INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (hereinafter the “Commission” or “EEOC”) has filed a Complaint captioned EEOC v. Gold’n Plump Poultry, Inc., alleging that Defendant Gold’n Plump Poultry, Inc. (“Gold’n Plump”) discriminated against the Charging Parties because of their religion, Islam, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (“Title VII”). It also alleges that Gold’n Plump discriminated against a class of Muslim employees at and applicants to Gold’n Plump’s operations in Cold Spring, Minnesota and Arcadia, Wisconsin by failing to provide reasonable accommodation for their sincerely held religious beliefs, adopting and/or subscribing to a hiring criteria that barred persons from obtaining reasonable accommodations, impermissibly restricting reasonable accommodations based upon irrelevant factors, and discharging persons based upon their need for reasonable accommodations.

Gold’n Plump has denied that it has engaged in any unlawful discriminatory conduct or practices, and disputes that any conduct attributed to it violates Title VII.

The eleven Charging Parties (as defined below), who are separately represented by counsel in independently filed litigation, Aware Daud, et al. v. Gold’n Plump Poultry, Inc. and

The Work Connection, Inc., Court File No. 06-5013 (DSD/JJG) (“Daud”), have negotiated terms of a separate settlement agreement and judgment individually and on behalf of a putative class action, which is being submitted for Court approval concurrently with this Consent Decree (“Settlement Agreement and Judgment”). This lawsuit will be designated as a “related case” to the Daud matter.

In reaching this Consent Decree, the EEOC and Gold’n Plump, acting by and through their counsel, engaged in a significant exchange of information, during the investigation of the charges by the EEOC and during the process of negotiating this resolution. The parties have obtained sufficient information to assess reliably the relative merits of the claims and defenses.

All parties have participated in the drafting of this Consent Decree. The EEOC and Gold’n Plump were both represented by counsel knowledgeable in this area of the law.

The EEOC and Gold’n Plump mutually agreed to submit to mediation in an effort to resolve this matter. Under the supervision of the Mediator and the Court, the negotiations were conducted at arms’ length and without collusion. All parties were represented by counsel during these proceedings. The mediation discussions culminated in this Decree.

THEREFORE, upon the consent of the parties, and upon review by the Court of these terms, it is ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that the following terms are given approval, subject to a notice to the claimants and a hearing upon the fairness of this proposed Consent Decree as set forth herein:

F. Payment amounts in each of the four categories shall be determined at the EEOC's sole discretion.

G. Payments made pursuant to this Section are cumulative, and shall include any accrued interest. Class members can receive distributions from as many funds as they are determined eligible for by the EEOC.

XII. CLAIM PROCEDURE

If the search yields a new address, the EEOC will also mail the Notice of Settlement and Claim Form to the most recent address. The EEOC will not be required to continue to mail the Notice of Settlement and Claim Form for returned mail after fifteen (15) calendar days of the postmarked date of the original Notice of Settlement and Claim Form. Potential Class Members will have thirty (30) calendar days to return the Claim Form. A. The Court will conduct a hearing on the fairness of this Decree on February 17, 2009. If the Court does not schedule a hearing on the fairness of this Decree for February 17, 2009, the Fairness Hearing shall occur no earlier than ninety (90) calendar days after the Preliminary Approval Date of this Consent Decree.

B. THIS IS NOT A NOTICE OF A LAWSUIT AGAINST YOU. READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS MAY BE AFFECTED.

This notice is to inform you about the settlement of three lawsuits, a class action lawsuit against Gold'n Plump Poultry, Inc. ("Gold'n Plump") and The Work Connection ("TWC") (together "Defendants"), a lawsuit by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") against Gold'n Plump and another against TWC (collectively "the Actions"), each pending in the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota and now consolidated, brought on behalf of Somali Muslim individuals who apply or applied for employment or who are or were employed by Gold'n Plump or TWC between September 1, 2005 and September 1, 2011. Proposed settlements of each of the lawsuits have been conditionally approved by the Court. Both the proposed class action settlement and proposed EEOC Consent Decree delineate the religious accommodation for prayer that will be provided by Defendants. The proposed EEOC Consent Decree may also entitle you to payment if the settlement is finally approved by the Court.

READ THE REST OF THIS NOTICE TO LEARN WHAT YOU CAN DO WITH REGARD TO THE ACTION AND HOW TO SUBMIT A CLAIM FOR PAYMENT.

