

Damon Clark

Web Bio

Information

Biography

---

Biographical Statement

Before arriving at Cornell and the Department of Policy Analysis and Management in the College of Human Ecology Damon Clark was a visiting Assistant Professor in the Department of Economics at Princeton University. Clark's areas of focus are education economics, labor economics and public economics.

Professional

---

Research

---

Current Research Activities

I am working on various research projects, as discussed in "Goals and Initiatives".

Extension

---

Education

---

Education

- B.A., Economics, Newcastle University;
- M.Phil., Economics, Nuffield College, University of Oxford
- Ph.D., Economics, Nuffield College, University of Oxford

Courses

---

Websites

---

Related Websites

<http://damon.clark.human.cornell.edu/index.htm>

Administration

---

Publications

---

Selected Publications

“Do Recessions Keep Students in School? The Impact of Youth Unemployment on Enrolment in Post-Compulsory Education in England”. Economica, 78 (311), 523-545, July 2011.

“The Impacts of Tougher Education Standards: Evidence from Florida” (with Ed See, UF graduate student), Economics of Education Review, 30(6), 1123-1135, December 2011.