade comments and questions with each month's featured guest.
- Views and Reviews are brief, unabashedly opinionated commentaries by faculty members on books, films, articles, and topics in the news.

To explore CyberTower, simply log on to cybertower.cornell.edu. It's all free and is a great way to see what Cornell has to offer.

EXECUTIVE AND PROFESSIONAL PROGRAMS

The school presents short, high-level professional updates on campus, online, and in locations worldwide. These courses are taught by Cornell faculty and senior research staff in many fields. Programs also can be designed to respond to the specific needs and interests of corporations, professional societies, and other groups. For information, call 607 255-7259; e-mail culp@cornell.edu; fax 607 255-8942; or visit www.sce.cornell.edu/exec/.

EXTRAMURAL STUDY

Cornell students whose studies have been interrupted may find it useful to take classes on a part-time basis. The school is also dedicated to offering part-time study to staff, faculty, "townies," and anyone else interested in taking courses at the university, improving their job skills, continuing their education, or simply having fun learning something new.

Thanks to the school's Extramural Study program, anyone may (with few exceptions) enroll in any course in the university during the fall and spring semesters if space is available. Part-time study at Cornell is a great opportunity to take fascinating courses and study with world-renowned faculty members. INDEPENDENT STUDY

Have a special interest you'd like to pursue?
Want to do research and get credit for it?
Need a particular course to graduate on time?
Consider independent study.

Independent study encompasses courses of your own design, special topics courses, undergraduate research, or any regular course from the fall and spring semesters not being offered. If you can find a professor willing to supervise your study, all you need to do is pick up the application for independent study (available on the web at www.summer.cornell.edu or from the Summer Session office) and register in B20 Day Hall at least two weeks prior to beginning the independent study course. Also, please let the Summer Session office know if there are courses you would like to see offered next summer (call 607 255-4987 or e-mail cusce@cornell.edu).