THE ACTIONS

In each of the lawsuits, the plaintiffs allege that Gold'n Plump and The Work Connection failed to accommodate Somali Muslim religious needs and otherwise discriminated against Somali Muslims. Gold'n Plump and The Work Connection deny the plaintiffs' claims in each lawsuit and contend that they have not acted in an unlawful manner. The class action plaintiffs, EEOC, Gold'n Plump and TWC have agreed to settle the lawsuits.

A. Class Action Lawsuits

The Court has certified a Plaintiff Settlement Class in the class action lawsuit, defined to include all former, current, and future Muslim, hourly, nonexempt production line employees of Gold'n Plump or The Work Connection who have worked, now work, or in the future work in live receiving, evisceration, and second processing at Gold'n Plump's poultry processing facilities in Cold Spring, Minnesota or Arcadia, Wisconsin (the "Facilities") at any time between September 1, 2005 and September 1, 2011, and all former, current, and future Muslim applicants for those positions through Gold'n Plump or TWC at any time between September 1, 2005 through September 1, 2011.

Daud Class Counsel believes that the tentative settlement is fair and in the best interests of the Daud Settlement Class. Daud Class Counsel has investigated the facts relating to the claims made in the Action. That investigation has included reviewing and analyzing many documents.

Daud Class Counsel recommends this tentative settlement based upon: (1) the equitable relief to be provided the Daud Settlement Class; (2) their investigation; (3) having assessed the likelihood of prevailing at trial and the range of money damages which ultimately might be established and recovered, or other relief obtained; and (4) after taking into account the likelihood that this litigation, if not now settled by voluntary agreement among the parties, would be further protracted and involve complex issues of fact and law, as well as other issues relating both to liability and to damages, and the other uncertainties and risks inherent in litigation.

B. EEOC Class Action

The EEOC has defined a settlement class for monetary relief to include all current and former Muslim applicants for employment or employees of Gold'n Plump or TWC who worked or work at Gold'n Plump's facilities at any time on or after September 1, 2005 through the Preliminary Approval Date ("EEOC Settlement Class"). In addition, the EEOC has agreed to specific injunctive relief for the Charging Parties and similarly situated Muslim employees and applicants because of their race, religion and national origin during the period of September 1, 2005 through the Term of the Consent Decrees. The Term of the Gold'n Plump Consent Decree is three years and the Term of the TWC Consent Decree is two years. The EEOC concluded, after investigation and after carefully considering the relevant circumstances and the applicable law, that it would be in the public's best interest to settle this matter on the agreed-upon terms. The EEOC believes that the settlement would be in the public interest because it would assure that the benefits reflected in this Notice are obtained.

WHAT YOU MAY BE ENTITLED TO RECEIVE UNDER THE PROPOSED SETTLEMENTS

A. Injunctive Relief

Under the proposed class action settlement and EEOC Consent Decree, Gold'n Plump shall reasonably accommodate Somali Muslim prayer by providing all Daud Settlement Class members who work in day shift second processing at the facilities a paid 10-minute prayer break during the Dhuhr prayer window (defined in the Settlement Agreement as the period commencing five minutes prior to the start of the Dhuhr prayer as specified on the Islamicfinder.org website and ending three minutes after the start of the Asr prayer as specified on the Islamicfinder.org website for Cold Spring, Minnesota and Arcadia, Wisconsin, respectively) on those days when some part of the Dhuhr prayer window does not fall during the rest break provided in the first four hours of the day shift or the lunch break that is between the end of the fourth hour and the end of the fifth hour of the day shift, and by providing all Daud Settlement Class members who work in night shift second processing at the facilities a paid 10-minute prayer break during the Fajr prayer window (defined in the Settlement Agreement as the period commencing five minutes prior to the time indicated for the start of the Fajr prayer on the Islamicfinder.org website and ending three minutes after "Sunrise" as specified on the Islamicfinder.org website for Cold Spring, Minnesota and Arcadia, Wisconsin, respectively) on those days when some part of the Fajr prayer window does not fall during the rest break provided in the first four hours of the night shift or the lunch break that is between the end of the fourth hour and the end of the fifth hour of the night shift. Gold'n Plump may determine in its sole discretion when the prayer breaks occur. The 10-minute time period allowed shall include any time necessary to don and doff any gear, to wash and to walk from the processing line to the place where Daud Settlement Class members perform their prayers, to perform the prayer rituals, to walk back to the processing line, to wash or sanitize and to re-don any gear. Up to ten times per year per shift per plant, the break may be provided outside of the applicable prayer window as defined herein for specific reasons such as USDA or equipment issues, times of emergency or to avoid moving the break time within ten days of daylight/standard time changes, and such deviation will not constitute a breach of the settlement agreement but is within the scope of the reasonable accommodation provided. The religious accommodation for ritual Muslim prayer for any Muslim hourly nonexempt processing employee not working in day or night shift second processing who desires a prayer break is to request a transfer to second processing. Transfers will be handled in accordance with Gold'n Plump's transfer policy. Daud Settlement Class members not assigned to second processing may have to wait for a period of time until a position opens up in second processing to receive a transfer to day or night shift second processing.

