

The Cornell Bulletin

V. CLARHAM

ED-IN-CHIEF

R. WOLCOTT, BUSINESS MANAGER

ASSOCIATE EDITORS.

M. HESS.

E. ROBERT

S. HEATH

E. STOFFERBEAM.

F. HILKER

CL. II NO

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR

Feb. 1, 1917.

JOURNAL EVENTS.

BULLETIN.

President vetoes immigration bill: "Literacy test constitutes a change in the nations policy which is not justified." Mr. Wilson also says that it would be unwise to pass judgment on the laws of foreign nations in this fashion.

Lawson's charges involving McAdoo are denied by two bankers who were principal witnesses heard by the House Rules committee yesterday. They assert that they know nothing of the Peace-Nete speculations.

Discover plot to kill Lloyd George. Three women and one man arrested for conspiracy to murder premier and Arthur Henderson -- all four believed to be pacifists.

May force U.S. to define her U-boat stand. London newspaper declares that merchant ships will be armed, despite yesterday's announcement to the contrary.

Deutschland is safe and will dock soon.

Food situation becoming more serious daily. Prices soaring despite the State, Federal and Municipal efforts to cut them down -- Mrs. Heath puts blame on producers.

SPORTS AND PASTIMES.

Don't forget that the last day to pass the swimming test for crew is Friday, Feb. 2.

Everybody out for the games "Saturday night. With Monday's scores standing:

Seniors 2 vs. Juniors 25

Sophomores 31 vs Freshmen 3

And Wednesday's scores:

Seniors - 8 vs. Sophomores - 13

Juniors - 21 vs Freshmen. - 9

Saturday's games promise to be very exciting.

Seniors vs. Freshmen

Juniors vs. Sophomores

Admission 25¢. Come and support your class.

There surely must be more girls who would be interested in trying out for business manager of the Bulletin. So far only three girls have signed up in Risley, and the time is getting short. The competition will start on registration day and will last for two weeks. So sign up now.

Y. W. O. A.

The Eight Weeks Club will hold a meeting in Barnes at 8 p.m. on Feb. 1. Professor Tuttle will speak.

DRAMATIC CLUB.

The Women's Dramatic Club will give a play in the Vaudeville a la Mode in March.

SORORITY NOTES.

Alpha Omicron Pi

Marie Hillidge, Front Royal, Virginia

FOUND

An umbrella in the Armory after the basket ball game Monday night. The owner may get her property from Miss Canfield.

Thursday's editor wants to say good luck to you all in your mid-year trials and troubles.