EDITORIAL YOUR PAGEANT.

It is your Pageant, just as much yours as you will let it be. Here is your first chance to help us advertise. There will be a great many visitors in Ithaca these next few weeks. Will you interest them in the Pageant, tell them of its purpose, which is, to raise money for the Dormitory Fund, of the costumes, grounds etc. When the Pageant comes off and each of you have some part in it, you will be anxious for a large audience. Here is an opportunity to help realize it.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT.

No Mass Meeting today as was printed in weekly calendar by mistake.

Mass Meeting Monday at 7:30. Place to be announced in Saturday's Bulletin.

Prof. Kimball, Chairman of Faculty Meeting on Student Affairs, will speak.

Executive committee approved of petition that girls may sign 11 o'clock for skating and tobogganing.