The foregoing accommodation shall be the sole religious accommodation available to Daud Settlement Class members for ritual Muslim prayer during work hours. All employees, including those waiting for an accommodation, must comply with all work rules including that, except for authorized breaks, employees may not leave the processing line during work hours for the purpose of praying, or any other reason except on an emergency basis. It is expressly understood that discipline pursuant to Gold'n Plump's disciplinary policies may issue if work rules are violated.

B. Monetary Payment

Pursuant to the EEOC Consent Decree, you may be eligible for a monetary payment if the settlement is approved by the Court. The various categories of claimants eligible for payment are delineated fully in the proposed Consent Decree. The categories include EEOC settlement class members establishing to EEOC's satisfaction that during the relevant time period they (1) were not hired because they were unwilling to handle pork, (2) left employment because prayer accommodation was denied, (3) were disciplined or terminated for praying during an emergency bathroom break or unscheduled absence from work area, (4) sought and were denied a prayer accommodation. The amount of your payment will depend on the answers that you give on the attached claim form and the number of claims received. Defendants are contributing a total of $365,000 to the Claim Fund.

In order to receive any money, you will be required to sign a release and waiver of your Title VII claims against Gold'n Plump and/or TWC. But you do not have to sign the release and waiver until after you have submitted your claim form (if you choose to submit one) and after the Court holds a hearing about the settlement.

1. Claims Process. To receive any payment from the Claim Fund, claimants must complete the Claim form that is attached to this Notice. The EEOC will determine the amount of the payment after consideration of the Claims submitted to it.

2. Claims Deadline. Claim forms must be postmarked by December 19, 2008. Any claim form received after that date shall not be considered timely. Failure to submit a timely Claim form shall disqualify a claimant from receiving any payment from the Claim Fund. Claim forms must be mailed to:

Nicholas J. Pladson
Trial Attorney
EEOC
Suite 720
330 Second Avenue South
Minneapolis, MN 55401

A postage-paid return envelope is included with this Notice and claim form.

3. Notification of Payment of Settlement Proceeds. If you submit a timely Claim form, the EEOC will notify you at the address you list on your Claim form of the amount that it proposes you be paid from the settlement proceeds. This notification will take place before a hearing on the fairness of the proposed Consent Decree.

You should consult with your own tax advisor concerning the tax effects of any payment you receive.

C. Attorneys' Fees

Subject to Court approval, defendants have agreed to pay counsel for the Daud Named Plaintiffs and the Daud Settlement Class ("Daud Class Counsel") up to $985,000 in attorneys' fees and costs and expenses in connection with the class action. Daud Class Counsel and the Daud Named Plaintiffs have agreed not to seek any additional award of fees, costs, or expenses either from defendants or from any of the sums to be paid to Daud Settlement Class members under the proposed EEOC Consent Decree.

D. Release of Claims

If the settlements are finally approved, the claims of all members of the Daud Settlement Class against defendants will be dismissed with prejudice, and all members of the Daud Settlement Class will release defendants and be permanently barred from hereafter suing or seeking any other relief from defendants (as it is defined in the Settlement Agreement and Releases) with respect to the issues raised in the Actions, including any lawsuit, charge or claim you have pending against defendants alleging violations of 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1985, or 1986, Title VII, the Minnesota or Wisconsin human rights statutes, or any other claims arising out of or related to defendants' discrimination against or failure to accommodate Muslim religious practices during the class period. Further, only those claimants who sign a release and waiver of their claims under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 against Gold'n Plump and TWC will receive a payment from the settlement proceeds. A copy of the Release and Waiver is included with this Notice.
