

The Cornell Bulletin

V. GRAHAM

ED-IN-CHIEF

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

M. HESS
M. HESS
M. HESS

R. WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER

S. CARVETH
E. MCEAD

OL. II NO

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Jan. 9, 1917.

It is your opportunity this evening. There is an astonishing indifference among the undergraduate students in regard to the splendid concerts to which we have access. Amate as a great singer those who have never heard him should do so now. Those who have heard him there is no question as to their attitude. All decide to go tonight. It will be well worth your while.

To Editor of the Bulletin:

Before the matter as to the extension of time Saturday evenings is voted upon, I should like to make a suggestion. If there is, or is to be in the near future, an University rule limiting dances to Friday and Saturday evenings, this will mean that those who give dances on Saturday will want them to last the regular length of time. If dancing stops at twelve and supper is served, it is almost impossible to reach the dormitories even at the latest time mentioned - 12:45. Could not the time be made 1:30, the same as on any other night.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

The second Play Hour will be held Wednesday, January 10 at 7:30. Miss Smith who has charge of folk dancing in the Rochester schools will take charge. Miss Smith was here last year and everyone enjoyed her demonstration.

All freshmen and sophomores will be required to attend. Juniors and seniors are invited too. No gymnasium classes will be held on Wednesday.

Come at 7:15 if you want to dance!

BASKET BALL.

Tuesday 5:30 - Seniors.

Thursday 5:30 Sophomores.

Friday practice will be held at the armory.

Freshmen 7:30

Juniors 8:30

Sophomores 3:00

Seniors. 9:00

DINIE CLUB.

Meeting postponed till Thursday (tomorrow) 5:15 to be there 5:15. Riley Reading Room and if it is impossible to attend please notify V. Graham.

INFIRMARY.

Meeting Tuesday 5:00 office of Advisor of Women. This meeting calls for Professor Young, Dr. Matzko, the business manager and the editor-in-chief.

Bulletin Staff meeting Friday 5:15, Riley Reading Room. This meeting calls for the business manager, the day editors and the editor-in-chief. The meeting is important. Please give notice if any member is unable to attend.

INFIRMARY LIST.

Cora Friedline
Dorothy Griffith
Elton Barr

The visiting hours of the Infirmary are for the time being suspended.

LOST.

Has anyone seen an unlabeled stock collar in the vicinity of Riley? One heavy white one lost. Will finder please notify A. Z. care of Bulletin.

Have you seen the Co-op view book? It sells for 75¢. Keep in mind too regarding Soapmakerchief handkerchiefs. Examine their quality at the Co-op.

Toward the end of the term eyeshades are in greater demand. Buy one at the Co-op, when you buy the paper for your notebook.